'Tinsel Time' Is Theme Of Formal Dance

"Tinsel Time" has been announced as the theme of the FJC Christmas Formal, plans for which are well underway with the big date set for Saturday, December 15.

The Social Hall of the University Street Campus, decorated in red and silver, will be the setting for the gala affair, 8 to 12 PM.

Diane Avila, the student body social commissioner, and general chairman of the dance, states that AWS and AMS organizations have combined talents to present the college with the loveliest yuletide season dance in the history of FJC.

Joseph Parker, who will preside as master of ceremonies for the occasion, disclosed the news that Jack Riley's band will provide the music.

Printed bids will be issued, free of charge, to student body card holders.

Mary Lanotte, AWS president, says that she expects to have a complete slate of the king and queen candidates by tomorrow.

The subcommittees include the king and queen's throne, Frances Roderick and Marie De Ruosi, co-chairmen; Ray Finiores, Jack Laurain, Donna Alviso, and Yolanda Marquez; ceiling decorations and

Students To Take Exams

An engineering examination will be given on Saturday, Dec. 8, at 7:45 AM, on the University Avenue Campus in bungalow 2 and 6 for all students who plan to enter the College of Engineering, University of California.

The examination will be given by three Fresno Junior College technical and industrial division instructors, Ernest Wolf, Ivan Belman, and Erret Smith.

Robert P. Hansler, the division chairman, said the examination is intended for college sophomores who wish to do upper-division work and also for students who plan to do lower division work.

All will pay a fee of $5. Students who plan to take the upper-division part of the test should bring slide rules.

Regulations For Offices Are Listed

Fresno Junior College students wishing to run for a student body office for the spring semester must meet the following qualifications as required by the Constitution of the Associated Student Body and regulations passed by the student council of FJC.

1. Must be a member of the Fresno Junior College Associated Student Body.

2. Must have attended Fresno Junior College for one semester or more.

3. Must have at least a "C" average for his total college record at the close of the previous semester and at least a "C" average for the mid-terms of the current semester. 4. Mid-term grades recorded by the registrar and reported to the election committee cannot be changed. Incompletes on mid-terms will disqualify the candidate unless the incompletes have been made up and recorded with the registrar prior to securing the eligibility form.

5. Eligibility of all candidates will be based on the grade point system adopted in September 1955. Units are charged and grade points given, as earned, for each attempted course.

6. Candidates should be maintaining at least 12 units during the semester of their candidacy. All elective and appointed officers must carry at least 12 units during their term in office.

Dates for acquiring petitions and the time and place to secure them will be announced at a later date.

High Schools Boost FJC Enrollment

The Fresno Junior College has 86 per cent more students from the 19 nearby high schools it serves than it did two years ago.

President Stuart M. White reported a survey reveals FJC has 1,350 graduates from the 19 high schools, compared to 706 in 1954.

White said the graduates from the high schools have increased 49 per cent since last year, when 911 enrolled at the junior college.

The high schools, the number of their graduates at FJC in 1954 and in 1956 and the percentage of increase during the two year period follows:

Holstein, dean of admissions and records. "After this is completed, the student will proceed to the office to complete the programing."

Student counseling and preregistration for currently enrolled students will be held on January 2 through 18 and on January 28 and 29. Registration will be held for day students on January 30 and 31 from 8-11 AM and 1-3 PM. Extended day registration will be held on February 1 from 7-10 PM.

Red Key Declares Nov. 20 To Dec. 14 Toy Drive Week

Have you ever watched your family, especially your little brothers and sisters, around the Christmas tree on Yule Log Day?

As the days come closer to Christmas, most children begin thinking of Santa Claus and holiday toys.

Yes, Christmas should be a happy day for everybody all over the nation, when all should laugh and be merry. But in the excitement and gaiety of the coming holidays, we Americans often forget the true meaning of Christmas. A day when we should thank God for what we do have and to remember those who are not so fortunate as we.

In our secure little surroundings we feel safe and assured, often forgetting the unfortunates whose children are in fear and uncertain. We're happy because we can afford a new car for Jimmy and a new doll for Betty but what about those who cannot afford anything. Most European children have forgotten the joy and delight of receiving or owning a toy, old or new.

The Fresno Junior College Red Key hopes to reduce the situation by declaring November 20 to December 14 as Toy Drive Week. The drive will be an inter-club competition for all FJC clubs. The club that brings in the most toys based on the club's membership will be presented with a plaque with the club's name inscribed on it.

Go out and cooperate with this drive. Bring in as many toys as you can carry.

So, remember, bring a toy, for a happy boy, that will bring him many a joy.

Students Get Help From FJC Library

Do you know where Paskove City is located?

Do you know who was the first Governor-General of Pakistan?

"If you need specific information on any subject, you should go to the reference librarian who will help you find where the information may be found," says Jackson Carty, the FJC librarian.

The library reference desk has 500 books including up-to-date encyclopedias, almanacs, who is who's, and many natural and social science reference books. These books are to be used only in the library.

8,116 Books

Besides, it has 8,116 books on regular circulation and 400 books on reserve shelves. Reserve books cover English, economics, engineering, history, music, psychology, biology, sociology and many other subjects. These books may be used in the library or checked out for overnight use only after 2 PM, but they must be back by 9 AM.

The library also subscribes to four daily newspapers — New York Times, Los Angeles Times, San Francisco Chronicle and Fresno Bee. It subscribes to 148 magazines including two French, one British and one Italian magazine. They are: Architu, Aujourd'hui, art et architecture, Illustrated London News, and Domus.

"We have added 603 new books this year to increase FJC resources in vocations and professions," the librarian said.

The number of students using the library has the highest record this year. 14,871 students attended in September 1956. It is almost twice as much as in September last year when 7,980 students attended.

Carty Emphasizes Use

Carty emphasized very much on the use of the library. "It is only for you and you should take full advantage of it," he said.

Carty, who has been working as FJC librarian since 1952, is helped by two hard-working assistants, Mrs. Louise Cahn and Dr. George Krous. Darlene Horch is the library assistant who always welcomes students smilingly. "I really enjoy helping and locating books and information for the students," she said.

The library is open from 8 AM to 4:45 PM every day and from 6:30 PM to 9:20 PM on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

FJC Vocational Education Classes Are Federal Aided

The vocational education classes that are offered at the Fresno Junior College are Federal aided classes; that is the Federal Government is paying for part of the costs.

The automotive program is a result of a law passed by Congress in 1917 known as the Smith Hughes Vocational Education Law. This law was designed to promote and financially aid classes engaged in trades and industry, agriculture, and distributive education such as sales work.

The Smith Hughes Law states that each class shall be three consecutive hours in length, which is somewhat different than other classes.

When World War I came, Congress felt that training in vocational education would be an assistance to the war effort and also be a service to the country in general.

The automotive program was first introduced in Fresno in the now disbanded Fresno Technical High School.

The automotive classes at the Fresno Junior College cover all the phases of auto repair, both practical and theoretical and has such modern equipment as the John Bean Visual-liner, a wheel alignment machine which uses a system of light beams that are projected on a screen to indicate the condition of the wheel alignment. There are other modern machines such as the cylinder boring bar, generator test stand, tune up equipment, and many other new tools are used by the students.

The students in most cases bring their own projects for their practical work experience. The course covers two years of auto repair, and students are encouraged to bring in work which is in keeping with the theory they have learned.

It is hoped that the automotive program can be moved to the FJC main campus where it can be in closer contact with the rest of the school. At the present time the automotive shops are located on the Edison High School campus.

JC Ski Club Plans Outing To Badger

Hark ye, you lovers of winter sports, the Fresno Junior College Ski Club, headed by Bob Beffa, is planning outings to Badger Pass as soon as the powdery white substance is deep enough for skiing.

The FJC Ski Club has their meeting on every second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at the noon hour in the gym.

Except for an evening meeting, to be held on December 12, the regular noon meetings will continue as usual. Ronald Holm urges members and those planning to join to bring their skis and boots to this meeting.

Dues should be paid before December 12 to Tom Strentz and if not student names will be dropped from the club roster.

Anyone wishing to brush up on his skiing may do so along with the other club members who are attending the Fresno Bee Ski School.

For the finer points of skiing, members are urged to attend the Warren Miller movie, December 18th at Roosevelt High School.

Tickets are obtainable from the following persons: Carol Bowman, Hugh Awtrey, and Ole Youngberg.

Fresno JC Has Social Gardener In Ralph Trosi

By BOB RIOS

"Hi, Ralph," is the usual phrase that has greeted Ralph Trosi, a jovial and friendly 5 foot even bundle of hilarious side-splitting stories, but also a serious minded gardener when not telling a whopper.

A native of one of the oldest wine making countries, Italy, Ralph first broke into the world in 1895. Ralph stayed only long enough to absorb the natural, friendly atmosphere of Italy.

In the year 1909, Ralph landed in New York and then in 1915 caught the fever of "Go West, Young Man." And so, he set his sights on California and had no more barely settled here, when he entered the first World War in 1917 to 1919.

At the end of the war, Ralph found himself out of a job like many others and took up the trade of cement finishing, besides pruning in the vineyards of the San Joaquin Valley. He has also done gardening since he was a little boy. Thus the stage was set for his coming to the once campus of Fresno Tech.

He started his official career of gardening when in 1943 he enrolled as master gardener at Fresno Tech.

Ralph was then drafted by the Fresno Junior College in 1949 as number one caretaker for the campus' landscaping.

It has now been 47 years since Ralph first came to this country and a mere 13 years that he has been gardening for long gone Fresno Tech and the present Fresno Junior College.

Rams End Year With 5-3-1 Mark

Fresno Junior College wound up its 1956 football season with a 5-3-1 record and considering opening game jitters and with one or two breaks the Rams could have gone through a perfect schedule.

Huskies 20—Rams 6
The first game found the Rams traveling to the City of Angels to do battle with the East Los Angeles Junior College Huskies. The huge Huskies pounced on the young Rams causing several Ram miscues which resulted in Huskie TD's.

Rams 14—Mustangs 0
Playing heads-up ball from the opening gun, the Rams slapped down a high and mighty Stockton College Mustang in the first home game of the season, 14-0.

Cougars 19—Rams 7
The Taft Junior College Cougars donned their hip boots and proceeded to work the rain and 40 mile an hour winds to their advantage in slogging to a 19-7 victory.

Rams 21—Tigers 0
The Ram front wall came to life against the Reedley Tigers. The hard charging Rams put the rush to the faltering Tigers and converted three fumbles into TDs.

Rams 37—Giants 18
Fresno showed its best offensive might at the expense of the College of Sequoias Giants, as the Rams cut the Giants down 37-18.

Rams 20—Pirates 12
The Rambling Rams proved that it is not always the brawny team that wins as FJC moved its grey matter into high gear. Coach Hans Wiedenhofer taught his boys a new-old trick to outfox the larger tank like line of the Porterville Pirates.

Rams 13—Falcons 13
The Rams looked like a different team than what contained Porterville and were lucky to settle for a game ending 13-13 tie against the league leading Coalinga Falcons.

Lancers 16—Rams 14
The kicking game proved the downfall for the Rams as the Pasadena City College Lancers booted a field goal to give them a two point edge and victory, 16-14.

Rams 26—Poly 0
The final game found Poly in pregame betting as the heavy favorite but the Rams reversed the score card and racked up a 27-0, victory to finish out the gridiron season.

Scribe Says Women May Lose Their Femininity

What has happened to the so called lady of our time and age? In the physical education class the women do not show their femininity.

While a group of women were playing volleyball one day last week, two women collided head on in a mad scramble for the ball. One woman was lying face down in the dirt with one arm tangled under her. A woman ran to see if anyone was hurt, and to prevent any more damage she grabbed the woman on top by the hair and pulled her to her feet.

Another example is that these women can't keep the ball inside the fence. During one period a woman had to climb the fence for the ball almost six times.

If this keeps up women won't be women, but muscle bound robots. You men had better watch out or else you won't be called the stronger sex because of the way you look.

Rams Play Host To Fullerton JC Five

Basketball moves into high gear tomorrow night as the Fresno Junior College hardwood five plays host to Fullerton Junior College at Yosemite Junior High School.

Fullerton promises to be a tough ball club and has consistently been a top flight JC club in the past years. They boast the only state tourney record of two wins in a row.

Rams Upset Mexico In Finale 27-0

The Fresno Junior College Rams playing their final game away from home, gave host Mexico Polytechnic a disheartening whitewashing of 27-0 before 2,500 spectators who braved a continuous downpour throughout the contest in Mexico's Olympic Stadium.

An early fumble helped to pave the way for the first Ram TD. From Mexico Poly's 27 yard line they gathered a tally in three plays, with Alex Kobzoff scooting for the final 16 yards.

The Rambling Rams went off the field in the first half leading 7-0, but came back with a quick score at the opening of the third period, when J.C. White spurred for 40 yards on a pitchout from Mike Flaherty.

Several minutes later, small, hard driving fullback Don Smith of the Rams broke through and rambed 20 yards for another tally.

In the waning moments of the final quarter, Ram halfback Bob Wagner climaxed a 68 yard drive on his 18 yard sprint into the end zone.

The Scoring

Fresno 7 0 14 6—27
Touchdowns: Kobzoff, White, Smith, Wagner. PAT: Kobzoff 3.

The Fullerton five will be out for revenge in this encounter as FJC won two out of three in last year's competition.

Romping for the Fullerton squad are six CIF players of which they also boast a 6'8" center.

Tuesday night the Rams sojourned to the new Fresno State field house for a semi-game condition scrimmage against the Fresno State varsity.

Both clubs were ragged in spots and this reporter got a sneak preview of what could be a powerhouse at State this year.

Warren Schmidt, 6'4", showed his ability at the center post as he netted 18 points against ex-Ram Gary Alcorn.

Former Navy man, Les Snaveley, continued his steady improvement by hitting for 14 points and could very well move into a starting spot as the season progresses.

Al Brown reinjured his ankle and will be out of action for about three weeks.

Ben Eichman was his usual cool self and seemed to be the only player who really knew the plays.

Shorty Jim Pettit proved to be lightning quick in breaking up the State fast break where no one else could.
