Registration Of Students Underway

Any student who completed pre-registration for the spring semester with his counselor before the Christmas holidays may complete the entire registration procedure today from 1 to 5 PM.

The registration procedure will start in the counselor's office. No student will be allowed to start registration after 4 PM, and there will be no other registration until the regular registration dates of Jan. 30, 31, and Feb. 1.

John Mock, Ethel McCormack, and Robert Hansler, the division chairmen, are in charge of counseling and programing. Students now enrolled who have not yet completed their pre-registration should see their division chairman. New students are asked to contact the registrar for further details.

The English Placement Examination will be given for all new students today at 1 PM and on Jan. 29 at 9 AM. The Vocational Nurses' Examination will be given at 1 PM on Jan. 15, and the College Aptitude Test will be given at 1 PM on Jan. 21-25 and 28-31. All tests will be given in Room 200, McLane Hall.

The time for the regular registration on Jan. 30-31 will be 8-11 AM and 1-3 PM. Registration on Feb. 1 will begin at 8 AM and will end at 11 AM.

Paper Seeks Help For Spring Term

Interested in journalism? If so, the Fresno Junior College newspaper, The Rampage, will have several openings for aspiring students at the end of the first semester.

Philip D. Smith, FJC journalism adviser, says students may fill positions dealing with editorial, copyreading, features, sports, advertising, business, clerical and photography.

Anyone interested should contact Smith as soon as possible. His office is located in Annex 3 on the University Avenue campus.

Students To Assist In March Of Dimes

Fresno Junior College students will be asked to assist the March of Dimes in various activities to be held during the month of January.

Mary Lanotte, Associated Women Students president, who was named "Miss Teen" in a contest held a few months ago, has appointed Muriel Maxwell as chairman of the FJC Polio Drive.

Popcorn Ball

Activities planned by FJC students to raise money for the annual polio benefit drive will be a "Popcorn Ball" and downtown sale of peanuts in exchange for donations. The ball will be presented in the social hall on the University Avenue campus, Friday, January 18th at 9 PM. The dance will last until 12 midnight.

Music will be furnished by Adolph Mendoza's orchestra. Admission with student body cards is 50 cents stag, 75 cents per couple.

Maxwell will pick four students from each FJC club who will sell March of Dimes peanuts in downtown Fresno. The FJC area for selling will be on Fulton Street between Mariposa and Tulare.

An assembly will be held on Jan. 18 in the University Avenue campus. Collections will be made during the assembly.

The "Popcorn Ball" will be presented by Phi Beta Lambda and Red Key. Joe Parker is chairman of Phi Beta Lambda and Dolores Critz is president of the Red Key.

An inter-high school basketball game will be held at 8 PM in the Roosevelt High School gym, before the dance. Admission at the game will be 40 cents, with student body card. Half of the proceeds at the basketball game will be given to polio.

Chairmen Announced

Maxwell and Pat Pryce have been nominated co-chairmen in charge of decorations at the dance. Chairman of refreshments is Marie DeRuosi; and co-chairmen in charge of publicity are Ruben Barrios and Tony Najera.

Miss Willa Marsh, who retired last summer as dean of students at FJC, has been named teen-age adviser for the March of Dimes in Fresno. She will work directly with the college students who are donating their time and services.

The junior college has helped the March of Dimes in their drive for the last few years, usually by the same method to be used this year, selling peanuts in downtown Fresno and making collections at games, assemblies, and in the classrooms.

Hour Left To Vote For Spring Officers

Students who have not voted have approximately one hour left to do so. Eugene Thomas, election committee chairman, said voting will end today at 2 PM.

The booths are set up in the McLane Hall of the main campus. Voting on the Edison and "O" street campuses closed yesterday at 4 PM.

Three members of the election committee will count the ballots Thursday afternoon. The members are Thomas, Lucille Capelli, and Muriel Maxwell. Floyd Quick and Dr. Rolf Ordal, two of the faculty sponsors, will help with the tabulation.

Students also may vote for Associated Women officers and Associated Men officers at the same time as the student body election. The AWS will have a pink ballot and the men students will mark a blue ballot.

Barrios vs. Parker

Ruben Barrios, a Clovis sophomore, is opposing Joseph Parker, a freshman from Caruthers, for student body president to succeed Ben Eichman. Barrios is the student body vice-president, the chairman of the inter-club council, and the assistant editor of the Rampage, the school's weekly newspaper. Barrios is an education major.

Parker is the president of the FJC chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America and has served as master of ceremonies at several school functions. Parker is a business administration major.

Other Candidates

Other nominees for student body offices include Rochelle Harford, Frankie White and Harold Nielsen, vice president; Dorothy Rubald, secretary; Barbara Fragus, treasurer; Kenneth Pipes, Patricia Pryce, Marilyn Snyder, Beverly Underwood, Clara Randolph, Jo Ann Wilson, Shirlene Summers and Gene Dudley, for nine representatives at large posts on the student council.

33 Gridders To Get Awards

Awards for the 1956 Fresno Junior College Ram football team will be made in the near future at an awards assembly. Coach Hans Wiedenhofer stated that some 33 members of the squad will receive awards.

In past years, the Fresno Junior Chamber of Commerce has sponsored a dinner during which the presentations were made. This year due to previous commitments, the FJCC will not be able to do so.

Six members of the football squad will receive higher honors for placing on the Central California Junior College Athletic League All Conference eleven. First string members are Larry Boles and Bill Heron, ends; John Aldredge, guard; Alex Kobszoff and JC White, backs. Placing on the second string eleven is Leo "The Lion" Hall, center.

Two All American teams, the Los Angeles Times and the Williamson rating system of Houston, Texas, gave honorable mention to five members of the team. Herron, Aldredge, and White placed on both the L A Times and Williamson squads. Fred Racco and Kobszoff placed on the Williamson All American squad.

Wiedenhofer also mentioned that all of the second year men on

AMS, AWS Polls Close Today At 2

The election polls for the Associated Women and Associated Men Students will close this afternoon at 2 PM, and a host of new officers will be chosen to succeed the fall semester officers.

Those names on the ballot for AWS are as follows: president, Frankie White; vice president, Dulcie (Dutch) Spellman and Marilyn Snyder; secretary, Shirlene Summers, Carmen Ruiz, and Kate Elcher; treasurer, Deanne Lipari, Pat Pryce, and Rita Paris; historian, Patricia Koolman.

Nominees Listed

The AMS ballot consists of: president, Charles Leavitt; vice president, Bob McIntyre, Muriel Maxwell, and Tony Najera; secretary, Paul Ledbetter, Al Brown, and Ray Palacios; treasurer, Don Smith.

The two new presidents of the associated organizations will be installed by Mary Lanotte and Ray Palacios, the outgoing presidents, on January 18 at the Installations assembly. The other officers will be officially installed in the spring semester.

Outgoing Officers

The AWS officers for the fall semester were president, Miss Lanotte; vice president, Rita Harris; secretary, Edith Forath; treasurer, Marie DeRuosi; historian, Frances Roderick.

Last spring AMS organizations elected Anderson as president, Ray Palacios as vice president, Leo Hall to the secretary's position, and Paul Ledbetter as treasurer. Upon the resignation of Anderson as president, however, each officer stepped up into the next consecutive position.

Paper Urges Students To Cooperate With Officers

A few weeks ago the Rampage ran an editorial urging more candidates to run for student body offices. The answer to this appeal was very encouraging.

Eighteen students entered into the thick of the fight for the ten coveted offices, while this is not outstanding it is a sizable gain over last year.

Now the staff members of the Rampage have another appeal, this one to the general student body.

The new officers have been elected, and they have pledged themselves to do their best, however they will need the help of the student body to do a good job.

In the past years and again this year, although not as noticeable, there has been a reluctance to serve the school in the capacity of being an office holder, this could be traced to lack of support given these people by the rest of the student body.

This semester the support of the student body can serve a dual purpose. Besides giving the office holders the backing they deserve and need, they can show any future participants that FJC stands behind its officers, thus giving these future office holders the encouragement to run. In this way FJC elections will steadily get bigger and better and will become truly a selective representation on the part of the student body.

After the war the school system was changed to be more like ours with grammar, junior high, and high school and then college.

There is a week's vacation between each semester, and two weeks at New Year's. The summer vacation is of forty days, but homework is assigned to keep students busy all vacation. Kasuka's eyes sparkled as she remarked, "Oh, yes, we have school on Saturdays until noon. See how lucky you are."

FJC Takes Over FSC Coffee Shop

The Fresno Junior College took over the operation of the former Fresno State College cafeteria and coffee shop located on the University Avenue campus Monday, Jan. 2.

Paul Starr, the FJC dean of men, said the cafeteria and coffee shop will be open to the public. The cafeteria will be open from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM and the coffee shop will be open from 7:30 AM to 4 PM.

12 Employees
Mrs. Nina Stradel, the former manager of the Ramble Inn, the FJC snack bar on its O Street campus, is managing the cafeteria and coffee shop with 12 full time employees and several part time student workers.

Mrs. Stradel said the cafeteria will serve a hot lunch. The coffee shop will serve breakfasts and and other short orders during the hours it is open.

New Manager
Mrs. Peggy Morrow is the new manager of the Ramble Inn which has four part time student employees. The Ramble Inn operates a snack bar from 7 AM to 1 PM. Both establishments will be closed Saturdays and Sundays.

Stuart M. White, president of FJC said students and faculties of both FJC and FSC will use the cafeteria and coffee shop. The state college will retain the other facilities in the student union, including a bookstore, the social hall, a lounge and several offices.

College Nurse Heads Weight Losing Group

The secret of a good life is balanced living, and it follows that the secret of good health is balanced diet. Upon these grounds a transformation is underway on the Fresno Junior College campus.

A group of Fresno Junior College students have confidently organized themselves with the assistance of advisor Anne Gabel, FJC nurse, for the purpose of losing excess weight correctly and pleasantly.

There is much to gain, but the only thing lost is cumbersome poundage, a fact which is most gratifying within itself.

A new sense of well-being and inner-confidence accompany the trimmer figure, which can transform personalities.

The self-discipline involved in adjusting to nutritious foods and to quantities is not an easy one, but is a worthwhile achievement, personality-wise as well.

Accomplishing such a fete by a scientific approach is also an educational experience. The Winning Losers embarked on the venture quite seriously but have discovered it to be very much the lark.

Education Board Okehs Junior College Purchase Of Fresno State College Site

The city board of education has approved a lease and option agreement, except for minor changes, which places Fresno City schools a step further in the purchase of the old Fresno State College campus.

Last summer the board and the state set the price at $1,000,000, and the price has remained stationary in the document to date.

On the grounds that the school district should not bind a future board, Robert M. Wash, County Counsel, advised the omission of present clause in the agreement concerning the Ratcliffe Stadium Property.

Korean Hero, CMH Holder Attends FJC

By MARGARET HERNANDEZ

Rodolfo P. Hernandez, winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor during the Korean War while attached to the 187th Airborne Regimental Combat Team, is attending Fresno Junior College.

The 25 year old Hernandez, a business major, said he likes everything about school, especially his improvement in his grades. He hopes to go to the University of Mexico in the future and study to be an interpreter. Then return to Fresno to try and help the people of Mexican descent.

Hernandez said the people have been swell to me here in Fresno, and they have given me a home that I can live in as long as I want with the stipulation that I take full responsibility for the care of it.

I have been given a life membership in American Legion Post 509, the Disable American Veterans, and also the veterans of Foreign Wars. I have also been invited to attend all kinds of banquets.

Attends Conference

Recently he attended the First Annual Convention of C.M.H. winners in Florida. The people in Florida received us with open arms and were very hospitable and very polite. The convention proved to be very successful, quoted Hernandez.

The following was taken from an article of the 187th Airborne Regimental Combat year book.

On May 31, 1951, Corporal Hernandez was with his platoon in a defensive position on Hill 420 near Wonton-ni, Korea. The enemy mounted a fanatical attack supported by mortar and artillery fire and began pushing the platoon off the hill. Cpl. Hernandez although wounded in an exchange of hand grenades, stayed in his position and continued to deliver deadly and harrassing fire into the charging hordes. He continued cutting down the enemy until a cartridge ruptured in the chamber of his rifle. He then began a counterattack on his own, armed with only a bayonet and an inoperative rifle.

Kills Six

Fearlessly engaging the foe, he killed six of the enemy before falling unconscious from grenade, bayonet, and bullet wounds. His heroic action momentarily halted the advance and enabled his unit to counterattack and retake the lost ground. For his action, Cpl. Hernandez was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

In the words of the citation, "The indomitable fighting spirit, outstanding courage, and tenacious devotion to duty clearly demonstrated by Cpl. Hernandez reflects high credit on himself, the infantry and the United States Army."

Among the other honors he is qualified to wear are the Korean Unit Citation Infantry Badge, the Good Conduct ribbon, two Purple Hearts, and five battle stars and an arrowhead because of a jump behind the enemy lines.

The dark haired latin is a bachelor and lives with his mother. He has 5 brothers and 3 sisters. He likes the Marilyn Monroe type of girl, but he feels that he could not do her justice. His hobby is taking pictures of natuarl things and "girls."

Council Rep Views FJC Vote Issues

The election problem is one that has been confronting student councils of Fresno Junior College for the past several semesters. There is a deflation in student interest and participation in their government. The problem demands an answer but there is no ready solution.

Muriel Maxwell, representative at large on the council, was approached with the question in an effort to discover what the council has initiated in the way of methods to remedy the situation. The council is primarily concerned with the issue at the particular time because it is near election time.

Steps Taken

"At least one definite step has been taken, however, when the student council appointed a group of their members to form a campaign group," stated Maxwell.

The campaign committee has produced posters in the effort to arouse interest and make the need known to the public.

Another of their plans to promote enthusiasm is the "personal contact" approach. This, it seems, is more effective than any other single maneuver.

In regard to nominations and election assemblies' attendance, Maxwell reports that the council is motivated by the idea, at present, of presenting name talent as an added feature. They are presently engaged in securing said talent, and expect it to be the main drawing card.

Aware of Situation

Each member of the council is vitally aware of the critical situation, but are rather stumped as to what the miracle is going to be that will offer salvation to student government at FJC.

Army Major Will Speak

The Fresno Junior College Future Nurse's Club will sponsor a speech on nursing by Major Fietta Rosenberger of the United States Army at 7:30 PM on January 16 in the Hattie Mae Hammat Hall at the Heaton School.

Mrs. Anne Gabel, the college nurse and the sponsor of the club said that Miss Mabelclaire Normand, Nursing Consultant for the California League of Nursing will be available for answering questions regarding nursing in general.

The Auxiliary to the Fresno County Medical Society will serve refreshments. Major Rosenberger and Miss Normand have their offices in San Francisco.

Mrs. Gabel asks that all persons interested in attending the talks to notify her at the Fresno Junior College Future Nurse's Club, 1101 University Avenue, by January 10.

Guske Thinks Students Should Help Hungarians

"Students throughout the world should feel morally bound to help the survivors and refugees of Hungary's student-led fight for freedom," asserted Arthur C. Guske, the Fresno County Red Cross Chapter chairman.

Guske further said, "students always have been among the forefront in fighting for national independence and the dignity of the individual. This was the case in Hungary, and the courage and devotion to principles of the Hungarian students are now part of history's record."

No Sacrifice Too Great

"Fresno County students should remember that no sacrifice is too great in the fight for the essential beliefs held so dearly by these Hungarian students. The conscience of freedom loving students everywhere should dictate support to the Red Cross Hungarian relief appeal," he said.

Guske also reported the $5 million national appeal launched several weeks ago was necessary to meet the overwhelming needs of both Hungarian refugees and those who remained in their homeland.

Guske asked the people to note that the American Red Cross is the nation's officially designated international relief agency and is working with 40 other national Red Cross societies in caring for the Hungarians.

Provide Daily Meals

The national appeal will provide daily meals for a predicted 200,000 persons in Hungary and will completely care for 100,000 refugees in Austria. The appeal also will continue the program of providing for Hungarian refugees arriving in the United States.

Guske urges all college students to participate as fully as possible in any program undertaken by their college to raise funds for the relief program of the Red Cross. He said contributions also may be mailed to the chapter house at 2844 Fresno Street.

Giants Drop Rams 75-67 In Opener

Fresno Junior College opened its defense of the Central California Junior College Athletic cage crown last Tuesday evening in the Yosemite Junior High School gym against the College of Sequoias.

The Giant cagers, led by Ed Mitchell and company snapped a six year losing streak to FJC, to edge by the Rams, 75-67.

The score remained close throughout the first quarter with Fresno on top, 17-15, going into the second period.

Glant forward Mitchell started hitting the hoop, like he had a lease on it, with a combination of jump and set shots to lead his teammates to a 42-33 halftime lead.

Ram forward Larry Gambrell led the Fresno attack in the first half with a thirteen point effort.

COS maintained its 10 point margin throughout the second half except for one brief spurt led by Ram guard Dennis Mathis and Ram forward Al Brown to bring the Rams within four points of overtaking the fast-breaking Giant cagers.

The free throw line was very much the Ram downfall as the FJC five hit for only 21 of 35 attempts. COS hit for 17 out of 27 attempts from the free throw line.

Ace center Warren Schmidt fouled out with six minutes remaining in the game and was held to a low 17 points.

Brown proved the backbone for the Fresno offense in dumping through 24 points, 17 of which came in the second half of play.

FJC travels to Reedley Friday evening to match buckets with the Reedley Tigers at 8 PM. Saturday evening, Fresno hosts the visiting Taft Junior College squad at the Yosemite Junior High School gym at 8 PM.

Ram Cagers Take Four Out Of Nine

The Rambling traveling Fresno Junior College Ram Basketball team went through the Christmas holidays with a .444 average for the nine games played, four wins and five losses.

Bakersfield College's Renegades visited the local court on Dec. 12 and waltzed off with a convincing 77-68 win, after FJC led at the half. Bright spot for the Ram attack was forward Warren Schmidt's sparkling 40 point effort.

The last home appearance of 1956, for the Ram five, ended in an upset victory over the visiting San Bernardino Junior College squad, 76-72. Forward Warren "Stilts" Schmidt lacked three points of breaking the school scoring record in hitting for 42 points.

The following week the Rams began their traveling, with Bakersfield College the first stop.

The Rams put the stops to Gade guard Bill Cowan with a fine defensive effort by Dennis Mathis. In concentrating on Cowan, Renegade center Jess Washington slipped through for 20 points to sink the Rams in the final minutes, 58-55.

The Sacramento Junior College Panthers, playing one of their better games, led all the way to pin a 58-51 loss on the visiting Rams.

Terry Bennett, Panther center, held Schmidt to four points in the first period but Schmidt came back in the second half to take high point honors with 23.

Ram forward Al Brown, playing his first game, came through with 14 points in the losing cause.

The Rams journeyed to Glendale for the seventh annual San Berry Memorial Tourney on December 26-27-28-29.

An old foe, Bakersfield College, provided the first round competition for FJC with the Rams pulling an upset over the Gades, 71-68. Following the win over Bakersfield, the Rams pulled another upset, this time over a highly rated East Los Angeles Junior College five, 69-62.

The Glendale Vaqueros provided the downfall for the Rams in the third game, 72-62. Schmidt led the Ram effort with 33 points.

Los Angeles City College defeated host Glendale College, 93-69, in the finals to walk off with the championship.

Ram forward Warren Schmidt placed on the All Tourney five along with Bob Bell of Glendale, Bobby Odom of LACC, Danny Drinnon of Ventura, and Wess Young of Compton.

The Rams made their 1957 debut at the 19th Annual Modesto Junior College Invitational Basketball Tournament.

Coach Issues Diamond Call

Coach Clare Slaughter opens the gates at the Romaine Park on Monday, Jan. 21 as the baseball season has once more arrived.

The Fresno Rams' baseball squad, who finished second in the conference last year and lost only the league title in two close, one-run defeats to Coalinga, who took the CCJCA crown, return with a team that potentially has the quality to go all the way.

Coach Slaughter boasts an outstanding array of pitchers, which will certainly give the Rams the needed boost they have lacked in past seasons. Jerry Burcher of Roosevelt, Mike Flaherty of San Joaquin Memorial, Joe Gibson of Sanger, Larry Boies of Chowchilla, Jim Richmond of Chowchilla, and Frank Espinosa of Edison, could mean the difference for the league title.

The Rams, loaded knee-deep in all positions, start as follows: in the infield, Augie Caldera of Sanger, Wayne Pettit of Central, Stan Bush of Central, Jack Zimmerman of Fresno, Al Alanis of Roosevelt, and Ruben Barrios of Clovis.

Around in the outfield, veteran Larry Keller heads the list as he is flanked by Cloyce Keeney of Clovis, Bill Herron of Sanger.

Also returning during the spring semester will be Lawrence Kaprielian who was a combination of an outfielder-infielder and catcher last spring and who is capable of playing any position.

Battling for the backstop spot are Dale Lowery of Clovis and Phil Bertelsen.

Coach Clare Slaughter said, "the Fresno Rams have a tough 26 game slate scheduled, along with the Bakersfield tournament and two over-night trips to Sacramento and Santa Barbara."

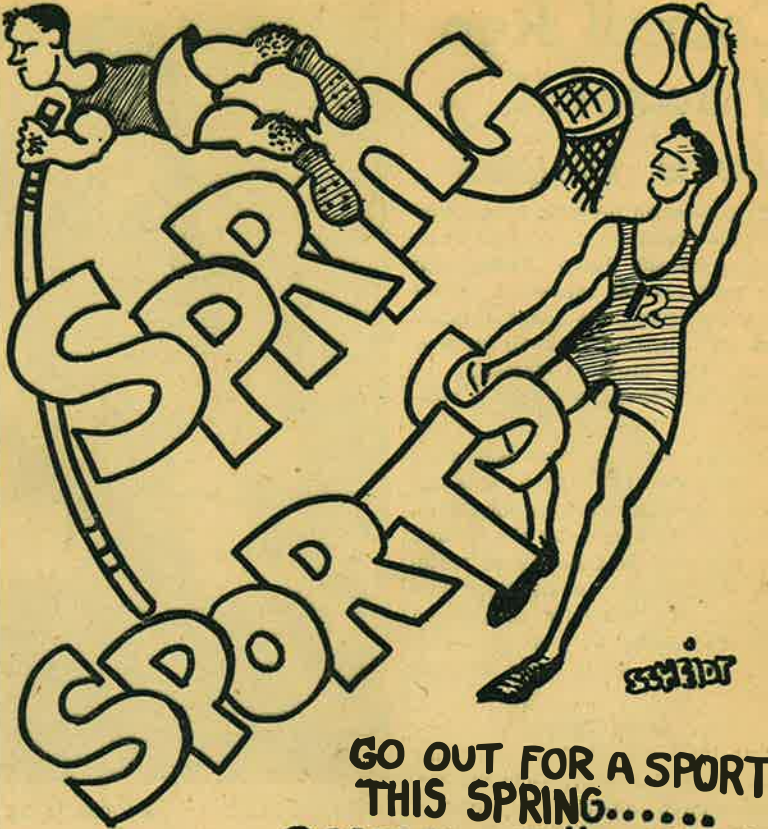

Coach Slaughter will hold a baseball meeting next Tuesday at 12:45 PM in the Weldon Street gym for anyone who may want to play baseball, so you fellows out there let's start digging out those cleats, gloves and hats and give it a try.

For those who cannot attend this meeting — please contact Coach Slaughter.

College Wrestling Invades Fresno JC For First Time

Coach Hans Wledenhoefer has his Ram Wrestling Team in high gear with a number of boys working out at the Weldon Avenue gym.

Competition for the squad will be on the lean side this year as this will mark the first season of wrestling competition for Fresno Junior College. Meets scheduled so far this year, include Modesto Junior College on Jan. 16, The College of Sequoias has been contacted for a home and home series with date unknown. Also, in the tentative plans are meets with freshman teams from San Jose State and Cal Poly.

For those of you with limited knowledge of college wrestling, do not confuse this style with the grunt and groan method as practiced on the local TV matches. Wrestling might be classed as an art along with judo, and is, by far, the best conditioning sport for the high school, college or just plain amateur athlete.

Wrestling is broken down into weights as in boxing. 123, 130, 137, 147, 157, 167, 177 pounds and heavyweights.

The boys wrestle in three minute periods with three periods to a match. Points are given for advantage holds with a pin down winning a period.

Anchoring the squad are Lee Baker, Fresno High, and Art Seagraves, Madera High. Seagraves and Baker are both high school champs in their class.

Rookies to the sport are Joe Gibson, Jim Flake, and Mike Fishback.

An interesting note on the recent Olympic games was that the Russians walked off with team honors in wrestling, so beware you would be wrestlers.

Such is wrestling in a very brief form and for those of you who desire something different than the usual football, basketball and baseball, come out and enjoy some good wrestling.

"I'm sad to say," said Tootsie Brown,
"The weight I gain just gets me down.
Each bite, each drop of this or that,
Immediately turns to fat.
Some girls, I note, can eat and eat
And yet they still look trim and neat.
To aggravate the situation
I much dislike my fat's location.
I wouldn't so much want to change me,
If only I could rearrange me."
