Enrollment Sets Record

Enrollment at Fresno Junior College has again climbed to a new high as 1,210 students have enrolled in day courses. The 44 night classes are also heavily loaded with 933 students, which brings the total for the first week to 2,143 students.

Mrs. Lena M. Fuller, the registrar, stated that of these students, 926 are full time students, 223 are enrolled part time and 61 are part time students from the Fresno city high schools. The 993 night students include 476 in 15 business and general education division courses, and 437 in 29 trade and industrial education classes, including 142 in pre-employment classes and 295 in apprentice and trade extension.

Stuart M. White, president of FJC, announced late registration can be accepted by the school in most regular courses without grade penalty; however some classes are closed.

To give an example of the school's growth there were 1,557 enrolled in the fall of '53; there were 1,311 enrolled two years ago.

FJC Adds 8 To Faculty

Fresno Junior College's eight new faculty members were introduced at the assembly last Friday by Stuart M. White, president.

Four have transferred from other schools in the Fresno City Unified School District. They include Curtis E. Lackey, B. Ivan Belman, Dr. H. Brett Melendy, and Franz H. Weinschenck.

The other new faculty members are: Miss Audrey N. Little, Mrs. Caryl Houck, Dean H. Larsen, and Chester S. Garrison.

Lackey will be FJC's apprenticeship training co-ordinator, and he will teach a class in industrial mathematics. Belman will teach mechanical and engineering drawing, machine shop, and industrial physics. Melendy will teach English, philosophy, and history.

Weinschenck will teach English and speech for FJC, and he will also advise the annual staff.

Miss Little will teach typing, shorthand, business machines, and orientation classes. Mrs. Houck will handle home economics classes. Larsen will instruct vocational welding classes. Garrison will teach radio classes in FJC's shops.

Fifty-Seven Students Pass English Placement Exam

PRESIDENT
... Stuart White

Results of the English placement exams for the Fresno Junior College showed a five to seven percent increase over last year in the number of students passing it. Forty-seven students passed the test.

Archie Bradshaw, director of guidance, stated that this increase definitely shows that the high schools are doing a fine job.

MISS WILKINSON HIGHEST

Out of a possible seventy-five, seventy-four was the highest score made—and this by Barbara Wilkinson, a Roosevelt High School graduate.

The examination covered vocabulary, speed of comprehension, level of comprehension, mechanics of expression, effectiveness of expression and reading comprehension.

Six students going beyond the college graduate level in the Nelsen Denny Reading Test are as follows: Audrey Willingham, Carolyn Sherry, Theresa Magdalena, Robert Helsel, Jim Southerland, and John Villalva.

47 PASS TEST

Those passing the test were Robert Alexander, Donald Anderson, Alfreda Barton, Diana Buckland, Norma Buffalo, Monte Byrd, Arthur Carpentier, Sandy Civiello, Sandra Conklin, Peggy Conn, Virginia Crane, Shirley Duncan, Eugene Durbana, Lata Fairfield, Fred Falco, Carole Feaver, Carolyn French, Tim Garner, Ray E. Garrison, Ella Hallock, June Hallock, Robert Helsel, Carol Hill, Leo Hofer, Patsy Ingram, Evelyn King, Glenna Lawrence, Theresa Magdalena.

HANS WATCHES GAME, WIFE IS BUSY ALSO

It's a long pass and he caught it on the 20, he's past the 15 yard line mark, past the 10, past the 5, and he's in the end-zone, and it's a son for Hans Wiedenhoefer.

While he was watching the COS-Modesto game Wiedenhoefer's wife presented him with a five pound, nine ounce boy, Hans, Junior.

White Extends Cordial Welcome

To all new and returning students at Fresno Junior College, I am happy to extend a most cordial welcome from the faculty and administration. As a result of our increased enrollment this year we feel assured and pleased that the students have confidence in our college and are taking advantage of the opportunities that are offered.

Some of the facilities in our school are limited; yet the whole-hearted cooperation of our students is gratifying and we know that all will take a personal pride in helping us grow toward the future and the plans for a new campus.

I urge each student to do his best, keep up with class assignments, attend classes regularly, and give student body officers the support they deserve.

May you enjoy your year at Fresno Junior College.

Stuart M. White
President, FJC

933 In Night Classes

Enrolled in Fresno Junior College's extended day classes are 933 night students, according to Mrs. Lena M. Fuller, registrar.

Ten Students Receive Scholarship Awards

President Stuart M. White of the Fresno Junior College announced scholarship awards to ten students, eight of whom are freshmen.

Archie Bradshaw, scholarship committee chairman, said a number of other awards will be announced by his committee later.

EDITOR RECEIVES AWARD

A second year student receiving a scholarship is Margaret S. Hernandez, who is receiving an award given by the Fresno Press Club. She is a journalism major and editor of the Rampage, FJC's student newspaper. She is a graduate of the Central Union High School.

The scholarship of the Fresno City Schools Employees, Local 1206 of the American Federation of Labor, goes to Calvin Fox, a Roosevelt High School graduate, who is majoring in criminology.

FLORES IS PE MAJOR

Tommy Flores, a Sanger Union High School graduate, receives the award of the Fresno Technical High School Alumni Association. He is majoring in physical education.

Dorothy Johnson, a graduate of the Sanger Union High School, receives a scholarship award given by the J. Eckle Starnes Co.

A scholarship award offered by the Kiwanis Club goes to James Call, a graduate of the Edison High School. Call has named industrial engineering as his field of study.

Five of the awards are being made by the Fresno Central Labor Council of the AF of L in memory of the late Chester H. Carey.

$50 OFFERED TO ROWE

Gwendolyn Rowe received a $50 scholarship award offered her by the James Ranch Grange No. 628, who are a group of businessmen and ranchers of the San Joaquin Valley.

Miss Rowe, 17, has chosen her major in pre-nursing. She comes from Mendota, and is a graduate of the Tranquillity Union High School. Her alma mater records show that she was listed among the top third of her class.

The AF of L scholarships go to Robert Alexander and Barbara Wilkinson, both Roosevelt High School graduates; Stanley Tusan and Tad Tsukida, both Sanger Union High School graduates; and H. Henderson Baber, a Washington Union High School graduate. Their majors include Alexander, liberal art; Miss Wilkinson, business; art; Tsukida, biology; and pre-dental.

Nursing Students Will Graduate

Graduation exercises for the fifteen students who have completed one year of vocational nursing at FJC will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the FJC library.

This experience has included seven months of nursing practice at the Fresno County Hospital and the Community Hospital.

The program includes a student participation address by Emma Price, entitled "The Vocational Nurse and Her Community" and the main address by Colonel Joseph I. Fraser, assistant director, Civil Defense Program, Region 6, entitled "The Role of the Nurse in Civilian Defense."

The members of the graduating class are Zenida M. Reinhardt, Emma Price, Margaret M. Pipkin, Shirley Lee Fearnside, Josephine Lonisa Davis, Florence Evalena Holland, Alberta Kelly, Genevieve Huey, A. E. Harroh, Beulah Moore, Mamie Purgason, Bernice Morrow, Virginia Palacios, Cruz Herlinda Camacho and Jimmie Lee Fletcher.

Their instructors for this year of training were Mrs. Ann Thompson, R.N., Mildred Bosteder, R.N., clinical instructor, county hospital, Mrs. Wynafred Blaser, R.N., clinical instructor, Community Hospital and Phil Collins, anatomy instructor.

STUDENT PREXY

PREXY GIVES STUDENTS BEST WISHES

On behalf of the student council, I would like to welcome all students to the fall semester at Fresno Junior College. With the largest enrollment in the history of FJC, this should be our finest year to date.

The key to a successful year in college is participation by all students in all extra-curricular activities offered here. If each and every student participates in as many activities as possible not only will they be helping themselves, but also the college.

The opportunities for a good year are here. Take advantage of them and the reward will show itself measured by the efforts contributed.

Dean Lee
Student Body President

New Bungalows Ready

Stuart M. White, president of the Fresno Junior College, said he thinks classes will move into the four new bungalows by Wednesday.

Paper Begins Seventh Year

The Fresno Junior College paper, the Rampage, begins seventh year of publication today.

The newly appointed editor is Margaret S. Hernandez, who was assistant editor of the Rampage last spring.

The other positions are Mary Brumfield, business manager; Barbara Lee Wilkinson, assistant business manager; Karlo Demoorjian, advertising manager; Jack Handjian, assistant advertising manager and Betty Lee, national advertising manager.

Mary Fiorentino, news editor, Darlene Grenfell, exchange editor and Ella Papagni, feature editor.

The circulation department is headed by Glenn Woolley, and Ralph Throneberry is chief photographer.

Reporters on the staff are Bobbie Burton, Grace Pepe, Alfred Copus, Cecil Tange, Jewell Goldston, Robert Bangs, Eleanor Franco and Dewey Kee.

Several other students are in the process of signing up on the staff.

Students who wish to join the staff newspaper may contact P. A. Smith, journalism adviser in Room S.

Published weekly by the journalism students of the Fresno Junior College, 1430 O Street, Fresno, California, and composed at the Central California Typographic Service, phone 3-3001. Unsigned editorials are the expression of the editor.

Feel Tired, Bored? Take A Pep Pill

How do you feel at the end of almost two Fresno Junior College school weeks?

Some students may be bored with the same old routine of academic courses in just coming to school to stuff themselves full of knowledge. Yet others may still be dazed or confused, running around like lost lambs not knowing that school is what you make it.

Numerous activities and organizations depend on your interest and attendance to be successful. Take for instance the student council. They are put into office to represent the student body and only with your support will they keep the wheel of government running smoothly.

So take an active part in school activities and give your loyalty to your new and better alma mater, FJC.

Fresno JC Yearbook Has 5 Year Comeback

Plans are being formulated for the Fresno Junior College's yearbook for 1955. This will be the first yearbook the college has had since 1950.

The backing up of the student body on its sales will mean whether the yearbook will be a great success or a failure. A successful year will mean that students can be assured of having a yearbook in the years to follow.

The preparation of the volume is the responsibility of the Journalism 10 class, who announced that the price will be only $2.50 cash with a student body card and $3.50 on time with a $1 deposit. The balance must be paid by February 1, 1955.

Don't be sorry later. If you haven't bought your copy yet, do so today. Subscriptions will be on sale in Room S-10 on Tuesdays and Thursdays between 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. Purchases may also be made by the yearbook staff members.

Make this a successful year and buy your copy to back up and college.—ELLA PAPAGNI

Fresno JC Offers Six New Courses

The new courses, varying from music to journalism, are being offered at FJC this fall. According to President Stuart M. White, all six have been approved by the Fresno City Board of Education.

The orchestra, taught by C. Lowell Spencer, will highlight the classics and semi-popular selections.

One prepares students for the certified professional secretaries' national examination and is taught by several members of the business staff, and the other, business projects, is designed for students who want to study various business fields in Fresno and is taught by Stanley Bennett.

English AX and English 20 are two new English courses being offered. Franz H. Weinschenk, who will teach English AX, said, "This course is designed to help those students who can benefit by a great deal of practice in English fundamentals." English 20 is a course in library science to help students get acquainted with the library.—JEWEL GOLSTON

First Assembly Produces New Attendance Record

President Stuart M. White of the Fresno Junior College, the main speaker, welcomed 1,200 day students, a new attendance record, to the campus for the 1954-55 school year last Friday at FJC's first assembly in the Fresno Memorial Auditorium.

Dean Lee, FJC student body president, who presided, introduced Edwin C. Kratt, superintendent of the city schools, who wished the new students a successful year and who introduced members of the board who were present, including Mrs. Margaret R. Robinson, president of the Fresno City Board of Education; George W. Turner, Mrs. Geraldine R. Wheeler, and Dean James M. Malloch.

Kratt also introduced Erwin A. Dann, assistant superintendent of city schools in charge of secondary education.

President Stuart M. White introduced new members of the faculty and announced scholarship winners, and spoke on "What Is a College For?" White said the many curricula at FJC are aimed in four directions at the same time: to help the student to develop essential skills necessary to competent living, to initiate a systematic exploration of the world in which life is lived, to work at a technique for an examination of the meaning of things, and vocational exploration. He also praised the value of extracurricular activities.

Dean Lee introduced several members of the student council and other student leaders, who spoke briefly on campus activities.

Fred Hall talked on the Rambler, FJC's first yearbook since 1950; Ellen Tally spoke on opportunities for coeds to be pep girls at athletic games; Karlo Demoorjian, rally committee chairman, urged students to join the rally committee and attend the games; Bob Bangs, temporary chairman of the 13th year students, emphasized getting organized. States Hines and Paula Perry presented Sam the Ram, the students' mascot.

Petticoats Will Be Seen Under Fall Apparel

Another fall semester has arrived at the Fresno Junior College, and it won't be very long until the females on campus start to wear their fall apparel.

This season the fashions are somewhat new and different. On the very popular list there will be the very full skirts of flannels and tweeds, which are worn with dark petticoats of fall shades, which add that very full look to the outfit.

The imported Italian knit sweaters are something very new, coming in scoop necklines, baby turtle necks, and a variety of very new shades. These sweaters look very smart with those new long beads to match.

Shirt blouses will be even more popular this year, especially worn with the new large cuff-links and very wide belts.

The new box-suits which are being shown this season are very practical for college wear and college football games. The skirts are pencil slim with a small kick pleat and the jackets are box style which also can be worn very dressy.

BOOKSTORE FURNISHES STUDENTS' FACILITIES

The Fresno Junior College Student Association Bookstore, located in Room S-23, furnishes students with supplies, books, confections, cigarettes, and mementos of the school.

All books used in Fresno Junior College may be purchased at the store.

The bookstore is open during normal days from 7:45 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday for the day students and 6:45 to 8:30 for the night students on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

You have to be a member of Associated Student Body in order to use the facilities of the bookstore. The profits go into the Students' Association Fund.

Hungry? Run In To Ramble Inn

Hungry or thirsty? "Welcome to the Ramble Inn," says Mrs. Nina Stradel, manager, and Mrs. Johanna Frieberger, assistant manager of the Ramble Inn.

The Inn, a very popular student "hangout" is in Room S-21 and is open from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily. Students and staff members are invited to try the snack shop's specialties as well as the low priced lunches. The specialties include five-cent coffee and "delicious," tasty hamburgers for only 30 cents. Sandwiches as well as salads, soft drinks and ice cream concoctions are also served.

Mrs. Stradel wishes to thank the student body for their wonderful patronage they are giving the Ramble Inn, and hopes they will continue to do the same.

Rams To Meet LA Saturday

By ALFRED COPUS

The Fresno Junior College will portray its always potentially strong football team for the first time in the 1954 campaign against the equally strong Los Angeles Valley Monarchs Saturday night. The game, starting at 8 p.m., will be played in the Van Nuys High School Stadium at 6535 Cedros Avenues, Van Nuys.

The Monarchs are supposed to have one of the strongest teams in the history of the school, but FJC is reputed to be stronger in most departments than it was last year when it slipped past the Monarchs 14-12.

Los Angeles was second best to Bakersfield in the Metropolitan Conference last year. FJC also made news last year by taking its fourth straight Central California Junior College Athletic Association championship.

AL HUNT IS LA COACH

Al Hunt, head coach at LA, had over 60 prospects to choose his first string line-up from. The Monarchs have a surprisingly heavy team.

FJC Coach Hans Wiedenhofer has a fine first string made up of veterans and last year's leading high school players.

Two former high school players made first string for the half-back positions, Eddie Jordan and Henderson Baber.

FJC VETERANS IMPROVE

FJC's veteran tackles are reported to have improved since last year. They are Charles Ratliff and Tom Ryan.

Tom Flores, the Sanger High School star who last year led his team to many lopsided victories, is Wiedenhofer's choice for the quarterback position.

FOX IS NO. 1 FULL-BACK

Calvin Fox, who last year made all-league at Roosevelt High School in Fresno, is the No. 1 full-back.

Guards Allan Eldred, veteran, and Frank Fiorentino show great ability. Fred Snyder and Jerry Tate will be playing the end positions.

At center, all-conference Don Kloppenburg will be again on the FJC roster.

35 MEMBERS MAKE TRIP

There will be thirty-five members of the squad making the trip. Wiedenhofer has a fine bunch of reserves. Don Birkle, a Central High School player, looks fine at the quarterback spot. Leon Williams, formerly of Chowchilla High School, has been a stand out on defense since scrimmage has started.

FJC SPORTS

By MARVIN LUTZ

Over the week end I managed to see College of Sequoias whip Modesto, 35 to 13. COS should be a strong contender along with Reedley and other conference members for the '54 conference title.

Reedley got by Monterey Peninsula, 26 to 14. Slippery halfback Hank Vasquez of Sanger scored four times to lead the Reedley JC Tigers to their victory over Monterey Peninsula College Lobos Saturday night in Monterey. Vasquez scored on runs of 12, 13, and 10 yards and took a pass from QB Jim Youngblood for another Tiger touchdown.

Halfback Pete Rogalsky set up most of the score with fine running including a 39 yarder.

All this should create a greater interest in getting more students to attend at Fresno JC games and others in the CCJCAA Conference.

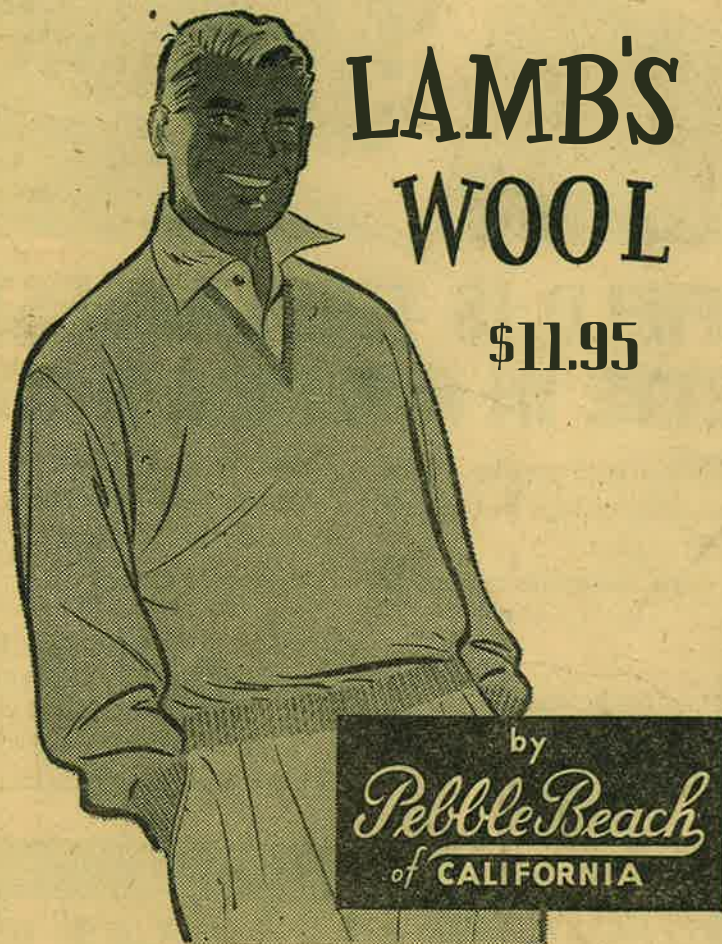

I am hoping to see a good number of you down at Van Nuys Saturday night when Fresno JC plays Los Angeles Valley College. More of you should see the three home games of FJC this year. They are with COS, West Contra Costa, and San Bernadino JC in that order.

ASSOCIATED MEN STUDENTS
The Associated Men Students held their election of fall officers yesterday in the main hall.

The newly elected officers are Brent Freeman, president; Boyd Deel, vice-president; Bruce Miner, treasurer; and Ronald Coviello, secretary.

Robert Moxley, last spring's AMS president, supervised the election.

13th YEAR

The 13th year of the Fresno Junior College is having a get acquainted meeting today at 12 noon in Shop 6.

Nominations for officers will be held at the meeting. Bob Bangs is acting as temporary chairman.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The Future Business Leaders of America will have their second meeting toward filling requirements toward membership of the club.

Nominations for election of officers will be held at the third meeting.

RALLY COMMITTEE

The Rally Committee is rapidly getting organized this fall.

Karlo Demoorjian, commissioner of rallies, urges all students to join the club. Meetings are held every Tuesday at noon in Shop 6.

City Board Accepts Shop

Four members of the Fresno City Board of Education inspected and accepted the new $193,000 Fresno Junior College shop August 26.

The new shop is on Fairview Avenue behind the Edison High School and has a floor space of 20,000 square feet. It is now holding classes in both day and night courses.

The shop holds classes in automobile mechanics, automatic transmissions and welding. A second FJC shop building nearby houses classes in automobile body and fender work.

The instructors who teach in the Fairview Avenue building are Charles Coffman, auto mechanics and automatic transmissions; Joseph Woodman, auto mechanics, and Dean Larsen, vocational welding, who is a new FJC staff member.

The corrugated steel structure was built by the Harris Construction Company. Walter Wagner was the architect. The building has a wooden roof and a radiant type heating system, which includes more than a mile of pipe covered with concrete to carry steam to warm the floor. The foundation is also concrete.
