Barrios Is Elected Student Body Pres.

Ruben Barrios, a Clovis sophomore, was elected student body president of Fresno Junior College for the spring semester at last Wednesday's and Thursday's student body election. Barrios, who will be installed at the installation ceremony tomorrow at 10:30, received 206 votes and Joe Parker, the other presidential candidate gathered 168 votes.

RUBEN BARRIOS
Student Body Prexy

New Prexy Is Rich In Personality

By EDDIE BRIGGS

Mother Nature certainly endowed 22 year old Ruben Barrios of Clovis with a wealth of personality that is sure to last the newly elected Fresno Junior College student president a lifetime.

When one considers that Barrios, born in Clovis, spent eight years in Guadalajara, Mexico, spoke only Spanish during his stay, and has now been awarded the highest student office at FJC, it must be agreed that he has something "on the ball."

An education major, Barrios has a habit of being elected to school offices. While attending Clovis High School, he racked up an admirable record of being elected president of the freshman, sophomore and junior class, while a student in each respective grade level. He lost the presidency of the senior class by 12 votes, but became a senior class officer.

Barrios was elected spring semester freshman class president of the Fresno Junior College University Avenue Campus. He was also co-sports editor of the Fresno Junior College newspaper, The Rampage, during his freshman year.

During the fall semester, 1956, Barrios was elected vice-president of the Associated Student Body and chairman of Ram Week, 1956.

Among his other accomplishments

Bertelsen Is Frosh Prexy

Phil Bertelsen, as newly elected freshman class president, has expressed some hopes and plans for a prosperous and good spring semester.

The officers which have been chosen to help carry the responsibility of executing the duties of the freshman class are Augie Caldera, vice president; Dulcie Spellman, secretary; and Beverly Underwood, treasurer. Representatives for the class will be Shirlene Summers, Pat Pryce, and Ken Pipes.

Outgoing president Gene Wiggins, thanked the present cabinet for their support and work, and wished the new officers and the freshman class good luck in their coming activities.

In a runoff election Harold Nielsen defeated Frankie White for the office of vice president. In the regular election neither of the three candidates received a majority, so the top two entered the revote. In the revote Nielsen received 131 votes and Miss White 73.

Others Unopposed

All other student body officers were unopposed. Dorothy Rubald was elected secretary with 334 votes and Barbara Fragus, treasurer, with 339 ballots cast her way.

The representatives at large elected and the number of votes received were, Ken Pipes, 323; Gene Dudley, 317; Pat Pryce, 307; Clara Randolph, 304; Gordon Smith, 307; Marilyn Snyder, 312; Shirlene Summers, 316; Beverly Underwood, 319; and Jo Ann Wilson, 313.

A record 374 persons went to the polls to vote for student body president. The new revised constitution was passed by a big majority in the revote election.

Barrios, 22, is an elementary education major and at present is the student body vice president and chairman of the inter-club council. He hopes to attend Fresno State College and receive his bachelor of arts degree.

Business Major

Nielsen, 24, is a sophomore business administration major. He was appointed representative at large for the past semester.

Miss Rubald, 19, is a sophomore secretarial major. Among her many activities at FJC, she is a past president of Phi Beta Lambda, and Red Key secretary. At present, she is a representative to the student council and is the inter-club council secretary.

Miss Fragus is a freshman from San Joaquin Memorial High School. She is 17 years old and is a secretarial major.

Clubs Will Put On Polio Drive Dance

A benefit dance, "Polio Popcorn Ball," will be sponsored by the Red Key and Phi Beta Lambda on Friday from 9 to 12 PM in the student union social hall on the Fresno Junior College University Avenue campus.

Profit from the dance and a popcorn sale will go to the March of Dimes. A local orchestra will provide the music. Admission with student body cards will be 75 cents for couples and 50 cents for stags. Popcorn balls will be sold at tomorrow's installation assembly.

Dolores Critz, the Red Key president, and Joseph Parker, the Phi Beta Lambda president, are in charge of arrangements for the dance.

Committee chairmen are Muriel Maxwell and Patricia Pryce, decorations; Marie DeRuosi, refreshments; and Anthony Najera and Ruben Barrios, publicity.

Peanuts for Polio sales, a campaign participated in by the high school students, will be helped by the FJC students, on Friday at 8 PM at the Roosevelt High School gymnasium.

The title, "Miss Teen," spearheading the March of Dimes activities of local teen-agers, is given to Mary Lanotte, the FJC Associated

Pupils Get New Chance With Semester Change

The fall semester of the 1956-57 school year is rapidly drawing to a close and with it comes those horrible things called finals.

However, after the finals comes a week long holiday between semesters and a chance for everyone to relax and review their successes and failures of the past 18 weeks.

It is a little late to start regretting those assignments that you didn't hand in, or those tests that you didn't study for.

Next semester will no doubt see those who "goofed-off" this semester digging in to make up those grade points they need so they can goof-off the next semester. To balance this, those who worked the fall semester will be the ones able to fool around this spring semester.

In the sports picture the Fresno Junior College will put forth a baseball team, a track team, a wrestling team, and a golf team.

These teams will need the support of the student body if they are to supply the school with a pennant winner, or a championship winning team.

Start the spring semester off by following the Rams in every sport, no matter what it may be. The FJC basketball team has had its troubles so far, but still they are in the thick of the fight for the CCJCAA crown.

Last year the Rams took third in the California State Junior College Basketball Tournament, after winning the CCJCAA title. If the Rams are to make this good a showing this year they will need all the support the fans and student body can give them.

Last year's baseball nine had its troubles, however, that was last year and this year's team looks like a winner, but they too will need support. No one likes to play in front of empty stands.

The student body of FJC would do well to make this a new semester's resolution: To do their best in school and to bring up those faltering grades; to support Fresno JC competitive teams, whether it be basketball, baseball, track, golf or whatever; to support FJC activities, drives and the student body officers.

Term Ends, Fateful Days Of Final Tests Draw Near

By MIKE HARTMAN

As the semester comes to a close, those ever fateful days approach with sickening regularity . . . that of the finals.

Throughout the campus student will be hanging their heads in shame, either because they flunked or because they didn't even have the heart to go to class.

There will be some, of course, that will have passed, those will be the ones that you see climbing the trees with joyous abundance, or maybe just lying on the lawn with a sly, happy, sickening grin on their faces.

Throughout the campus you see the ambling worry-faced instructors who are so concerned with the fate of those students which they had to flunk, (did they have to?).

Then it is just possible that we may see some of these same worried instructors not looking worried, but with fleeting malicious grins on their faces.

And there will, of course, be the ones who have lost everything. They will be the ones who look like they want to commit suicide. "Anyone got a rope?"

Play Group Will Present 'Bernadine'

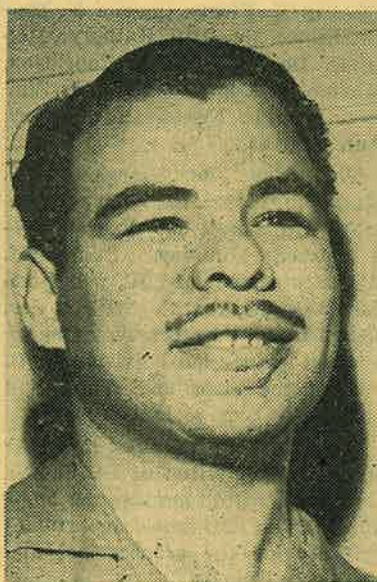

The Fresno Community Theater will present the light hearted comedy, Bernadine, by Mary Coyle Chase, March 1, in the Roosevelt High School Auditorium. The play will be directed by Mrs. Donald R. Austin.

The Bernadine of the title is the dream girl of the gang, a mythical maiden from the imaginary town of "Sneaky Falls, Idaho, on the Itching River."

In the central role of Buford Weldy, who differs from the other boys by not just dreaming of Bernadine, but by actually seeking an adventure with her will be Kenneth Wagner.

Others who will portray members of the gang and their roles are Phillip Austin as Arthur Beaumont, the leader; Thomas Mon Pere as Marvin Griner, the prime "wolf;" Peter Major as George Friedelhauser, the brain; and George Orndoff as Morgan Olson, the "kibitzer."

Others who will appear in the play are Patricia Pimental, Donna Lyford, Rose Barrett, Alice Green, Etta Haines, Bert Richmond, A. J. Witnick, Bernard Abrams, and Carl Kimball.

Last week the Rampage ran a picture which it identified as that of Cpl. Rodolfo Hernandez, Congressional Medal of Honor winner, and presently a student at Fresno Junior College. It was not, and the Rampage would like to take this opportunity to rectify this mistake.

Hernandez won the CMH for action above and beyond the call of duty while serving in Korea.

HELP FIGHT POLIO

ANGELA CISNEROS

People That Can Walk, Run, Hurry Are Lucky

Did you know you are lucky! Why? For the mere fact that you are walking. You walk, run, and hurry everyday without even giving it another thought. It comes so simply and so naturally that you often forget what you are actually doing. Your legs move automatically without the use of any help from anyone.

You've forgotten the challenge and some of the fear a baby is confronted with when he takes those first two wobbly steps to safety.

Have you wondered what happens to people who are struck with polio? Fresno County reported 72 new cases of polio this year despite the fact that the Salk vaccine was already in use.

The country's need is demonstrated by every child who walks on crutches.

The Fresno Junior College is joining the March of Dimes in various activities, on and off campus, to help during the month of January. Those participating are the Associated Women Students, Red Key and Phi Beta Lambda. They will be taking collections at the assembly Friday, and selling peanuts on Fulton Street between Mariposa and Tulare. The benefit dance will be held Friday night from 9 PM to 12 PM.

Those of us who can walk without the aid of any instruments should cooperate and help out in the drive, not only with money but with our time to make the campaign a success and to make people conscious of the great need. The work you may do today, may someday help your children.

So when you give, give generously.

Spencer Asks For Music Registrants

By CLINT COZBY

The music department of the Fresno Junior College urges all students who are planning their spring semester program to think seriously about adding a music course to their daily schedule.

C. Lowell Spencer, music instructor of FJC, said, "Students should plan for one music class during the school day to give them a lift and to break the steady pressure of the academic classes."

One Of The Best

Spencer said, "Those who heard the Christmas assembly all agreed it was one of the finest and most entertaining music assemblies ever presented by the FJC music department."

In addition to the performing groups the music department offers a variety of other music classes. These classes include a cappella choir, a special voice class, music appreciation including popular and symphonic music, beginning piano and beginning instrument.

Music For Everyone

There is at least one music class for every student attending FJC whether the student wants it for a vocation or just recreation.

For those who want to sing, or play an instrument, or just listen, here is your opportunity.

Speed Says Fires Can't Be Afforded

"Careless fires cannot be afforded because they are a loss of jobs, property, and lives," said Chief Speed of the Fire Prevention Bureau in his last speech which ended the series of five speeches at FJC on fire prevention.

The fire chief said that these fires caused the loss of more than one billion dollars last year when 100,000 people were injured and 10,000 were burned to death.

"The Fresno County Fire Prevention Bureau is one of the best in the country," he said. "Most of our factories and other buildings are equipped with automatic sprinklers, temperature raisers and many fire detectives."

He said that the bureau is making more strict fire regulations to fight the worst enemy of mankind.

Careless smoking, especially in bed, using flammable liquids for cleaning, overloading electric circuits, and letting children play with matches, he believes, are some of the important causes of fires. Everyone must be careful of it, he advises.

"Call the fire department as soon as the fire breaks out," the chief said, "because the first five minutes are more important than the last five hours."

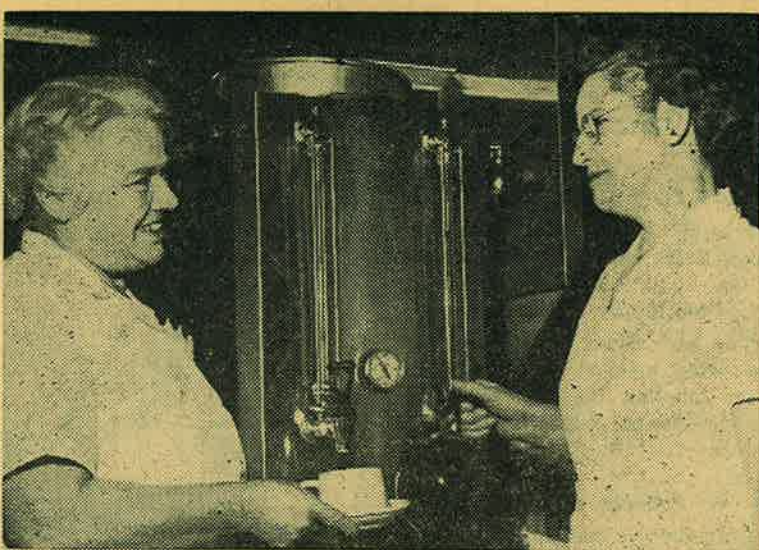

He showed two movies, "What Causes Fire" and "How to Call the Fire Department," at the end of his speech.

New Class Added To Fresno JC Slate

A class in horticulture to prepare workers to take the contractors' license examination will start at Fresno Junior College on Feb. 7 from 7-10 PM in Bungalow 1 on the "O" Street Campus.

Students may register the first night the class meets. This class will meet each Thursday evening during the month of February unless otherwise determined by the instructor, Louis Le Valley.

For further information contact Robert P. Hansler, chairman of the technical and industrial division.

COFFEE BREAK: Taking time out for a coffee break are Mrs. Eva Bailey, right, and Mrs. Nina Stradel, the manager of the FJC cafeteria.

Veterans Attending Fresno JC Must Obtain Exam Reports

"All veterans, both day and extended day students, who are attending school under the GI Bill, must obtain a Veterans Final Exam Report," stated George C. Holstein, dean of admissions and records. This form is to be signed by each teacher after the final examinations are completed.

Veterans attending extended day classes are to obtain the final exam report instead of the Veterans Monthly Report. The Monthly Certification for January may be signed through Jan. 25 only.

Veterans who are transferring to another school or are planning to change their program must request these changes before making them.

Hansler Thinks Nursing Graduates Have Future

"Vocational nursing graduates have excellent employment possibilities," declared Robert P. Hansler, chairman of the Fresno Junior College technical and industrial division, in announcing that FJC will start another three semester course Feb. 4.

Hansler said the junior college has always had more positions available for vocational nursing graduates since it started the program in 1951.

"JC vocational nursing alumnae are employed in hospitals and doctors' offices throughout the Central San Joaquin Valley. Others are in private practice," Hansler said.

Archie Bradshaw, dean of student personnel at FJC gave a vocational nursing aptitude test Jan. 14 at 1 PM in M200 on the University Avenue Campus.

Hansler said women who passed the test and a physical examination will be eligible to enroll for the spring semester. He said women interested in vocational nursing may see Mrs. Mildred C. Bosteder, an instructor, any Monday or Wednesday from 1 to 3 PM in room S-31 on the O Street Campus.

Students may file an application for admission to the course after their interview. Applications may be made and information obtained in Hansler's office in Bungalow 3 on the "O" Street Campus.

A vocational nursing brochure and an FJC catalog will be mailed to women calling AMherst 4-4721, Ext. 89.

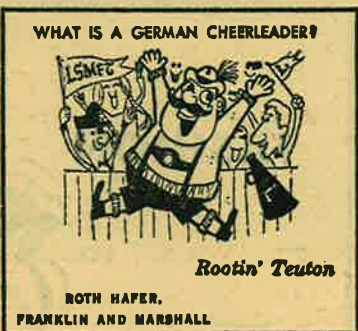

UC Rep Will See Students

George Mandell, personnel representative of the radiation laboratory of the University of California in Livermore, will interview Fresno Junior College students in February for employment as mechanical draftsmen, stenographers, electronic technicians, and operators of computers.

Gervase Eckenrod, placement officer, says it offers excellent paying employment opportunities, and urges all students interested to contact either him (Eckenrod) or Robert P. Hansler, chairman of the technical and industrial division, for appointment for an interview. The laboratory has hired FJC students previously.

Fresno Rams Face Powerful Hancock

The Fresno Junior College Rambling Rams face their stiffest league opponent to date when they meet Allan Hancock College of Santa Maria, Saturday night on Hancock's home court.

Allan Hancock, riding at the top of the CCJCA, has a rookie squad in name, but a team that boasts three all-state high school players, Dick Hickox, 5' 7" from Indiana, Paul Howard, 5' 9" from Ohio, and Larkin Bryant, 6' 6" from Ohio. Rounding out the Bulldog five are Dale Hyatt, 6' 9", and Bruce Applegate, 6' 4".

Coach Bill Bertka's Bulldogs, unbeaten in 31 games and winners of three tournaments, are favored over the smaller Fresno Rams.

The Bulldogs and the Rams have always had close games throughout the seasons in the past and last year split in their series, but the story could be a little different this year as the Bulldogs of Santa Maria have perhaps one of the best teams on the coast for two year colleges.

A interesting highlight is that the Bulldogs starting five are from two states in the Midwest, Ohio and Indiana.

The Fresno Rams also meet the Cal Poly Frosh in a non-league game Friday night in San Luis Obispo.

Tigers Lose To Fresno Five, 55-51

The Ram five of Fresno Junior College had to go all out to drop the Reedley Tigers, 55-51, on the Reedley home court to take home the first Central California Junior College Athletic League victory of the season for FJC.

The Tigers had the winning combination in the first half as they used two men to defense ace Ram center Warren Schmidt. Unable to score from the floor, the halftime score found the Tigers in front, 29-26.

Rams Move

Fresno got hot in the second half, led by Schmidt and forward Al Brown. The Rams moved fast and at one point had an eight point bulge over the faltering Tigers.

Big Tiger Bob Hickman was blanked in the second half on some fancy guarding by the Rams and held to seven points for the entire game.

Les Zedric, Tiger forward, led the Reedley scoring with 16 points.

Schmidt High Scorer

Schmidt tallied 22 points, followed by fast stepping Brown with 16, to lead the Ram cagers.

Both teams scored 21 field goals, with FJC ahead in the free throw dept, 13-9, and the margin of victory.

Sharpshooting Rams Drop Taft, 81-69

Fresno Junior College's Rambling Rams served notice last Saturday night they are not to be taken too lightly in league play.

The high flying Taft Junior College five invaded the local gym, after topping the College of Sequoias Giants, only to fall victim before the Ram sharpshooters, 81-69.

Cougars Lead

Taft started fast and jumped to a quick, 10-4, lead which lasted just about that long.

Ram forward Al Brown and center Warren Schmidt evened the count and made the score 24-12 before the Cougars finally came to life. Sparked by Schmidt and Brown, the Rams racked up a rather easy, 43-26, halftime lead.

The second half went pretty much for the Rams with FJC in front by as much as 20 points on several occasions.

Schmidt Fouls Out

"Killer" Schmidt fouled out of game with five minutes to go in the third period. Before going out Schmidt had tallied 24 points.

Ace center for the Cougars, Bob Hampton, proved his worth on the backboards and racked up 20 points on a variety of shots.

Brown continued his steady improvement and demonstrated a consistent free throw ability. He hit 14 out of 16 free throw attempts and wound up the evening with 26 points to take scoring honors.

Overall free throw shooting found FJC hitting the bucket for 32 points out of 40 attempts.

Ben Eichman and Larry Gambrill played solid ball and contributed to the scoring effort with 10 and 8 points, respectively.

Basketball Maneuvers

Last winter's Illinois team was superstitious. Coach Harry Combes wore bright red socks at all games, leading scorer George Bon Salle never shaved before a contest, Bill Ridley carried a wishbone, and Bill Altenberger always took along a toy fire truck.

The Hempstead (Tex.) Girls' Basketball Team sure had trouble getting started they lost their opener to Burton, 71-0.

After his Marquette team lost to San Francisco, 65-58, Coach Jack Nagle disclosed the contents of his scouting report on the Dons. "Cancel the game!" was the succinct report.

In coming from behind in the last two minutes, Citadel terminated a 28-game losing streak early last season by edging College of Charleston, 56-52.

Lee Fox, who coached Rochester Institute of Tech. last winter to a 17-0 season and who has had but two losing campaigns in 15 years, resigned last spring. He explained that he felt the position no longer could be handled on a part-time basis.

The above stories are taken from the Converse 1956 Basketball Year-book.
