Rams To Play COS Giants

By DON SHROYER

The Fresno Junior College Rams' baseball squad will blow the lid off the 1954 Central California Junior College Athletic Association baseball league when they travel to Visalia tomorrow to meet the Giants of the College of the Sequoias.

Coach Ray McCarthy will be going with Richard Knight on the mound. Freshman righthander Bob Holowaty from Canada will probably get the starting nod for the Giants. Holowaty holds an impressive pitching victory over the FSC Junior Varsity, the first win by the Giants over the JVs in two years.

McCarthy said this week that the Rams' past record is no indication of how the Rams will fare in league action, inasmuch as the Rams have been playing in competition way out of their class.

The Giants are strong in the hitting department with outfielder Bill Findley, third baseman John Tressider, outfielder Corky McFarland and catcher Denny Barber leading the way.

Trade Instructors Attend Conclave

More than 1,100 teachers attended the annual California State Industrial Education Association convention in Fresno Friday and Saturday.

The hosts were the industrial teachers in the Fresno City Schools and the Fresno State College.

Head of the committee was James E. Welden, the director of trade and industrial education for FJC. Assisting him were M. A. Grosse, the chairman of the industrial arts department; Robert Hansler, FJC coordinator of industrial education and Donald Perry, an industrial education teacher in the Yosemite Junior High School.

The trade and industrial education division in the Fresno Junior College, FSC and the senior and junior high schools of the city held exhibits on the mezzanine of the Municipal Auditorium. Commercial displays also were arranged.

Class Visits TV Station

Floyd Quick, FJC instructor, and seventeen students of physics 2B toured KIBD television station last Tuesday afternoon.

The class was shown applications of "electricity," "sound," and "light," which are the three phases of physics that are being studied this semester.

Alpha Gamma Sigma Holds Candlelight Ceremony

The Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Alpha Gamma Sigma, the California junior college honorary fraternity, initiated 16 members in a ceremony held in the Ramble Inn last Friday.

The candlelight ceremony officially initiated the spring semester candidates into the honorary society. Each member was presented with a white rose and a white candle as they signed the register.

The officers conducted the initiation, assisted by Dr. Rolf Ordal and Dr. Lucile Williams, the advisers. The officers include Gerald Bender, president; Patsy Still, vice president; and Joy Hunt, secretary and treasurer.

IDEA IS BORN

The idea to recognize high scholarship of junior college students was conceived by W. T. Boyce, dean of Fullerton Junior College in 1922. He drew up a tentative constitution which was approved at the next meeting. A flat one piece gold pin with an open book shield, a blazing torch, and the words "honor society" written across were selected as the pin.

Finally in 1932, a group selected the motto, "Add to a Good Character, Knowledge and Judgment." They also chose the Greek words Alpha Gamma Sigma as the new name for the society. The design on the pin was modified into a two piece pin with the Greek letters on it.

In 1954 with almost fifty chapters with scholarships available and with their finances on a firm basis, the organization has two honor awards of $200 each and two of $100. These will be given to outstanding men and women graduates of Alpha Gamma Sigma.

NEW MEMBERS

The 16 members who were initiated include Charles Gureghian, Thomas Armenta, Joseph Marcelli, Martin Isler, John Embrey, Sirje Poder, Wilfred Warren, Judy Hawthorne, Louella Williams, Dean Lee, Gladys Popp, Nedra Looney, Jo Ann Monfort, Emma Price, Margaret Pipkin, and Margaret Sisneros.

These students qualified for one semester membership by earning at least 30 grade points for a minimum of 12 units. They must also make a B average. Grade points are computed on the basis of three for each unit of A, two for each unit of B, and one for each unit of C.

Red Key Wins FJC Talent Show

By MARGARET SISNEROS

The Fresno Junior College Red Key won the second annual talent show yesterday. Its name will be engraved on the perpetual trophy.

With Carole Gostanian as Honey Bun, assisted by a group of Hawaiian girls, the Red Key put on a good performance.

BEST ORGANIZED

The best organized and most colorful group was the Nisei Club. The graceful, slow, rhythmical dance entranced the entire audience. With a background that only proved to be native, the Nisei Club also had beautiful silk costumes. This group showed outstanding culture and talent.

The Associated Women Students performed a tricky and fast dance called the can can. The comment is "Sacre Bleu." The Rambling Collegiates, featuring Miss Gostanian, took us to sunny, romantic Italy. The theme "That's Amore," is actual fact.

GREAT MAMBO

In Brazil, the freshman class, with Flora Gonzales and Richard Torres, shook the stage to "Que Rico el Mambo." The choir took us to New Orleans, where the blues really began. The soft, sad, wail of "The Birth of The Blues" could be heard from a dark, quiet cafe. Shirley McNay, assisted by the choir, has a fine voice. A New Orleans dancer, Sandra Simms, did a native dance.

The Newman club took us to a candlelighted, crowded night club in busy New York. Vincent Gordancan sang "Blue Moon." Here's a boy that's got a swell voice.

The Five Jokers, sponsored by the Alpha Gamma Sigma, sang

Robert Moxley Elected Prexy

Robert Moxley was elected president of the Associated Men Students yesterday in an election in the FJC main office.

He succeeds Fred Valenzuela, Jr., who has transferred to Fresno State College.

Floyd White was elected vice president; other candidates were Boyd Deel and Robert Curran. The race for treasurer was called off because Byron Steinert has not vacated the office.

Ronald Coviello, the secretary, Franklin Antoyan, Harold Hancock, Luis Gonzales, and Rush DeMello were the election officials.

The new vice president will succeed Nick Di Liddo, who has withdrawn from school. AMS officers are usually elected for one year, but advisor Jackson Carty said in the future years officers will be elected for an entire year to coincide with other FJC organizations.

Practice Your Heritage

Students, are you qualified to run for student body office? If you are it's time you began to do something about it. Election procedures will begin April 5, when petitions can be obtained from Mrs. Lena Fuller, the registrar.

Remember, a last minute campaign isn't as effective as a well prepared one.

If you do decide to run, it would be well to remember you are running because you are privileged. If you have all the qualifications necessary, there is nothing that can stop you, except the voters. Just have a sound and beneficial platform and you will succeed.

We live in a country that is democratic, but it won't be if you do not apply your heritage here at Fresno Junior College.

By BRENT FREEMAN

James Dinsdale, a former superintendent for McCrory Electric Company, is now teaching radio and television at Fresno Junior College.

Dinsdale has worked in the field of electricity for the past 30 years. His former electrical experience includes many interesting jobs. He served four years in the U.S.N. and he also installed motion pictures for three years.

Dinsdale was Chief Warrant Officer in the navy. He worked on projects such as sub-chasers or light cruisers with radar equipment in New Zealand. His main job was the installation of radar and other electrical equipment.

Dinsdale said, "Fresno Junior College is my interest and life. I also enjoy working with the boys in my shop classes." Dinsdale finds radio and TV not only his job but his life.

Asuncion Abella Hopes To Become School Teacher

By NORA BARTON

Education is Asuncion Abella's major and when she receives her degree from the Fresno State College, she hopes to return to her native country to teach.

Miss Abella, 21, is from the Luzon Province of Ilocos Norte, Philippines and arrived in this country in 1950. After attending the Edison High School for three months, she enrolled at the Fresno Junior College where she will receive her associate of arts degree in June.

Miss Abella states, although the weather here is not to her liking, she has found the friendliness of the people here overwhelming. She said her instructors and new friends have welcomed her in a friendly and informal way. This, she said, means a lot to someone of another country, who would otherwise feel strange and unhappy.

Miss Abella resides with a married sister in Fresno.

Fashion Styles At Ramble Inn

By ELLA PAPAGNI

Coming into the Ramble Inn at noontime were the female sex of the campus who were adorned in various fashions.

Verna Holt was adorned in a light blue and white striped sports blouse and her navy blue full skirt; with it she wore red accessories.

Sue Sheehan looks exceptionally well in her lavender blouse and purple skirt; with it she wears a gold choker to set off the attire.

BLUE'S IN STYLE

Julietta Shafer was seen in a baby blue blouse with dainty embroidered flowers and a navy blue shirt that buttons down the back.

Molly Williams had on a navy blue tailored jersey dress that surely looks good on her.

Wearing a charcoal tailored jumper with a shell pink blouse is Shirley McNay.

Helen Embry looks very spring like in her white skirt with a baby blue cardigan sweater.

BRIGHT COLORS

Carole Gostanian had on a cute yellow blouse with a colorful blue, yellow and white checked skirt.

Sandra Simms was wearing a white nylon three-quarter length blouse and with it a navy blue gabardine skirt.

Ann Nelson was wearing a very pretty striped skirt with rainbow colors, and completing her outfit she wore a black jersey blouse and black belt.

HAVE YOU TRIED ANY OF THESE?

(ACP)—Following the 10 suggestions from Robert Tyson, of the Hunter College (New York) department of psychology and philosophy, on how to stay in college.

1. Bring the professor's newspaper clippings dealing with his subject. Demonstrates feeling interest and gives him timely items to mention in class. If you can't find clippings dealing with his subject, bring in any clippings at random. He thinks everything deals with his subject.

2. Look alert. Take notes eagerly. If you look at your watch, don't stare at it unbelieving and shake it.

3. Nod frequently and murmur, "How true!" To you this seems exaggerated; to him, it's quite objective.

4. Sit in front, near him. (Applies only if you intend to stay awake.) If you're going to all the trouble of making a good impression, you might as well let him know who you are, especially in a large class.

5. Laugh at his jokes. You can tell if he looks up from his notes and smiles expectantly, he has told a joke.

6. Ask for outside reading. You don't have to read it. Just ask.

7. If you must sleep, arrange to be called at the end of the hour. It creates an unfavorable impression if the rest of the class has left you and you sit there alone, dozing.

8. Be sure the book you read during the lecture looks like a book from the course. If you do math in psychology class and psychology in math class, match books for size and color.

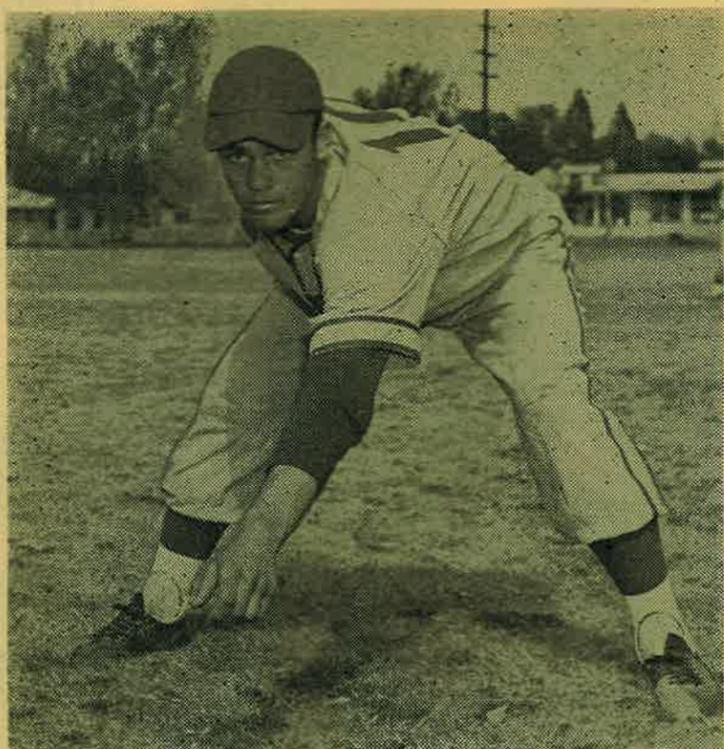

9. Ask any questions you think he

Thinclads Travel To Reedley Today

The Fresno Junior College track picture is not so bright this week as the JC Rams go into their first meet of the season in Reedley today. The Rams lost the star of last year's team, Millard Hampton, who starred in the dashes.

The Rams are slated to partake in a four-way meet in Reedley with Reedley Junior College, the College of Sequoias, and Fresno State College JVs.

Coach Hans Wiedenhoefer announced this week that it is still not too late to join the squad. He feels that the squad needs a lot of help from those who should have joined and have not.

Wiedenhoefer felt the Rams may pick up a few extra points this year in the weights division of the events.

Anyone wishing to join the Ram thinclads should contact Coach Wiedenhoefer in the men's PE office next to the administration office in the gym.

Track Talent Wastes Away At FJC

By DONALD N. SHROYER

It is a shame that a waste of talent should exist in this rapidly progressing school, Fresno Junior College.

A waste exists in the failure of the potential track stars that are walking the campus of our college. The Rams have won their fifth straight Central California Junior College Athletic Association football crown this year, and they won the cage crown just a couple of weeks ago.

It is evident that the Ram thinclads certainly are not going to win the CCJCAA track crown—that is unless there is an immediate response to Fresno Junior College's track coach Hans Wiedenhoefer's call for track candidates.

Yes, it certainly is a shame that the CCJCAA track crown should waste away to another member of the league and not go to such a deserving school as Fresno Junior College—just because there is not esprit de corps.

Rams Lose Lopsided Tilt To Bakersfield Renegades

Coach Joe McCarthy's Fresno Junior College Rams received another sound baseball trouncing from the Bakersfield College Renegades last Thursday in Bakersfield as the Renegades smashed out a 29 to 8 practice contest victory.

The undefeated Renegades banged out 17 hits, collected 11 walks and took advantage of 6 Ram errors to mark up 29 runs. Three of the hits hammered out by the Renegades went for four bases, one for a triple and five for doubles.

McCarthy used Chuck Ratliff and Richard Knight on the mound, while the Bakersfield nine went with Richard Morales and Jim Reynolds doing the twirling.

The Rams got off to a good start in the first half of the first inning when they pushed 3 runs across the plate, but the Renegades bounced right back in the last half and drove in 11 runs. The Rams were not discouraged, however, and marked up another run in the first half of the second stanza and held the Bakersfield nine to no runs in the latter half of that frame.

FRESNO TALLIES FOUR

The third frame saw the Rams go scoreless and the Renegades picking up 2 more runs. The Rams also went scoreless in the fourth as the Renegades broke loose for 8 tallies.

The fifth inning saw the Rams collect 4 runs and the Renegades 7. The Rams were scoreless for the last two frames while the Bakersfield nine picked up one more run in the last half of the sixth.

Frank Solano, Bakersfield Renegade right fielder, smacked out a pair of home runs and drove in six runs while Walter Napier had a homer, a double and a single in five trips to the plate. Bruce Schulz, who was on the receiving end of the Bakersfield hurling, turned in a creditable performance at the plate by rapping out two doubles and two singles in five trips to the plate.

FINE HITTING CONTINUES

Ratliff continued his fine hitting for the Rams as he clubbed out a home run and a double in two official trips to the plate. Mack Sanwo, Fresno's sparkling letterman shortstop, banged out three hits for four trips to the plate as he rapped out a double and two singles.

The Rams will begin their league play tomorrow when the Rams travel to Visalia to meet the College of the Sequoias Giants.

Rampage Staff Goes To Press 'In A Dither'

By MARGARET SCHOTT

The journalism class is in a dither.

Fresno Junior College is putting on a talent show. Everybody is busy. The clubs neglect to elect officers, initiations are postponed, students are excused from class, and the college hums with activity and confusion.

Most confused of all is the journalism class. The Rampage must go to press.

NO ADS

Contrary to the usual job of trimming news to fit the existing space, files are searched, features written up on a moment's notice and advertising salesmen contacted for last minute ads. The Rampage is wide open this week.

Haruo Yamaoka, the editor, mops his brow while Margaret Sisneros, the assistant, dashes madly upstairs in an effort to find out just who all the students in that picture really are.

BUSY INSTRUCTOR

Phil Smith, the instructor, pounds away at his typewriter, answering the questions of students and occasionally stopping to answer the phone.

Mary Firenzo pads the club news while Mildred Shaw gets her assignments typed and completes this week's duties as exchange editor.

Ella Papagni jerks her paper from the typewriter and reaches for another one. Everybody is in a hurry. The pressure is on.

Yes, the journalism class is in a dither.

Sociology Class To Have Speakers

The Monday evening sociology class conducted by Dr. Lucile Williams will have two guest speakers next Monday night.

Sheriff Joseph Tracy will give a talk on criminology and Philip M. Jenkins, assistant probation officer, will give a report on local problems and treatment of juvenile delinquency.

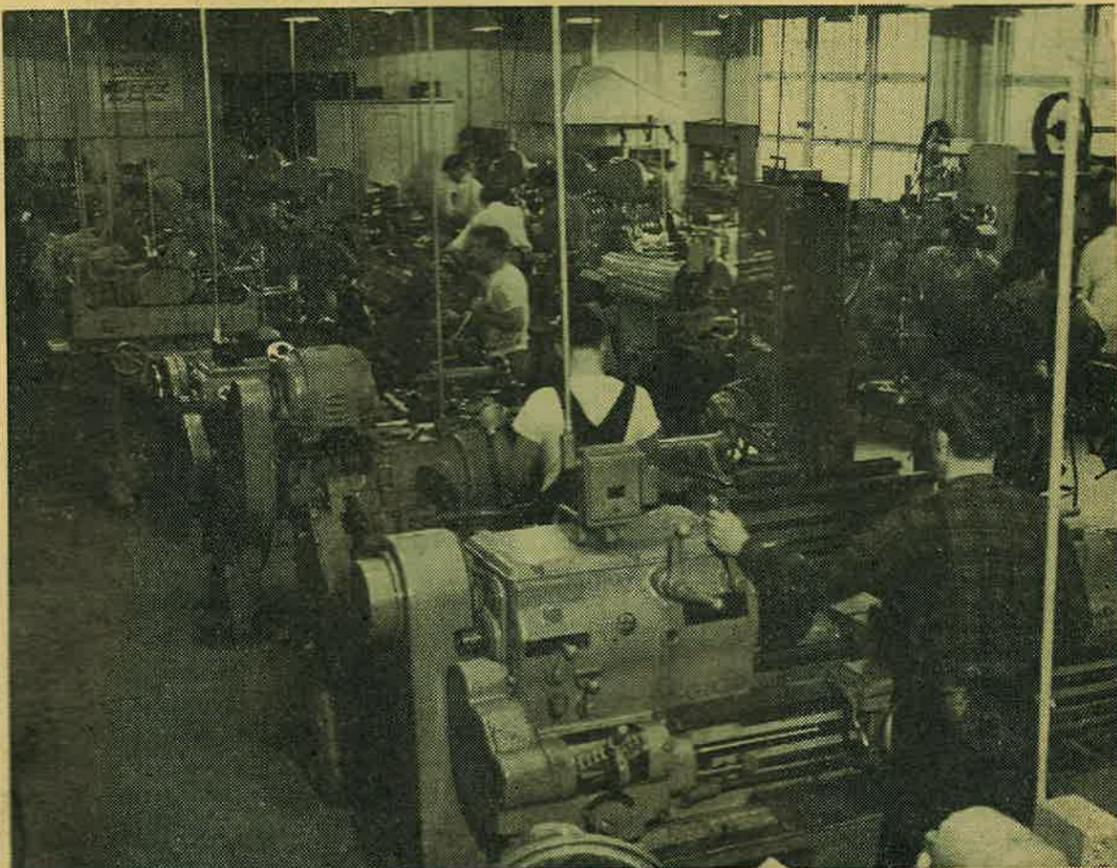

Dr. Williams said anyone interested may attend.

There will be a question and answer period after the talks.

Other students who are planning to attend the conference include Jose Gonzales, treasurer; Shirley McNay, a council member; and Jerry Jackson, freshman class president.

Joseph W. King, the council advisor, will accompany the group. They plan to leave at 6 a.m. April 1 and intend to stop for lunch in San Bernardino. The group plans to be in San Diego before 5 p.m. when the students will attend a meeting, to be followed by a banquet and dance.

Highlights of the next day include a tour of San Diego Bay from 3 to 5 p.m. followed by entertainment. Conference meetings will be held the morning of April 3, and the group will leave for the
