

Francis Installed As President

New Officers Take Oath

Gene Francis was installed as the spring semester student body president of the Fresno Junior College in an installation assembly Tuesday at 11 a.m. in the Fresno Memorial Auditorium.

Francis, who defeated Don Lovelace in a recent runoff election, succeeds Bert Eremann.

The assembly was opened by Eremann, who introduced Ann Sirabian, Red Key president, who announced the Red Key service award winners: Mary Lanotte, and Francis, freshmen; Barbara Wilkinson and Fred Hall, sophomores.

Officers Installed

Eremann then turned the meeting over to Hall, out-going vice-president who installed the spring semester officers.

Others installed for the spring term were the following:

Olga Hernandez, vice-president; Lucretia DeBenedetto, secretary; Stanley Tusan, treasurer; and Ray Hamilton, Rochelle Harford, Delphina Hernandez, Eleanor Franco, James Barile and Alfred Copus, student council representatives.

Fall Officers

The fall semester officers include Eremann, president; Hall, vice-president; Miss Hernandez, secretary; Wilma Koenig, treasurer; George Thursby, Teresa Barile, Alfreda Barton, Miss Sirabian, and Barbara Wilkinson, council representatives.

Out-going officers received life membership cards and pins for serving the past semester on the student council.

Following the installation Francis introduced Bruce Davis and his orchestra, who then provided entertainment for the students.

The assembly was then brought to an end by Francis.

Garcia Elected To Head AMS

Fred Garcia, one of the two freshman class presidents, was elected president of the Associated Men Students last Thursday.

He was installed at the installation assembly held Tuesday.

Other AMS officers elected include Moses Hernandez, vice president; Glynn Bryant, secretary, and Larry Anderson, treasurer.

Fall semester officers are Tom Flores, president; Donald Lovelace, vice president; Ray Hamilton, treasurer, and Gary Alcorn, secretary.

McCormack Is Speaker

Miss Ethel McCormack, business division chairman, spoke at a meeting at the College of the Sequoias in Visalia Saturday to the Tulare County classified school employees.

Miss McCormack talked to an afternoon clerical section meeting of secretaries, receptionists, stenographers, accountants, purchasing agents, and others on "The Role of Secretary in Strengthening the School Organization." Miss McCormack told them of the importance a secretary's efficiency is in her school activities and also in public relations.

GENE FRANCIS

BOBBIE BURTON

Bobbie Burton Is New Spring AWS President

Bobbie Burton, a nineteen year old sophomore student, was installed as president of the Associated Women Students Tuesday at the installation assembly.

Other AWS officers elected will be installed at a dinner during the spring semester. They include Pat Jones, vice president; Rochelle Harford, secretary; Sally Bennett, treasurer, and Gayle Kovick, historian.

Three New Courses Will Be Offered

President Stuart M. White said Fresno Junior College will offer three new courses starting next semester which haven't been offered here before.

White also said that 17 courses will be offered next semester which were not offered this semester.

Three New Courses

The three new courses will be Art 5, art for elementary teaching to be taught by Miss Kate Darling; Zoology 1-A, general zoology to be taught by Dr. Lewis A. Follansbee; and Music 10, music for elementary teaching by Lowell C. Spencer.

Eight courses to be offered during the spring semester which were not offered during the fall semester are in the education division, six are in the business division, and three are in the trade and industrial education division.

The eight in the general education division and the instructors include human physiology, Dr. Lewis A. Follansbee; general elementary bacteriology, Kenneth Hald; home decoration and career girls' clothing selection, Mrs. Caryl Houck; quantitative analysis (chemistry), Floyd Quick; techniques of baseball and competitive baseball, Clare L. Slaughter; and competitive track, Hans Wiedenhofer.

Business Division

The six in the business division and the instructors include labor relations, Stanley M. Bennett; tax accounting, John L. Fenn; the American economy, Braxton C. Henderson; special shorthand review, Miss Ethel McCormack, secretarial training and secretarial problems, Miss Gertrude Stubblefield.

The three in the trade and industrial division and the instructors are industrial chemistry, B. Ivan Belman; mechanism (engineering), Francis J. Leyden; and statics, Ernest Wolf.

White said one or two other new courses may be arranged before the semester starts on February 1. Information may be obtained from the division chairmen: John Mock, general education; Miss McCormack, business; and Robert P. Hansler, trade and industrial.

The fall semester officers are Eleanor Franco, president; Miss Burton, vice president; Genny Schellenberg, secretary; Bonita Claire, treasurer, and Laura Kemper, historian.

Miss Franco received a gavel from Miss Burton. She also got a pin and a life membership card to the FJC associated student body.

New Procedure For Vet Sign-Up

Mrs. Louise Murphy, the veterans' secretary, announced a new procedure for signing of veterans final exam report.

All regular daytime students attending under the Korean GI Bill must have a veterans' final exam report signed by their instructors before they sign the Monthly Certification, VA Form 7-1996a for January.

Upon completion of the form the monthly certification, VA Form 7-1996a, may be signed in the veterans' office.

Veterans who are not re-enrolling for the spring semester are to sign through January 27, 1956, only.

Veterans who are re-enrolling are to sign for the entire month.

$346 Collected In Dimes March

Miss Willa Marsh, dean of students, announced today that the Fresno Junior College has collected $346 in the March of Dimes Drive.

Cecil Lane, chairman of the polio drive contest, said that the contest will end tomorrow. An accurate total will be taken of all the money turned in by the clubs.

Lane also said that a gold plaque will be inscribed with the name of the club which has the highest percentage according to club members and the sum of money collected.

Several students collected contributions from the students in the class rooms.

Collections will also be taken at the two basketball games this week, and the one January 31.

Registration Dates Set For January 30, 31

Registration for the spring semester begins Monday, January 30. Three hundred reservations are being made for that date from 8 to 11 a.m. and 300 more from 1 to 4 p.m.

George C. Holstein, dean of admissions and records, said all students who did not make reservations will register Tuesday, January 31.

Holstein said registration will begin at Station I, which is the office of admissions.

All day students and extended day students working for an associate of arts degree must have an application for admission on file. Transcripts of high school and college work must be on file, and they must have taken the college aptitude test and English placement

GEORGE C. HOLSTEIN

Preregistration Will End

All students now enrolled who have not preregistered were warned by George C. Holstein, dean of admissions and records, that the last day of preregistration is tomorrow.

Holstein said the students who preregister may obtain a reservation from Mrs. Lena Fuller, the registrar, for the first day of registration, January 30. Students without reservations will have to enroll the second day, when many classes may be closed.

ment or reading examinations. Students then will receive a routing sheet from the admission office, and fall semester students will receive grades for the fall semester.

Station II

At Station II all students who were on probation in their last semester or who have less than a "C" average the past semester will report to the dean of men or dean of women. All others may bypass this station.

Station III will be the division office. The business division will be in B-18; Miss Ethel McCormack is the chairman. The general education division will be in B-16; John Mock is chairman. The industrial education division will be in B-15; Robert P. Hansler is the chairman.

Day students make out a preregistration form and have them approved by their adviser. Extended day students make out program cards and have them approved by their adviser.

Finance Station

Station IV will be the finance station in B-8. Day students will pay student body, towel, and associated women students or associated men students' fees. Extended day students bypass this station.

At Station V, the residence station in B-9, students will have their residence checked and will receive a student information card.

Station VI, student information (1) will be in B-4. There students

FJC Will Offer 73 Night Classes

The Fresno Junior College will offer 73 night classes during the spring semester, starting the week of February 1. This total is 26 more than the courses offered during the spring semester of 1955.

This total includes 40 classes being offered by the trade and industrial division and 33 in the business and general education division.

According to Robert P. Hansler, chairman of the trade and industrial division, however, only six of these classes in his division are open to anyone. The rest are open only to those employed in a specific trade or occupation related to their courses.

Classes Split

The classes in business and general education are split over two campuses of FJC. Seventeen of them are being offered on the main campus and 16 on the old Fresno State College campus.

The procedure for registering for all these night classes has undergone a major change. According to the registrar's office, students will register for night classes from January 30 through February 2 in the registrar's office on the main campus from 7 to 10 p.m., and there will be no enrolling in the classes as in the previous years.

Division Chairmen

George C. Holstein, FJC dean of admissions and records, said that pertinent information in connection with trade and industrial classes, business courses, and general education courses may be obtained by contacting Hansler, John Mock, and Miss Ethel McCormack respectively.

Holstein said that copies of night class schedules are available in the offices at both the campuses.

Information Given On New FJC Courses To Be Offered

Several Junior College instructors have asked that information be given to students on certain classes which are available during the spring semester.

They include such courses as career girls, clothing selection, elementary nutrition, conference leadership, parliamentary procedure, carpentry, and general zoology.

The career girls' clothing selection class will meet from 1 to 3 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday on the main campus. The nutrition course will meet at 9 a.m. on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday on the Fresno State College campus. Both subjects provide three units.

Clothing Section

The clothing selection course is transferable to any four year college or university. It will consist of fashion trends, figure problem study, makeup, hair styling, and color choice. The students will also work with wardrobes and the planning of accessories.

The nutrition course will present the principles of good nutrition, including the normal diet for adults and children, the selection of optional diet for health, recent trends and research.

Conference Leadership

Conference leadership will meet Tuesday and Thursday at 1 p.m. on the main campus. Parliamentary procedure will meet on the same days at 8 a.m. on the FSC campus.

Conference leadership will include the study and practice of procedures in various types of conference situations. It will emphasize the techniques of successful conference leadership and participation through discussion of current problems.

Parliamentary procedure provides instruction on how to preside over meetings, organize clubs, and discover the qualities of leadership. The course will also include a study of the principles underlying parliamentary procedure and practice in conducting meetings.

Both speech courses provide two units which may be transferred to a four-year college or university. The courses will be taught by Joseph W. King, who said all students enrolled in the leadership class next semester will go to the regional conference in Porterville to study the conclave.

Merle Sons, carpentry instructor, announced there are opportunities for students in his carpentry class. Sons said he is looking for any student who is interested in carpentry or remotely interested to sign-up for the class.

The class meets three hours daily from 1 to 4 p.m. and is a seven-unit course. Basic carpentry deals with care and use of hand tools and power equipment, safety instructions, elementary architectural blueprint reading, foundation layout, form building, rough framing, and roof framing, and stair building.

Kenneth Hald, science department chairman, said that zoology, a new year-course, will be taught by Dr. Lewis A. Follansbee. The subject is the lower division zoology class required for entrance to medical, dental and pharmacy schools.

Biology Majors

It is also designed for biology majors and will be an elective for nursing students. Zoology 1-A will be given in the spring semester and again next fall; Zoology 1-B will be offered in the spring semester of 1957.

The first semester will survey the principles of animal biology, including comparative anatomy, physiology, heredity, evolution, and taxonomy of the major phyla.

Hald said students enrolling in zoology 1-A should have had elementary biology or the permission of the instructor. Next semester zoology 1-A, a five-unit course, will meet at 8 a.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday for lecture sessions and at 9 a.m. Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m. Tuesday and Thursday on the state college campus for laboratory practice.

Freshmen Elect Spring Officers

The freshman class elected new officers for the spring semester yesterday.

Fred Garcia, the president on the main campus presided over the group there, and Glynn Bryant, president on the FSC campus, presided over the McLane Hall group.

Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa, a national honorary scholastic fraternity, held a meeting January 12 in S-22.

Don Shroyer was appointed chairman of the publicity committee and Thelma Andrews, chairman of the alumni committee.

Alumni members who were present at the meeting are Miss Andrews, Raquel Cardenas, Leona Cyr, Glee S. Donnell, Richard Morton, Kirk Minasian, Shroyer, and Ellen Shroyer.

The active members included Mrs. Dorothy Bliss, adviser of Phi Theta Kappa, and Olga Hernandez, Theresa Magdaleno, Mary Stanke, Manard Stewart, and Stan Tusan.

Campus Activity

The Campus Activity club held a cake sale last week on the main campus.

14 FJC Nurses Receive Licenses

Certification of 14 Fresno Junior College vocational nursing students as licensed vocational nurses was received from the state Board of Examiners by Robert P. Hansler, chairman of FJC Trade and Industrial division.

He said he also received word that Gertrude Randleman, one of the students who graduated in September, tied for third place in the state on the examination with a student from the Los Angeles Trade and Technical Institute.

Doris McCary and Dorothy Greer, who also graduated in September, were among the highest in the state.

Hansler said 12 students are completing their one-year program this semester and will be graduated January 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the Little Theater at the Roosevelt High School.

He announced that a new class will begin their training February 3.

Opinions Expressed On How To Get Students To Polls

This semester the students at the Fresno Junior College surpassed the record-breaking vote that was set in the 1955 spring election. The question of the week is how can the student council get more students to vote at student body elections.

Ole Youngberg, a freshman majoring in engineering says, "In the first place, the Fresno Junior College should have a student body with more school spirit. If we had this, we wouldn't have to urge students to vote."

Lucretia De Benedetto, a freshman majoring in secretarial work, says, "Elections should be publicized more. More skits should be put on to attract the students to the polls. The spirit of the student council is the most important of all."

Karlo Demoorjian, former vice-president of FJC student body says, "There should be more candidates, and a variety of students for each office. The inter-club council should get behind the students to vote. Each year as the school grows bigger, more students should vote."

Cecil Lane, a freshman majoring in business education says, "In previous years, there was transportation to the polls. Stunts and gimmicks were put on to attract the students. Also when we went to the polls, we took a person with us. The voting record was broken because of these things."

Janice Roush, a freshman majoring in business education says, "I think there has been enough publicity. It's up to the students to vote. If they don't vote, they aren't good citizens. It will be good experience for the students who do vote."

Jerrie Brown, a freshman majoring in business says, "There should be more posters, advertisements, and gimmicks. Also the polls should be put in more convenient places. We should have more students voting in the next student body election."

Faculty Club To Meet Today In Ramble Inn

The Fresno Junior College Faculty Club will meet today at 3:45 p.m. in the Ramble Inn.

Dr. Rolf W. Ordal, president of the club, said an election will be held to elect new officers for 1956.

A social hour will precede the meeting.

Members of the faculty who are on the nominating committee include Mrs. Caryl Houck, Joseph Woodman, and Floyd Quick.

Filipino Woman Enjoys Freedom From Invasions

Felisa Villena, 22, a foreign student from the Philippines Islands, said this about the United States: "It feels good to be in a country where there is no fear of an enemy invasion."

Miss Villena was referring to the Japanese invading the islands during World War II, in which the Filipinos suffered much bloodshed.

"It was terrible," said Miss Villena, "thousands were killed on sight. Bombs were dropped on our homes and buildings. Many were killed as we fled to the mountains for survival."

She went on to say that food was scarce during that time. "The Americans would bring ration supplies," said Miss Villena.

She said, "As for clothing, most of the Filipinos were forced to make their own out of the second layer of bark from the trees. This process was done by pounding the bark until it was soft, and then shaping it out. The pieces were shaped out, cut, and then sewed together."

The Filipinos went without schooling for four years until the American troops invaded the islands in 1945. They were liberated later that same year.

Miss Villena came to the United States in 1955. She enrolled at the Fresno Junior College this semester, and is majoring in pre-nursing. Next year she plans to attend a nursing school for three years. After nursing school, she intends to return to the Philippines where she will help her people.

will receive their student number and the IBM class cards.

Before entering Station VII, student information (2) in B-1 or B-2, students must have all signature spaces signed up to this point. Here they will receive their registration book, and all students who do not intend to use their education entitlement as veterans will not fill in veteran cards, but turn them in at this station. Extended day students bypass this station.

There are six final steps to follow in Station VIII, which is student information (3) in the library. The first step is for veterans only, who will turn in the veterans' card and check programs with Mrs. Louise Murphy.

All students then will have their student information card coded and receive their IBM student name card. Then they will turn in all program cards, IBM cards and student name cards and routing slip.

Rams Dump Bakersfield, Swamp Taft

The Fresno Junior College Rams swept through two games over the weekend, smashing Taft Junior College, 103-60, Friday night and avenged an earlier loss to Bakersfield JC, winning 74-68, Saturday night in Bakersfield.

The Rams after leading Taft 37-23 at halftime, scored 66 points in the second half. It was the second league win for the Rams against no losses.

Forward Al Brown led the scoring with 18 points, followed by Gary Alcorn with 16, and Kalem Barserian and Huey Davis with 14 each.

Sweeps Bench

Coach Joe Kelly swept the bench of substitutes in the last half with none of the regulars playing in the last 10 minutes.

Saturday night the Rams after trailing 40-37 at halftime, rallied in the third period to take a 57-52 lead. Star Renegade Guards Steve Burnett and George Fields fouled out with seven minutes left to play and Fresno pulled away.

Brown Leads in Scoring

Brown led the scoring with 25 points, followed by Alcorn with 20 and Davis with 19. Davis was not present earlier this season when the Renegades defeated the Rams in the finals of the Bakersfield Invitational Tournament.

Bakersfield Forward Jim Cowan kept the Renegades in the game with 24 points. Burnett had 14 before fouling out.

SPORTLITES

By RUBEN BARRIOS

Three members from the Fresno Junior College football team received honorable mention in the Williamson Junior College All-American football ratings.

Williamson honorable mention went to backfield aces J. C. White, Ram fullback; Tom Flores, quarterback, and to one lineman, John Aldredge, a guard.

Rams Rated 39th

The Rams starting eleven were rated 39th in the nation out of a poll consisting of 169 junior colleges. Taft, the Central California Junior College Association champions, was rated fourth and had their powerful Fullback Archie Schmidt on the JC All-American team.

Porterville JC had six players on the honorable mention, Coalinga, two, and College of the Sequoias, also two.

Baseball Underway

Baseball for Fresno Junior College will get underway Tuesday afternoon when new baseball coach, Clare Slaughter, will send his candidates through a rugged practice on the Romain Diamond in preparation for the Rams' first game with Modesto JC February 10.

Slaughter will have several returning veterans and a good haul of local prep talent for the oncoming baseball season.

Allan Hancock, Rams Play Tonight

Fresno Junior College, the defending league champion, will get its sternest test of the basketball season tonight when it plays Allan Hancock Junior College of Santa Maria in an important conference game that could decide the outcome of the Central California Junior College Association title race.

The game, originally scheduled for last Tuesday night in the Yosemite Junior High School gymnasium, has been shifted to tonight in the Roosevelt High School gymnasium in order to allow more room for Santa Maria fans and local Fresno JC fans and students.

Entertain Pirates

Fresno will entertain the Porterville College Pirates on the same hardwoods Saturday night in another conference game.

Hancock, the pre-season choice to win the CCJCA crown, and who owns a 2-0 league record, has passed the 100-point marker 11 times this season while Fresno, who also holds a 2-0 mark, has done it only once which was over the Taft College Cougars, 103-60, last Friday night.

The Bulldogs have six returning lettermen and are led by big Ted Boggs, center, who controls a good share of the rebounds. Other possible starters for the Bulldogs are Bob Thomas and Dick Rife, guards; Fred Nightingale and Dave Wood, forwards.

Kelly Names Starters

Ram Coach Joe Kelly will assign six-foot, eight-inch Gary Alcorn, the Rams tallest player to guard Boggs. Other starters selected by Kelly are Polly Carver and Marion Daniels, guards and Al Brown and Huey Davis, forwards.

Fresno Is Host To Porterville JC Saturday Night

Saturday night the Fresno Junior College Rams will meet the Porterville Junior College Pirates in the Roosevelt High School gym. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Pirates have won one and dropped two in league play, having beaten Coalinga 81-62 and losing to Reedley 89-74, and Hancock 104-86. Fresno, owners of a two win, no loss record is not expected to have too much trouble with the Pirates.
