The associate pep girls are Barbara Fragus, a graduate of San Joaquin Memorial; Marilyn Isheim, a graduate of Central Union; and Diane Diamond, a graduate of Roosevelt High. The alternates are Diana Avila of Washington Union and Marcia Lynch of Fresno High.

Practice nights and costumes were discussed at the first meeting of the girls September 20.

The first performance of the pep girls will be Saturday night when Fresno Junior College will play host to Stockton College.

Two of the newly elected pep girls traveled to Los Angeles last weekend.

The extended day students' last day of registration for academic courses was September 20.

Committee Sponsors Rally, Game Dance

FJC's pep band, new cheer leaders and pep girls will highlight the football rally tomorrow at 12:30 PM on the Annex lawn.

Josie Quintana, the rally committee chairman, said the purpose of the rally is to initiate school spirit and support for the team in the first home game the FJC Rams play Saturday night in Ratcliffe Stadium with the Stockton College Mustangs.

FJC Nurses Gain Honors At Ceremony

Stuart M. White had the honor of presenting pins and certificates to nine members of FJC's 10th Vocational Nurses graduating class.

The Rev. Irving E. Pemberty, pastor of the Cedar Avenue Baptist Church, pronounced the invocation and benediction. Jan Bosteder played the processional and recessional.

25 FOREIGN STUDENTS MIGRATE TO FJC CAMPUS

With this machine there is no longer a need for nails, screws or clamps. The welder produces enough heat to weld wet or dry wood instantly.

Sons said, "With this new machine many hours can be saved, and projects have less nail holes to fill, giving a smooth effect to the material."

FJC Has First Student Under War Orphan's Law

By PAULA JAMES

Gloria Mills, of 3465 Lewis, a freshman at Fresno Junior College, is probably the first person in the San Joaquin Valley to take advantage of Public Law 634, more commonly known as the War Orphan's Law.

Miss Mills first heard of this law when she started receiving papers from the government informing her that she is eligible for a monthly income while she is in college.

The War Orphan's law applies to anyone who is under 25, who intends to attend or is attending college, and who had a parent killed in active service in World War I, World War II, or the Korean War.

Miss Mills' father died of injuries received when the ship on which he was working in Guadalcanal blew up.

A graduate of Roosevelt High School, Miss Mills, a native Fresno, is majoring in accounting here at Fresno Junior College.

Rambler Staff Organize Annual

The 1956-1957 yearbook, the Rambler, is now underway. This year's book will be edited by Marilyn Snyder. Miss Snyder, together with an outstanding staff, are out to make this year's book one of the best Fresno Junior College has ever had.

The rest of the staff is as follows: Ronald Randlett, clerk; Rita Harrison, business manager; Shirleen Summers, layout and makeup; Robert Brown and Nobie Yamabe, art; Ralph Throneberry and Clinton Cozby, photography; Lucille Capelli, advertisements; and covering sports will be John Aldredge and Gordon Kremer. Also Jeanne Paxton and Frances Mowrey will be doing copy writing.

Students are urged by Miss Snyder to buy their book as soon as possible. Last year there were many disappointed students who failed to get a book because they waited too long.

Books may be purchased at the book store at either campus, or a subscription may be bought at either campus.

The price of the book at the present is $2.50, but this price will go up to $3.50 after the start of the second semester. Franz Weinschenk is the adviser.

College Provides Bus Service

Fresno Junior College is providing for the fifth consecutive year bus service for the students in the Madera and Chowchilla areas.

The bus began its regular schedule on September 10, the first day of fall semester classes. It leaves Chowchilla at 6:30 AM and Madera at 7:05, arriving at the O Street campus at 7:45 and University Avenue at 7:55.

On the return trip, the bus leaves O Street at about 4:30 PM and University Avenue at 4:40, arriving in Madera at 5:20 and Chowchilla at 5:50.

The pick-up points are at the theatre in Chowchilla and at Mary's Cafe on Highway 99 in Madera.

This year, for the first time, FJC has extended its bus service to include the students in the Sanger and Fowler area.

Last Friday these students met with Paul Starr, dean of men, to decide upon the times and places for the departure and arrival of this bus. Starr said this schedule will be announced at a later date, as it will be regulated according to the needs of the students.

698 Veterans, A New Record, Enroll At FJC

FJC has a record number of veterans, 698.

This total includes four women, Daisy Blackwell, USMC; Frances E. Jones, USN; Rose Meister, USN, and Charlotte Sygolt, USN.

Miss Blackwell and Miss Sygolt are here for their second year.

Veterans who have handed in their Certificates for Education and Training, VA Form No. 7-1993, may sign their monthly certification, VA Form No. 7-1996a, during the week of Oct. 1 to 5.

They will be signing for the period of Sept. 10 to 30. They may receive their first check around Oct. 20.

All other veterans may sign the monthly certification, VA Form 7-1996a, when they hand in their Certificate for Education and Training, VA Form No. 7-1993.

The first home game of the young football season will be played Saturday evening at 8 PM in Ratcliffe Stadium.

The Fresno Junior College Rams play host to the Stockton College Mustangs in what promises to be a real rough and tough contest. The Rams will be out to avenge a 21-0 loss to the Mustangs in last year's game.

Stockton College, the champs of the Big Eight Conference, are again the number one team in their league. Sporting a front line that averages a "cool" 200 pounds and a backfield that likes to run and pass, the Mustangs are a rough team to beat.

Stockton Stars

The men to watch in the backfield are Fred Alemendarez and Lou Schmidt at the halfback spots.

Anchoring the front line are Carl Kammerer, weighing a neat 218 pounds; and Ken Castles, weighing in at 205 pounds, both at the guard positions.

Stockton opened its football season with a convincing 20-13 win over Santa Ana College last weekend.

Mustang Coach

Coaching the Mustangs is Don Hall, formerly of College of Pacific, and in an advisory capacity is that "grand old man" of American football, Amos Alonzo Stagg.

The Fresno Rams suffered their first setback Friday night at Los Angeles to the tune of 20-6 at the hands of the East Los Angeles Huskies. The game was rather ragged in spots, but Coach Hans Wiedenhoefers feels that this was due to inexperience more than anything else. Heavy workouts are the order of the day for this week.

J. C. White, star halfback, has returned to the squad and will see some duty in Saturday night's game with Stockton.

Kenny Pipes and Bob DiFuria suffered injuries in the Los Angeles game, and it is unknown at this time if they will be ready for service Saturday night.

SPORTLITES

By MIKE HARTMAN

Last week I reported in this column that Gary Alcorn, 6 foot 8 inch center from last year's championship winning basketball team had decided to enroll in the University of Utah.

However it seems that the tall hoopster has seen fit to cross me, as he enrolled at Fresno State College recently.

Alcorn went to the Utah campus, but evidently didn't care for what he saw, and left without enrolling.

I doubt if Alcorn's move made the Utah coach very happy, but there is one very happy man in Fresno by the name of Bill Vandenburg. Vandenburg is the hoop mentor at FSC.

White Reports

J. C. White, last year's top ground gainer in the FJC backfield has finally arrived in school and may see some action Saturday night against Stockton College.

White last year led the Rams to second place in the Central California Junior College Athletic Association.

Opening Games See Raisin City Gridders Divide

Last weekend the Raisin City broke even on the college scene as the Battlin' Bulldogs of Fresno State scored an impressive victory over the Cougars of Brigham Young University, 26-13, before an approximate crowd of 9,000 fans.

On the other side of the win-loss column we find the Fresno Junior College Rams. The Rams ventured to the south only to topple under the Huskies of East Los Angeles Junior College, 20-6, before a meager crowd of 3,000.

On the high school front, the San Joaquin Memorial Panthers were snowed under by the Hanford Bullpups, 40-6, at Hanford.

Here on the home scene, Edison provided the only hi-lites of the evening in the annual High School Grid, Carnival. Showing a strong ground game, Edison overwhelmed the Fresno High Warriors, 17-5, and the Roosevelt High Rough Riders, 9-0.

Huskies Rout Fresno 20-6 In Grid Opener

Hard-hitting East Los Angeles, 13th ranked junior college team in the nation, handed the Fresno Rams their first opening game loss in three years last Friday night 20 to 6 in a sloppy game, which was marred by Fresno fumbles, before a meager crowd of 3,000 in the ELA stadium.

The Huskies, supposedly rated as one of the best defensive units in the Metropolitan league, managed to outlast the smaller but scrappy Ram line to chalk up the victory in the first meeting between these teams.

Huskies Convert Miscues

Pouncing on a Ram fumble early in the second quarter, the Huskies banged their way from the Fresno 14, down to the one yard line, where Husky flinger Ron Johnson hurdled over for the TD.

Coming on the heels of the fumble, Huskie wingman Johnson snagged a Dick Valentine aerial in the vicinity of the 30 yard marker, from where Johnson proceeded to fire a six yarder to Bill Bartley for the Huskie's second tally, with Rick McKenzie converting the extra point.

In the final stanza the Huskies scored their third TD, when Tom Watkins slanted through from the five yard line. McKenzie again booting for the extra point.

Rams Tally

The Rams' only tally came in the fourth period; the drive started deep in Fresno's own territory, with Mike Flaherty sparking the Rams' only real showing of offensive drive. Flaherty handed off to fullback George Ward, who bolted over from one yard for Fresno's lone tally.

Suffering first half injuries were guard Bob DiFuria and halfback Kenny Pipes, who may not be able to see action in the game with Stockton Junior College Saturday night.

Physical Education Programs Start

With school well underway, the P.E. classes have begun to dress and start into various forms of activity. Paul Starr's beginning swim class has been hitting the water ever since the first week of school. Other activities planned are touch football, basketball, and handball.

Taylor's coed tennis class has been dressing for class since Thursday a week ago, so far the class has only been practicing strokes and stance, but plans to promote students for the tennis team.

Comments

By MARVIN LUTZ

I want to extend greetings to the new students and a welcome back to the old at FJC for another year of athletic competition.

Even though the football team lost a toughy to East Los Angeles last Friday night, the Rams should have another great and even better season. To those of you who showed up at the game in the rooting section, "Nice going and keep up the good spirit."

I hope to see more of you at the Stockton game here at home in Ratcliffe Stadium Saturday night. It is a fact that the Rams will be out for revenge since they lost to the Stockton College Mustangs in Stockton last year.

The players who did a whale of a job and looked good in the first contest were Bob DiFuria, Mike Fishback, Ken Pipes, and George Ward.

The coaching staff under the leadership of Hans Wiedenhoefers should be congratulated for the fine job they have done so far, and with your utmost support, which they deserve. I know we will have another great year at FJC.
