Ram Dolls Make First Showing

The Fresno Junior College has a new football "team" called the Ram Dolls. The team made its first appearance before the start of the College of the Sequoias-Fresno Ram game two weeks ago.

Donna Alviso and Naomi Morales are the head leaders for the already popular Ram Doll drill team.

Miss Alviso said, "Our main purpose is to act as hosts to our school and the football team. With our new red and white uniforms, we form a giant V for the varsity football team to run through."

The Ram Dolls do their routine to the popular song Mister Touch-down, USA.

Members of the Ram Dolls are Donna Alviso, Naomi Morales, June Avakian, Joyce Gibson, Marilyn Snyder, Gwen Babcock, Anita Pearson, Cecilia Caudillo, Marie De Ruosi, Frances Roderick, Judy Castor, La Vern Thompson, Alice Alvaraz, Joveta Huerta, Carmen Ruiz, Olivia Neri, Gloria Mills and Yolanda Marques.

Not pictured are Marie De Ruosi, Carmen Ruiz, and Yolanda Marques.

JC Students Will Display 1906 Office

Fresno Junior College business students will show and demonstrate office equipment of fifty years ago at the Business Equipment Show to be held in the Fresno Memorial Auditorium on November 7, 8, and 9.

The equipment, which includes typewriters and duplicating machines, will be part of a booth sponsored by FJC depicting "The Office of Fifty Years Ago."

Phi Beta Lambda has been assisting in the publicity, direct mail advertising and the folding of the programs for the conference.

The sponsors of the show are the Fresno chapters of the National Office Management Association and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.

The names of the business students who will assist in the demonstration of the machines in the booth have not been announced.

Tickets for the show may be secured free of charge from the business division office in the annex. There will be a charge for each of the three scheduled conferences.

The girls all dress in colorful mock football uniforms that are complete with numbers on the jersey tops, and knee-length socks.

Students In Favor Of Prop. 3

The speech classes of Joseph King have been studying the forthcoming election and ballot for the last three weeks.

Each student in King's classes was given one of the nineteen California State amendments to report on, both pro and con, to the class. There were no discussions or debates following the reports.

This week the students have been voting on sample ballots obtained by King. The results so far are as follows:

	Yes	No
Proposition 1	93	7
Proposition 2	96	1
Proposition 3	91	4
Proposition 4	17	82
Proposition 5	58	40
Proposition 6	46	29

Proposition 15	63	30
Proposition 16	76	19
Proposition 17	44	41
Proposition 18	41	49
Proposition 19	68	29

The Fresno City Unified School District Bond Measure received 92 votes for passage, and 5 votes against it.

The Fresno County Chapter Amendments are as follows:

	Yes	No
Proposition A	57	28
Proposition B	28	45
Proposition C	38	42
Proposition D	41	39
Proposition E	46	36
Proposition F	50	37
Proposition G	36	41
Proposition H	34	44
Proposition I	35	42

In the race for President of the United States, the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket received 46 votes; the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket, 40 votes, and the Prohibition ticket, 5 votes.

The race of United States Senator brought 50 votes to Thomas H. Kuchel (R), 40 votes for Richard Richards (D), and 2 votes for Ray Gourley (Prohibition).

B. F. Sisk (D), received 61 votes to Robert B. Moore's (R) 30 for the race for representative in Congress from the 12th District.

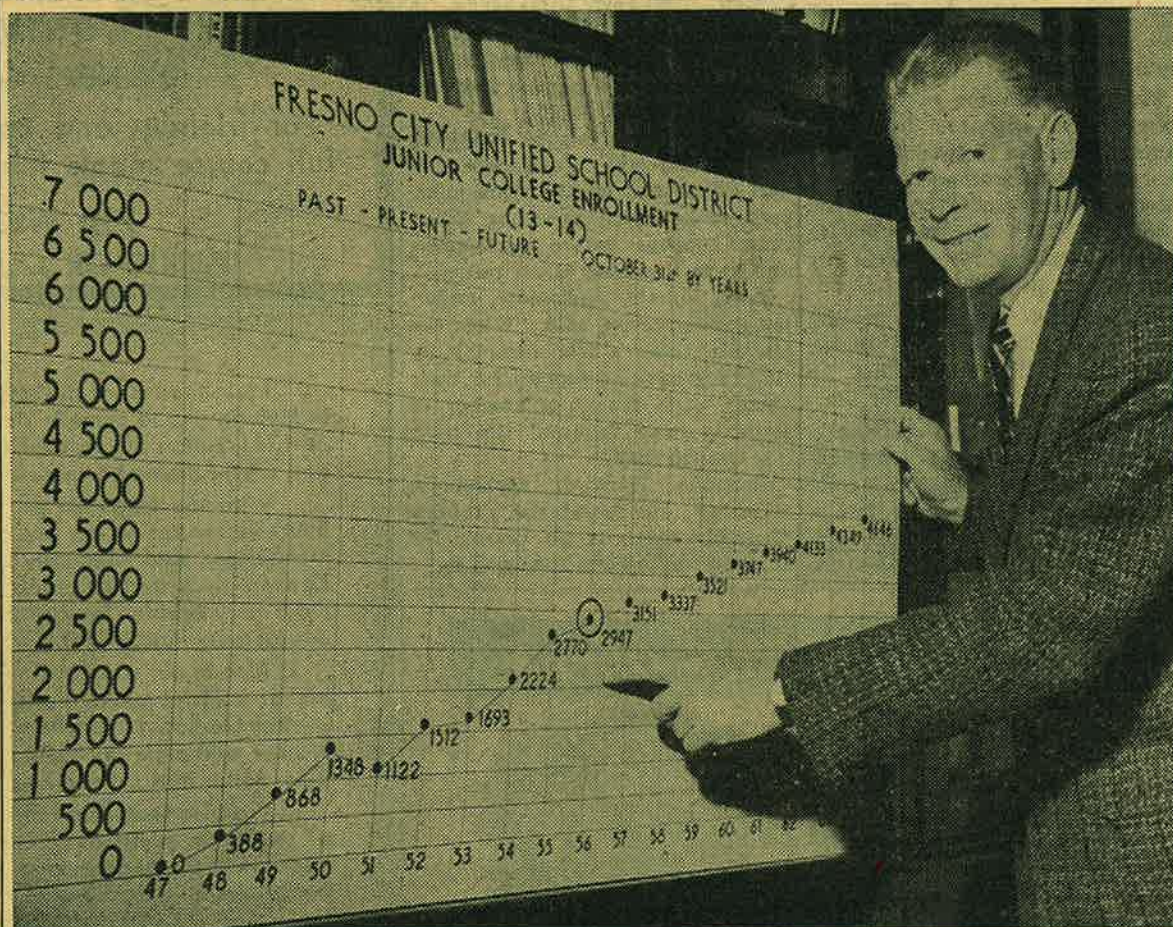

Wallace D. Henderson (D and R), who is unopposed for the member of the Assembly from the 32nd District, received a unanimous vote.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Marchell F. McComb received 61 yes votes and 12 no votes.

Rambler Selects Annual Theme

The Rambler, FJC yearbook, selected for its theme this year, "Acquisition of Our New Campus." It will be featuring stories and pictures of our new buildings and facilities. Along with this it will feature articles and pictures of clubs, graduates, faculty, sports, and activities.

The Rambler will be a little bigger this year than in the past, in size and number of pages.

RECORD ENROLLMENT: Stuart M. White, president of Fresno Junior College is shown with a chart picturing FJC's record enrollment and the expected increase in attendance in years to come.

Fresno Junior College Prexy Encourages Yes Vote On Fresno School Bond Issue

Stuart M. White, Fresno Junior College president, in a recent interview, encouraged all Fresno Junior College students and their families to vote for the Fresno Unified School District Bond Issue on November 6.

White said that the college will net $2,995,000 of the $11,775,000 bond, of which $1,000,000 will be used to purchase the University Avenue campus.

"It is a genuine bargain for the taxpayers. The State has given us a price that we can't afford to pass up," said White.

He went on to say that the taxpayers will save anywhere from 5 to 6 million dollars by purchasing the old Fresno State College campus.

The bond issue money allotted to FJC will make possible the moving of shops to the University Avenue site. The cost of building the shops amounts to $1,650,000.

Various sums of the remaining money will be used for repairs, alterations and contingencies.

Enrollment surpassed the expected attendance set for this year, and White expects over-enrollment to be the habit in the coming years. He estimates that over 4,646 students will be attending junior college by 1965. These are complications that voters need to keep in mind in deciding upon the bond issue on November 6.

RAMPAGE URGES VOTERS TO VOTE YES ON PROP. 3

Every election year along about this time, and even before, the main topic of discussion, as it should be, is the current issues in the up-coming election.

The Rampage would like to take this opportunity to express its views on one of the main issues, Proposition 3.

Proposition 3 calls for the issuance and sale of $200 million of state bonds to carry out a vast building program.

At the present time schools are over crowded, but at the present rate of increase, from year to year, it is estimated that the school population will be doubled in 1965. That will be the time when a lot of our children will be heading up the street to school.

Proposition 3 will relieve this situation somewhat. With the money that this proposition calls for, new schools can be built, old ones can be remodeled, enlarged, and generally improved.

The state also must improve its hospitals to care for mental cases, its Youth Authority schools, its adult correctional institutions and other buildings to accomodate the increasing loads caused by the state's growth.

Undoubtedly there will be other problems connected with this issue that are unforeseen at the present time, but this proposition is a step in the right direction.

The Rampage urges you to vote YES on PROPOSITION 3.

Dr. Paul Saltman Speaks On Causes Of Cancer

Dr. Paul Saltman, an assistant professor of biochemistry and nutrition at the University of Southern California, addressed Fresno Junior College students Wednesday afternoon, in the first public assembly in FJC history. Civic and professional group members attended.

His subject dealt with difficulties man faces in his search for a cure to cancer. Dr. Saltman was introduced by FJC President Stuart M. White.

He said although there are some known causes of cancer, science still does not know the actual "triggering forces" causing the malady.

"Since cancer can be produced by radiation, the great problem of the Atomic Age," Dr. Saltman asserted, "is the production of radio activity in atomic research. We have got to learn to control radio-activity, or all persons on earth could be destroyed."

He added that cancer can also be produced by "essences of smog and tobacco smoking." In pointing out possible causes, however, Dr. Saltman stressed that science does not possess any "unified field theory" on the cause of cancer and its cure.

"It is my opinion," he said, "that cancer will not be 'cured' by any cash program. Many people think scientists can be given $10 million to cure cancer overnight in somewhat the same manner the atomic bomb was developed by a $2 billion appropriation.

The USC professor said that he believes the approach to curing cancer must be by clinical and pharmaceutical methods. Such research, already underway in such schools as USC, may take one to three generations to produce any final results, he added.

By showing slides of healthy cells, cancerous ones and viruses, Dr. Saltman illustrated what he termed the "unit principle of life."

Dr. Saltman believes that in seeking a cure for cancer in biochemical and pharmaceutical research, science itself will have to find a way to slow the mutation and multiplication through anti-metabolism.

Students Feel Team Should Be Supported

The inquiring reporter asked the question this week, "How can FJC get more attendance at football games?"

Doug Ruiz, freshman, majoring in business said, "I believe that the students are letting their studies interfere with their school activities and that they should arrange their schedule accordingly."

Arthur Gage, freshman, majoring in engineering drawing thinks, "We should have more publicity on the games. A paper with all the football yells should be passed out to the students."

Stan Pebsworth, majoring in engineering said, "One way to get more attendance at the games would be to have a good halftime show."

Al Brown, sophomore, majoring in education said, "Have more football rallies and let the team members make some speeches. Have some bonfires before the games, and have the band at all rallies."

Dotti Rubald, sophomore, majoring in secretarial, said, "When the football team starts complaining that they have no support for their games, even though a number of students have followed the team it is time to ACT."

Rochelle Harford, sophomore, majoring in secretarial, thinks, "Actually there is no reason for students not to go to home games."

Spencer Hopes For Gain In Size Of College Band

"The band is playing a double role and is doing a splendid job this year," quoted C. Lowell Spencer, head of the Fresno Junior College music department.

With only 18 members this year, Spencer hopes to increase the size of the band by the end of the year. Most of the members of the pep band work nights and play with other bands.

Spencer explained the difference between the dance and the pep band. He stated that the pep band plays at games and rallies, while the dance band has a different style of music and plays at dances.

Heading the band are three majorettes. They are Donna Mae Alviso, Marilyn Snyder, and Gwen Babcock.

Miss Snyder, 21, is a graduate of Fowler Union High School.

Miss Babcock, 18, is a graduate of Madera High. She also is a business major.

The members of the band include Clinton Cozby, Allan Kennedy, Eugene Thompson, Elmer Joseph, Adolph Mendoza, Darlene Bear, Gary Lingley, Nate Hygelund, Dick Johnson, Ernie Klassen, Dean Maxwell, Bill Ossilin, Don McKay, Jack McColough, Ken Buck, Jim Parks, Mary Benner, and J. W. Eatmon.

FBLA Gains 40 Members

Phi Beta Lambda, the Fresno Junior College chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America, initiated 40 members Monday evening in a ceremony in Room S-22 at the O Street campus.

The initiation was arranged and conducted by Dorothy Rubald, president; Joseph Parker, Edith Forath, Rochelle Harford, Jane Anderson, and Frankie White.

Dr. McKee Fisk, the chairman of the business division of the Fresno State College, spoke about "The Human Neck." He was introduced by Eckenrod.

Rams Seek Win Over Undfeated Falcon 11

Coach Hans Wiedenhofer takes his Rams and bag of tricks into the Coalinga Falcon's camp Saturday night to do battle with the league leaders. Game time is 8 PM.

The Falcons boast a better than average line and an extremely sharp and fast backfield. team, according to the scouting reports the map to watch is Willi Wood. Wood, from Washington, D.C., is a sharp passer and strong runner if given the opportunity.

Wiedenhofer declared, "It's rough to beat a team that's used to winning," then added, "but there is always a first time."

Wiedenhofer was well pleased with the Ram victory over Porterville, 20-12, as the Pirates are rated as having the largest line on the coast. The Falcons met the Pirates the week before and eased by, 7-2. This past weekend the Falcons played San Jose Junior College and tied, 14-14.

Don Smith is still out of action with a chest injury, Leo Hall is nursing a bruised rib, George Ward is limping with an injured ankle, and Bob DiFuria has a cyst on the back of his neck that is giving him some concern.

All in all, Wiedenhofer feels his boys will be primed and ready to invade the Falcons' lair to tame and gentle the high-flying birds.

Lowdown

By BOB and JOHN

The Rambling Rams of Fresno removed the threat of the Porterville Pirates last Saturday night, when resourceful Mike Flaherty, Ram quarterback, reached into his magical hat and pulled out the ancient Statue of Liberty play that completely demoralized the Pirates.

The relic liberty play gave the Fresno Rams the needed edge to eke out a 20-12 victory over the baffled and dazed Pirates. Twice in the first half and twice in the second half, Flaherty called upon one of the oldest plays in football, the Statue of Liberty, which produced the winning tally and revived the Rams conference title hopes.

Jon Arnett, Southern California's great swivel-hipped back, wrote another blazing finish in Trojan grid history in his final collegiate game against the Stanford Indians of Palo Alto, Saturday afternoon.

The great Arnett, playing perhaps the hardest throughout his entire colorful career, couldn't quite cope with the sensational passing of John Brodie and company, in a heart stopping gridiron duel with the Indians coming out on top 27-19.

A noteworthy comment, Arnett moved up to third in most yards gained in rushing among SC's greats.

The Battling Bulldogs of Fresno State may find a sleeping tiger in the likes of the San Diego Aztecs, who enroute to their meeting with Fresno have up-ended the powerful Cal Poly Mustangs, 7-6, also slated to give the Bulldogs a tussle, and last week had the San Jose State Spartans settling for a tie, 27-27.

Looking to the north those raves and chants over a certain young lad are getting louder and louder each week. Tom Flores, former Fresno Junior College star, and a junior at College of the Pacific, who has the wares and polish of a four year veteran, is starting to make the big boys take notice

Rams Slip By Pirates For 20-12 Win

The Rambling Rams of Fresno Junior College matched brains against the brawn of the Porterville Junior College Pirates and came out on top, 20-12, last Friday evening in Ratcliffe Stadium.

Quarterback Mike Flaherty, who played one of his better games, clicked for 102 yards in using the Statue of Liberty play four times and one time shaking Alex Kobzoff loose for a Ram TD.

The Ram first score came in the second period with FJC going 67 yards in 18 plays. Fresno drove to the Pirate 16 only to have a holding penalty move the ball back to the 31. Flaherty called the SOL play and Kobzoff rambled for 17 yards to the 10. Three plays later J.C. White knifed through tackle for the Ram six points. The point after was no good.

The third period began and the Pirates started marching behind their massive front wall and racked up two quick TDs before the Rams could stem the tide.

With the score standing at 12-6, the Rams struck back with Kenny Guinn, Kobzoff, and Flaherty. Kobzoff tied the score on the SOL play from 22 yards out and Guinn sent the Rams in front with the extra point.

The Rams opened the fourth quarter in complete command by going 76 yards in eight plays. Flaherty, using the time honored forward pass, spotted Kobzoff on the Pirate 15 and the fleet halfback rambled on for the third Ram TD. Guinn booted the extra point.

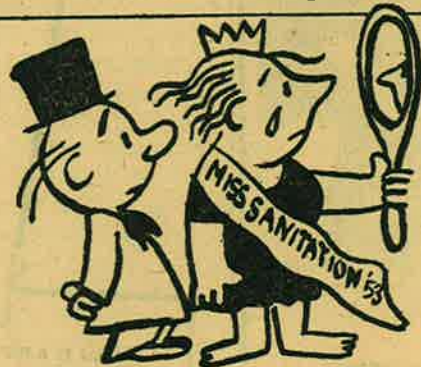

The Rams played a tremendous game in the front wall as the Pirates have the largest line on the coast, including the four year institutions. Tony Florentino, John Aldredge, Bob Hall, and the rest of the Ram forward wall deserve credit in the win. Flaherty, besides doing a bang up job at the quarterback slot, was a demon on defense. Porterville 0 0 12 0-12
Fresno 0 6 7 7-20
