Kelly's Crew Plays Hancock Tomorrow

A win is a "must" for Ram Coach Joe Kelly tomorrow night in Santa Maria if he hopes for at least a tie in the Central California Junior College Association title race.

Kelly's crew will invade the Allan Hancock College gymnasium in a crucial game that could determine the Rams chances for the championship.

Rams Win 24th

The Rams walked away with their 24th victory Saturday in Palo Alto when they handed the Stanford University Junior Varsity Braves their third loss of the season. Fresno met San Jose Junior College, another non-conference opponent, on its home court Tuesday night, and defeated it 85 to 62.

The Rams will stay on the road and meet the Porterville Junior College Pirates Saturday night in a CJCJA game. Fresno is expected not to have too much trouble with the Pirates, but will have stiff competition from the high scoring Santa Maria team.

Hancock was strengthened at the start of the second half of CJCJA play by the addition of Dave Hyatt, 6 foot 8 inch center from Ohio, who became eligible at that time.

Hancock Is Hot

Hancock this year has most of its players back from last season's team which posted a 22-9 and has added talented newcomers. The Bulldogs are currently one of the hottest JC teams in the nation in scoring, but had difficulty with the cellar dwelling Taft College Cougars last Saturday night.

William Bertka, who took over coaching reins for Hancock last year, has a well balanced team with several players that can be classed as starters.

The Bulldogs, who use a full court press, have good speed and with their added height will give the Rams all they can handle tomorrow.

Starting Five

Kelly will have high scoring Huey Davis and Al Brown at forwards with Gary Alcorn at center and Polly Carver and Ben Eichman at guards.

Alcorn still leads the team in league play scoring with 166 points. Davis and Brown follow Alcorn in the scoring department and are top defensive performers.

Reserves Don Birkle, Dick Payne, Kalem Barsarian, Bob Palacios, Marion Daniels, and Chuck Wimer will probably see action against Porterville Saturday night.

The Rams have two remaining home games. They will host Coalinga February 23 in the Yosemite Junior High School gymnasium and College of the Sequoias February 25 in the Roosevelt High School gymnasium.

Business Leaders Arrange Party

Phi Beta Lambda, FJC's chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America, will hold a membership party Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Ramble Inn.

Ray Hamilton, new president, urges all business students to attend the party.

The committees for the event are Pat Jones, arrangements; Pat Spomer, games and entertainment; and Annie Keimer and Sally Bennett, refreshments.

The clothing will be sports.

Talent Show Committee Is Announced

Al Copus, chairman, recently announced the Talent Show committee.

They include Edd Suddjian, Eleanor Franco, Mary Lanotte, Dotti Rubald, Lois Raybourn, and Gene Francis.

The Talent Show will be held on March 16 at 10 a.m. in the Fresno Memorial Auditorium. The Red Key Club and Rally Committee are co-sponsors of the event.

Copus said that each club is asked to participate in the show. Each club will sponsor an act, with the winning club having their name imprinted on a trophy. He said that there will be a second place award, but the committee has not decided on what the award shall be.

Copus urged all clubs wishing to participate to see Miss Willa Marsh, dean of students, on the FJC main campus for a Talent Show form, and to turn the form in by tomorrow at 2 p.m.

Miss Lanotte was appointed chairman to obtain local radio and television personalities to act as judges for the event. A master of ceremonies will be picked from the FJC student body later by the committee.

Ruben Barrios, president of the class on the FSC campus, said that this is the first freshman class big social gathering of the spring semester and said that the dance is open to all FJC students and their dates.

Entertainment Planned

Entertainment will be provided by the Harmonettes, an FJC trio, consisting of Shirley Neal, Dulcena Allison, and Patsy Ingram, and by Richard Rasner and George Smith, Fresno State College students.

Barrios said that the admission is 50 cents for students without student body cards and 25 cents with cards.

Vets May Lose GI Entitlement

Under the Korean GI Bill, most veterans must begin college training within three years after their separation from service.

The bill, now Public Law 610, allows all Korean veterans three years from the date of their separation in which to begin classes.

George C. Holstein, dean of admissions and records, explained that veterans may lose their chance to attend unless they start training in the spring semester.

Points Out

He points out that veterans whose deadline occur before the beginning of the fall semester of 1956 must start their training at the beginning of the spring semester.

The new law also extends from seven to eight years the time in which a student must complete training and also provides an extension of from nine to 13 years in which certain disabled veterans taking Public Law 16 rehabilitation training may complete their work.

Public Law 16

Under Public Law 16 for disabled World War II and Korean veterans, there is no deadline date for starting training. However, a veteran must begin his course in time to finish it by the wind-up date of the training program.

With few exceptions, all World War II GI Bill training comes to an end on July 25, 1956.
