Ram Nine Tangles With Porterville Tomorrow

The Fresno Junior College baseball team will try to add one more win to their one win-one loss Central California Junior College Athletic league record when they take on the Porterville Junior College Pirates at Romain Park tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. The contest will be the Rams' home opener for league action.

FJC Coach Ray McCarthy will probably call on portsider Richard Knight to do the chucking. Knight twirled a fine three hitter against the Reedley Junior College Tigers last Thursday. The Tigers are the CCJCAA defending champions.

The Rams lost their opening contest by a close decision to the College of the Sequoias in Visalia two weeks ago by a 4 to 2 score. The Rams had two men on and only one out in the top half of the ninth inning when the umpire called the contest because of rain.

COS is still undefeated in league action. The Giants edged the Coalinga Falcons last Saturday.

USC Admission Director Visits FJC Tomorrow

John Steinbaugh, University of Southern California associate director of admissions, will be in B-1 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. tomorrow to speak to students who are interested in enrolling at USC.

All students planning to enter the professional schools, and desiring counseling or scholarships should make arrangements with Archie Bradshaw, Fresno Junior College director of guidance, for an appointment any time before 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Bradshaw said that USC recommends that college entrance deficiencies should be cleared at a junior college and that a junior college student should plan to meet the specific entrance requirements of the university he plans to attend.

Cotton Day Dance Proves Successful

Cotton Day at Fresno Junior College was a special event for all students who wore their prettiest cotton dresses and shirts to celebrate the occasion. Gwin Wilson and Sam Duncan were chosen to reign over the noon dance.

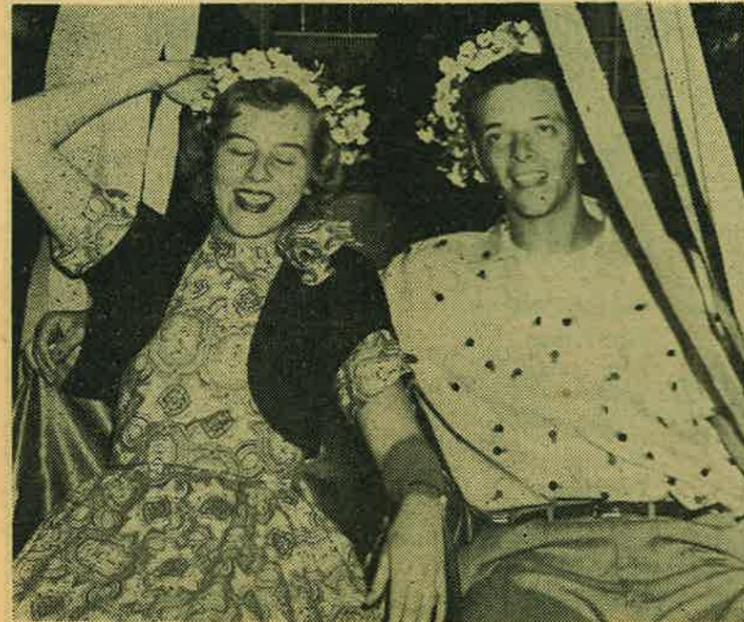

The Associated Women Students sponsored the dance in the library and students danced during the noon hour to the music of the Collegiate Combo. At the dance Miss Wilson and Duncan were crowned with a wreath of small white flowers.

Royal Dance

After the crowning, the king and queen were asked to start off a dance and students present were to follow. Miss Wilson and Duncan were chosen by a method of "who wore the prettiest cotton dress and shirt." Miss Wilson wore a white and navy blue sundress with a blue bolero to set it off. Duncan wore a tan linen shirt with green and brown print.

Selection Team

The judges were Jackson Carty, librarian; Walter Witt, art instructor, and Mrs. Mildred Botsford, home economics instructor. Chairmen for decorations were Loree Briggs, Janice Bryant and Molly Williams.

GUS, EDDIE MOTTER GIVE BLIND SHOW

Gus and Eddie Motter, blind brothers and ex-students at the University of California in Los Angeles, presented the entire gymnastic performance program in the Memorial Auditorium last Thursday.

Eddie Motter, who did the solo, narrated the assembly and showed the students various forms of the hand stand, including how to sit on a chair upside down.

The main attraction had Gus in a prone position lifting Eddie with one hand while he raised himself to a standing position.

The student body free will offering totaled $67.55. It will be used to buy books for the blind.

"The Motter brothers kept the students in suspense as they did their hand stands and other stunts," said Bob Moxley, AMS president, who introduced the brothers.

FJC's Delegation Considers State Conclave Success

By PAT STILL

The seventeenth semi-annual California Junior College Student Government Association Conference, held April 1, 2, and 3 at the Hotel Del Coronado, in Coronado, was considered a great achievement in cooperative student government by the Fresno Junior College delegation.

FJC Student Body President Art Lea said, "The conference proceedings resembled those of our national congress, where orderly debate and parliamentary procedure were used to voice the opinions of all the delegates there."

Five Workshops

Each of the five workshops at the conference were attended by members of the FJC delegation. The workshops and delegates included student government and committees, Art Lea; finance, Joe Gonzales; athletics, Jerry Jackson; and publications and public relations, Pat Still.

During the four hours which these workshops were in session the delegates from the various junior colleges of California exchanged ideas, discussed the problems which affected all of the junior colleges, and prepared resolutions which were presented at the General Assembly.

Entertainment Provided

Entertainment was also provided for all the delegates. A get-acquainted dance was held Thursday night in the Hotel's ballroom. Friday night a San Diego opera group entertained the delegates, and afterwards an informal dance was held.

On the return trip the five Fresno delegates and Joe King, adviser, stopped at the Palomar Observatory, where they were able to see the huge telescope with which the astronomers study the universe.

Fellows! You Are Needed For The Spring Formal

Fellows, this article is for you! As most of you gentlemen know, there is to be a spring formal dance April 30. Here's where you men come in. The girls can't go to the dance as stags, they have to be accompanied by men. So, if you have any gal in mind, son, gulp down the old Adam's apple, wipe your brow, and just ask her if she would go with you. After an hour of waiting she'll give you her answer. She'd just love to go! The best part of the whole dance is that it's free if you have a student body card. You don't have to buy any expensive tickets. Another feature of the dance is the band. It's Lou Monte and his gang. Most of you fellows heard of him and know he has a great band. So what do you say, cat? Let's dig the light fantastic at the Annual Spring Formal Dance, which will be held in the Yosemite Junior High Social Hall.

Joe Gonzales Is Mexico City Bound

By MARGARET SISNEROS
Student Body Treasurer Robert Gonzales plans to enroll at the Mexico City College in Mexico next semester. Gonzales, born in Sanger 24 years ago, went to Kingsburg Union High School and spent four years in the Navy. During his time in the service, he repaired and maintained the navy ships. Master of Arms Gonzales had his most thrilling experiences in Hong Kong. He said he liked the friendly people, the delicious food, the inexpensive clothes, the warm climate and the man-powered rickshaws. Gonzales, a sophomore, works at a local service station and carries 17 units at Fresno Junior College. Southern fried chicken makes his mouth water, and taking pictures takes up most of his time as a Rampage photographer. At present he is a member of the National Guards and is the third one of nine children. Gonzales, who is an accounting major, plans to teach or become a professional sailor. He will get his AA degree in June. He also had a heck of a time at the semi-annual California Junior College Student Government Conference in Coronado. He represented FJC in the finance committee.

New Look Features Petticoats

By ELLA PAPAGNI
Spring has sprung, and Cotton Day at Fresno Junior College was quite colorful with all the latest summer styles being worn around the campus.

Bright cottons and printed linens are very popular this year and especially the "new look" with full petticoats.

As we strolled down the campus on Cotton Day, we saw Cotton Queen Gwin Wilson looking as sweet as ever in her dress of blue and white print and a blue jacket to set it off.

Flora Gonzales was also seen with a very becoming navy blue dress with red and white trimming, and a gay red flower to set it off. Her petticoat was white and red rayon with white and red net lace around the bottom.

Next on the program will be a solo, "That Old Black Magic," by Robert Heppner. Two xylophone selections by Naomi Reynolds, "Hungarian Dance No. 5," followed by "Solitude," which Waller will sing. Library Books Bring Memories Worth Millions

By JOE RAMPAGE

Have you students ever been on a treasure hunt? Well, for your benefit there are many riches in the Fresno Junior College library.

Taking the place of the gold coin is the book entitled "The Story of Pro Football" by Howard Roberts. This is the colorful story of the pro gridiron itself, its beginning, its growth, and its many stars. Here is a description of one of the roughest games in sports.

Story of Devotion

"The Lady of Arlington" by Harnett T. Kane is the pearl necklace in the treasure chest. It is a story of a heiress, who marries a young second lieutenant. Through the years her devotion is tested many times, yet she remains true to the man she loves, Robert E. Lee.

Instead of the ruby, the book "Undersea Patrol" by Commander Edward Young is in the chest of gems. This is a true story based on the deeds of the submarine Storm which was under the command of the author. One of the highlights of the story tells of the horror of being trapped 14 fathoms under the North Sea.

Portrait of Greatness

The sparkling diamond is replaced by the book "My Gandhi" by John Haynes Holmes. Here is a private portrait of one of the greatest spirits of our age, placed on the immense stage of thought and action in which Mahatma Gandhi moved.

Reduced Golf Fees Offered Students

The Fresno City Commission made a special provision for reduced rates for student players and for class groups on the two municipal golf courses of this city.

These rates are for any week day during the school year, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. For a bonafide student of any public school upon presentation of the proper identification, the fee shall be 50 cents.

It will be necessary for individual student golfers to present some identification in proof of their status as students in order to take advantage of the 50 cent fee.

The commission said this is an opportunity for students to play golf at reduced fees.

Automatic Transmissions Interest Chuck Coffman

By NORA BARTON

Charles "Chuck" Coffman, instructor of auto mechanics at the Fresno Junior College, is the only instructor in California teaching the repair of all types of automatic transmissions.

Coffman, a former FJC student himself and a graduate of FSC, studied at the General Motors Institute in Flint, Michigan in 1950. He made a study of all transmissions, and is teaching this valuable information to FJC's evening class for upgrading journeymen mechanics and shop owners. Beginners class is on Thursdays and the advanced on Wednesdays.

Teaches Complete Study

The curriculum includes the theory of operation, completely assembling and disassembling, diagnosis of trouble and the necessary adjustments.

Coffman, who started the FJC automotive and parts apprenticeship program at FJC, said the automatic transmission classes have students from Coalinga, Avenal, Porterville, Merced, Madera, and Los Banos.

Automatic Transmission

"Chuck", as he is fondly called, states the reason why automatic transmissions are so popular is because of women, and adds with a chuckle, "automatic transmissions appeal to women."

The instructor further adds the conventional transmission of today will soon be out and the automatic will replace it, not only because of its popularity, but because of less cost in production.

Coffman said the automatic transmission will replace the conventional one now used in trucks and other heavy equipment, such as bull dozers, because it gives them increased "torque" power.

Hobby Is Fishing

"Chuck", who has also attended the University of Southern California and has taken many special courses, said his choice hobby is fishing, and that he goes every chance he gets.

Coffman states proudly he was the first auto mechanics instructor at FJC, has been teaching here since 1945, and enjoys it very much. He also teaches auto mechanics in day classes.

CHARLES COFFMAN

FJC Will Offer New Course In Library Science

A new elective course in library science, English 20, will be open in the fall semester to students who would like to train as library clerks.

Jackson Carty, FJC librarian, said the class will also serve as an orientation course for future professional librarians.

Library science will be a five hour weekly laboratory course with personal instruction given by the librarian. It will be open both to freshmen and sophomores by arrangement with Carty.

Library procedures will be taught through practice in filing and checking books, using the catalogue and the Dewey Decimal system, typing cards, and utilizing reference books.

"This is an excellent course for students wishing to become professional librarians," Carty said.

He said the class will have no prerequisites although an ability to type will be useful to the student.

FJC Students Announce Plans For Easter Sunday

By MARGARET SHOTT

Fresno Junior College students who were contacted at random had many different answers when asked, "What do you plan to do Easter Sunday?"

Alvin Bentley said he plans to attend church, eat a big dinner, and take a trip to the mountains.

Ann Nelson and Ellen Tally both said they plan to see the sunrise services, then attend their church services, eat a big dinner with company, and then attend church in the evening.

Dick Smith said he plans to go skiing in the afternoon, while Ossie Anderson said she is planning a trip to Oakland.

MALE COMPANY

Anita Ferrell said she is planning to entertain company (masculine gender), while Lloyd Heinrich plans to attend sunrise services, and said he will spend the day with his family.

Jane Kobashi and Alice Kuramoto said they plan to attend church together but have no other plans.

Nash Gurrola said he never makes plans but he will probably steal Easter eggs.

Don Petersen said he is going home.

LONG TRIP

Karen Holley and Flora Gonzales said they are planning a trip to Santa Cruz.

Franklin Antoyan said he may attend the sunrise services but hasn't any definite plans, neither does Harold Pitcock.

Ray Vargas said he has lots of plans, but—they're secret.

Council Arranges 1954-55 Budget For Student Body

The student body commissioners, sponsors, and student body council met yesterday in S-22 at 2:35 p.m. to discuss the budget arrangement for next year.

Miss Willa Marsh, dean of students, said the council accepts the budget, but it is not finally approved until September.

Arthur Lea, the student body president, explained in previous years the budget has been on a yearly basis, but during the current 1953-54 school year the council has drawn up its budget on a semester basis. The 1952-53 budget totaled $7,591.

Miss Marsh said spring semester budget includes student welfare, $6.12; publications, $950; social fund, $250; rallies, $200; assemblies, $112.50; basketball, $850; baseball, $1,300; track, $630; athletic and student body awards, $300; guest fund, $7.30; and student conferences, $200.

Lea said the student body's income comes from student body card sales, from athletic contests and other events, and from publication advertising.

Rams Upset Undeclared Reedley Baseball Team

By DONALD N. SHROYER

Coach Ray McCarthy's hard luck Fresno Junior College baseball squad pulled the upset of the year for the Central California Junior College Athletic Association Thursday when they downed the previously undefeated defending champions, the Reedley Junior College Tigers.

The Rams marked up a 4 to 3 win on the Reedley diamond behind the very fine pitching of Richard Knight. Knight allowed only three hits.

The Rams held the Tigers scoreless throughout the first eight innings but slipped in the last half of the ninth when three Reedley runners crossed the plate without once smacking out a hit.

Error Starts Rally

Norm Riley made it to first on an error. John Zaninovich got a base on balls, as did Jerry Ballentine, to fill the sacks. Odell Youngblood fanned Riley at the plate, and then Jim Lester went down swinging. Marv Stucky made it safely when the ball was bobbled, and Zaninovich and Ballentine scored on the miscue. Ray Jadwin also got on as a result of an error, with Youngblood scoring the last Reedley run as Knight fanned Bob Fusch to end the contest.

Reedley's ace chucker, Norman Krebbs, turned in a creditable performance against the Rams by allowing them only five hits. However, Krebbs allowed seven Ram batters to reach first by base on balls while his teammates committed five errors.

Rams Score

The Rams got off to a fast start by marking up two runs in the first inning. The runs were a result of a couple of walks and an error. The Rams did not score again until the top half of the sixth when Elton Willis knocked in a run as he did in the following seventh inning.

Krebbs fanned 11 Ram batsmen and issued seven free passes, while Knight gave out eight bases-on-balls and struck out seven Tiger batsmen.

Willis was the only batter on Millard Hampton . . . has recently registered at Cal Poly. He will be an important addition to the grid and track teams.

either team to get more than one base knock. Prior to the contest, Willis, who was the Ram's top hitter last game was hitting a .281 average.

Hard hitting Charles Ratliff is carrying the batting honors so far this season, however, with his .486.

Pitcher Knight is hitting to the tune of .412. Mac Sanwo is pounding the leather for a .261 average.

The Rams have now lost one and won one in league action thus far this season and are slated to tangle with the Porterville Pirates tomorrow at 2 p.m.

1954 Pigskin Schedule

The Fresno Junior College gridgers will really have a rough time of it next season as FJC Athletic Director for Fresno Junior College, Paul Starr, disclosed this week the Rams will play nine contests next fall.

Millard Hampton Makes Transfer To Cal Poly

Millard Hampton, star Fresno Junior College athlete for the past two years, made the coaches of Cal Poly happy this week when it was revealed that Hampton had registered there.

The 210 pound, 6 foot 2 inch full-back, who was named all conference in the Central California Junior College Athletic Association for two years, will aid the Mustangs in two sports, football and track.

Hampton's gridiron record shows that he has crossed the end zone approximately 26 times in two years. In track he has been officially timed at 9.8 in the 100 yard dash and 51.5 in the 440 yard run.

Hampton did some fine sprinting for the FJC thinclads, and also has done great on the Fresno Junior College grid squad. He has added many new records to the scroll of FJC athletic records.

Thinclads Get Into Action In Six-Way FSC Track Meet

By DONALD N. SHROYER

The Fresno Junior College thinclads finally got the chance to perform. The Rams participated in a more or less informal six way meet in the Ratcliffe Stadium last Saturday afternoon.

Other teams entered in the meet were Fresno State College, which won the meet, the Olympic Club, composed of Ex-Fresno Staters, Porterville Junior College, Reedley Junior College, which failed to show, and Castle Field, which entered only one man.

Ram Track Team Heads For COS

The Fresno Junior College cinder squad will travel to Visalia today to clash with the cindermen of the College of the Sequoias. The starting time of the scheduled meet is set for 3 p.m.

Walter Torosian, who turned in a very respectable performance on the oval of the Blackstone Stadium in Fresno, will be testing his talents against members of the COS squad who will be more in his class. Torosian, who placed in several events at the Fresno State College meet held last Saturday, was competing against former Fresno State stars who entered the meet under an informally organized Olympic Club.

Coach Hans Wiedenhoefer will be counting on some fine performances from Floyd White, who runs the 440, Don Kloppenberg and Ken Baln, who heaves the shot put, as well as pole vaulter Johnnie

The Bulldogs scored 117½ points, the Olympic Club, 25; Porterville JC, 11½, and Fresno JC, 9. The other two did not show.

Walter Torosian was the point getter for Coach Hans Wiedenhoefer's spikers. He was second in the hundred yard dash, which was won by Fresno State's Les Laing. Torosian was third in the 220 and the broad jump. Tom Kerr came in third for the Rams in the high hurdles events.

The Rams are slated to travel to Visalia this afternoon to clash with College of the Sequoias' Giants. The meet will start rolling at 3 p.m.

Carter and George Montrose in the mile run.

Wiedenhoefer is still experiencing difficulties in successfully inducing talent to join and bolster his small squad.

Three Members Of Boroyan Family Attend Fresno JC

By NORA BARTON

Three members of the Boroyan family — mother, father, and daughters — who arrived in the United States from France three months ago, are all attending classes at the Fresno Junior College.

Marguerite Boroyan, 19, with her parents, Khachadour and Anna, and her two younger sisters, waited seven years to be united with her two older sisters who had come here then. The older sisters lived with an aunt in Fresno until they could become citizens and send for the rest of the family.

English Students
The elder Boroyans are attending a class in English for foreign born students at FJC.

Miss Boroyan and her four sisters were born in Marseilles, France. Mr. and Mrs. Boroyan were born in Turkey, but do not have many memories of that country.

Boroyan was what is called a "coiffeur" in France and his wife assisted him. They owned their shop and hope to own their own beauty shop here. However, they are having a little difficulty in obtaining their license.

Attended French College
Miss Boroyan has studied at the Anatole France College for six years. She said this is equal to the last two years of high school plus four of college.

Having majored in business there and continuing it here, she finds a great difference in similar study. She said typewriting, especially, is a problem as the typewriters in French use accents.

"Another difference in schools," Miss Boroyan said, "are the hours. We began our school hours from 8 in the morning and straight on until 12 noon. The afternoon classes started from 2 and continued until 6 p.m."

Close Call
During World War II, the family experienced three bombardments and once felt the closeness of it.

Miss Boroyan said she was quite small when the Germans took over and remembers being very frightened when the soldiers went by. However, she said they did not molest their neighborhood in any way.

Enrollment Hits 1890

Enrollment of students at Fresno Junior College has reached 1890, including 1009 in day classes and 881 in evening programs.

Mrs. Lena M. Fuller, the registrar, said the day total includes 889 junior college students and 120 high school pupils who attend FJC shop classes three hours daily.

Mrs. Fuller adds FJC has 642 full time and 247 part time students attending day classes.
