JC Leaders Pass
Draft Resolution

A resolution favoring postponement of induction of junior college students enrolled in terminal education was passed by the California Junior College Association of Administrators at their meeting in Yosemite last week.

Present selective service policy grants postponements of induction to all regularly enrolled students satisfactorily pursuing a full time course of study, but the American Council on Education is on record as favoring postponements only for students enrolled in curricula leading to a baccalaureate degree.

Dr. Thomas Blakely, Fresno Junior College president, introduced the resolution at Yosemite.

"Junior college leaders feel that students preparing for jobs in business and industry should be permitted an uninterrupted pursuit of their education," Dr. Blakely said.

Failure to grant postponements to these students will seriously jeopardize many curricula designed to meet the community needs for qualified leadership in business, industry, and other vital fields, the resolution stated.

Enrollment Tops
Last Year's Peak

Fresno Junior College enrollment for the attendance period ending November 7 shows an increase of full time students of one, Harold Sanderson, in charge of attendance accounting, revealed this week.

Last year on November 7 full time students numbered 648; this year the total is 649.

"This increase might be considered small by many persons, Maurice Reetz, Dean of Instruction, said, "unless it is viewed in comparison with the nation wide trend toward smaller enrollments."

Reetz quoted a summary in the October issue of College and University Bulletin which stated that overall enrollment in colleges and universities has declined an average of 8 per cent.

Though locally the Korean situation is blamed for preventing many from enrolling in college, the publication states that a primary factor for the general decrease in enrollment can be attributed to the lower birthrates in the 1930's.

Vets' Widows, Children
May Receive Educational Benefits From State

The State of California provides an educational assistance program for unmarried widows and children of veterans who died as the result of war services, Maurice Reetz, dean of instruction, announced today.

Eligible students are paid $20 a month while attending high school and $40 per month while enrolled in a school beyond the high school level.

Survivors must have lived in California five years before applying for assistance. It is not required that the veteran parent ever have been in California.

A copy of the application for enrollment form under this state plan is on file with the registrar, Mrs. Irene Stewart.

A VARIETY of nationalities represented Fresno Junior College in the Armistice Day parade through downtown Fresno last Saturday.

TEAM MAY GET JACKET AWARD

A recommendation that members of the Fresno Junior College championship football team receive jacket awards was made by the Board of Athletic Control at a meeting Wednesday.

The student council will air the recommendation today in M24, and if in accord, will consider qualifications for the jacket, price, and design. The Board of Athletics suggested in their recommendation that an advisory committee from the athletic department be consulted before selection is made.

The question of where funds to purchase the awards will come from is expected to be discussed by the council today before progress is made of the actual selection of jackets.

The Board of Athletic Control also heard a suggestion that the conference champions be honored at a dinner at the school in the near future.

Rainbow May Be
Formal Dance Site

Plans are being made to have the annual Christmas Formal in the Rainbow Ballroom. Four couples of Fresno Junior College were invited to dance and to look over this site as a possible setting for the occasion.

Last year the Christmas Formal was held in the south gym with the school band providing the music; the Spring Formal was held in Roosevelt High School cafeteria with Anson Weeks as the orchestra.

Associated Women Students President Lois Tvede and Associated Men Students President John Mullins, co-sponsors of the event, believe that students would prefer having the formal in a location away from school.

The Associated Women Students Spaghetti Feed, which was formerly planned for last week, will be held sometime in the week after Thanksgiving vacation.

California State
Vets Education
Plan Explained

The number of World War II veterans who have received State assistance in completing their education has now passed 20,000 and is increasing rapidly, it is reported by D. J. Callaghan, Jr., California Director of Veterans Affairs.

Callaghan said that while complete figures for Fall term enrollment under the State aid program had not been compiled, it was certain that it would exceed 5,500, as compared with 3,790 for the Fall term in 1949.

"The explanation is simple," he added. "More and more student-veterans are exhausting their entitlement to Federal assistance under the GI Bill of Rights. They are turning to the 'Cal-Vet' program to complete their studies, usually in professional and graduate fields."

Eligible veterans may receive payment for tuition, books and supplies, plus a subsistence allowance of $40 a month under the State program. The maximum expenditure for any one veteran is $1,000.

State educational aid may be granted to a veteran who is a native of California or was a resident of this state at the time he entered military service, and who had at least 90 days of active duty in World War II prior to January 1, 1947.

Ingraham Named

Work on the 1951 yearbook is underway, following a $500 conditional appropriation by the student council.

The bill passed by the student council states that the $500 may be used only if the annual staff has sold $1,000 worth of advertising by January 15, 1951. It states further that not more than 325 copies of the yearbook may be printed, and that the total cost for all copies printed must not exceed $1,500.

Drama Club Plans
Initiation Friday

Initiation of new members into the Dramatics Club will be Friday, November 17, during school hours. "These students will be easily identified by their actions," said Si Pipkin, initiation chairman.

The day of fun-making will be topped off that evening by a business meeting and party in the social room, where new members will "be put through the mill," Pipkin said.

At the present time the charter members of the club are writing a constitution which will be presented at this meeting; if adopted, permanent officers will be elected.

This semester's goal is to put on a three-act play. This activity will help members become eligible to receive Thespian Society Cards.

The Dramatics Club, which is newly organized, is sponsored by Mrs. Phyllis Spencer, English teacher.

PERSONALITY CLASS

In the 2 p.m. class, Diana Vartanian was the commentator. Virginia Bier, Barbara Brooks, Mary Cromwell, Shake Kasparian, and Georgia Lempesis were the models.

TO THE FOOTBALL TEAM:
We take this opportunity to say—
CONGRATULATIONS!!

REFLECTIONS ON THANKSGIVING

Once again we find ourselves entering the time of year that has been so appropriately termed the "period of good feeling." Beginning with the falling of the autumn leaves and extending far into the winter months, most of us find ourselves being a little more conscious of our friends, treating them with more consideration and kindness than we usually do.

It is the time of year for roaring fireplaces, taffy-pulls, exciting parties, and small informal get-togethers . . . it's Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's in quick succession.

During this time of warm hellos and handshakes, which is a fundamental part of our grand American way of life, we create a feeling of good-will among the people of our nation that is seldom attained at any other time or place on the face of this tired and battered old world.

Next week, at that table of plenty, our traditional Thanksgiving dinner, let us offer a silent prayer, not just for the food on our plates, but for the fact that we are still able to live and breathe as free human beings. Millions of people would give their most cherished possessions to obtain this freedom, something which they cannot buy at any price.

In the years to come, we are all going to cherish more dearly this heritage that we have come to take so lightly. Each and everyone of us should realize our good fortune as we make the most of the wonderful days ahead.

FINE FLOAT—LET'S HAVE MORE

The Fresno Junior College float in the Armistice Day parade was a credit to FJC. But wouldn't it have been possible to have had more than one credit chalked up for the school?

Our small band could have been in the parade—on a truck as they were in the serpentine. The pep girls could have filled one convertible; student body officers could have occupied another.

This suggestion should, of course, come before the parade instead of after; but it is something to consider next time.

Sani Heads Group
On Bus Financing

Vice president Bob Sani is in charge of a student council committee investigating the possibility of financing the purchase of a bus for the student body.

The committee will make a report at the regular meeting today at 11 in M24.

During the past four weeks two main bills were passed. One was the appropriation of $100 for the Armistice Day float, the other was the conditional appropriation of $500 for the publication of this year's annual, The Rambler. The condition is that the annual staff must have sold $1,000 worth of advertising by January 15, 1950; otherwise, the money cannot be used.

President Duke Potere invited any student who is interested to attend because "I believe several matters under consideration are important to the student body as a whole."

ATHLETIC MEASURES
ADOPTED AT CONFAB

Three items presented by the California Junior College Athletic Committee were adopted on approval by the California Junior College Association of Administrators in Yosemite last weekend. They are:

1. A proposed athletic code, which represents a collection of the rules and practices already in force in the Association.
2. A three-year contract between the Association and the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce to jointly sponsor the Junior Rose Bowl Game in December.
3. A discontinuance of participation in events of the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Tuberculosis Mobile Unit
Gives 235 Student X-rays

Two hundred and thirty five people received free chest x-rays last week, reported Mr. Chester Byers, technician for the Fresno County Tuberculosis Mobile Unit.

Byers said that the reports of the x-rays will be mailed to student's home.

A man stopped at a small hot-dog stand and ordered coffee. Just to be polite, he said, "Looks like rain, doesn't it?"

"Well," growled the proprietor, "It tastes like coffee, doesn't it?"

NEW NAVAL RESERVES
DELAY ACTIVE DUTY

Anyone 18 or over who has not yet been classified 1A may join the Naval reserve. Membership in the Reserve will exempt him from the draft, and he will not be called into active service for at least two years.

This was part of an announcement made by Commander Wilson of the 12th Naval District Headquarters, Personnel Division, San Francisco. He spoke at the naval reserve meeting Tuesday in Fresno.

Commander Wilson also said that in view of world conditions, it is almost certain that all present Naval Reserves who have had six months or more of active duty with the Navy will be called within the next six months for 21 months service.

Commander Wilson is appearing at regular weekly meetings of the Naval Reserve to answer any questions reservists might have; he is also dispensing information to high schools and colleges throughout the 12th Naval District, of which Fresno is a part.

Members Make FBLA Field Trip

Thirty members and guests of the Future Business Leaders of America toured the Sunmaid Raisin Company's packing plant Tuesday afternoon.

In three groups they were conducted through the plant, where the various machines used in preparing grapes for the consumer were demonstrated and explained to them.

Mr. Earle Granger, secretary and treasurer of the Sunmaid Raisin Growers Association, had invited the FBLA to include the Sunmaid Company in its field trip program. Mr. Granger was a guest speaker at an earlier business meeting of the club.

The next meeting of the FBLA will be a potluck dinner, followed by initiation of new members and installation of officers; the meeting will be held November 28 at 6:30 p.m. in the social room.

CLASS AIDS LIONS IN TOY COLLECTION

Gifts for the Christmas Toy Drive, sponsored by the Lions Club, are now being collected by the merchandising class, announced Mr. Clifford Hawkins, merchandising instructor.

The drive was officially opened when Hawkins drove a jeep with a barrel of toys on it in the Armistice Day Parade.

Dear Editor:

Assemblies are supposed to be centered around the school and the students. I do not mean that we have not had good assemblies—because we have—but still many students are asking, "Why don't we have assemblies put on by the students of FJC?"

Such assemblies should consist of music, skits, and football rallies. Surely there are students around FJC who have some talent.

FJC has a band and choir; why in heaven's name haven't we heard them! Half the students think this school is absolutely flat. I agree with them.

Come on 13th year class—let's make it a class the school will long remember.

A reminder that regularly enrolled junior college students need not drop from school when they receive their draft papers was made by Major Frank Lyman, selective service director for the Fresno district, in a visit to Fresno Junior College this week.

Selective service policy permits students who receive draft notice during the school year to apply for postponement of induction.

Information regarding application for postponement of induction may be secured from Mr. Harold Sanderson, assistant dean of students

Fresno JC Wins First Conference Championship

Powerful Running Attack Overcomes Cougars, 33-12

The Fresno Junior College Rams, in a two-fisted battle for the championship crown, defeated the Taft Junior College Cougars Friday night, 33-12.

Taft, the 1949 CCJC conference champions, fought bitterly to the very end to stop the Rams, but were forced to give way to the powerful ground attack of FJC.

The playing of both teams kept the 3,000 fans on the edge of their seats throughout the entire game. Each touchdown came as an outstanding play.

Although the Cougars were unable to penetrate the solid Fresno line on ground plays, they let loose with a very successful passing offense. Headed by quarterback Ottoson, Taft threw 27 passes and completed 13, one which was good for 6 points.

On the other hand, Fresno's passing offense was held to a minimum as they passed only 6 times, completing two. The Rams excellent running offense eliminated the need of much passing.

The Fresno held the lead throughout the entire game but in the third quarter Taft threatened to tie the score. With the score 19-12 the Cougars drove to the Fresno 6 yard line on first downs. Here the Ram defenses stiffened and Taft could not pass the goal line.

This threat of the Cougars seemed to give the Rams more determination. Within 40 seconds after Taft's threat to tie up the score, Fresno twice drove into the end zone to take a comfortable 3 touchdown lead.

Joe Spino, Ram safety man led in the scoring as he scored on two beautifully executed touchdown plays. Taking a Cougar punt on his own 35, Spino, aided by good interference drove all the way for a 65 yard run into the end zone. Later, in the third quarter of the game, he left the crowd gasping as he took the ball following Fresno's goal line stand and ran the entire length of the field to again score. Spino led in yardage gained by running up a total of 251 yards. Pete Toomajian followed with a total of 134 yards. Other Fresno gains showed fullback Ron Chapanian with 72 yards and halfback Winston Beasley with 65 yards.

Two of Fresno's scores were the result of intercepted passes as Mel Wagner intercepted one in the latter part of the first quarter and went 27 yards to score. The second interception came in fourth quarter as Pete Toomajian caught a desperate Cougar pass and went 17 yards to the goal line. Chapanian was responsible for the other Ram touchdown as he snaked through the Cougar line for a 20 yard score.

Taft's first score came in the first quarter as a result of a blocked Fresno kick. Paul Hogue, playing left end for Taft, picked up the ball and ran 35 yards to score. The Cougars final scoring came in the early part of the second half as quarterback Ottoson threw a short pass to right-end Bill Buck who went on for a 28 yard touchdown.

Good News To Ram Rooters

Ram Cagers Begin Play In 2 Weeks

With the beginning of the 1950 basketball season only two weeks away, Coach Paul Starr's cagers are seriously at work to whip themselves into a smooth coordinated unit.

The Rams will visit the large and impressive Mustangs of Stockton College in their opener on December 1.

Coach Starr declined to give his opinion of the FJC cagers' chances this year, but he did state that this season's squad shows a lot of promising talent. The team will have a greater height average than in the past.

Those men who are now out for the team and striving to sharpen their ball-handling techniques are centers Don Davis, John Nielsen, Joe Grimes, and Gerald Manfredi; guards Willie Perry, Mitchell Richmond, Grady Simpson, and Don Halderman; forwards George Owens, George McCrady, Cleo Streets, Norm Britton, and Charles Cady.

Additional cagemen are expected to be added to the team as soon as the football season ends this Saturday, Starr said.

Fresno Rams Meet Porterville Pirates In Season's Last Game

Many of the Fresno Junior College football players will make their last appearance before a Fresno crowd Saturday night in the Ram's final 1950 game against the Porterville Junior College Pirates at Ratcliffe Stadium.

With twelve members of the team graduating this year and the fact Coach Stoney Johnston's Rams gave Fresno their first CCJC Conference championship, a large turnout of students is expected to show appreciation for the Rams' successful efforts during the past season.

Although the Rams are rated the favorites, Porterville shows a 25-6 win over Reedley JC while Fresno was held to a 26-13 victory over the same squad. Against a tough schedule this year, the Pirates show a record of two wins and five losses with Saturday night's game also their last one for the season.

The Porterville Pirates claim a speedy and dangerous backfield this year and will be all out to revenge their last season defeat by Fresno who held them scoreless, 20-0.

The FJC roster shows four important vacant spots for this game as injuries have hit the Rams heavily in the last two games. Missing from the game will be Orville Crane, Ward Longueville, Tom Belden and Ara Arax.

Out to do their best for the Rams in their last appearance will be the following linemen: Lyman Ehrlich, Boots Edmonson, Ledio Fanucchi, Louie Gundunas and Harry Kachorian.
