Latin-American Club Holds Annual Dance

The Latin-American Club's annual dance will be held tomorrow night in the FCC student center hall from 9 PM to midnight.

All FCC students are invited. Each student body card will admit a student and one guest.

Counselor Serves On State Board

The development of a real estate course to be offered in California high schools is the first project sponsored by the board of governors of the new Fund for the Advancement of Business Education.

Gervase A. Eckenrod, an FCC counselor, has been appointed Central California's representative on this board, which will meet this Saturday and Sunday in Sacramento to discuss research projects the fund plans to undertake.

Eckenrod was appointed by the board's chairman, Dr. Fred Cook, who also is the president of the California Business-Education Association.

Eckenrod said the fund has been established to permit corporations and other businesses to contribute money for research, scholarships and fellowships in business and economics that will be deductible on tax reports.

The results of the student body elections will be announced at the dance.

Former FCC student Adolph Mendoza and his band will play for the dance.

Noche De Fiesta

Noche de Fiesta, Night of the Party, is the theme of the dance. Mexican sombreros suspended from the ceiling will contain balloons which will be released at the climax of the dance.

Esther Reymundo, the general chairman, said entertainment will be provided by the club. A Jota dance will be presented by Ceceña Moraquez, Annie Arzate, Sylveno Romero and Joe Lazano. Dick Nunes will sing and Angie Hernandez will perform in a castanet dance.

Committee Members

Refreshments will be served in the committee room adjoining the social hall. Genevie Franco is chairman of the refreshment committee. The other committee members are Miss Arzate, Eleanor Peralta, Laura Ziegler and Margaret Villalobos.

The Latin-American Club will sponsor a noon dance today, in the social hall. The club president, Ernest Martinez, will introduce the club-sponsored candidates for student body offices.

Master Plan Calls For More JC's

The construction of more than 20 junior colleges in the next ten years is scheduled in the new master plan which will go to the state legislature in February.

The Master Plan Survey of Higher Education, headed by Dr. Arthur G. Coons, chairman, presented its findings to the Liaison Committee, and the Joint Board, the State Board of Education and the Regents of the University of California.

Stuart M. White, the president of FCC explained that the present trend indicates that more students are spending their first two years of college in junior colleges and later transferring to four year colleges and universities.

The latest figures show that over two thirds of all freshman and sophomores in all accredited upper division schools in California are going to junior colleges.

James P. Collins, the General Education division dean, stated on the television show, "University of the Air," that of the 2,200 regular day students at FCC, majority are transfer students.

Collins said that FCC offers instruction in 28 different categories and further study reveals that classes are available at FCC in 170 different subject areas which are served by over 300 individual classes of instruction.

Collins said there is an excellent opportunity to satisfy lower division requirements at FCC.

25 Candidates Vie For Office Tomorrow

The polls will be open tomorrow from 8 AM to 3 PM for the election of student body officers. The polls are located in the foyers of the student center and administration buildings.

Students who wish to vote must bring their student body cards with them.

David Hanna, a candidate for the office of student body president, said, "I feel it would be an honor to serve as student body president of Fresno City College. If elected, I would strive to give the kind of government the students want. I would like to urge everyone to participate freely in the elections by voting tomorrow."

Barbara Anderson, the other contestant for the office of student body president, said, "I feel my experience in student body government fully qualifies me for the office of president. But the experience alone is insufficient to qualify a student for this job of leadership. It is necessary that a person possesses devotion and a keen and ardent interest in the welfare of the student body and the college. Such devotion and interest I have."

Competing for the office of secretary are Linda Carrol Miller and Marge Neufeld. The current treasurer, Carrol Jacobsen, is running for re-election against Sidney Craighead.

Diane Nixon is uncontested in her bid to be vice president.

Competing for the presidency of the Associated Women Students are Virginia Collins and Brenda Daum. The only candidate for president of the Associated Men Students is Allan Graves.

Ten of the 15 candidates for the office of representative at large will be elected to the student council.

The 15 candidates are Douglas Webb, Eric Radanovich, Rae Deane Pyatt, Lladona Miller, Tamra Koerner, Charles Overs, Jr., Olga Ermorian, Linda Weddle, Dorene Giar-dano, Jon Johnson, Roger Dupzyk, Al Gray, Charles Hudson, Laurice Jibelian and Frances Ostos.

The candidates were introduced at a nominations assembly last month in the FCC auditorium.

MATERIAL FROM AROUND WORLD IN HEARST CASTLE

By ROBERT VOSS

La Casa Grande, the fabulous Hearst Castle, formerly accessible

only to invited guests and viewed from afar by thousands of people as though they were looking through the haze of time, is now a State Historical Monument.

The castle crowns La Cuesta Encantada, the Enchanted Hill, in the Santa Lucia Mountains of the Coast Range five miles up a winding road from San Simeon on State Highway 1.

Start Building In 1919

Construction of the Hearst Castle was started by William R. Hearst in 1919. First to be erected were the palatial guest houses. The main structure, La Casa Grande, was started in 1922.

A small army of workmen hauled materials from all over the world up the hillside and painstakingly erected the castle.

Construction never ceased because its owner desired to improve his home and display his thousands of collector's items. Some of these are still in storage and uncrated from the time of their first arrival in San Simeon. Today the north and east portions of the building stand still incomplete.

The Hearst San Simeon State Historical Monument encompasses 123 acres within the 40,000 acre Piedra Blanca Rancho which was bought by U. S. Senator George Hearst in 1865 for a cattle ranch. Prize Hereford cattle are still raised on the ranch.

Hearst Builds Empire

William Randolph Hearst, born in San Francisco on April 29, 1887, became one of America's political forces through the newspaper empire he developed. Hearst died at 88 years of age.

It has been estimated that Hearst spent $1,000,000 a year for 50 years on his collection and construction of his 100 room home.

The castle, a gift through the Hearst Corporation, is administered by the California Division of Beaches and Parks and open to the public from May 15 to October 15.

Tickets are sold on a first come, first serve basis beginning at 9:30 AM at the State Monument parking area. The fee is $2 for adults and $1 for youngsters between the ages of 6 and 12. There is no charge for children under the age of 6.

Guided Tours Limited

The guided tours are limited to twenty persons in a group.

Approximately six hundred persons can be accommodated each day.

Group tours are available from October 15 to May 15 and may be arranged by contacting the District Superintendent, Division of Beaches and Parks, Monterey, or the Monument Supervisor, San Simeon, California.

1,221 Students Plan Transfer From Fresno CC

Over one half of the new students attending FCC plan to transfer to a four year college.

Stuart M. White, FCC president reported that of the 1,221 new day students at FCC, 58 per cent plan to transfer, 33 per cent are terminal and 9 per cent are undecided.

Of the 63 new students in the general education department, 81 per cent plan to transfer, 11 per cent are terminal and 8 per cent are undecided. There are 387 new students in this division.

What's New?

I'll Be Seeing You At His Eucharist

By ANDREW FEDERICO

The three soldiers are at a wooden table drinking wine from thick mugs. Their weapons (each of them have a spear) are forked together against the far wall. They drink their wine almost in unison; one of them lifts his mug, and so do the other two.

"He died well," soldier Brown said.

"Yes, He did," replied soldier Smith.

"He had to make it look good," Jones, the third soldier, said.

Boy Comes In

A boy with long hair and bare feet comes into the tavern and stands next to the open door.

"I hope you rot in hell, you dirty soldiers," the boy shouts, and then runs out of the door.

"Who was that?" soldier Smith asked.

"Probably one of His worshippers," Brown said.

"It was one of His so-called worshippers who picked the thornies for His head," Jones said.

"Let's forget it while we're off duty and drink the rest of this wine," Smith replied.

Soldiers Continue Drinking

The soldiers drink the rest of their wine and fill the mugs again. They remain quiet as they drink.

"You know, He hardly winced when I put the nails through His hands," Jones said, breaking the stillness.

"Well, He didn't say much of anything through it all, except for those few words — you remember?" Smith responded.

"And that was a crazy thing for Him to say," Brown said.

"What was it he said, I didn't get to hear Him too good," Jones inquired.

"Ah, it was something like, 'forgive them Father, for they don't know what they're doing'."

"He really believed He was who He said He was!" Smith replied.

"They all do. I've driven nails into thousands of them, and none of them will concede to the truth," Jones said.

Boy Returns

The boy who was in the tavern before comes back.

"You killed Him," the boy said, "you in your dirty, filthy souls!" The boy quickly runs back out.

"The boy said we killed Him," Brown said, "but really it was everybody that killed Him, including those people driving around in 1960 Chevrolets."

Drama Club Plans Dance Next Week

Delta Psi Omega will sponsor a March of Dimes noon dance Thursday, Jan. 14, in the social hall.

Clyde G. Sumpter, club sponsor, announced that Melvin Belford's swing band will provide the music. The dance will be held from noon until 12:45. Admission is one dime which will be donated to the March of Dimes.

STUDENTS ARE URGED TO USE BALLOTS

Tomorrow is the day when we all have the opportunity to express our wishes in the matter of student government. Do you care how your school is run? You do? You really care? Well then, go to the polls tomorrow and let your likes and dislikes be counted. Fresno City College students are more fortunate than are the students from many other junior colleges in that our student government truly runs student affairs. So — let your voice be heard where it will do the most good.

Apparently school spirit is still on the up-swing — more candidates have filed petitions for this election than filed last semester. All candidates are to be commended for taking this first step toward active participation in campus affairs. Student government is a big responsibility.

The colorful posters on display around the campus is a typical sign of this new spirit. The increase in spirit is exemplified by the large increase in the number of candidates. Last semester there were only 18 candidates for 16 offices. This semester there are only two offices that are uncontested. Twenty-five candidates are seeking student body offices.

Besides the elected officers there are ten commissioner positions which are appointed by the new student council president. They are the commissioner of assemblies, athletics, elections, oral arts, publicity, publications, rally, scholarship, social affairs, and welfare.

The many clubs who are sponsoring one or more candidates have contributed greatly to building up the enthusiasm of the student body. This approach to election support seems to have been very effective in drawing more and more students into a real interest in the election.

LET'S ALL VOTE EARLY AND THEN LET'S URGE OUR FRIENDS TO VOTE, TOO. THERE ARE PLENTY OF BALLOTS, SO DON'T FAIL TO USE YOURS.

Bungalows Moved From Old Campus

Two new bungalows have been moved from the old Fresno City College campus to the University Ave. campus.

John Hansen, the administrative dean, said one of the bungalows will be made into a classroom or a number of offices for faculty members. The other bungalow will be a restroom.

The restrooms will be ready for service in a matter of a few weeks. However, the other bungalow will not be ready until next semester.

Bungalows Easily Moved

Both bungalows are permanent portables. That is, they are designed so they can easily be moved. The bungalows look much the same as the present bungalows on campus.

The two new bungalows are situated between present bungalows B-3 and B-4. They are facing the rear of the Administration Building. The name of one bungalow is B-3, the other has no name.

Street Is Distraction

Hansen said he believes the new bungalows will be around for several years before they are moved again. He also said that the bungalows facing Weldon Ave. may be moved away from the street because of the distracting noise from passing cars. If they are moved some landscaping may be done. This will all be done next semester.

Debaters Host FSC Tomorrow

Two FCC debate teams will stage a practice debate tomorrow at 3 PM in B-7 and B-8 with two teams from Fresno State College.

The FCC teams will include Alan Hays and Reggie Marcellino, and James Ricketts and Ronald Itskoff.

The Fresno State debaters for this event will be John Goss and Mervin Whealy, and Besley Lewis and Bill Donaghy. Their coach is Louis Cockerham.

The subject for the debate will be the 1959-1960 inter-collegiate topic, Resolved: That Congress should have the power to reverse supreme court decisions.

Franz Weinschenk, the FCC debate coach, cordially invites all faculty members and students to attend this event.

Weinschenk's debaters are members of his three unit course in argumentation and debate.

They have participated in practice debates and debate tournaments and plan one or two sessions in January with the FSC team.

Navy, Air Force Schedule On Campus Interviews

Information teams from the United States Navy and Air Force will be on the FCC campus Jan. 15 and 18 to tell interested students about the aviation programs offered.

Navy Lieutenant Commanders Walt McGreevy, Bob Adams and Don Camburn will conduct interviews on campus aboard the recently remodeled Naval Aviation Information Van. This van is equipped with aviation displays and models of the latest naval aircraft.

Physical Exams

Mental and physical examinations are given at the Oakland Naval Air Station. However, as a matter of convenience, the mental examination will be given on campus to those who desire to see if they can qualify in this respect.

The Air Force feels that on campus testing for applicants is necessary. This follows recent Air Force statements that the Aviation Cadet program needs more qualified applicants. M/Sgt. Paul R. Walls, the local Air Force recruiter, says that on campus testing has been successfully started at Fresno State College and Reedley Junior College within the past month.

Counseling Conducted

Qualifying and counseling of tentative applicants will be conducted by M/Sgt. Walls and a staff officer in the foyer of the student center.

The convenience of on campus testing allows qualified applicants time to prepare a more planned approach to service training.

Entrance Exams For Spring Semester Are Set

Spring semester entrance examinations are scheduled for FCC from Jan. 19 to Feb. 2.

Archie Bradshaw, dean of students, also announced that future teachers are required to take an English test, to be given Jan. 14 in A-200 at 9 AM. Advance signups in A-118 are required.

The English, math placement and college aptitude examinations will be given Jan. 19 and 27, and Feb. 1 and 2 in the FCC auditorium at 8 AM. They will also be given Feb. 1 at 7 PM in M-200. Students should arrive 10 minutes early.

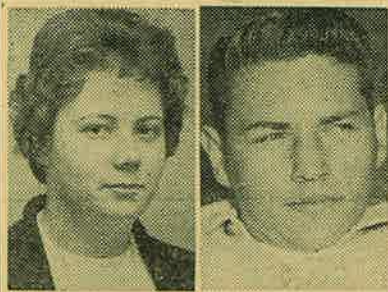

Student counseling and pre-registration will end Jan. 22 and registration will begin Feb. 1.

CC Students Express New Resolutions

The roving reporter covered the campus again last week asking students their new year's resolutions. Many students backed away and wouldn't state their resolutions, if any. Six students, however, conveyed their resolutions to the reporter.

Eddie Owens, electronics major, plans to study harder and to be friendlier to others.

Jim Wagner, accounting major, is going to lower his car and quit cutting classes.

General education major Bob Smith's resolutions are to get rid of his continental kit, spend more time at home, quit whistling at the girls, quit hot rodding his car in the parking lot and get to class on time.

The girls have a few resolutions also and Nahid Hadjican, lab technician, wants to start taking part in more activities in school and to demonstrate more school spirit.

Kathleen Kufman, primary major, is going to start looking up at life instead of down. She hopes others will start doing the same.

Joyce Jarret, pre-med major, resolves to quit cutting so many classes, stop going to so many parties and study more.

Archie Bradshaw, the dean of students, said he doesn't make new year's resolutions because he only breaks them. He pointed out that it's much more fun to watch others break their resolutions.

Experiment With Mice Ends Abruptly

Eight squeaky, pink mice are the only positive results from the diet experiment conducted in Mrs. Norma Carpenter's nutrition class.

The experiment came to an abrupt end when it was discovered that Mr. Mouse was really Mrs. Mouse. Eight baby mice were born to her shortly before the Christmas holidays.

The class had hoped to analyze the results of a typical teenager's diet by feeding two white mice sharply contrasting diets. One mouse was given what the class believes is a typical teenager's diet. This includes coffee, toast and donuts for breakfast; French fries, hamburger, potato chips and coke for lunch; meat and potatoes for dinner.

The female, originally mistaken for a male, was fed a nutritional diet of milk products, vegetables, fruits, eggs, meats, breads and cereals.

The experiment was upset when the two mice ate through the separating cardboard, apparently for the purpose of eating each other's meals.

Student Council Meetings Are Open To All Students

The Student Council meets every Tuesday at noon in Bungalow 6. Student Body President Shirley White said any student or faculty member is welcome to attend these regular or special meetings.

Coeds May Participate In Contest

Beauty, poise and personality will be the basis for judging the finalists for a Miss Fresno Transportation contest at the annual dinner and dance of the Fresno Transportation Club and the Women's Transportation Club of Fresno to be held Jan. 28 in the Elks Lodge Clubhouse.

Attractive girls between the ages of 17 and 26 years who have never been married are invited by these organizations to enter the competition leading to the final selection.

A winner and two alternates will be chosen in the finals and all finalists will receive merchandise orders. The winner will act as official hostess for affairs of the two clubs. The winner and two alternates will also receive cups and savings bonds.

Entry blanks may be obtained in the Rampage office in Room 211 of the Student Center. Entry blanks must be submitted to H. W. Jenckes, 5432 Palm Drive, before Jan. 14.

Singer And Speaker Head Spring Performers

Miss Doris Deakins, dean of women, announced that Dr. L. E. Vredevoe will be the speaker at the next assembly, to be held on Feb. 11. Dr. Vredevoe is a well known speaker and educator.

On March 24 Guy Carawan, a ballad singer and guitarist, will perform.

250 Students Apply For Associate Of Arts Degree

Approximately 250 FCC sophomores have applied for their associate in arts degrees so far.

George C. Holstein, the dean of admissions and records, said that this year about 300 students are expected to file applications.

The deadline for filing petitions is Feb. 19, but Holstein urged students to apply during this semester so that their program may be evaluated in time for them to know what subjects will be required for graduation.

Tourney, Coalinga Next For Cagers

The hot and cold Fresno City College Ram basketball team will open the Modesto Basketball Tournament today against Contra Costa College in the opening round of the two day, double elimination tourney.

The Rams, with an 8-7 record for the season, have proved they can win the big one at home but have their problems on the road. The Rams, either winner or loser, will meet the winner-loser of the San Francisco-El Camino game the next morning.

This year's tournament has four Central California Junior College Athletic Association teams in it. Besides FCC, the CCJCAA will be represented by College of the Sequoias, Reedley and Allan Hancock.

Expected to start for the Rams in this game will be Darnell Mikel and Tom Jacobsen, forwards, Charlie Lowe and Joe Lee or Ken Farnsworth, guards, and Russ O'Leary, center.

Tuesday, the Rams will travel to Coalinga to meet a tough Coalinga College five. Coalinga took the consolation trophy at the Santa Maria tournament over the Christmas holiday and placed third in the Antelope Valley tournament earlier this year. The Coalinga Falcons are built around center John Morgan, who is averaging over 20 points per game.

Awards Presented To Fall Athletes At Annual Feed

The annual Fresno City College fall sports award dinner last Dec. 21 honored the athletes that took part in football, cross country, and water polo.

Football stars Willie Wheaton, Willie Turner, Eddie Gomez, and Lamont White stole the show by taking away all the top honors.

Guest speaker Cecil Coleman, Fresno State's head football coach, revealed a new recruiting pact between FSC and FCC. The new pact should boost FCC's recruiting program tremendously.

Athletic director Hans Wiedenhofer of FCC served as master of ceremonies. John Vones presented the Harry Coffee blanket to half-back Turner as the outstanding player. Whittle was awarded the outstanding back award. Gomez was named the outstanding lineman, and Wheaton was named honorary captain of the team.

Frankie Franco was named the outstanding water polo player as nine men lettered in the sport. Coach Paul Pastor presented the awards. Nearly 50 athletes lettered in the three sports.

Three Rams Are Chosen All-League

The Fresno City College football team placed two men on the first team and one on the second team in the coaches all conference team. Coalinga and College of the Sequoias dominated the first team and Coalinga dominated the second team.

Halfback Willie Turner and guard Eddie Gomez were chosen to the first unit by the coaches and Ron Leimbach, an end, to the second unit.

The first team — ends, Jim Curtis, Coalinga, and Larry Stackler, COS; tackles, Harold Beno, Reedley, and Dave Putman, COS, and Bob Pederson, Coalinga (tie); guards, Charles Ananian, COS, and Gomez, FCC, and Bob Buffaloe, Coalinga (tie); center, Albie Branco, Porterville; backs, Bob Hayes, Reedley, Turner, FCC, Richard Cohee, Reedley, and John Thomas, Allan Hancock.

Dave Putman and Bob Buffaloe were chosen All-Americans by the Williamson Rating system.

Rams Drop League Tilt To Bulldogs

The Fresno City College Rams opened the 1960 Central California Junior College Athletic Association race against the Allan Hancock Bulldogs of Santa Maria Tuesday. The Rams were completely at a loss in the hands of the sharp-shooting Bulldogs as they fell in defeat, 82-70.

The Rams found out early that if they gave the Bulldogs any shooting room at all it was two points. The Bulldogs made their first ten shots from the field and held a 46-19 halftime lead.

Basketball coach Joe Kelly said, "The Bulldogs were up for this game and were real hot. They just couldn't miss."

The Bulldogs showed a well balanced and polished attack, led by center, Jerry Foster, who tallied 23 points. When he slacked up, which wasn't often, forward Paul Firth, who scored 20 points, and guard Ron Farrell, who scored 15, took up the scoring.

Although the score appears fairly close, Kelly indicated that his team was never in the game. After Hancock gained their large lead, the second unit took over.

Darnell Mikel, the Rams' second highest scorer, aggravated a pulled leg muscle in the game and will sit out the Modesto Tourney, which starts tonight at 6:00 PM. It is doubtful if he will be ready when the Rams play Coalinga, Tuesday.

Kelly, with this added worry, might move Charlie Lowe into his forward position, with Ken Farnsworth or Dick Taylor taking Lowe's guard spot.

Tournament Next For Wrestlers

The unbeaten once tied Fresno City College Ram wrestling team will travel to San Luis Obispo, Saturday, to take part in the Cal Poly Wrestling Tournament.

The Rams will once again meet the San Bernardino team who won the tournament last year and who fought the Rams to a tie previously this season. The Rams took second last year to San Bernardino, but several of the Ram wrestlers vow that it won't happen again.

Coach Hans Wiedenhofer reported that too much holiday turkey might spoil the Rams' chances for an upset. He declared that several wrestlers will have to lose as much as 15 pounds to meet their respective weight classes.

The tentative starting line-up, which is subject to change follows:

Larry Nehring 115, Ed Davies 123, Ed Seagle 130, Jan Moore 137, Joe Ortega 147, Errol Johansen 157, Ross Carriga 167, Jim Markarian 177, Joe Aquino 191, Lorenzo DeSantiago heavyweight.

Moore has not been beaten in two years and has been defeated only once in four years. He now holds a string of 27 wins without a defeat while attending FCC.

Davies went undefeated last year and has not been beaten this year. Both Moore and Davies will be heavily counted on in this tournament.

Dec. 15 the Rams defeated Modesto College 22-6. The Rams' next home match will be Jan. 21 against San Jose State College.

Rams Win At Home, Lose In Southland

The unpredictable Fresno City College basketball team came through the Christmas holiday with a four win, three loss record. One win and two losses came in the Sam Berry Tournament in Glendale. Three of the victories were won on the Rams' home court before school let out. The other loss came in the hands of the Bakersfield College Renegades.

The Rams' first opponent, since the last publication of the Rampage, was the Bakersfield Renegades, Dec. 18. Bakersfield avenged their only loss of the season by dumping a cold Ram five, 75-52.

The Rams made a poor showing in the southern community and none of the Fresnoans scored in the double figures. The Renegades jumped to a 9-0 advantage and then held off the lone Ram scoring spree to take a 34-26 halftime lead. This was the closest the Rams ever came to overtaking the Renegades.

The scoring — Fresno (52) — Mikel 21; Jacobsen 9; O'Leary 7; Lowe 8; Lee 5; Bishop 4; Stark 1; Allen 2; Farnsworth 7; Taylor 2. Bakersfield (75) — Wilde 13; Beck 4; Hasem 9; Johnson 5; Dille 14; Elkins 7; Benton 4; Thomas 2; L. McCoy 2; D. McCoy 15.

The Bakersfield game ended a disastrous road trip for the Rams which saw them losing three games. They then returned home for a profitable three game home stand.

Rams Stomp Long Beach

The day following the Bakersfield game the Rams met and defeated a highly rated Long Beach City College five, 98-67, in the yet young season's biggest rout.

The Rams took a commanding 23-15 lead early in the first quarter and had extended it to a 50-28 halftime lead. By the end of the third quarter the Rams had lengthened their lead still further, 76-43.

The scoring — Fresno (98) — Mikel 21; Jacobsen 15; Lowe 13; Farnsworth 10; O'Leary 9; Johnson 8; Lee 6; Nowell 6; Taylor 4; Stark 2; Bishop 2; Allen 2. Long Beach (67) — Hodge 23; Milhorn 17; Carmichael 6; Regler 5; Hebertson 4; McCutchin 4; Cox 3; Gurzi 3; Thomas 2.

The Rams continued their win streak the following week. Tuesday, Dec. 22, the Rams pounced on the Chaffey (Ontario) College Panthers, 92-60, and the following night downed the Sacramento College Panthers, 87-53.

Chaffey — No Problem

The Chaffey Panthers remained a formidable foe for most of the first quarter but the Rams went ahead to take a 42-20 halftime margin.

Standouts for the Rams were Tom Jacobsen and Ken Farnsworth. The Ram second team proved its value in the game by outscoring the regulars, 47 to 45.

Rams Squeeze By Compton

Now in the consolation bracket the Rams tied horns with the Compton College Tartars. The Rams eaked out a 63-56 win for their first victory of the tourney.

The Rams took a 17-14 first quarter lead but trailed 30-28 at the half. They recaptured the advantage in the third quarter by seven points and went from there to the victory.

The scoring — Fresno (63) — Mikel 14; O'Leary 10; Lowe 10; Jacobsen 8; Bishop 6; Stark 5; Lee 5; Farnsworth 3; Johnson 2. Compton (56) — Burr 21; Fughley 15; Thorton 6; Moore 4; Almond 7; Perry 2; Bradford 1.

Consolation Trophy Lost

With only one hurdle left to capture the consolation trophy the Rams met an equally determined East Los Angeles five. When the final gun sounded the Rams found themselves on the short end of a 79-76 score.

The Huskies from East Los Angeles commanded the scoring for the first two quarters but the Rams came from behind in the third quarter to take over, 62-61. The lead was short lived and the Rams were sent home with their sixth defeat of the season.

The scoring — Fresno (76) — Lowe 16; Jacobsen 14; Mikel 12; Lee 7; Taylor 6; Stark 5; Farnsworth 4; Bishop 4; O'Leary 4; Nowell 2; Johnson 2. East LA (79) — Johnson 26; Thomas 21; Fontes 19; Gonzales 4; Murphy 3; Lona 2; Roberts 2; Shepard 2.
