105 Sophomores Seek A.A. Degree

One hundred and five potential graduates who intend to get an associate of arts degree in June have filed applications in the registrar's office.

Mrs. Lena M. Fuller, FJC registrar, stated that an associate of arts degree is conferred on students who complete 60 units of college work with at least a C average, have a major of at least 20 units in specified field and meet certain other requirements prescribed by state law.

At least 16 units and a minimum of one half of the work of the final semester must be earned in FJC.

The graduates last spring numbered 77 out of an original class of 100.

Band At FJC Gets Uniforms

From now on the Fresno Junior College band will wear new uniforms of red jackets with yellow-knit ties and gray trousers.

Purchases of 18 additional uniforms plus the 10 purchased before for the dance band total up to the necessary amount. There are 28 students in the band.

The old uniforms were from the old Fresno Tech High School days.

The new uniforms were bought from the Rambling Cross Men's Shop on Olive Avenue. Cross is an ardent supporter of FJC. He didn't make any profit on the deal.

"The band is now developing into a good marching unit and has more pride," said C. Lowell Spencer, the band director.

The band marched in the Veterans' Day parade.

The three new majorettes also have new white uniforms.

The first appearance in the new uniforms was at the FJC-West Contra Costa football game a couple of weeks ago.

Staff Busy On 1955 Annual

Since the beginning of school, the yearbook staff has been busy taking pictures and making up pages so that Fresno Junior College can have its first yearbook in five years.

Editor Shirley McLaughlin said, "A minimum of 300 copies must be sold, and almost 300 copies have been sold already, so if you want a copy you had better order it now."

The price of the yearbook is $2.50 if you buy it now, but it will be $3.50 if you wait until after December 17.

There will be about 72 pages altogether in the annual, and they will cover all activities of the year.

The yearbook is being previewed in the hall on the second floor to give the students an idea of the contents of the book.

Franz A. Weinschenk, a new faculty member, is the annual staff adviser.

The yearbook is to be called the Rambler, the name it had when it was last published in 1950.

Rams Knock Over Indians; Rendino Gallops 95 Yards

FJC Subdues SBVJC 13-7

The FJC Rams showed 2,000 people in Ratcliffe Stadium last Saturday night just how tough they could be as they knocked off the San Bernardino Junior College Indians to the tune of 13-7. The Indians, although previously twice beaten, were far from push-overs in one of the toughest games of the season.

Pulses were racing in the opening seconds of the game as Right Halfback Nick Rendino snatched the kick-off on the Fresno five yard line and screamed along the west side line for 95 yards and a touchdown.

The wild 170 pounder couldn't be stopped as he received superb blocking from Center Don Kloppenburg and Guards Allan Eldred and Gene Bachman. As he crossed the 40 yard strife all hopes of stopping him died in the eyes of the San Berdoo eleven. The conversion was

Tigers To Host Rams In Last Conference Game

The Fresno Junior College Rams will invade the Reedley Junior College Tigers' den on Thanksgiving morning in an attempt to tie for first place in the Central California JC Conference standings.

This will be the last game of the season for both squads. Game time is 10:30 a.m.

The Rams, who are defending champions of the conference, would like nothing better than to defeat the Tigers and to wind up tied for first place along with COS and possibly Taft.

The Reedley eleven has won six games this season while losing three. However, they have lost two conference games, COS defeated them 39-27, and Taft bopped them 14-6 last Saturday night. The Reedley squad won a real thriller by one point over the Porterville Pirates, the score was 28-27.

The Fresno Rams have won four while losing three during this sea-

Red Key Will Sponsor Third Fall Carnival

The Red Key, a student service organization for the Fresno Junior College, will sponsor their third annual carnival tomorrow night from 6:30 to 11:00 p.m. in the Fresno Memorial Auditorium.

Most of the clubs and organizations on campus will sponsor the booths to be featured in the carnival.

The Rambling Collegiates booth will consist of "Chairs of Fortune" (played similar to musical chairs) to the record of "Skookian." Their secondary booth will be "Fortune Telling" by Ann Nelson under the name of "Zimba the Mystic."

Booth Chairmen

Chairmen for these booths are Sue Sheehan, Lynn Rice and Dorothy Ragsdale.

The rally committee will sell hot dogs for 20 cents and soft drinks for 10 cents in a concession booth with a secondary as "Bursting Balloons." Chairman is Roy Takakjian.

The 13th year class will sponsor a sideshow. Admission is 20 cents, and balloon selling as a secondary for 10 cents. Ed Suddjian is the chairman.

Delicious pizza and coffee will be sold by the Newman Club in a concession booth. Ella Papagni, Mary Fiorentino and Carol Barsotti are chairmen for the booth.

The Veterans Club will feature "Squish Throwing," consisting of throwing damp sponges at a fellow-student for 20 cents. As a secondary, they will feature an ice cream booth. Chairmen are Al Saladino, Jr., and Jim Ford.

Little Reno

"Little Reno," a game of chance, will be featured by the Campus Activity Club. Dewey Kee is in charge of the booth.

The Nisei Club will have a bingo game, and Mack Sanwo is in charge of the booth. As a secondary they will sell coffee.

The Associated Men Students will sell hot nuts for 20 cents, and the organization will feature a penny pitch. Phi Theta Kappa will have a cake sale.

Portraits Drawn

Alpha Gamma Sigma will feature "Portrait Drawing" for 20 cents. Florence Hampartz will do the drawing. Future Business Leaders of America's booth will consist of "Dart Throwing" for 20 cents.

General chairman for the carnival is Martin Isler; decoration committee chairmen are Helen Embry and Lynn Rice. Prize committee chairman is Sue Sheehan and Jim Ringer is the finance chairman. Art Tyler and Jim Ford are booth chairmen.

Delegates Attend Annual Conclave

The Fresno Junior College's delegation attended the three day annual fall conference on November 9-11 of the California Junior College Student Government Association at Asilomar near Pacific Grove.

FJC was unanimously voted to be host to the state meeting in Fresno in the fall of 1955 on November 17-19.

Joseph W. King, FJC student council adviser, was elected to a new post, permanent conference coordinator who will aid host junior colleges in planning state conferences with the assistance of a student coordinator from FJC to be selected by the FJC student council.

Dean Lee, FJC student body president, was installed at the conference as the association's vice-president representing the central region of the state during the spring semester.

He will be president of the central region during the spring term, when FJC will be host to the central regional conference in March.

DEOLINDA FARRANT
... Ram Week Queen

Frosh Candidate Becomes Queen

Dee Dee Farrant, a 17 year old freshman, was crowned on November 5 as the Homecoming Queen of the Fresno Junior College.

Miss Farrant and the other queen candidates, who were Diane Paschall, Ellen Tally, and Ann Nelson, were introduced by Al Radka, who was master of ceremonies at a rally held on November 4 in the Memorial Auditorium. The student body selected the queen at the rally and her identity was kept secret until the half time at the homecoming football game.

Gets Crown

Miss Farrant was crowned at the half time event of the game between West Contra Costa and the Rams. She was crowned by Richard Bressler of the Fresno Junior Chamber of Commerce, who placed a wreath of baby orchids on her head and presented her with a bouquet of red roses. The other candidates were each presented with a spray of carnations.

When asked how she felt when selected and crowned, she stated, "I really was too shocked and happy to realize what was going on, but it is an honor to represent Fresno Junior College."

Meets Miss America

She also stated that it was a great pleasure to meet Miss America, Lee Ann Meriweather, "a beautiful and talented girl that represents America."

The queen and the other candidates were also interviewed on local TV and radio stations.

Students Will Take Holiday

The Thanksgiving holiday will be observed by Fresno Junior College Thursday and Friday, November 25 and 26. School will resume the following Monday.

Due to this holiday, there will be no Rampage next week or the following week. The next issue of the Rampage will be on December 9.

Thanksgiving On The Way; US, FJC To Give Thanks

Once again that 'ole autumn feeling has got me in a daze. Now that mid-terms are over let's look at the happier side of the school life at FJC . . . three holidays in succession: Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's.

Once again there are those good 'ole taffy-pulls, those roaring fireplaces, and those smiles with the extra punch in them from your friends. It'll be good to again sit down at one of those good old Thanksgiving dinners that mom cooked. It'll be nice to see the family around the fireplace Thanksgiving night, but I think that it'll be best to be in that period of good feeling.

During this time of the year people slow down and have time for the little things in life and create a feeling of goodwill with the people of this nation which is rarely done on this tired, 'ole, battered world.

Next week when we sit down before the table that is laden with food, let us offer a prayer that we are still among the free people of this world and that we have the right to breathe and the right of freedom, and let us pray even stronger that we, as Americans, keep this perfect record. Education is another thing that we should be thankful for, as this is one thing that no one can ever take from us; it's with us for the rest of our lives.

As the years are to come, we as Americans shall cherish this important day of the year as the pioneers did it only yesterday. Yes . . . we have something . . . let's enjoy it . . . but the main thing, let's pray to keep it.

Red Key To Sponsor Carnival

It won't be long now. What's that? The Red Key carnival, of course. Tomorrow night at the Fresno Memorial Auditorium the students at FJC will witness one of the most outstanding events of the year. They will have more fun than rolling a peanut across the floor by their nose.

Yes, it seems more like school when the traditional carnival comes along as students get that happy feeling that is part of the traditional ceremonies.

A big vote of thanks should be given to the various clubs and their committees for making this carnival one of the best FJC students will ever lay their eyes on.

Now, it's up to you to make this carnival a success that it should be. It's in your hands! Make the best of it and come to the Red Key carnival tomorrow night.

Reminder To Vets

A reminder to veterans attending Fresno Junior College under Public Law 550 from Mrs. Louise Murphy, veterans' secretary: Don't forget to sign your monthly certification (Form 7-1996a) between the 1 and 5 of December in order to receive your subsistence for the period November 1 to 30.

RAMBLING COLLEGIATES

The Collegiates held a meeting November 8 in which Virginia Crane, a pep girl and an active member of the club, was chosen as a candidate for Miss Flashbulb.

A new vice-president and treasurer were elected, and they are Lynn Rice and Gwin Wilson, respectively.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

FLASH! There will be a free movie today at noon in B-8 for all business students in the Fresno Junior College. This movie, which was made in Los Angeles by the Title Insurance and Trust Company, explains how to buy land and how land policies were formed.

Tentative plans are being formulated for a spaghetti dinner in the home of Betty Lee in the near future.

All business students are welcome to attend the meeting.

RED KEY

An initiation for all new members accepted into the Red Key will be held after the Red Key carnival. These members include Bob Moxley, States Hines, Boyd Deel, Brent Freeman, Lynn Rice, Gwin Wilson, Judy Long, Louella Williams, Jim Ringer, Fred Hall, Mary Fiorentino, Ella Papagni, Odell Johnson and Nedra Looney.

Latin American Club

Rudy Gutierrez, an accounting major, was elected president of the Latin-American Club at a recent meeting.

Other officers elected are Rachel Pacheco, vice-president; Loretta Cosgrave, secretary; Richard Reyes, treasurer; Hector Gutierrez, sergeant at arms; Helen Miranda and Eleanor Franco, publicity. Dr. Eldred J. Renk is the sponsor.

Initiation fees and regular monthly dues were both set at 50 cents.

made, and the score stood 7-0, Fresno.

Less than eight minutes later the southerner's sly Quarterback Jack Crabtree stepped through guard, outfoxed the secondary and bounded 48 yards for paydirt. The extra point was booted and the scoreboard was tied up.

Quarterback Tom Flores got busy midway in the second period, and the Fresno club found themselves again knocking on the Berdoo door. After Flores wriggled his way free from a pass trap and made his way to the five yard line, Larry Kaprielian bulled his way over for the second Ram score. Kaprielian's attempt for the conversion was wild, and the score was 13-7. It remained that way for the duration of the game.

San Bernardino netted 104 yards by rushing while Fresno netted only 84. Five passes were completed by each team. The Rams will conclude their football season Thanksgiving morning when they meet the Reedley JC Tigers.

47 Members Now Enrolled In Choir

FJC's choir, under the direction of C. Lowell Spencer, has 47 members.

Their choir is now preparing for the annual Christmas assembly, December 16, which will be held in the Memorial Auditorium.

Those in the choir are Stanley Adair, Dorothy Baker, Phyllis Beary, Iola Casteel, Raymond Calton, Karlo Demoorjian, Gladys Devore, Roland Dizer, Helen Embry, Anita Ferrell, Kenneth Goff, Hector Gutierrez, Gary Harper, Eldorado Haynes, George Hocker, Maynard Idleman, Bettie Iversen, Shire Dazato, Wilma Koenig, Dewin Lelax, Carrie Mitchell.

Franco Places In Writing Contest

Eleanor Franco, FJC Rampage reporter, placed fourth in the feature writing contest at a recent conference sponsored by the San Joaquin Valley Scholastic Press Association and the Northern California Junior College Press Association at Stockton College.

Miss Franco, a Fowler High graduate, is majoring in secretarial work and is minoring in journalism.

John Duke, Fresno State College associate professor of journalism, and Don Reid, promotion manager of the Stockton Record, were the principal speakers of the program.

After the writing contests, the delegates were taken on tours of the print shop and journalism departments on the college campus.

WCC Nips Rams, 22-20, In Ratcliffe Stadium Thriller

When the final gun sounded in Ratcliffe Stadium on the night of Friday, November 5, the FJC Rams found themselves twelve yards short of a touchdown; that 12 yards meant that the West Contra Costa Comets clipped the Rams, 22-20, in one of the season's closest non-conference games.

The Rams, who were up against one of the fastest ball clubs in the state, were again shown the way by their slinky Quarterback Tommy Flores. Flores, whose deadly passing aim and amazing alertness have brought the Fresno team a long way this year, just couldn't quite shake off that last tackler in the final seconds of the game.

Rams Trail At Half
After recovering a Comet fumble on the WCC 24 yard line, the Rams wasted three downs; then on the last down Flores' gamble paid off as he hit Larry Kaprielian in the end zone for Fresno's first tally. Kaprielian converted and the score stood, 7-0, Fresno.

The Comets, obviously taking a dim view of the proceedings, took the kick-off on their 23 yard line and six plays later were in the end zone. Later in the first period the Comets kicked a field goal from the Fresno seven. The score rested 10-7.

Midway in the second quarter the Comets drove into the Ram end zone but failed to convert. The Fresno eleven trailed at halftime, 16-7.

Fresno Tries Airways
In the second half Fresno took to the air. After a series of pases Flores was caught in a pass trap but managed to worm himself free and tromp 13 yards for pay dirt. Snyder kicked the extra point, and the score was 16-14, Comets leading. With time running short, WCC's Halfback Emmet Kirtman churned through the center of the line and past the secondary for a 95 yard TD run. The kick was wide.

After the kick and with only four minutes remaining, Flores passed to Gene Barnes in the end zone. Kaprielian's kick was wild and the score was 22-20, WCC leading.

On the final play of the game, Flores was brought down on the 12 yard line after a desperate run around end. Final score: West Contra Costa 22, Fresno 20.

son. They tied once. In conference play they won their opener 13-6 over the COS eleven and knocked over Porterville 27-13. Their only loss was an upset to Taft by a score of 19-13.

The Reedley team will portray its running ability with Hank Vasquez, Wayne Snell, Ed Buchanan, and Pete Rogalsky handling this department. Quarterback Dick McBridge, who set up two Tiger scores against Porterville by passes, will again be a great asset to the Reedley squad.

Tramp, Tramp, Tramp The Boys Are Marching

By JOE RAMPAGE
The little guy was standing there on the north side of B-15, his head bent down looking as if he had lost his best friend. Actually, he did lose one of his best friends. The fact is, he lost several of his friends. There before him lay what used to be a beautiful bed of flowers. Most of the flowers had been trampled into nothingness . . . their once refreshing beauty gone, replaced by mud-caked petals and broken stems.
Ralph Trosi, FJC's gardener, glanced at me as I walked up behind him. Noticing the obvious grief written on his face, I turned to the flower bed. His grief was justifiable. A wave of pity swept over me as I realized how the little Italian must have felt about the flowers.

"What in the world happened, Ralph?" I asked. Without looking at me, he answered, "Some boys hurt my flowers," and moved a few feet away from me. I couldn't help feeling a twinge of guilt as I inspected the remains of the flowers more closely. The earth surrounding the flowers was peppered with little round holes. The holes looked as if they could have been made by football shoes.

Some of you readers may have noticed the incident last Friday morning. By this time, the place has been patched up a little, and the ruined plants have been removed. To some, the whole thing may seem trivial. Perhaps it is . . . Perhaps I'm making a mountain of a molehill, but I think it could bear some thought . . . don't you?

ACCORDING TO THE LARGEST and latest coast-to-coast college survey, college smokers prefer Luckies—and by a wide margin. The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. Thousands of students appreciate Luckies' better taste almost as much as the pair in the Droodle above, titled: Sweethearts attempting to kiss and enjoy better-tasting Luckies at same time. Luckies taste better for good reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, "It's Toasted" to taste better. This famous Lucky Strike process tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better—cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.

RAM PERSONALITY
... Gene Barnes

Gene Barnes Plans To Attend UCLA

Our Ram of the Week, Gene Barnes, who plays half-back on the Ram team, plans to attend UCLA after completing Fresno Junior College.

Barnes has proven to be a real asset on the Ram team during the last few weeks. He displayed great ability in the thrilling duels against West Contra Costa and San Bernardino.

Barnes weighs 185 pounds and is 6 feet tall.

He is a graduate of the Sanger Union High School, where he completed in three years of varsity football and track. Here at FJC he has named physical education as his major.

When asked what he likes about FJC, he commented that he liked the attractive girls, the spirited rallies and especially the friendly atmosphere.

FJC SPORTS

By MARVIN LUTZ

The FJC Rambling Rams battled .500 percent over the last two weeks. The JC team lost a real thriller to the West Contra Costa club, but then came back to sink the San Bernardino JC ball club, 13-7, last Saturday night in Ratcliffe Stadium.

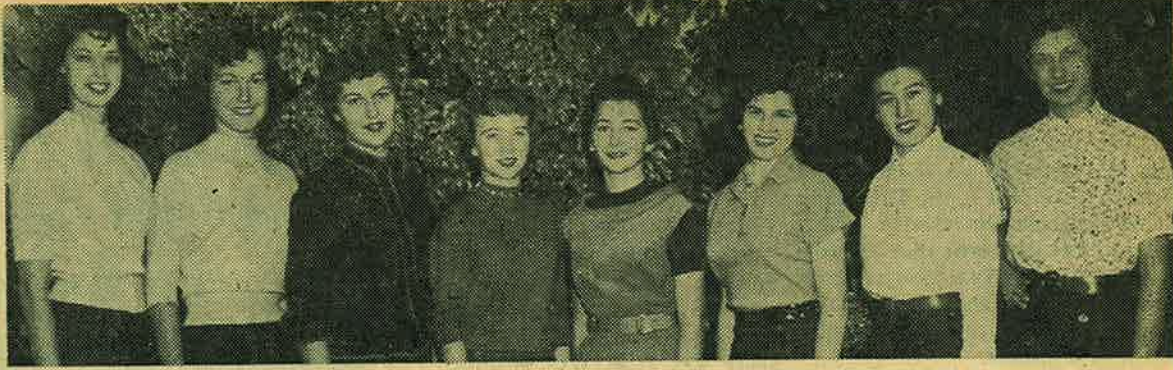

The win over the SBVJC squad made it two in a row for the Rams over the same team. Last year the FJC squad battered to a 16-14 win over the same SBVJC Indians.

Both games were pretty fair to watch. The entire team deserves a lot of credit for holding West Contra Costa to a 22-20 win.

The players that deserve a pat on the back for the game last Saturday night are as follows: Larry Kaprielian, Nick Rendino, Leon Williams, Tom Flores, Tom Ryan, and Don Birkle.

The team has a bye this weekend, which will help the squad get in good shape to play against Reedley JC Thanksgiving morning at Reedley. In other games last week end Taft beat Reedley, 14-6, and COS dumped Monterey Peninsula, 27-19.

Nine Fresno JC Coeds To Compete For Honor Title Of Miss Flashbulb For 1955

Fresno Junior College will be represented by nine girls along with about the same number from Fresno State College to compete for the title of Miss Flashblub of 1955.

The girls are representing the campus clubs and organizations on campus and include Gladys Popp, Alpha Gamma Sigma; Virginia Crane, Rambling Collegiates; Beverly Baird, Red Key, and Ann Conn, Veterans Club.

Judy Long, Future Business Leaders of America, Patricia Joann

Trogdon, Rally Committee; Joyce Mastro, Newman Club; Mary Ann Fiorentino, FJC's newspaper, the Rampage, and Olga Hernandez, the Latin-American Club.

A reception will be given November 28 in the home of Richard H. Swartz, Fresno Press Club Miss Flashblub chairman, to pick Miss Flashblub and her attendants. It is also believed that a TV appearance is scheduled.

Miss Flashblub, with an escort, and her attendants will reign over the Fresno Press Club's annual carnival December 3 in the Hotel California. The club uses its proceeds from the carnival to furnish scholarships and to do other welfare work. The club furnishes a journalism scholarship to Fresno Junior College.

Miss Flashblub of last year was Shirley Valenti of Kingsburg, a coed at Fresno State College. She is tentatively scheduled to crown this year's winner. This is the first year FJC coeds have competed in this contest. Formerly it has been limited to FSC coeds.
