The board will appoint two persons—one as leader of the responsive reading and one for scripture reading—for the baccalaureate service.

Members of the AWS will be the ushers for the service while the freshman class will be the ushers for the commencement exercises.

Genny Schellenberg, treasurer, said that the tickets for the dinner will be sold at $2.75 starting May 7 in the main hall on the main

FJC Anticipates Vocational Nursing Program Expansion

FJC is anticipating the expansion of its vocational nursing program next fall from the present two semester course to three.

The purpose of this change, according to Robert F. Hansler, chairman of the technical and industrial division, is to facilitate more preclinical training and to allow classroom and hospital instruction during each of the three semesters.

Hansler said that the students who started their training this semester will be able to finish in two semesters. Those who start next fall will do so in three.

Archie Bradshaw, the FJC guidance director, will give an aptitude test May 8 at 9 AM in S-22 for women who wish to start training next fall.

Information concerning the test and nursing program may be obtained from Hansler in the main FJC office.

The three semester curriculum will offer the student 13 units and 567 hours of preclinical training in the hospitals during each of the last two semesters.

In the first semester the student will have eight units and 270 hours of preclinical experience.

Seven File Forms; None For President

No candidates have filed petitions for fall semester student body president.

Seven have filed petitions and were approved by the election committee to run for student body offices for the fall semester of 1956.

Business Students Show New, Old Type Of Offices

FJC business division students are acknowledging Public Schools Week by demonstrating the old and the new in business offices at a display in the Pacific Gas and Electric Company on Fulton Street this week.

On one side the division has set up a 1906 office and on the other a 1956 office. These offices will be occupied by students during the noon hour and other limited hours every day through Friday.

The 1906 office is equipped with the old typewriter, roll top desk, coal scuttle and spittoon, while the 1956 office has up to date equipment, including an electric typewriter, a dictator, a transcriber, a mimeograph, and a telephone.

The display also includes a century of progress of the typewriter.

Arrangements for the display were made by Miss Ethel McCormack, the division chairman and a faculty committee whose chairman was Nancy Webster.

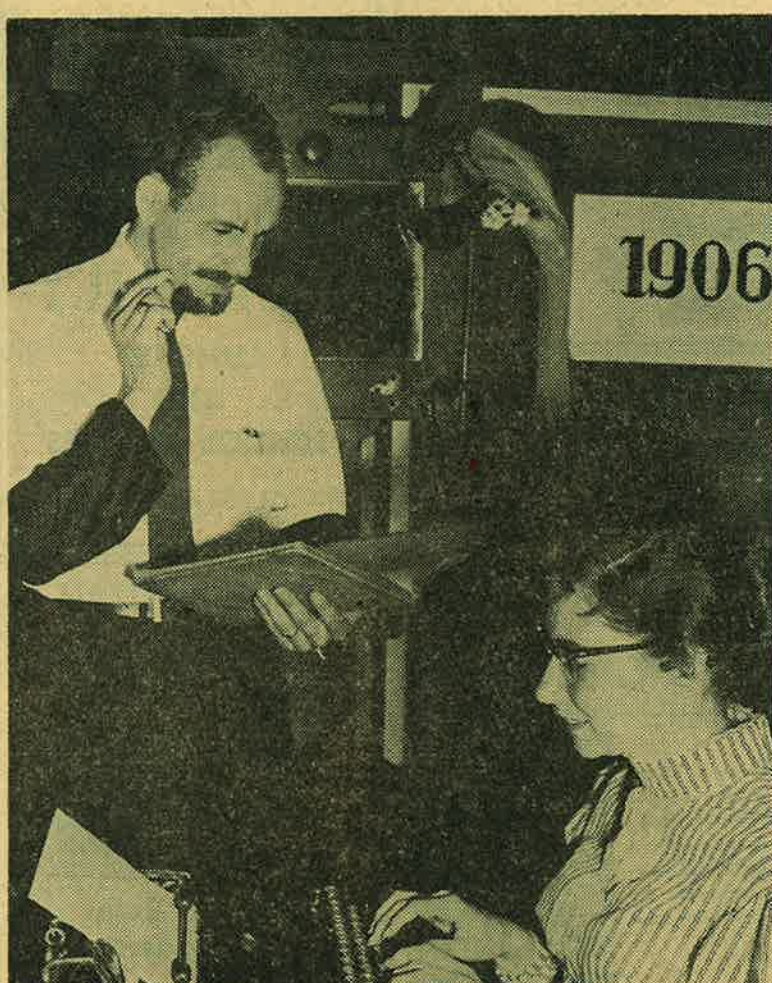

Staff Plans Tour

The Rambler, FJC's yearbook, staff with their adviser Franz Weinschenk will tour a local lithography company on May 3.

The staff will see how the yearbooks are made and get a general idea of the way they are bound.

CHANGING TIMES — Business students demonstrate modern office equipment in a Public Schools Week display in a downtown office window. Marian Bitter, right, hands a letter to Anthony Najara to record on a dictating machine as Edith Forath runs a duplicator.

1906 OFFICE — FJC students "operate" an office of 50 years ago, complete with ancient typewriter, coatrack, and other equipment of a half century ago. The students are "Bookkeeper" Bill Koenig and "Typist" Beverly Martell.

Wanted: Students For FJC Council Officers

HELP WANTED: ONE FJC STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT, ONE TREASURER, AND ONE REPRESENTATIVE AT LARGE.

In case you haven't heard about the big race for student body offices, this may enlighten you on the subject. There are five students running for representatives at large, there are six vacancies for the positions; one student is running for secretary, one for vice president and as yet we have no students running for president or treasurer.

The Rampage feels that this is laziness on the part of all FJC student body card holders, and furthermore it believes that excuses are just "hogwash" as far as it is concerned. A good school government can only be obtained when there are enough students willing to participate. We, as students, must remember that Sam cannot always handle all our problems. Some of us shirk our duty and say well this time we'll let Sam do the job. But Sam is getting tired, and needs a rest.

Monday morning at 11 AM in the Memorial Auditorium, students will again be given the chance to run for fall student body offices, at the nomination assembly. Are you eligible to run? Why not find out. See Mrs. Lena Fuller, registrar at the FJC campus, or Mrs. Margaret Thoms in the office on the FSC campus. Let's not wait for someone else, BECAUSE SOMEONE ELSE MIGHT BE WAITING FOR YOU.

Other officers are Bob Pascoe, vice-president; and Alfreda Barton, secretary.

Murphy Reminds Vets To Sign Certifications

Mrs. Louise Murphy, veterans' secretary, reminds all veterans attending school under Public Law 550 to sign their monthly certification (VA Form 7-1996a) between May 1 and 4 in order to receive their subsistence for the period April 1 to 30.

Part Time Job Seekers Should Contact Starr

FJC students seeking part-time employment are urged to make application to Paul Starr, dean of men.

Although employment cannot be guaranteed to every student, there are a limited number of jobs available during certain seasons

Students Plan Calendar For Next Month

The Fresno Junior College students have a busy social calendar planned for the month of May.

Among the many activities that have been planned next month is a swimming party to be held May 4 by the freshman class at Blakeley's Swimming Pool.

The Intervarsity Christian Fellowship will hold a picnic May 18 at 5:30 PM at Millerton Lake. Velora Reimer, president, will head the committee.

An annual reunion of all past presidents of the AWS will be held May 18 at 7:30 PM in the home of Mrs. Hazel Pedersen, an adviser. Bobbie Burton, AWS president, and her cabinet are assisting in the arrangements.

A swimming party will be held for all members of the Rambler staff at the Blakeley's Pool May 22 at 2:30 PM. Miss Burton, editor; Gayle Kovick, Marilyn Snyder, Huey Davis, and Cecil Tange are making the arrangements.

The staff members of the Rampage will hold their annual banquet May 24 at 6:30 PM at the Hut. Joseph Drilling, vice president of KJEO-TV, will be the main speaker for the evening. The committee in charge of plans for the dinner includes Al Copus, editor; Patti Ford and Eleanor Franco.

The Campus Activity Club has a picnic planned for May 24, at 3 PM at Millerton Lake. Dora Bishop is chairman of the committee in charge.

Election Problem Gets Number Of Answers

Because election procedure for next year's student body officers was started last week, the Rampage reporter asked a number of students the following question: "How can we get more students to run for student body offices?"

Delmar Moore, sophomore in general education: "Maybe they should stress the duties of the offices more. Lots of people don't realize what their function is."

(Ed's note: Students may find out the duties of any office by contacting present student councilmembers or the advisers, Miss Willa Marsh and Joe King.)

Carrie Mitchell, education freshman: "If they had more publicity they might interest more students. Also, they should have a longer campaigning period."

(Ed's note: The Rampage runs a number of articles before each election. Also signs are posted at each campus.)

Felisa Villena, a freshman foreign student in pre-nursing: "They should know more about the functions of each office. I think this would increase interest."

(Ed's note: The functions of the student body officers are found in the FJC constitution and may be obtained from the office on the main campus.)

Thurmon Burson, a sophomore majoring in agriculture: "Make the students feel the job is important and that there is a need for student government. We should strive to improve interest in the student government at Fresno Junior College."

Miriam Klaus, a freshman majoring in secondary education: "They should have more information available, such as booklets, and pamphlets. The students should know what each office is and what is required of him if he is elected."

Business Meeting Is Planned For Saturday Morning

The Central Section of the California Business Educator's Association will convene Saturday morning on the Fresno State College campus.

Theme for the meeting is "Challenges in Business Education for the Next 10 Years."

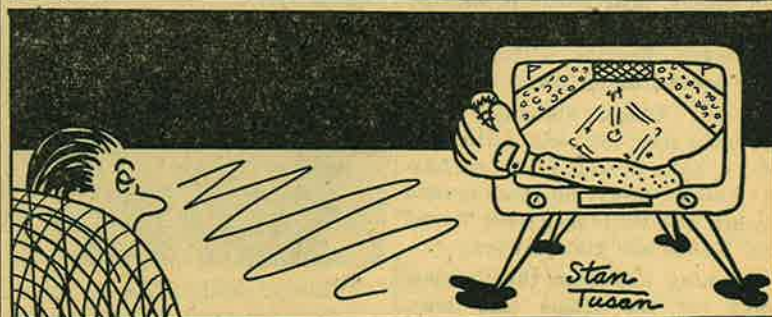

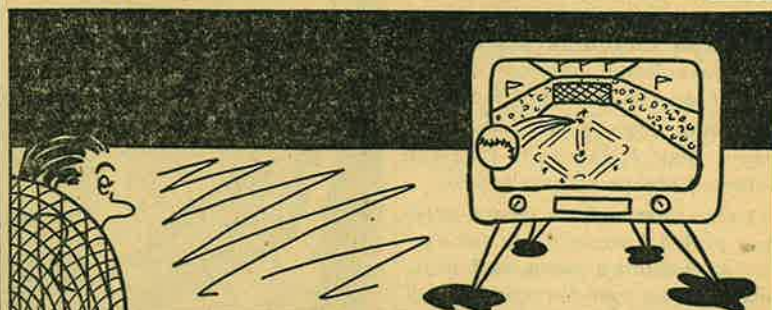

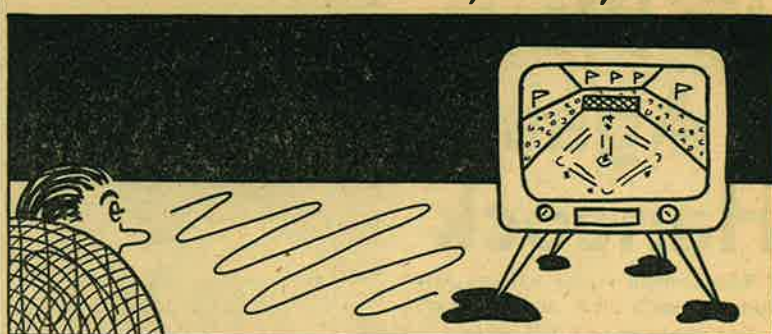

Those attending from FJC are Miss Ethel McCormack, business division chairman; Paul Soderstrom, Miss Nancy Webster, Miss Gertrude Stubblefield, Mrs. Ruth Stoughton, and G. A. Eckenrod, instructors in the business division. Eckenrod will act as moderator on a panel during the sessions on "Typing and General Clerical Techniques."

Eckenrod Chosen Veep At Association's Meeting

The Central California Conference of Personnel and Guidance Associations met Friday at the Fresno State College campus.

G. A. Eckenrod, FJC instructor, was elected vice-president of the San Joaquin Valley Guidance Association. Miss Ethel McCormack, chairman of the business division at FJC, also attended.

JC Plays 2 Against Hancock

The Fresno Rams will go after their seventh and eighth league wins tomorrow at 1 PM when they meet the Allan Hancock nine in a Central California Junior College Association baseball double-header on the Romain diamond.

Fresno owns a 6-2 record in league play, trailing the Coalinga College Falcons by two games.

Larry Garcia, Ram second baseman pulled a ligament in the College of Sequoia's game, and probably will be lost for the rest of the season. Milt Wallace, who replaced Garcia in the Taft game, or Ruben Barrios will probably play second tomorrow.

Coach Clare Slaughter will probably start lefthander Jim Call (0-1), John Troxel (1-1), or Larry Keller (1-0) on the mound against the Bulldogs. Beth Troxel and Keller are righthanders.

Pitching has been the weakest point for the Rams this year. Slaughter started the year with what looked like a good staff, but ineligibility took Russ Tipton and Fred Garcia was injured, robbing the Rams of their ace. Wildness has made Chuck Wimer and Troxel ineffective much of the time.

Rams Drop Cougars For Sixth Win

Scoring four runs in both the fifth and sixth innings, the Fresno Junior College Rams scored an easy 12-2 victory over the Taft Cougars Friday on the Romain diamond.

The win was the sixth Central California Junior College victory for the Rams, giving them a 6-2 record in league play.

Chuck Wimer and John Troxel scattered nine hits, while being backed by the Ram's 10 hit attack. Wimer was credited with the win.

Milt Wallace and Larry Keller paced the Fresno hitting, Wallace collecting a double and a triple, and Keller getting three singles.

Fresno now trails the Coalinga Falcons by two games. Troxel in his four inning stint struck out eight and walked only one. The win was Wimer's first league win against no losses.

The score:

Taft	000	020	000
Fresno	010	244	01x

Armstrong, Dajar 5 and Dias; Wimer, Troxel 6 and Astone, Kelton 6.

Netters Smash Coalinga JC 4-1

The tennis team had little trouble winning its second league match Friday when it overpowered visiting Coalinga College 4-1.

The single loss came in men's singles when Bernie Eckert of Coalinga remained undefeated in league play.

Fresno had a match yesterday with the Taft Cougars on the Fresno State University Avenue Courts. Before the Cougars match the Rams had a two win, two loss record.

The Coalinga scoring:

Men's Singles—Bernie Eckert C. d Ernie Clark F. 6-1, 6-3.
Men's Doubles—Stan Nielson, Al Copus F. d John Baldwin, Courtney Schafer, C. 6-2, 6-0.
Women's Singles—Louise Taylor F. d Donna Barnett C. 6-1, 6-1.
Women's Doubles—Ann Mowrey, Eleanor Franco F. d Mearlene Nay, Darlene Motte C. 6-0, 7-5.
Mixed Doubles—John De La Rosa, Josephine Quintana F. d Mike Mullins, Joyce Fearon C. 6-0, 6-1.

Foreman Sets Two Marks, COS Wins

John Foreman, of FJC, set two meet records but the College of Sequoias compiled 113½ points to win the annual Hartnell Small College Track Tournament in Salinas.

Foreman, an ex-Roosevelt star miler, ran the mile in 4:22.7 and 9:57 for the two mile run, both in record time.

Fresno Junior College placed second in the tournament with 85 points. Other scores were Hartnell 71, San Jose '66, Menlo 28, East Contra Costa 26, Porterville 14, Reedley 12½, Napa 11, Coalinga 5, and Taft 2.

Fred Ruffin, of FJC, also was a double winner, taking the 100 yard dash and the 220. Fresno also took firsts in the shot put and in a four way tie in the pole vault. John Aldredge set the shot at 45 feet, 10½ inches and Lee Baker and Jim Burke were tied with Kelley and Fierro, both of Hartnell, in the pole vault.

Tomorrow, the Ram thinclads will travel to Coalinga for the CCJCA conference meet.
