FJC Rally Group Has 62 Workers

By Blanche Milhahn

The FJC Rally Committee met last week to discuss plans for the FJC rally, game, and attending, the big rally committee.

The rally committee held Tuesday to signups for pep girls and cheerleaders. The rules and regulations concerning tryouts were explained.

Students will be chosen tomorrow at noon in the memorial auditorium by Joe King, Mrs. Hazel Pedersen, Gil Starkey, Blanche Milhahn, Gerald Bender, Art Lea, and Carole Gostanian. Yell leader candidates will give yells tonight at the Modesto JC game.

Permanent chairmen for the fall semester rally activities have been named to work with Starkey and Miss Milhahn. They are Gladys Popp, stadium decorator; Molly Williams, dance decorator; Carole Gostanian, dance program; Pat Still, band; Shirley McNay, pom-pom sales; Beverly Baird, program sales; and Art Lea, rally boys.

Student President Says 'Welcome'

I would like to welcome all the students here at Fresno Junior College this semester on behalf of my student council. We are all going to try to make this one of your most enjoyable years in school.

It is a big job to keep things working smoothly with such a large turnout as FJC has. Nevertheless, with your help we hope to have a bang-up year.

You will find school much more enjoyable if you participate in as many activities as you possibly can. A friendly attitude among the students is what makes a school lively, and we want this year to be the most lively yet.

President Asks For Support

"We ask you students to do your share in building the junior college by diligent study and regular attendance, by supporting student activity and by working cooperatively with the faculty."

The above is the highlight of the welcome speech made by Stuart M. White, president of Fresno Junior College, during the first assembly Friday in Memorial Auditorium.

White is a graduate of Fresno State College in 1935, and holds a master's degree from the University of Southern California. He belongs to several service clubs and educational organizations.

He began his teaching career in the elementary schools in Bakersfield. He went from there to the Arenal Elementary School and at the same time taught adult education classes in Lemoore.

In 1940 he went to Edison High School and began his gradual climb to the principalship which he achieved in 1946.

The president is married to the former Helen Kierulff, and they are the proud parents of two daughters, Janice Kay, 12, and Jean Adele, 9.

Student Council Meets Today In New Office

Gerald Bender, Fresno Junior College's student body president, announced FJC's student council will meet for the first time for the 1953-54 school year this noon in the junior college's new student body office.

Bender said the council will appoint two representatives at large to replace two students who were elected last spring but who failed to return to school, Joanne Camarota and Rae Ann Kish.

The council will also officially approve the 1953-54 student body budget, which was organized last night in FJC's Ramble Inn in a meeting of student leaders and sponsors of all campus organizations.

Bender said the council will also plan for a rally to precede the FJC

White Gives Best Wishes To Students

On behalf of the faculty and administration I am very happy to welcome all students to our campus. To the students who are attending the Fresno Junior College for the first time, I congratulate you for selecting our school; your opportunities are unlimited, and I know that you will enjoy the friendly spirit of our student body, as well as profit from the guidance and instruction of our fine faculty.

ment you on returning to college and continuing your education? To the Korean veterans, I offer my praise and compliments for your faithful duty to our armed forces and to our country, and I trust that our school can contribute greatly to your delayed education toward a successful career.

I am confident that Fresno Junior College will have a fine future; yet our growth and community support depend greatly upon your loyalty and friendly relations, both on and off the campus. A word of praise for our school to your neighbor will pay dividends in the future.

I offer my best wishes to every student for a successful and profitable year.

Bungalows Will All Be Completed

By Pat Still

Stuart White, president of FJC, yesterday announced all classes will be resumed on the FJC campus Monday. All the bungalows which were started last June now have been completed and are ready for classroom use.

This will be the first time that all classes have been held on the campus since September, 1952, when the Fresno City Schools officials had to have the classes moved to the various buildings near the school due to the damage caused by the earthquake.

The business classes which are now being held at the Memorial Auditorium and the art and the history classes at Dickey Playground will be moved back on the campus into their respective bungalows.

White said the regular schedule of classes will be followed beginning Monday morning.

President Attended Administrators' Meeting

Stuart M. White, the president of the Fresno Junior College, attended a recent meeting of the chief administrators of southern and central California junior colleges at the El Camino College.

Frank Wright and Frank Lindsay of the State Department of Education explained legislative changes in junior college attendance accounting and apportionment.

Forrest Murdock, president of the California State College Association and of El Camino College, organized the meeting because of the changes effective July 1.

RED KEY MAY HOLD CARNIVAL DANCE

Red Key, FJC's service organization, held their first meeting Monday to make plans for the Red Key Carnival-Dance.

Pat Still, Red Key president, said tentative plans for the carnival-dance are to hold it at the Marigold Ballroom Friday, November 6.

Modesto Comes To Ratcliffe

By Don Shroyer

The Fresno Junior College Rams will try to carve out another victory on their still young 1953 horns tonight, when they clash with the skull and crossbone Pirates from Modesto Junior College on the gridiron at Ratcliffe Stadium at 8 o'clock.

Ram Coaches Hans Wiedenhofer, Joe Kelly and Ray McCarthy have been sending their charges through rigorous workouts this week, grooming the gridders for this evening's tilt with the Modesto Pirates. Possibly Wiedenhofer's biggest problem is overconfidence among the squad members following last week's upset win over Los Angeles Valley Junior College.

Coach Stan Pavko's Pirates also won their opening tilt last week, when they dumped Fresno JC's archrivals, the College of Sequoias, 18 to 6. A beautiful 55 yard jaunt by Brady Hord, a 40 yard romp by Gene Peterson and a 17 yard jog by Arlo Wenstrand accounted for the Pirates' scoring in the COS win. Quarterback George Pinckney tossed eight passes and completed three during the tilt, one of which was a 42 yard toss to Peterson.

The Pirate line will have Joe Rich and Gene Peterson at ends, with Dick Ralph and Ted Edling at the tackle posts. Duane Wickstrom and Duane Guenther will hold down the guard positions, and Bert Watson will center the ball. In the backfield will be Pinckney at quarter with Stan Beasley and Wenstrand in the halfback slots and Bill Beasley at fullback.

Wiedenhofer will probably go with much the same starting line up as last week—Nick Ceppaglia and Nick DiLiddo holding down the ends of the line with Charles Ratliff and Tom Ryan filling the tackle's shoes. Dick Yecny and Tex Rankin will be the guards, and Don Kloppenburg will be at center. In the backfield will be Gil Starkey at quarterback, Bill Smith and Johnny Souza at the halves, and Carmen Eanni at full. Gene Bachmann, Jim Travis, and Ray Baker will, most likely, see considerable action during the tilt.

RAMPAGE NEEDS STAFF MEMBERS

Fresno Junior College's student newspaper, The Rampage, begins its fifth year of publication as a printed paper today with a new staff, a new office, and new opportunities for performing its function of covering the campus. It seeks additional students on its staff.

Haruo Yamaoka is acting news editor.

Donald Shroyer, last year's editor, is sports editor. (Mrs. Donald Shroyer, formerly Ellen Allen, who was appointed editor last spring, is not returning to FJC because the Shroyers are expecting a baby.) Blanche Milhahn and August Constantino are the advertising managers.

Reporters include Mildred Shaw, Margaret Sisneros, Neil Radley, and Troy Bowden. Dick Dickason is staff photographer, and Anne Hobson is exchange editor. Several others are in the process of signing up for the staff.

The Rampage has openings for students to join the staff in all departments — news, features, sports, copyreading and headline writing, business, circulation, and advertising.

Published weekly by the journalism students of the Fresno Junior College, 1430 O Street, Fresno, California, and composed at the Central California Typographic Service, phone 3-2320. Unsigned editorials are the expression of the editor.

Join The Fun At FJC

Welcome, students, to your new home, Fresno Junior College.

It is fitting that we do call it home simply because it has the same quality and comforts of home, but only with more people. We of the Rampage staff wish to welcome you to our newly developed campus.

Activities are numerous in this school, and the success of it depends upon your interest and attendance. Take for example the football team. They have been Central Colifornia Junior College Athletic Association champions for three consecutive years, and now they are heading into their fourth campaign. Let's really support a great bunch of guys who are putting the name of FJC on the sport map.

We ask for your support in every school activity. Participation brings you closer to faculty members and fellow students.

With all this in mind we hope you have a successful and a highly interesting year at Fresno Junior College.

—Haruo Yamaoka

Many Clubs, Committees Invite Students To Join

With school underway the various Fresno Junior College clubs and committees are open for members. Interested students should contact the following advisers.

Dr. Lucile Williams is the adviser of the Intervarsity Christian Fellowship and also of the Alpha Gamma Sigma, state scholastic society.

Any student who had a 2.0 average in college last semester or who belonged to the California Scholarship Society in high school is eligible for membership in either Alpha Gamma Sigma or Phi Theta Kappa, national Scholarship Society. Miss Merian Tervo is the PTK sponsor.

Newman Club

The Newman Club, sponsored by F. J. Svlich, will welcome all Catholic students and others who are interested in their organization.

Advising the Future Business Leaders of America will be Miss Nancy Webster and Mrs. Edna Hartley. All interested students with a business course will be welcomed.

All freshmen students are eligible for the 13th year group. Miss Gertrude Stubblefield is the adviser with the aid of Miss Willa Marsh, the dean of students, and Ray McCarthy.

Sophomores

The 14th year group will have J. P. Collins as adviser with the help of Miss Marsh. All sophomores are urged to join this group by Collins.

The Red Key, the honorary service organization of FJC, will soon accept applications for membership. Requisites include one semester's attendance at FJC, a C average, a student body card, and the passing of the point system set up by the organization. Stanley Bennett is the adviser of the group with Dr. Rolf Ordal.

AMS and AWS

The Associated Men Students is the organization to which all men students may belong. Advisers are Erret Smith, Kenneth Hald and Jackson Carty.

The counterpart organization for women is the Associated Women Students. Advisers of the AWS are Mrs. Hazel Pedersen and Mrs. Mildred Botsford.

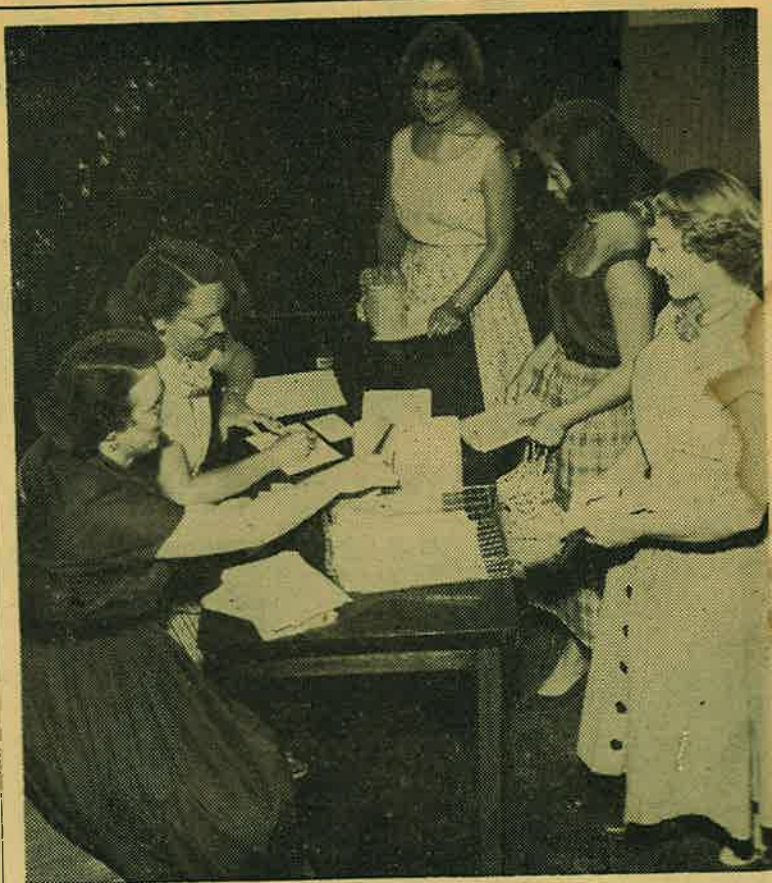

Sixty FJC students have already joined the rally committee, which is sponsored by Joseph W. King. Mrs. Pedersen assists with pep girl arrangements.

FJC Newspaper

The Rampage, FJC student newspaper, welcomes new members, with or without journalistic experience. P. D. Smith is the adviser.

Another active student group is the social committee, which will arrange all-school social functions. Advisers are Walter Witt, C. Lowell Spencer and Kate Darling.

Heading all student groups is the student council under the sponsorship of Miss Marsh and King.

FJC FACULTY GETS SIX FACULTY MEMBERS, WHITE

The Fresno Junior College opened the fall semester with six new faculty members in addition to the new president, Stuart M. White.

White, formerly principal of Edison High School, was appointed to succeed Dr. Thomas A. Blakely as head of the junior college.

Other new faculty members include Mrs. Thelma L. Davy, Harold E. Bowyer, Joseph R. Kelly, Dr. Elred J. Renk, Mrs. Mildred Bosteder and Mrs. Anna Thompson.

Another instructor, Gordon Flaa, joined the staff in March as instructor in radio and television. Flaa is a former FJC student.

Mrs. Lena M. Fuller, who has been the president's secretary for the last three years, is the new college registrar, succeeding Mrs. Clare Chisholm. Mrs. Chisholm will be the division chairmen's secretary.

Mrs. Davy and Bowyer hold half-time positions on the FJC faculty. Mrs. Davy is an English instructor and is also coordinator of English in secondary schools for the Fresno City Schools. Bowyer teaches FJC brick laying and mathematics for Roosevelt High School.

Dr. Renk, a former social worker for the Fresno County Welfare Department and a former member of the Fresno State College faculty, is teaching Spanish, English and remedial reading.

Kelly, who transferred from Fresno High School, is a counselor, physical education and orientation instructor, head basketball coach and assistant football coach.

Mrs. Bosteder and Mrs. Thompson are in charge of the vocational nursing program. Mrs. Bosteder, a former FJC student, will teach at the Fresno County General Hospital, while Mrs. Thompson conducts the vocational nursing classes on the junior college campus.

Two former Fresno City Schools central office personnel have joined the FJC secretarial staff, Mrs. Dlores Siebert, White's secretary, and Mrs. Margaret Gross, the switchboard operator.

Student Council Meets Today In New Office

football game with Bakersfield College in Fresno October 3.

The group will also plan for attendance at state and regional conferences.

The FJC student president said the eligibility of each council member will be checked during the meeting, and each will be given a copy of the student body constitution and informed of his duties.

Bender became student body president when Bruce Pankratz, who was elected to the post last spring, was drafted the day after his installation. Lee Storelee succeeds Bender as vice president.

Other members of the council include Sue Sheehan, secretary; Carole Gostanian, treasurer; Frances Purroy, president of the Associated Women Students; Fred Valenzuela, Jr., president of the Associated Men Students; Arthur Lea and Patsy Still, council representatives.

Presidents of the freshman and sophomore class will also be council members when they are elected this fall by their classmates.

Meanwhile, Bender announced appointment of seven student commissioners to supervise various activities and said three others will be appointed to head social affairs, scholarship and athletic committees.

The commissioners include Haruo Yamaoka, publications; Gladys Popp, student welfare; Charles Becker, oral arts; Molly Williams, assemblies; Shirley McNay, publicity; Gilbert Starkey and Blanche Milhahn, rally committee.

Renegades Down Stockton College

The Bakersfield Renegades, scheduled to face the Fresno JC gridders on October 2, pulled an upset victory over Stockton JC Friday night by an 18 to 7 score in Bakersfield.

Nick Smith and Gene Fitzgerald scored touchdowns for the Renegades.

1649 Enroll For Day And Night Classes

Fresno Junior College's 1953 registration yesterday at the end of the first eight days of the fall semester totaled 1649 students, 972 for day classes and 677 in evening courses. More than 1000 day students have started registration procedures.

Several hundred other night students are expected to sign up for FJC's 39 evening subjects next week. More than 1000 students entered in the night classes for the Spring semester, but they do not enroll until the third week.

The 1649 total compares with 1311 FJC students at the end of the first week of the fall semester of 1952.

President Stuart M. White announced late registration for both day and night classes will continue next week in the registrar's office or within the classroom for the evening subjects.

The day students include 148 from Fresno High School who attend junior college shop classes three hours daily.

The 677 evening students include 365 in trade extension and apprentice training classes, 70 in pre-employment trade courses and 242 in 11 business and general education division classes.

Students are registered for day classes from nearly every San Joaquin Valley community from Merced to Hanford.

Nurses Commencement Planned For Tuesday

The Fresno Junior College vocational nursing commencement will be held September 29 in the FJC library at 7:30 p.m.

Erwin A. Dann, assistant superintendent of Fresno City Schools, will be the principal speaker.

Rev. Floyd Hawkins of the Full Gospel Tabernacle will give the invocation.

Mrs. Edith M. Gordan, student speaker, will speak on "Team Relationships and Nursing Care."

In addition to Mrs. Gordan, seven other students, Nancy Lee Beatriz, Norma Cathryn Cole, Mrs. Iris Dwyer Bland, Mrs. Nancy Louise Stickels, Mrs. Helen M. Turney, Mrs. Lola Faye Schroeder and Mrs. Neva Jeffries have completed a year program preparatory to taking state board examinations as vocational nurses.

Mrs. Anna Thompson and Mrs. Mildred Bosteder are the FJC vocational nursing instructors.

Rams Open '53 Season With Upset

The Fresno Junior College gridders opened their 1953 season with a bang by upsetting the prep-star studded Los Angeles Valley Junior College Monarchs, 14 to 12, at Ratcliffe Stadium Friday night.

The contest, which opened the 1953 grid season in Fresno, was the initial showing of the return of the "platoonless" age of football.

Although there was no scoring during the first quarter, it was a Fresno Junior College show entirely. The Rams won the toss and chose to receive. Halfbacks Bill Smith and Johnny Souza combined for 9½ yards on the first three plays to the Ram 41 yard line, where the starting quarterback, Lee Storelee, gambled with a quarterback sneak and plunged to the 43 for a first down.

The following play, however, the Rams fumbled, and fullback Bob Sutton recovered for the Monarchs.

TOUCHDOWN DRIVE STARTS

The Monarchs gained only 6 yards on the next three plays, and on the fourth down big fullback Don Shinnick booted the ball down to the Ram 30, where Smith grabbed it and danced 12 yards to the Ram 42. Three plays later the Rams were one yard short of a first down, and quarterback Starkey gambled and sneaked for a first down. Souza then plunged for no gain, and Starkey passed to Smith for 30 yards. Starkey fired another pass to DiLiddo for 5, and Souza went for one as the gun sounded the end of the first quarter. Fresno JC-0, LA Valley JC-0.

Fullback Jim Travis bucked for 5 and a first down to start the second quarter and failed to gain on the next play. Starkey then tossed to DiLiddo, who was standing in the end zone, for the first Ram touchdown. Smith booted the extra point. Rams-7, Monarchs-0.

RATLIFF BLOCKS KICK

The game then turned into a seesaw battle at mid-field with neither team able to make a first down. Tom Berry, Monarch halfback, fumbled the ball on the second down of the Monarch's second attempt to make a first down, and halfback Floyd White recovered for Fresno. Souza went for 5; Eanni and White were stopped cold. End Ray Baker kicked to the Monarchs' 48. Halfback Bertrand Bruce gained 5, and Quarterback Negri lost 7 on an attempted pass.

Bruce lost 3 more, when he was trapped behind the line.

Shinnick went back in punt formation to kick when Ram's tackle Charles Ratliff roared through to block Shinnick's kick and scoop up the bouncing ball to run for a touchdown. Smith split the uprights to make it 14-0 with four minutes to play before the half.

The last four minutes of the first half were spent with both teams failing to do much of anything. The Monarchs failed to make a first down during the entire first half.

PENALTY STOPS RAM THREAT

Three plays after the start of the second half Gene Bachmann, Ram tackle, recovered Fred Mazola's fumble on the Monarch 38 yard line. Souza ripped off 8 and 7 yards consecutively for a first down. The following play the Rams were offsideds and were penalized five yards. Eanni blasted for 2; then Starkey passed to Smith, who made it to the 3 yard line. Here the Rams were penalized to the 45 yard line for illegal use of hands. The Rams were forced to kick after Starkey attempted two passes.

RAM LINE HOLDS

Late in the third quarter fullback Don Shinnick broke through a wide hole in the Ram line on a delayed buck to travel 32 yards before Souza and Eanni dragged the 210 pound fullback down on the Ram 34. Here the Ram line held and forced Shinnick to kick out on the Ram 23. The Rams got a bad case of fumbles here and on the second fumble Monarch end Monnett recovered on the Ram 31.

Negri then passed to Berry, who waltzed to the Ram 3 for a first down. The Ram line then rose to the occasion, as they stopped three thrusts by Shinnick and one by Berry at the line of scrimmage. The Rams took the ball, and Baker got off a bad kick to the Ram 29, where Berry grabbed it and managed to get back to the Ram 4 yard line.

Shinnick plunged for 2; Negri tossed an incomplete pass, and on the following play interference was called against the Rams. The ball was placed on the one yard line, from where Shinnick skirted his left end to score the Monarchs' first touchdown. Eanni blocked Kost's try for the extra point.

The Monarchs kicked off to the Rams' 42, where Eanni went for one, Souza fumbled and lost 7, and White gained one. Eanni then kicked to the Monarch 48. Negri lost one; Sutton went for 3; then a Negri to Bruce pass was good to the 3 yard line. Negri's pass to 6' 8" end Alston was incomplete; then Sutton smacked over for the second Monarch touchdown. Kost's kick was wide. Rams-14, Monarchs-12.

LOS ANGELES THREATENS

Following the score, the ball changed hands four times, when, with less than four minutes to play, quarterback Tom Davis whipped a pass to halfback Eddie Austin which was good for 63 yards. From here the Monarchs gained only slight yardage, but managed to pick up a first down on the Ram 5, where three plays later Shinnick was stopped with a smashing tackle while trying to go around his right end. He flipped the ball in the end zone for a touchback, giving the ball to the Rams on their own 20.

Starkey ran a series of quarterback sneaks to stall the final minutes of the game.

Coach Pulls Wool Over Fan's Eyes

By Don Shroyer

It certainly looks as if Ram Coach Hans Wiedenhofer has been pulling the wool (in this case his red and white polka dot crying towel that is) over the eyes of Fresno Junior College fans.

For two weeks prior to the Los Angeles Valley Junior College tilt, Wiedenhofer had been crying "we ain't got nothin' and they're loaded." He rattled off a list a mile long of the prep stars appearing on the LA roster and never said much about his own team except that Milard Hampton wasn't going to play. (He enrolled Monday).

I for one feel Wiedenhofer should be very proud of himself and his team, for he fielded one of the smoothest functioning outfits I've seen in football in a long time. Wiedenhofer has done to that group of fellows exactly what was intended to be done to a football team prior to the platoon system in football.

There were no individual stars; it was everybody for everybody else. Johnny Souza couldn't have made those beautiful runs if the line hadn't opened a hole in the line big enough to drive a truck through.

Former JC Coed Places In Miss America Contest

Patricia Ann Johns, former Fresno Junior College coed, placed among the top ten in the Miss America contest in Atlantic City, N. J. She placed first in the bathing suit competition and also received a $1000 scholarship.

The 5 feet 5 inch beauty won the Fresno County title May 23. She then captured the Miss California crown in Santa Cruz on June 21.

On her return she attended the first FJC dance held at Washington Junior High School.

Red Key Will Take Membership Bids

Pat Still, president of FJC's service organization, Red Key, announced Monday the organization is now taking petitions for new members. Petitions can be obtained from any Red Key member. The petitions must be filled out and returned to Frances Purroy, membership chairman, by Friday, October 2.

The membership requirements for the organization include one semester's attendance at FJC and a 1.0 grade average. The student also must have a FJC student body card and must be carrying at least 12 units.

The Red Key members to contact for petitions are Art Lea, Blanche Milhahn, Miss Purroy, Miss Still, Bertha Hodge, Chuck Glahn and Wally Wallace.

Reedley Loses To Bullpups

Reedley Junior College, which is scheduled to meet the Fresno Junior College Rams November 7, lost a close contest, 12 to 7, to the Fresno State College Bullpups Saturday night in Reedley.

Hungry? Well, Amble In To The Ramble Inn

Mrs. Nina Stradel, manager of the Ramble Inn, invites all FJC students and staff members to try the snack shop's specialties as well as the low-priced lunches.

The Inn, a popular student "hang-out," is in Room S21 and is open from 7:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. daily. Mrs. Johanna Freiburger is Mrs. Stradel's assistant.

Mrs. Stradel said the specialties include five-cent coffee and "delicious, tasty hamburgers for only a quarter." The Inn also serves sandwiches, salads, soft drinks, and ice cream concoctions.

FJC HOLDS FIRST RALLY, ASSEMBLY OF SCHOOL YEAR

Fresno Junior College students attended their first assembly and rally of the school year Friday morning in the Memorial Auditorium.

The rally part of the 50-minute assembly stimulated student enthusiasm for Friday night's football game between the FJC Rams and the Los Angeles Valley Junior College eleven.

Following the game, FJC's rally committee were hosts at a dance in the Washington Junior High School Auditorium.

In the assembly, FJC students met their new president, Stuart M. White former principal of Edison High; Edwin C. Kratt, superintendent of the Fresno City Schools; members of the Fresno Board of Education; school administrators and new FJC faculty members.

Gerald Bender, the student body president, presided during the assembly, and Gilbert Starkey, rally committee co-chairman, was master of ceremonies for the rally.

Patrick Reed, a Fresno State College student, led FJC students in yells for the football team. Al Radka, Fresno radio entertainer, also participated, introducing Hans Wiedenhofer, the head football coach. Wiedenhofer introduced his team to their fellow students.

Student Council, Advisers Discuss 1953-54 Budget

The Fresno Junior College annual student body budget meeting was held last night in the Ramble Inn.

A tentative budget for the fiscal year, 1953-54, was discussed by the student council.

Student body officers, sponsors and commissioners were on hand to state and defend the amount of money each organization requests.

Gerald Bender, student body president; Carol Gostanian, student treasurer; and Miss Willa Marsh, the dean of students, arranged the meeting.
