Talent Show Proves To Be Greatest Show On Earth

By MILDRED SHAW

Curtain time for the greatest show on earth will be 10 a.m. Wednesday morning in the Memorial Auditorium. This show is sponsored by the rally committee with Sandra Simms and Al Herrera as co-chairmen.

The show will feature colorful customs from other countries, comedy acts from big time stage shows, and favorite songs from the all time hit parade. This show will take you around the world with songs and dances.

It will all start in Hollywood with a famous band playing a real nifty number that will keep your feet tapping. Then the scene shifts to New York and the famous street of shows—Broadway.

From Broadway we cross the Atlantic Ocean and head for France and a cabaret where the high-spirited girls of Paris do the fast and furious can-can, which will leave you breathless. Back to New Orleans we come, and we learn how a tradition began—the sad and yet beautiful birth of the blues.

This time we go out toward the Pacific and a little island called Hawaii. Here, we learn about a girl, a real sweet girl named "Honey Bun." As we say aloha to the island of Hawaii, we turn our sights to Japan and see the quaint but yet colorful dances which has been a tradition throughout the ages.

In Italy the romantic setting of a beautiful country makes us want to throw pizza pies at each other, and it makes us say, That's Amore?

Then we go to Brazil where we see the fast and rhythmic dance that will make your heart pound with every beat of the music.

Home we come to California, and we enjoy the song and dances we all know.

This is what you'll see Wednesday morning, also some talent laden people from Fresno, Roosevelt, Edison, and San Joaquin Memorial high schools will be there too.

Come one, come all to the greatest show on earth.

Spring Brings Different Fads

By ELLAN PAPAGNI

The new spring fashions this season consist of many different styles and fads.

A fad with the girls this year are the new, man-tailored shirt blouses. The blouses come in all different colors, prints and stripes. They have that man effect especially when they are worn with various cuff links, which also are new fads.

Linen will become more popular this spring, even more so since linen is coming out in prints, stripes and polka dots. The new linen skirts are coming out both with a lot of kick pleats and pencil slim skirts. Matching blouses of print make a very good looking outfit when worn together.

Popular among the accessories will be pastel shoes and matching bags to match the various materials. Matching pastel jewelry is also very smart to wear.

PARINAZ MAFI Iranian student

Parinaz Mafi Likes People

By BRENT FREEMAN

Parinaz Mafi, an Iranian student who is now attending Fresno Junior College is very well known for her pleasing personality and big smile. She came to the US in 1952 and attended a school for English at Berkeley, California.

Miss Mafi came to the US to visit her three brothers, but she liked California so well that she decided to stay. During the time of her English training at Berkeley she met Parviz Mafi, also from Iran. This meeting was not by accident; they were both in love in Iran but did not have the opportunity to marry, but the US presented this opportunity.

Mrs. Mafi is majoring in home economics, and she likes most of all Mrs. Mildred Botsford, the home economics instructor. She is planning to attend Fresno JC for two years and then transfer to Fresno State.

Mrs. Mafi is taking advantage of the education which is possible in the US.

When asked about her dislikes she answered, "I like everything but the hot weather. I like the people of Fresno very much."

After she finishes her education, Mrs. Mafi would like to return to Tehran, the capital of Iran.

Ten Little Hot Rods Went For A Ride

Ten little hotrods were feeling right and fine; One missed a stoplight, and then there were nine. Nine little hotrods were playing at great rate; One turned over, and then there were eight. Eight little hotrods were dreaming of heaven; One really got there, and then there were seven. Seven little hotrods were doing fancy tricks; One didn't signal, and then there were six. Six little hotrods were glad to be alive; One hit a curb, and then there were five. Five little hotrods having fun galore; One lost a wheel, and then there were four. Four little hotrods out on a spree; One had too many, and then there were three. Three little hotrods were driving straight and true; One took a second look, and then there were two. Two little hotrods were brim full of fun; One fell asleep, and then there was one. One little hotrod was still safe and sound; He drives safely, and he's still around.

Rams Third In State Tournament

FJC's First State Tourney Sees Fullerton Crowned State Champs

The most successful cage season in the history of Fresno Junior College was completed Saturday night when the FJC Rams took third place in the California State Junior College Basketball Tournament in Sacramento. The Rams gained their third slot by an impressive victory over East Contra Costa by a 72 to 56 score.

Fullerton Junior College, which downed the Rams 93 to 78 on Friday evening, won the state title by defeating Grant Technical College, 65 to 57.

This was the first state tournament appearance for Fresno, which won the Central California Junior College Association championship by dethroning last year's state champs, the College of the Sequoias.

In their first contest of the tourney the Rams downed a tall and powerful Los Angeles City College quintet by a 72 to 62 margin. The LAC team had defeated the Rams earlier in the season.

The Rams held a 19 to 13 advantage over the LACC squad at the end of the first period of their contest. Odell Johnson was the spark for the Rams as he dropped in eight points during that frame. At the halfway mark the Los Angeles City College cagers had pulled up even with the Rams, and the score was knotted, 36 to 36. In the third frame the Rams took a lead that never changed hands again.

Harvey Green, high scoring FJC forward, walked off with the scoring honors for the evening by collecting 27 points. Johnson was second and Ray Williams third high with 17 and 15 points respectively. George Florentine and Don McIntosh were the high men for LACC with 20 and 15 points in that order.

The Fullerton Hornets exploded the following evening before the Rams realized the game had started. The Hornets racked up 34 points during the first period of the contest. The Fullerton attack was sparked by 6 foot 7 inch center Jim Sterkel, who scored 25 points. He was closely followed by teammates Dave Hall with 22 and Dan Rogers, who hit for 18.

Green, as in the first tourney contest, took the scoring honors for the Rams with 24 points. At this point Green was second only to Sterkel for the number of points scored in tourney play. Sterkel had scored 44 and Green 41. Johnson was second high for the Rams with 16 points.

The Rams took off with a roar the following evening when they met the East Contra Costa Vikings as they marked up 36 points against the Vikings' 19 in the first half of play. In the third stanza both teams scored 16 points, but during the final frame the Vikings tried desperately to overtake the Rams, but didn't have it.

Dennis Rano and Frank Smarzea, both forwards for the Vikings, scored 14 points each to be high scorers for the East Contra Costa quintet.

Green was again the Fresno high scorer as he collected 30 points for his evening's work. Johnson was again second as he scored 11 points.

Fresno's Green was named on the all tournament team along with Jim Gray, Grant Tech, as forwards; Jim Sterkel, Fullerton, at center; Dave Hall and Dan Rogers, Fullerton, at the guards. The second team found Fresno's Don Steitz at one of the guard slots.

Green set a new scoring record for the school when he passed Lloyd Heavin's 1950 mark of 525 points. According to Marvin Lutz, FJC scorer, Green scored a total of 607 points in twenty-nine contests. He averaged 20.9 points per contest. He was fourth high on the free throw percentage as he dropped in 133 out of 180 attempts for a .739 average.

Johnson scored 377 points for the season and averaged 13.0 points per game. Steitz marked up 317 points for his season's total and averaged 10.9 points per contest. Center Williams marked up 302, and guard Leo Coleman hit the nets for 206.

All in all the Rams, under the guidance of new Head Coach Joe Kelly, and composed almost entirely of ex-Edison High cagers, met 29 opponents this season. The Rams scored 2,019 points and averaged 69.6 per contest while their opponents scored 1,854 points for a 63.9 average. The Rams won a total of 20 contests and lost only 9

BASEBALL TEAM TO PLAY RENEGADES

McCarthy's pitching staff seems to be his big worry as he doesn't boast a large or an outstanding crew. Larry Schmitz and Dick Knight are carry-overs from last season. Both Knight and Schmitz turned in creditable performances last year.

Charles Ratliff has turned some fine twirling in this his first year on the mound for the Rams. The only other pitcher McCarthy has is Tony Fragus.

Rams Lose Ten Inning Game And Twin Bill Over Past Week

The Fresno Junior College Rams lost three straight contests this past week on the diamond as they lost a 10 inning affair to Stockton Thursday and a double header to Modesto Saturday.

The Stockton College Mustangs pushed over a run in the tenth frame off the offering of Fresno pitcher Larry Schmitz to squeak out a 7 to 6 practice game victory over the Rams in Stockton last Thursday.

Charlie Ratliff hurled the first six innings and allowed the Mustangs only four runs. The Rams were leading 6 to 4 at the top half of the ninth, but the Mustangs added two more to knot the ball game. The Rams lost their chance when they were unable to score in the top half of the tenth.

Ratliff belted a two run homer in the fourth inning. He and Elton Willis each collected two hits each for the day.

The Modesto Junior College Pirates won both ends of a Saturday afternoon double header, 7 to 4 and 16 to 10, in Modesto.

Big innings by the Pirates were the deciding factors in both contests. In the opener the Pirates scored five runs in a fourth inning outbreak. The Pirates scored five times in the fourth frame of the nightcap also, but they scored seven runs in the sixth stanza.

Modesto's Stan Beasley was the hottest man on the field Saturday as he clobbered two home runs, one in each contest. He batted two for four trips in the first contest and four for four in the second. He scored two runs in the first game and four in the second, and stole two bases.

Ann Nelson, 3335 Hedges Ave., made the best ratings on shorthand tests in Miss Ethel McCormack's classes with only one error on a 60 word per minute test and four errors on an 80 words per minute test.

Rose Marie Mazzilli and Alice Kuramoto ranked second and third, respectively, on the typing test, and Judy Ann Long and Kathleen Weis were second and third in the shorthand examination.

Miss McCormack, FJC's business division chairman, announced the Gregg Publishing Company's New York City office will award pins for typing students who netted 50 words a minute or more, certificates for typing students who netted between 40 and 49 words a minute, and certificates to shorthand students who transcribed their work at a minimum rate of 60 words per minute for five minutes with at least 97 per cent accuracy.

Eighteen typing students will receive pins and 15 will get certificates. Three shorthand students will be awarded certificates for achieving both the 60 and 80 word minimums, and 11 will get certificates for the 60 word test.

New Shop Edifice To Accommodate Heavy Enrollment

Because of a steady increase in enrollment in the trade and industrial education division of Fresno Junior College the Fresno City Schools are erecting a new shop building on Fairview Avenue near the Edison High School campus. Bricklaying, body and fender classes are operated in other buildings on the same site.

Robert P. Hansler, the division's coordinator, said the rapid progress in the building shows it will be available by the fall semester of 1954.

Hansler said FJC now has 1,037 students in the day and evening shop programs, including 424 in day classes and 613 in night courses.

Day program divisions include auto mechanics, body and fender, bricklaying, machine shop, welding, electricity, radio, television, motor winding, mill cabinet, carpentry, and cooperative trade training.

The night training, Hansler said, includes about 30 sections in the same trades plus meat cutting, painting and decorating, plastering, plumbing, sheet metal, upholstery, automatic transmissions, and industrial electronics.

THIRTY-SIX STUDENT NURSES TRAIN IN GENERAL HOSPITAL

Thirty-six student nurses of the Fresno County General Hospital School of Nursing are taking their academic training in the Fresno Junior College.

Kenneth Hald, the instructor in charge of the professional nursing program, said all student nurses who have studied at FJC the past five years have passed their state board examinations.

Their FJC courses and instructors include anatomy, physiology, and microbiology, Hald; psychology, John Mock; sociology, Dr. Lucile Williams; and dietetics, Mrs.

Mildred Botsford. They are all first semester students.

Hald said FJC also offers a year course of pre-clinical nursing to qualify candidates to all schools of nursing. Twelve students are now enrolled in this program.

FJC also provides pre-professional majors in medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and public health, preparing students for entrance to medical dentistry or pharmacy schools of universities.

Hald also directs a training program for laboratory technicians and medical receptionists.
