Rams Will Try To Secure Second Consecutive Victory

The Fresno Junior College Rams, after stepping on the College of Sequoias Giants last Friday night, will take on the Taft Junior College Cougars Saturday night at Martin Memorial Field in Taft. This will be the second league game of the season for the Rams.

The Taft eleven have a good record so far this season. Their only loss was to San Francisco City College. They were shattered by the score of 21-6. In their winning streak, the Cougars defeated their opponents in the Alumni game 31-6, waded through Tracy JC 34-13 and collected another from Ventura in a 33-20 victory. That will be a challenge for the Fresno team who are out to take the CCJCAAC for the fifth consecutive year.

Taft JC will be at somewhat of a disadvantage in this coming game due to several injuries in their lineup. Right Half Jim Niles will be out with a broken leg. Left Half Drew Poorbaugh is suffering from a dislocated shoulder which will put him on the bench and Right Tackle Bob Ernst is a doubtful starter because of a sprained ankle.

Hans Wiedenhofer, FJC's head coach, predicts a tough game. "Taft Junior College boasts one of the finest teams on the west coast. We will have to play heads-up football Saturday night," stated Hans.

The Fresno ball club will be in top condition for the tussle. There have been no injuries in practice, and the boys came out of the COS game unscathed.

Nisei Club To Hold Installation

A Nisei club meeting was held on Wednesday, October 13 in S-10 and the club decided that Miss Kimi Tokubo, the vice president, will be in charge of the installation of officers and initiation of new members this Friday.

Erma Takeuchi, the publicity chairman, said the Nisei Club will miss Miss Kate Darling as the sponsor because of class confusions. Miss Takeuchi also stated that the club welcomes Miss Meriam Tervo as the new sponsor.

Appoints Representatives

Dean Lee, student body president, said the council selected six representatives to attend the annual fall conference of the California State Junior College Student Council Government Association at Asilomar November 9 to 11 with Joseph W. King, the council's adviser.

The selected students will include Lee, Nedra Looney, Robert Moxley, Brent Freeman, James Ringer and Fred Hall.

Red Key Plans Annual Carnival

The Red Key organization is making definite plans for their annual carnival to be held November 19 in the Fresno Memorial Auditorium.

The carnival will consist of different booths by the different clubs and organizations of the Fresno Junior College. These clubs are in charge of the decorations of the booths. Merle L. Sons will set up the booths for the clubs.

The clubs participating in the carnival include 13th Year, Alpha Gamma Sigma, Phi Theta Kappa, Nisei Club, Newman Club, Future Business Leaders of America, Rambling Collegiates, Associated Men Students, Associated Women Students, Latin-American Club, Faculty Club and the Alumni Club.

He showed the students how to oil the machines, how to thread the needle, how to thread the machine both bobbin and top thread, and the uses of the presser foot.

Hines, who is majoring in music, is a graduate of Fresno High School. He is 19 years old and single. He was elected for the same position last year but withdrew from school.

The class also elected Angela Renna as secretary and Joan Blasco as publicity chairman.

Miss Renna is majoring in business and is eighteen years old. She graduated from the San Joaquin Memorial High School in Fresno.

Sam Takes In Game, Feels Team Needs More Support

Along with all of the other avid supporters of our worthy team, I attended the game last Friday night and did my share of rooting, cheering, croaking and gasping our Rams to a win over the Visalia Giants in the league opener of the season. As much as I hate to say it, there was one trouble maker at the game. He was situated in front of the entire game. At the time of both touchdowns, the brute merely stood there with a drippy nose and showed not the least bit of emotion, while the rest of the gang was going wild.

Sam the Ram was in an obstinate mood. Two of our more versatile rally men (names withheld) at halftime tried to induce Sam to make a showing on the Giant side of the field. No dice. The creature bowed his neck threateningly and stood his ground. After several attempts and the proper amount of name-calling, the two (by that time there were four) discouraged rally men gave up on Sam for an easier task, such as discussing the many attributes of our wonderful pep girls.

Also during halftime, as we were enjoying a comfortable 7-0 lead, I marveled at the amount of support the College of Sequoias supplied. If I may say so, their cheering section was much larger than ours in spite of the fact that we were the home team. In my opinion, those eleven boys out on the grid-iron deserve our wholehearted support. Let's give it to them!

Sam Kazmi Of Palestine Says He Likes America

Fresno Junior College has 22 foreign students enrolled for the fall semester. One of the most outstanding, perhaps, is a quiet fellow who goes by the name of Sam Kazmi. Kazmi, a 23-year-old engineering major, arrived in this country from Palestine last June.

He states that the difference in the education system between the United States and Palestine is remarkable. In a school in Kazmi's country all of the subjects are given in one room. Each instructor enters the room, gives his lecture and leaves, making room for the next tutor. Sam attended school until 1947, when the war in his homeland forced him to quit.

The foreign students of this school are forming an organization to be led by Kazmi.

"The purpose of this club," says Kazmi, "is to bring the foreign and American students together."

The first meeting will be held next Thursday, October 21. American as well as foreign students are urged to attend. Contact Kazmi for further information.

Fiorentino Plays Right Guard Post On Ram Football Squad

By JOE RAMPAGE

The Ram personality of the week is freshman Frank Fiorentino, who plays right guard on the Ram football team and who has shown outstanding ability in the first three games this season.

Fiorentino, who is 5 feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 190 pounds, came to the FJC from the San Joaquin Memorial High School, where he graduated last June. He played guard on the varsity football team while in high school, and last year was one of the few high school players who was named all Northern California.

Fiorentino, who also participates in track, holds 27 high school records in the valley and last June attended the state track meet in Berkeley. He will be a member of the Ram track team this spring.

After completing his education at FJC, he plans to enroll at the University of Southern California, where he will continue his major in physical education.

Whoever said "dynamite comes in small packages," must have been well acquainted with Ram Right Guard Fiorentino.

FJC SPORTS

By MARVIN LUTZ

Fresno JC finally hit the win column last Friday night with a conference victory over COS, 13 to 6. Other scores were Taft, 33, Ventura JC, 20; Porterville, 35, Santa Maria, 0; and Reedley won over San Jose JC.

The entire Fresno team deserves all the credit and support they can get. The coaching staff has been increased by two part-time members this year to mold such a fine team. The new men are Orville "Pepper" Crane and Bob Cobb, who played for FJC in the 1949-50 season.

They have done a fine job so far in giving additional assistance to full-time coaches Hans Wiedenhofer, Ray McCarthy, and Joe Kelly. All this should combine to gain another victory over Taft JC Cougars in Taft Saturday night. This is also a CCJCAA contest.

I hope a good turnout of rooters will show up in Taft.

FJC Is Victor In Grid Opener, COS Loser In 13-6 Score

The Rambling Rams of Fresno Junior College moved one step higher to their fifth straight Central California Junior College Association crown by trampling the College of the Sequoias 13-6 in their first league game played last Friday night in Ratcliffe stadium.

Hard tackling created fumbles which at crucial times hurt both teams. The 5,000 attending fans saw Coach Hans Wiedenhofer keep his five year jinx over the Giants.

Rams Score Seven

In the closing seconds of play of the first half the Rams scored, and when Larry Kaprielian tallied the extra point it gave the Rams a 7-0 lead and also the winning point margin.

COS bounced back in the third period when 185 pound Don Akin of Visalia and Dick Gomez combined for a first down on the Rams' 11, and then Gomez made it to the three on a pitchout. A big hole left by the Rams at tackle made it possible for the Giants to gain life in the end zone. Bill Douglas' try for the extra point was wide.

Rams Make It 13

Not satisfied with the one point margin, FJC, with the help of a 15 yard penalty on the kickoff, grabbed the ball on the COS 48. Then Nick Rendino and Calvin Fox alternated to the Giants 23. On a quick pitchout Fox outran the COS secondary for a seven point Ram margin. This time the conversion try was wide.

The fourth quarter found COS knocking on the Rams' end-zone twice, but a penalty and a fumble made the Giants' hopes fade.

COS gained 11 first downs against 10 for FJC. The Visalia eleven piled up a total of 263 net yards compared to 251 for Fresno.

What makes a Lucky taste better?

"IT'S TOASTED"

to taste better!

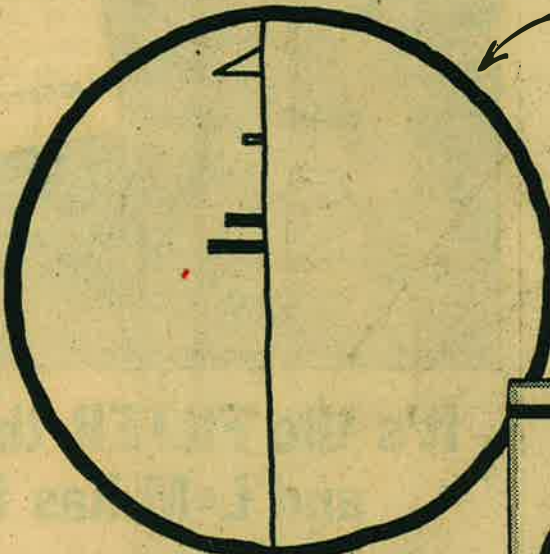

Doubtless, you've guessed that the Droodle at the right is: Careless two-gun cowboy enjoying better-tasting Lucky while waiting in ambush. Lots of other two-gun cowboys—and many millions of no-gun folks—agree that Luckies taste better. Students, for example, prefer Luckies to all other brands, according to the latest, biggest coast-to-coast college survey. Once again, the No. 1 reason is that Luckies taste better. They taste better because Lucky Strike is the cigarette of fine tobacco . . . and "It's Toasted" to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.

Four Former FJC Students Honored With Gold Plaque

Members of the Fresno Junior College chapter of Alpha Gamma Sigma hung a gold plaque on the student body bulletin board recently to honor four FJC graduates, Gerald Bender, Patsy Jean Still, Mrs. Lucille Allen, and Shigeko Shimokubo, who were elected to permanent membership in the scholastic group.

Dr. Rolf Ordal, the adviser, said that Bender, a former student body president, and Miss Still, now in the Women's Air Force in Texas, have been selected for the state honor roll of Alpha Gamma Sigma.

Dr. Ordal stated that every spring as future graduates qualify for state permanent membership their names will be placed on the plaque.

Requirements for permanent membership include temporary membership for three of four semesters or four out of five with a 2.3 grade point average or membership for two semesters and a 2.5 average.

Requirements for the state honor roll include permanent membership, a 2.5 average or better, and graduation. The yearly award is limited to one member of each sex.

Dean Lee, the student body president of FJC, said the student body is awarding gold pins to Bender, Miss Still, Mrs. Allen, and Miss Shimokubo.

John Mock Attends Education Confab

John Mock, the general education chairman of the Fresno Junior College, attended a general education conference Friday and Saturday in Bakersfield. This is a state wide conference of general education chairmen of California junior colleges.

Each chairman gave a report on progress of the search for funds for the study of general education.

Mock gave a report entitled, "Significant Educational Developments," which discussed the problem FJC has had because of a housing shortage the last two years. The enrollment has continued to increase every year and the curriculum is being reorganized to meet the students' needs. Fresno Junior College is placing more emphasis on guidance which is a 2 unit

Save Yourself From Bad Colds

Mrs. Hazel Pedersen, FJC health coordinator, suggested since October is the month for catching colds, here are some "cold" facts on how to prevent this sickness which can have serious results.

1. Stay away from people who have colds.
2. Keep in top physical condition. Eat a well-balanced diet.
3. get sufficient sleep and rest.
4. Don't share drinking glasses, dishes and silverware which come into contact with a person who has a cold.
5. Suit your clothes to the weather. Avoid getting chilled or wet.
6. See your doctor for periodic check-ups.

If you have a cold keep it to yourself as much as possible; avoid close contact with people. Cover your nose and mouth when you cough.

Use paper tissues and be sure to destroy them after use. Wash your hands carefully and frequently.
