FJC BAND APPEARS TOMORROW AT GAME

C. Lowell Spencer, Fresno Junior College music instructor, announced yesterday that the junior college will have a marching pep band at athletic contests this year for the first time in FJC's history.

Spencer said the band will make their first appearance tomorrow night at Ratcliffe Stadium when the FJC Rams will play their first conference game with the Porterville Junior College Pirates.

The pep band will include about 30 musicians, a drum major, and three majorettes and will present a program and halftime stunts in cooperation with FJC's rally committee and six pep girls. The band and drum major and majorettes will wear their practically new uniforms for their debut at the game.

The drum major is States Hines, and the majorettes are Aliene Nilmeier and Janet Wagner. Spencer said a third will be chosen before their first appearance.

Members of the band include Phyllis Martinez, Newton Penner, Charles and Robert Becker, A. J. Bland, Johnnie Carter, Robert Criswell, Helen Embry, Ronald Haskins, Fred Kapigian, Fred Leon, John Machoian, Kenneth Montanari, Byron Steinert, Arthur Tyler, Earl Wallace, Jesse Waller, Vincent Gordan, William Galley, Alfred Nersesian, David Rabon, George Sams, Wesley Smith, and Gus Gundunas.

Several alumni and other FJC students will also play with the band. The pep girls include Shirley Rush, Janet Wagner, Marilyn Caldwell, Anita Ferrell, Ann Nelson and Ellen Tally. Yell leaders who will work with the pep group at games include James Petropoulos, Shirley Burns and Bettie Iversen.

50 Rooters Have Fun At Recent Game

Rooting Section — "FJC's San Bernardino rooting section was really terrific. Here was a little rooting section all yelling together, so that I think the people knew we were there," said Joe King, rally committee adviser. "They were good, and made more noise than all the San Bernardino section put together," declared Coach Joe Kelly, who was out on the football field.

Some of the rooters, which includes some of JC's most enthusiastic students, were Ed Smiley, Billy Reed, Bill Smith, Crow Hansen, Kenneth and Shirley Burns, and Jim Oftedal, who took cars loaded with JC students.

FJC students were guests of San Bernardino Valley College at a dance. The master of ceremonies used new juggling devices to mix the dancers up, so that everybody got to dance with students from San Bernardino.

"We are also taking the council car to the San Jose game, and I hope we get the same high spirited results as we did in this recent trip," stated King.

Rams Open League With PJC Pirates

The Fresno Junior College Rams will open their 1953 Central California Junior College Athletic Association league season tomorrow night in Ratcliffe Stadium. Invading the Blackstone Avenue stadium will be the strong Porterville Pirates.

The Rams, who have been league champions for three straight years, will be facing a supreme test tomorrow night when they meet the Pirates as Porterville appears to be one of the powerhouse teams of the league. Porterville defeated the Rams' traditional rivals, the Giants of the College of Sequoias, 14 to 13, in Visalia on October 10.

Fresno Junior College's Coach Hans Wiedenhofer says his charges are ready and anxious for league action following their four warmup contests. The Rams defeated Los Angeles Valley Junior College in their season opener and downed San Bernardino Junior College Saturday night. They lost to a mighty powerful Modesto Junior College and to Bakersfield College, which is still undefeated.

The Pirates smashed the Fresno State College Bullpups Friday night, 27 to 7, in Porterville. Originally the Pirates were scheduled to meet the Coalinga Falcons.

RAM STAR . . . Lee Storelee, the quarterback for the Rambling Rams of FJC, played a brilliant 60-minute game against San Bernardino JC. He kicked the field goal which gave the Rams a 16 to 14 upset victory Saturday night. He will take his licks against Porterville tomorrow night along with Gilbert Starkey.

Press Conference Proves Success

The Fresno Junior College and the staff of the Rampage were hosts Saturday to about 100 students and instructors from 14 high schools and two colleges at the annual fall Fresno County regional conference of the San Joaquin Valley Scholastic Press Association.

After President Stuart M. White of FJC welcomed the delegates at an opening assembly in FJC's library, Joe Drilling, a vice president of KJEO-TV, spoke on television news.

The conference included a luncheon in Ramble Inn, high school writing contests in news, features, sports, and editorials; and morning and afternoon section meetings for yearbook and newspaper staffs and for advisers.

Rampage staff members, headed by Editor Haruo Yamaoka, were in charge of the contests and judged the entries. Yamaoka announced the winners after the luncheon.

First places were won by James Story, Tranquillity High, editorials; Frank Scott, Kingsburg High, sports; Louann Peterson, Roosevelt High, features; and Jack Spicer, Sanger High, news.

Miss Willa Marsh, FJC dean of students, helped arrange the conference along with Philip D. Smith, the conference chairman and FJC journalism instructor.

Joseph Woodman of the FJC faculty took motion pictures of the conference and spoke to a yearbook photography section. Blanche Milhahn of the Rampage was chairman of registration. Rampage section chairmen included W. Neil Radley, Mary Brumfield, Pat Still and Don Shroyer.

ATTENTION STUDENTS

Coach Joe Kelly announced all men students who intend to go out for the varsity basketball squad to please contact him prior to November 2 in the physical education office anytime during the day.

Kelly stated he would like their names, addresses, and experience in the field of casaba.

DEAN OF MEN SPEAKS

Paul Starr, Fresno Junior College Dean of Men, has asked students to please return empty soft drink bottles to the wooden cases which have been placed near the vendors.

ORGANIZATIONS PREPARE FOR RED KEY CARNIVAL

Red Key, the hottest thing on the campus at the present. You know why? Well, if you don't, here's all the dope on the Carnival, the Red Key and all the other organizations are staging.

Everything from a faculty cake-walk to the FJC alumni handwriting analysis, AMS egg throw, the record roll, and dart throw, to the big attraction, the dance. A floor show, loaded with talent, is being planned. Ralph Manfredo is supplying the music. Hotdogs will be sold by the Rally Committee, cokes by the Scholarship Society, and AWS, popcorn.

Hundreds of prizes are being given away at each booth. General admission is 10 cents and all amusements are 10 cents. Surprise door prizes are available to those who purchase $1 worth of tickets or more.

Construction of booths starts on November 2, Oliver Riggins assisted by N. T. Goolsby, head custodian, are in charge of construction. Carole Gostanian and Sue Sheehan are co-chairmen of the carnival entertainment committee. Vena Holt, chairman of finance; Art Lea, chairman of booths, and Ernest Wolf, faculty sponsor, are all under the supervision of Pat Still, general chairman.

Proceeds of the carnival will go to the individual organizations with Red Key receiving 10 percent of each booth's earnings.

Frosh Treasurer Elected

Pat Harrington became the freshman class treasurer during a reelection Wednesday, October 21, in a run-off between her and David Hernandez.

Big Rally Set For Noon On The Front Lawn

A rally for the Porterville game will be held tomorrow from 12:10 to 12:30 on the front lawn. States Hines and Carole Gostanian are in charge of the affair. Don Archer from KGST will provide some of the entertainment.

The cheer leaders will be on hand to lead yells, assisted by the pep girls. Several members of the FJC pep band will provide the musical part of the show.

After the game with Porterville Junior College, a sports dance will be held at the Washington Junior High School auditorium. Tickets will be sold for 25 cents with ASB card and 50 cents without. The dance will start at 10:30 p.m. and last until 1 a.m.

The Fresno Junior College dance band, led by C. Lowell Spencer, will make its first appearance at this dance.

Art Lea was in charge of the rally committee meeting last Monday that planned tomorrow's list of student activities. Molly Williams is in charge of the decorations, and Miss Gostanian is program chairman for the dance.

SCHOLARSHIP GROUPS INITIATE NEW MEMBERS

The new members of Phi Theta Kappa and Alpha Gamma Sigma attended their first meeting last Tuesday. The groups discussed final plans for the booths that they are sponsoring in the Red Key carnival, which is to be held Friday, November 6.

The new members were initiated Friday night during a formal ceremony at the home of the adviser, Dr. Lucille Williams. Charles Becker and Gerald Bender conducted the rites. After the ceremonies, the members sang the Phi Theta Kappa song and the Fresno Junior College Alma Mater.

Ernest Buford was pledged to Alpha Gamma Sigma and James White signed the oath for Phi Theta Kappa. Eight others were initiated into both organizations. They include Joy Hunt, Gene Saladino, Agnes Dervishian, Robert Price, Lucille Allen, Joan Sullivan, Motoi Takeyasu, and Mack Sanwo.

Be Happy, Go Wacky At The Ram Game

It's here at last! The first league game of the '53 pigskin season for the Fresno Junior College footballers. They will tangle with the powerful Porterville Pirates at the Ratcliffe Stadium tomorrow night.

This game promises to be a good one. Porterville already has knocked over the College of Sequoias Giants, and they really bowled over the Fresno State Bullpups.

From the rooting angle, let's all go see the game and blow the lid off of the stadium. The FJC band will make their appearance in full uniform and will play at the game. Sam the Ram will be there, too.

With all of the 1,803 students from the school in the rooting section, can you imagine the noise we could make? Brother, what a rooting that will be!

After the game is over and you feel quite content, why not amble to Washington Junior High and enjoy some dancing that the rally committee is sponsoring? That promises to be pretty good, too.

Well, tomorrow seems to be a great night for fun, so what do you say we all get together and have some good clean fun? We'll see you at the game, okay?

MRS. ANN GABLE, HEALTH NURSE

Mrs. Ann Gable, Fresno Junior College nurse, may be found in the Women's P.E. office from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. every Wednesday.

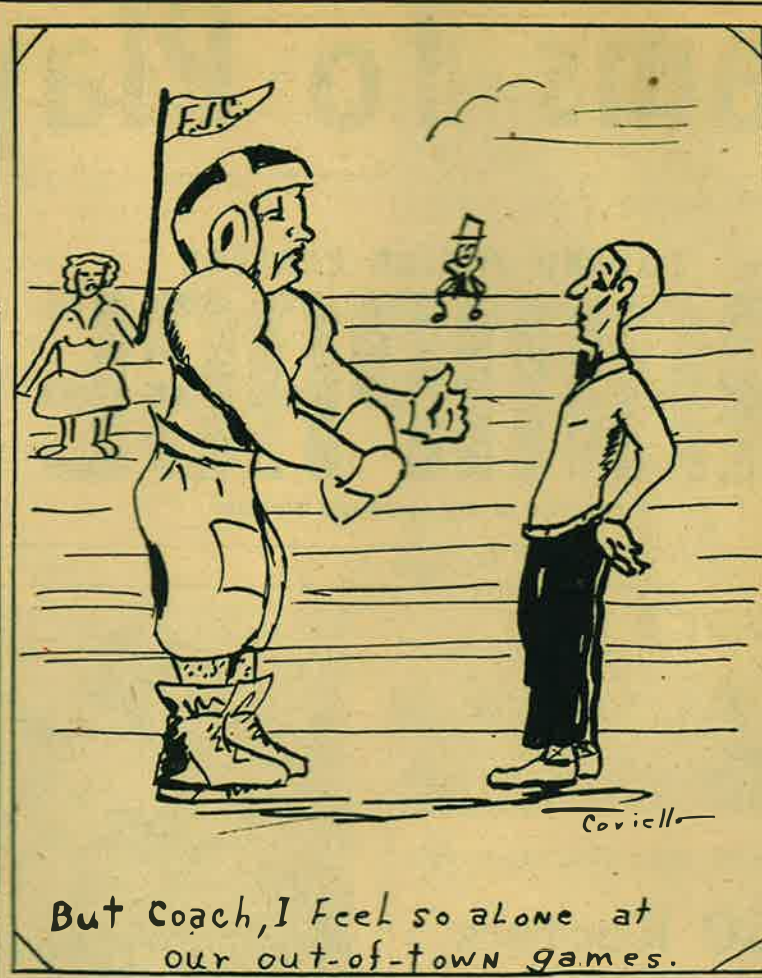

Mrs. Gable, as health nurse, is responsible for all health services. She conducts eye and ear tests, supervises the immunization and tuberculosis program, handles the control and the reporting of communicable diseases. She performs first aid and maintains equipment of the first aid kits in the shops. She must be alert to special accident and health problems. She also assists the teachers in the program of health instruction and the in-service health program for teachers.

Mrs. Gable also maintains all health records on students, checks on medical and dental referrals, promotes public relations, makes home calls, and contacts social agencies for aid in health programs such as securing glasses for students. She undertakes consultation with the students, orientation classes, and the group guidance program.

The following emergency stations were designated this year: Division Office, Miss Ethel McCormack, Women's P.E. Office, Mrs. Ann Gable and Mrs. Hazel Pedersen, Y.M.C.A., Paul Starr and Ray McCarthy.

"Students are encouraged to seek and utilize her services," declared Stuart M. White, FJC president.

AMS Holds Bean Feed

The Associated Men Students held their annual dinner last night in the Fresno Junior College library, honoring the football squad.

The social affair served as a preliminary to the Rams' first conference game with Porterville Junior College in Ratcliffe Stadium tomorrow night.

Nick DiLiddo, AMS vice-president, acted as the toastmaster and was scheduled to introduce President Stuart M. White of FJC. Paul Starr, the athletic director, and Ray McCarthy and Joe Kelly, assistant coaches. Head Coach Hans Wiedenhofer introduced his players.

Charles Becker, the organization's program chairman, assisted by the AMS executive council, including Valenzuela, Nick DiLiddo, Byron Steinert and Ronald Coviello, was in charge of arrangements for the dinner.

The program was under the sponsorship of J. C. Carty, librarian; Kenneth Hall and Erret Smith, two FJC instructors.

Rams Drop Indians, 16-14

Fresno Scores Impressive Win Over San Bernardino

Coach Hans Wiedenhofer's Fresno Junior College Rams roared back into the win column Saturday night when they defeated the San Bernardino Junior College Indians, 16 to 14, in San Bernardino.

Ram quarterback Lee Storelee, who played 60 minutes of "bang-up" football, supplied the two point margin when he kicked a 17-yard field goal in the final period of play.

The FJC touchdowns were made by Millard Hampton. Hampton scored in the first quarter on a 52-yard jaunt from his own 48-yard line. Storelee missed the extra point.

In the second quarter Storelee fired a long pass to halfback Jim Travis to set the ball on the four-yard line, where Hampton ploughed through the middle for the Ram's second score. Storelee stepped back and split the uprights, and the Rams lead, 13 to 0.

The Indians retaliated with Jim McCarter smashing for 18 yards to score. He booted the ball for the extra point. Late in the fourth quarter, with the Rams leading 16 to 7, the Indians scored again on a long pass to Tom Kelly. McCarter's conversion try was good.

Although the actual score was 16 to 14, the Rams had several touchdowns called back because of penalties, and the Indians' final touchdown came on a fluke.

The hard-charging Ram line, with guard Dick Yecny standing over the center, saw the Indians fumble 14 times. The Rams recovered six of the miscues.

Wiedenhofer, who exclaimed that "we murdered them," had high praise for quarterback Storelee, who was in the contest from beginning to end. Gil Starkey, who has been suffering from the flu, spent two days in bed in San Bernardino. The entire quarterbacking load fell upon the capable shoulders of Storelee, who met the situation and turned in an outstanding job of signal calling.

"The line was tremendous," Wiedenhofer declared; "it was the difference!" He said the 52-yard run by Hampton was only possible because of the drive of the line and the "fine downfield blocking" provided Hampton on his touchdown run.

Johnnie Souza, although he did not carry the ball many times, was a thing of beauty during the contest when he was used mostly as a decoy. The scouts had seen him, so he turned in a fine performance of faking. End Nick DiLiddo, guard Dick Yecny and Charles Ratliff were praised by Wiedenhofer for their very fine job.

The Rams will meet the Porterville Pirates in Ratcliffe Stadium tomorrow night in the opening league contest for the Rams. Wiedenhofer has been sending his charges through rugged workouts this week in preparation for the contest.

Guard Yecny has been suffering from a hip injury that he reinjured during the Indian contest and Tex Rankin is suffering from a nose injury.

However, the Rams will most likely be up to full strength for the Pirate contest with halfback Bill Smith returning to action after being out two weeks with a knee injury. Ratliff is also recovering from a leg injury incurred during the San Bernardino contest.

CCJCAA Title Is Rated As Tossup

By DON SHROYER

The Fresno Junior College Rams are going to have a pretty rough time capturing their fourth straight Central California Junior College Athletic Association league championship.

According to the Fresno grid mentor, Hans Wiedenhofer, the league is the toughest it has ever been since its formation.

Porterville, which the Rams meet tomorrow night, downed a strong College of Sequoias eleven just two weeks ago. The Reedley squad has been rolling over one strong college after another and remain in the unbeaten list.

The usually strong College of Sequoias team has had tough luck so far this season but are to be watched. The COS Giants are the Rams' traditional rivals and will be up for the contest, even though they may win no more games this season.

Possibly the team to watch will be the Reedley Tigers, who have bowled over Occidental and slaughtered San Francisco as well as putting down the Fresno State College Bullpups. It is interesting to note, however, that the Porterville team scored a more impressive win over the Bullpups than did the Tigers.

The Taft Junior College Cougars are not to be overlooked, either. They squeaked a 19 to 16 victory out of COS last week end in Taft.

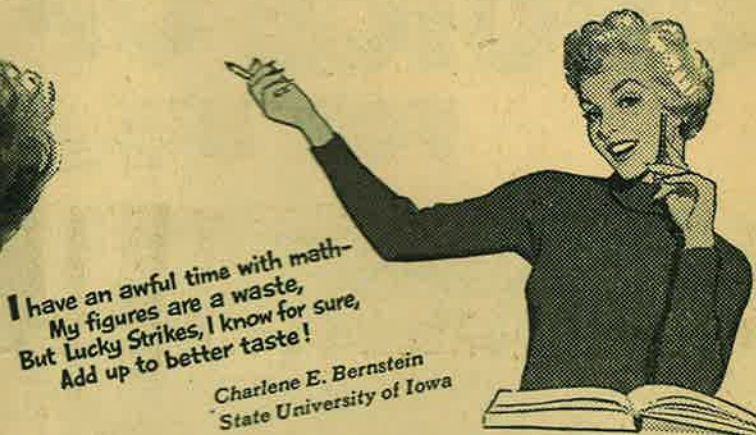

One thing for sure, the Rams thought they were having a tough time with their warm-up games—wait till they hit some of these league teams.

Sam Appears At Game Tomorrow

Sam the Ram III will make his second appearance tomorrow night at the Ratcliffe Stadium when the Rams will play the Porterville Pirates.

Sam the Ram III has two predecessors, Sam the Ram Senior, who served as mascot for FJC three years, and Sam the Ram Junior, who only served for one game.

Sam III made his first debut at a student body rally a couple of weeks ago, and the following day he led a car caravan down Fulton Street on its way to Ratcliffe Stadium.

The original Sam spent a very lively three years at FJC's activities. It was a very sad day for the FJC students when they held the last rites for Sam in the spring of 1951.

Sam the Ram Junior made his first appearance at a rally before the Visalia game of 1951 and his last appearance at a rally that night as he had a heart attack directly after the game.
