Two Appointed Deans By Education Board

By CECIL TANGE

The Fresno Junior College have two new deans this year. Both were appointed by the Fresno City Board of Education in May on the recommendation of Superintendent of Schools Edwin C. Kratt and FJC President Stuart M. White.

George C. Holstein, former principal of Fresno High School, is the dean of admissions and records of FJC. James Philmore Collins is the dean of instruction.

Holstein had requested the transfer when he learned the new position was being created in the junior college.

IN SINCE 1937

He has been in the Fresno City Schools since 1937. Holstein spent most of his time in the Fresno High School except a year, 1942-43, when he served on the Roosevelt faculty. He taught five years at Washington Union High School and two years at the Visalia High School (now called Mount Whitney High) before coming to Fresno.

Holstein graduated from the Fresno State College in 1930 and did graduate work in the University of California, University of Southern California, and the University of Idaho. He has a master's degree from USC.

Collins, who has been a biological science instructor since 1950, will assist White in the supervision of the school's instructional program.

FORMER PRESIDENT

Collins is a former president of FJC Faculty Club and was selected as an outstanding member for the Fresno Lions Club award two years ago. He is one of the sophomore class advisers.

He has been in the Fresno City School system since 1943. Collins taught in the Hamilton Junior High School from 1943-44 and the Fresno High School from 1944-50. He previously taught in Vallejo for seven years and in the Hawaiian Islands for four years.

Collins was graduated from the Stanford University in 1926 and received his master's degree from the Pacific School of Religion in 1936. He did graduate work at Stanford, the College of the Pacific, and the University of California.

In 1935-36 he was a member of an archeological expedition which

Four Yell Leaders Chosen Recently

Four yell leaders and 10 pep girls were chosen for the fall semester at the Fresno Junior College.

The yell leaders are as follows: Manard Stewart, Ernest Clark, Bobbie Burton, Janice Roush and Isabel Sereno. And the pep girls are Carol Barsotti, Lucretis DeBenedetto, Pat Jones, Lorraine Jacinto, Barbara Wilkinson, Veda Luhm, Diana Avila and Marlene Stafano. Alternates are Ellen Niere and Priscilla Daniels.

Ed Wilkins, FJC rally chairman, announced that the rally committee will sponsor a 25 passenger bus Saturday night to Bakersfield, for Saturday nights football game with the Bakersfield Renegades. The committee will also hold a lawn rally on the FJC campus, Friday at 12:10 p.m.

The yell leaders and pep girls were chosen by a committee of four students and three faculty members. There were 16 who tried out for pep girls.

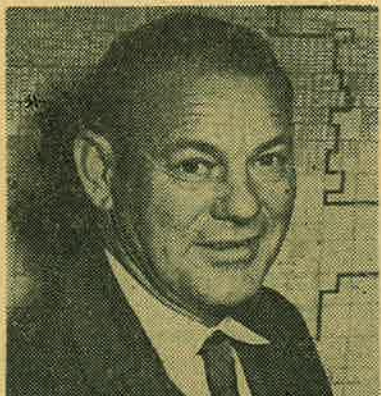

83 Qualify To Take 1A

Of the 314 students taking the English placement examination, 83 are eligible to enter English 1A while 213 must take English A, Archie Bradshaw, director of guidance, announced this week.

This result, which includes both those tests given last spring to former Sanger High School students and this fall to those from other schools show a better than average score, he said, since almost one-third passed whereas past records show the average was one in seven.

Those who passed the examination include James W. Adams, Donald C. Adey, Dorwin Anderson, Eddie Astone, Donald Battan, Robert E. Beardsley, Daisy Blackwell, George R. Burnett, James Bush, Edward Campbell, Lola F. Casteel, Owen E. Corbett, Eugene Covey, Maude Davis, Madeline Dillido,

Ringer Leads CJCSGA October 1

Jim Ringer, California Junior College Student Government Association president, will preside as president over the central section meeting of the CJCSGA in Taft Saturday.

Alfreda Barton, CJCSGA secretary, FJC student council members, and several members of the conference leadership class and Joseph King, instructor of the class, will also attend.

Three FJC administrators will attend the fall conference of the CCJCA at Taft College the same day.

They are President Stuart M. White, Miss Willa Marsh, dean of students, and Paul Starr, dean of men.

Garlyn A. Basham, director of Taft College and president of the Central California Junior College Association, will preside at the General Session. The welcome address will be given by Eugene M. Johnston, district superintendent of the Taft Union High School district.

FJC delegates will attend the student section workshops.

William Houpt, dean of Hancock College, and vice president of the CCJCA, will be the toastmaster.

FJC delegates are Jo Ann Monfort, Olga Hernandez, Barbara Wilkinson, Ellen Niere, Lois Raybourn, Tom Flores, Wilma Koenig, Ann Sarabian, Theresa Barile, Bert Ereman, Ann McElwain, Eleanor Franco, and George Thursby.

Rams To Meet Strong Bakersfield Renegades

The Fresno Junior College Rams will venture south to meet the highly rated Bakersfield Renegades in the new Kern Memorial Stadium Saturday night, with the kickoff scheduled at 8 p.m.

The Rams still suffering from a 21 to 0 lacing at the hands of Stockton last Saturday will attempt to hit the winning column once again.

Friday Is Last Day For Credit

George C. Holstein, director of admissions, announced that September 30 is the last day to register in a class for credit. After that date anyone registering and desiring credit will have to file a petition on or before November 19.

Holstein also said that October 15 is the last day to drop classes without penalty and he advised students desiring to change classes to see their advisers

Fourteen Nurses Complete Training Course Recently

Fourteen Fresno Junior College vocational nursing students received pins and certificates of completion, September 8, from Robert P. Hansler, chairman of the trade and industrial education division, in the Roosevelt High School auditorium.

Stuart M. White, president of FJC, introduced Clifton H. Linville, administrator of the Fresno Community Hospital, who spoke to the graduates on "Your New Responsibilities." He stressed the application of Christian principles, saying that they develop the understanding, unselfishness and cooperation essential for a successful nursing career.

Nancy L. Black, speaker for the class, chose "The Vocational Nurse Progresses" as her topic. She told her classmates that they were privileged to become licensed vocational nurses and to be able to do those tasks that the registered nurse does not have time for, thus resulting in better care for the patient.

Myrtle Rapp, assistant director of nursing services of the Fresno Community Hospital, congratulated the graduates and the Rt. Rev. Francis X. Singleton of St. John's Cathedral pronounced the invocation and benediction. Mrs. Anna Thompson, an instructor, presented the class to Hansler.

Jan Bosteder, a daughter of Mrs. Mildred Bosteder, an FJC instructor, provided the music for the processional and recessional and the vocational nurses who will graduate in February sang Look for the Silver Lining and September Song; they also provided the ushers.

The graduates included Phyllis Arreola, Anne Bergman, Mrs. Black, Mabel G. Candia, Emma Corral, Dorothy J. Greer, Betty Jo Hester, Susan Hodge, Mabel Hutton, Doris Evelyn McCary, May Annabelle Nelson, Rachel Pacheco, Gertrude M. Randleman, and Annie R. Smith.

Freshmen Meet Today At State

The freshman class will meet today at the state college campus in McLain Hall, Room 211 at 12:10 p.m.

Freshmen on the main campus will meet in B9 at 11:50 to arrange for transportation to the state college campus.

Glynn Bryant will be temporary chairman of the meeting. The purpose of which is to organize the class for the semester.

Rambler Will Remind You Of FJC's Activities And Your Classmates

Would you like to be able to remember your school activities and classmates of 1955-56 in the distant future? Well I have just the remedy. All you have to do is invest $2.50 in the 1955-56 Fresno Junior College yearbook, the Rambler and your problems will be solved.

Last year was the first yearbook the college has had since 1950.

The backing up of the student body on its sales will mean whether the yearbook will be a great success or a failure. A successful year will mean that students can be assured of having a yearbook in the years to follow.

The preparation of the volume is the responsibility of the Journalism 10 class, who announced that the full price will be only $2.50 with a student body card. Purchases may be made by any of the Rambler staff members. Don't be sorry later. If you haven't bought your copy yet, do so today.

I sincerely believe that this yearbook will be the best ever as the staff is working together to make the Rambler successful in every way.

Make this a successful year and buy your copy to back up your college.

Directions For Seeking Jobs Listed Below

Business students seeking part-time employment should take immediate steps to register with the placement office set up by the business division in Bungalow 3. The business projects class is assiting with the project.

G. A. Eckenrod, instructor of the business projects class and in charge of placement, said application blanks may be filled in and an appointment arranged by the secretary to see him for a placement interview.

FJC students on the state college campus should fill out a card with Mrs. Margaret Thoms at the office in A-15.

He said calls for qualified people are arriving daily. At present, jobs are open to both men and women in light bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, filing and general office work.

Eckenrod explained that this placement service is purely set up within the business division and that students interested in any other type of placement such as babysitting or lawn mowing will still see Miss Willa Marsh, dean of students or Paul Starr, dean of men.

Fresnan Presents Magazines To JC

FJC has been presented with a set of back issues of Harper and Century Magazines for general use in classes and in the library by Mrs. Mary Niday.

Mrs. Niday, now a resident of Fresno, is living with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wrightsow at 4608 E. Dakota.

Record World

(This information was made possible by DOWN BEAT-RECORD-WHIRL Publishing Companies, prepared especially for college newspapers).

A key role on the Philco Television Playhouse this summer put Coral recording star, Johnny Desmond, right on top in the record world.

Desmond, who has his share of breaks, admitted that the reasons for his downfalls were that he was never ready for them when they came along.

As a youngster, Johnny was a featured singer in Gene Krupa's band, and during World War II, he gained prominence with the late Glenn Miller.

After the war he signed a Victor recording contract and two network shows for $3,600 a week. In a short time, Johnny lost the recording contract plus the radio shows. All his hopes of climbing the ladder of success, went down the drain. Later, he admitted in his own words, "I laid a bomb."

From New York, he moved his family to Chicago to regain his confidence. There he became the singing star of Don McNeil's Breakfast Club, and had at least a couple medium-sized hits a year. It also earned him a contract with the Coral recording Company. Feeling he had his confidence back, and was ready for the big time, Johnny gave up his singing role at the Breakfast Club and went back to New York. And this time, he made it.

Rhythm And Blues

SAMMY DAVIS, JR., in a recent interview, named his jazz favorites as Count Basie, Woody Herman, Stan Kenton, Charlie Parker, Chet Baker, and Singer Carmen McRea . . . BENNY GOODMAN'S soundtracks will be heard with actor STEVE ALLEN'S portrayal of Goodman in the title role of THE BENNY GOODMAN STORY. Students Invited To Use Services

Mrs. Hazel Pedersen, women's physical education instructor, invites all students to use the health services offered by Fresno Junior College.

She said either Mrs. Anne Gabel or Miss Margaret Taylor, both registered nurses, is on duty at the main campus from 10:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesdays and from 12:30 to 4 p.m. on Wednesday. The nurse's office is on the second floor of the main building near the business office. Thursdays from 12:30 to 4 p.m. a nurse is on duty in A-13 on the State College Campus, Mrs. Pedersen said, and someone is on call at all times in case of an emergency.

Students desiring an appointment with a nurse should contact either Miss Willa Marsh, dean of students, or the switchboard operator, Mrs. Pedersen said. She also said that she will be in her office on the main campus all day on Fridays and that she will be glad to help any student with health or personal problems.

Publicity Deadline Set

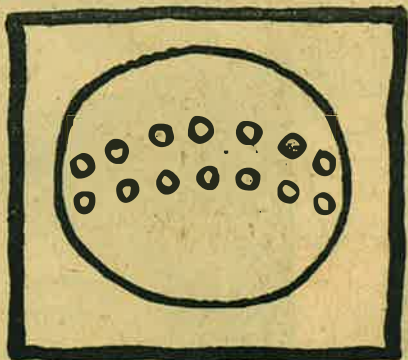

Any Fresno Junior College clubs or organizations that wish to have publicity, please leave all news in the Rampage office in A-3 on Mondays before the paper is put out.

Strong Mustangs Club Rams In 21-0 Tussle

The Stockton College Mustangs scoring touchdowns in each of the last three quarters defeated the Fresno Junior College Rams 21-0 Saturday night in Stockton.

Stockton scored its first touchdown with three minutes left in the first half after recovering a Ram fumble on the Fresno 18-yard line. Quarterback Johnny Schmidt went over from the 18. Schmidt converted making the score 7-0.

The Mustangs scored again on the final play of the third quarter on a pass play from Bob Louriero to Dick Nunes. Louriero's attempt for the extra point was good and the score read 14-0.

In the fourth quarter Tony King took a pitchout and traveled seven yards for the touchdown and Louriero again converted.

Fresno threatened twice in the first half on the passing of Quarterback Tom Flores, but was stopped by Stockton's big line.

The Mustang edge was shown

Inexperienced and careless mistakes proved disastrous for the Rams in last Saturday night's 21-0 football defeat by the Stockton College Mustangs.

The game was much closer than the score indicated. Fresno had several chances of scoring but blew them by being penalized or making careless mistakes.

Harold Marquez, a sophomore from Selma High School, played a tremendous defensive game for the Rams. Marquez was shifted from the fullback spot to the end position just three days before the Stockton game and was a demon on defense.

Baseball coach, Clare Slaughter, has arranged with Pete Beiden, Fresno State baseball coach, to have a baseball team from Fresno Junior College to participate in the Fresno Winter Baseball League. The team will be known as the Bricker Rams and will be managed by Don Bricker. Slaughter is unable to coach the team because of football duties.

The team will play every Sunday afternoon, with the first game scheduled this Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m.

Among some of the prospects are Harold Wilson, John Troxel, Jim Call, Fred Garcia, Jack Batran, Frank Chilberto, Eddie Astone, Bob Wagner, Ruben Barrios, Karlem Barsarion, Floyd Linderman, John Misakian, Larry Keller, and Tom Hatake.
