Red Key Members Donate Blood To Instructor's Sister

The Red Key lived up to its reputation, and through its members provided the much needed blood to Mrs. Glee Donnell, sister of Miss Kate E. Darling, a member of the Fresno Junior College faculty.

The four members who contributed blood were James Ringer, Bert Ereman, Don Lovelace, and Lloyd Cullins.

Expressing gratitude Miss Darling thanked the students who gave blood, thus making it possible for her sister to undergo a major operation. She also thanked Stanley H. Bennett, another member of the FJC's faculty, for asking for and obtaining the aid.

Miss Darling went on to say that she and her sister could never be thankful enough for the much needed blood which was contributed so quickly, and magnanimously.

Bennett said that he was very happy that he could get the students together for the donations, and added that he was very proud of them and was sure the whole junior college felt the same way.

Red Key Club Makes $25; Plans For Second Sale

Twenty-five dollars was made by the Red Key at a coffee sale December 21, according to Bobbie Burton, secretary of the club.

Miss Burton said that the money will go to help finance various projects and a donation will be made to the March of Dimes.

Plans are being made for another sale during this semester.

She said the reason for having the sale was because the Fresno State College cafeteria was closed and the FJC students had no place on campus in which to buy coffee or donuts.

Various items were donated to the club by Ann Sirabian's parents. Miss Sirabian is president of the group.

Those helping with the sale include Miss Burton, Miss Sirabian, Gene Francis, Al Copus, Bert Ereman, Red Key members, Gayle Kovick, and Dolores Critz. Noel Frodsham and Stanley Bennett, advisers, helped with the arrangements.

Rams Compete In Largest Tournament

Already the victims of three tournament losses, Fresno Junior College will venture to Modesto to take part in the 18th annual Modesto State Tournament Thursday in which 16 top teams will participate.

The Modesto State Tournament is the biggest tournament in the state.

Fresno swept through four straight victories last year to capture the Modesto tourney and become the new tourney champions.

Rams Were Champs

The Rams were declared tournament champions when they defeated San Francisco City College handily 74-55 last year.

The Rams in their first tournament this year reached the Bakersfield tournament finals but lost the championship game to host Bakersfield in a closely fought contest.

Ram Coach Joe Kelly took his crew to the Hartnell Coast Conference tournament and was eliminated from the finals when the tall

Rams Down Reedley In Third Period Splurge

Gary Alcorn, center, scored 26 points Tuesday night as the FJC Rams on a third period splurge downed the Reedley Tigers 82-73. It was the first league game for both teams.

Huey Davis and Al Brown, FJC forwards, followed with 16 and 14 points, respectively. Dick Payne, Alcorn's replacement, netted 11 points.

Allan Hancock team from Santa Maria dumped Fresno 75-65. However, the Rams went on to win the consolation title by defeating Hartnell 63-49.

Hancock Wins Title

It was the second time that Hancock was invited to the Hartnell tournament and also the second time the Bulldogs copped tournament honors. Last year Hancock defeated Hartnell to gain the title.

During the Christmas Holiday the Rams dropped their third tournament loss in the Sam Barry Memorial tournament in Glendale. Fresno was defeated by Los Angeles City College; however, the Rams were without the services of their towering center, Gary Alcorn. Alcorn remained home because of and infected toe.

Alcorn continues to lead the Ram scoring averages with 183 points in eight games for a torrid 22.9 points a game average.

Huey Davis actually leads the Fresno scoring in total points with 184 put the slick sophomore forward has played two more games than Alcorn. In ten games played Davis has a 18.4 game average.

Al Brown, a freshman forward from Edison High School, who played brilliantly in the Sam Barry tournament follows Davis with 160 points for a 14.5 average.

Payne Surprises Kelly

Dick Payne, who played his basketball for Roosevelt High School, did surprisingly well in filling in for the ailing Alcorn, Kelly reported.

Fresno has been hampered by injuries to key players all through the season but will probably be at full strength for the Modesto tournament.

Kelly gave a possible starting lineup of Brown and Davis at forwards, Alcorn or Payne, at center, and Marion Daniels and Polly Carver at guards. Ben Eichman from Fresno High School is expected to see plenty of action.
