FJC Spring Formal Tomorrow Night

Spring Mist Selected As Theme For Dance

By SHIRLENE SUMMERS

Spring Mist decor will enshrine the social hall of the University Avenue campus of Fresno Junior College tomorrow evening and will provide the theme and atmosphere for the anticipated occasion.

Lou Monte and his orchestra will play for the dance from 9 to 12 PM, states Veda Luhm, the student body social commissioner, and general chairman for the affair.

Sponsors Dance

The FJC Newman Club is the sponsor for the annual affair this year. Marilyn Snyder, president of Newman Club, reports that all delegated committee groups have details under good control, according to schedule.

The king and queen will be crowned during an intermission following the counting of the popular ballots.

Most organizations have submitted candidates for the contest in conjunction with the dance plans and the campaign is well under way.

Candidates Listed

The organizations and their respective contestants are as listed:

Phi Theta Kappa, Arlene Vetting, Al Grace; Campus Activity, Eloise Richardson, Otis Piggie; Red Key, Pat Pryce, Adolph Mendoza; Latin American, Jovita Huerta, Tony Najera; Associated Women Students, Sandy Hicks, Don Smith; Freshman class, Deanna Lipari, Fred Racco; Sophomore class, Lois Smith, Frank Ramos; Newman Club, Dotti Rubald, Bob Palacios; Future Business Leaders of America, Sally Comacho, Charles Leavitt; Associated Men Students, Clara Randolph, Mike Gay; Alpha Gamma Sigma, Sharon Cummings, Jerry Logan.

Bids, which can be obtained in McClane Hall near the bookstore by presenting FJC student body cards. Bids are mandatory, one per couple, to attend the dance.

Applications For SB Offices Ready

Harold Nielsen, chairman of the election committee, urges all students interested in running for student body offices to obtain their qualification form and petition from Mrs. Lena Fuller in the registration office.

The petitions, which are now available, must be turned in by May 3.

The qualifications for office are based on grade point average and citizenship. The candidates for president and vice-president must have a grade point average of 2.5, maintaining 12 units in the previous and current semester. All other candidates must have at least a "C" average.

Members of the election committee include Nielsen, chairman; Chuck Leavitt, Muriel Maxwell, Phil Bertelsen, Ruben Barrios, and Eileen Cruz.

Students Get Poliomyelitis Shots Today

Today is the day that Fresno Junior College students and members of their families under the age of 40 will be given the opportunity to receive the first in a series of Salk polio immunizations.

The clinic, which opened at 8:30 AM, is staffed by volunteer doctors, nurses and members of the Faculty Wives Clubs of both FJC and Fresno State College.

Mrs. Anne Gabel, the FJC school nurse, stated that the two clinics which are being conducted this week are the first in Fresno County since the statewide program was suspended several weeks ago, because of a sudden vaccine shortage.

She reminded all students under the age of 21, who are not married, that they must bring a signed permission slip to the clinic.

"Protection Against Polio" tags will be given recipients of the shots. "PAP" tags, as they are called, are to be worn by students to "spread the news" about the free vaccinations. In addition, they will receive a wallet size card telling them when they should receive the third "booster" shot. (The card will be given after receiving the second shot.)

The second clinic will be held on May 23.

Mrs. Gabel said that experiences with the Salk vaccine show that about 80 to 93 percent of those who have had two vaccinations are protected against polio. The third gives nearly 100 percent protection.

Parental permission slips were passed out to students in their classes several weeks ago. Those who failed to receive theirs may obtain one in the office.

CALENDAR OF THE WEEK

FJC President Attends Liason Meeting

Stuart M. White, Fresno Junior College president, is in Los Angeles today and tomorrow to attend meetings of State Liason Committees of the University of California, state colleges, junior colleges and high schools.

During joint sessions, consideration will be given to reports on grade points, state scholarships laws, a committee on English composition, college entrance examination board conference, and a study for additional centers of higher public education in California.

White will speak on "What procedures can be followed to appraise high school and junior college counselors of differences in state colleges and state university admission requirement (i.e., mathematics and foreign language)" in the meeting between junior colleges and high schools.

In the meeting between state and junior colleges, Dr. Dallas Alma Tueller, dean of instruction at FSC, will speak on state college study on work experiences, and Edward M. Spencer, director of extension of FSC, will speak on the progress report on off-campus state college centers.

Spencer Thanks Assembly Hands

"I would like to express appreciation for the help of the following people who worked to make the recent music assembly a success: Howard Regier, Mike Fischbach, Larry Imperatrice, who worked with props backstage; Doug Ruiz, Cloyce Keeney, who worked hard to keep the spotlights on; Bill Goolsby, head custodian, and his crew for being so helpful in setting up the stage; and Mrs. Kay Seagraves, dean of women, for her help with decorations," stated C. Lowell Spencer, music instructor.

Fresno City Schools Will Observe Public Schools Week

Public Schools Week will be observed by the Fresno City Schools next week, April 29 to May 3.

Fresno Junior College students are participating in two activities in connection with the annual event, and parents of FJC students can visit classes during the week.

Walter Witt's art classes have made many posters advertising the Public Schools Week. Members of the Red Key, a student service organization, will distribute the posters to local stores to be placed in the windows.

Several FJC education majors will participate in "A Teacher For A Day" program, sponsored by the Fresno City Schools.

Miss Kate Darling, an education instructor, states that students, to be eligible must not have received any F's on their mid-

Here we are back with our noses to the old grindstone again. After a week of nothing but fun, it's hard to get back in the groove.

After listening to what everyone did during Easter vacation, I've come to the conclusion that everybody had a very good time.

Quite a lot of students went down south to Balboa, Hollywood and Palm Springs. No matter where the students went, most of them came home broke. Everyone agrees though, that the good times they had were worth it.

The next holiday is Memorial Day, May 30. This will be the last holiday in the spring semester.

Spring Formal

By now everyone should know that the spring formal is tomorrow night. I haven't heard too many students saying that they are going. The dance is one of the biggest dances of this semester and everyone should attend.

Everyone complains that nothing is happening around school. Well, this is your chance to have a good time.

World Affairs Confab Set For May 3-5

The World Affairs Council of northern California will hold a three day conference in Asilomar on the Monterey Peninsula on May 3, 4, and 5.

Dr. Rolf W. Ordal, Fresno Junior College instructor, said the World Affairs Council groups are formed to encourage and cultivate public opinion and to keep up to date with international relations of the United States with other countries.

The World Affairs Council has chapters spread all over the northern part of the state. The chairman of the local in Fresno is Mrs. R. B. Hollingsworth.

The conference will consist of two activities: one, speeches on such topics as the Suez crisis and the Cold War with Russia and the other in which groups of 30 to 40 will meet to discuss special topics and express opinions. Speaking at the conference will be big names of state and nation. One of the speakers will be Sir Henry Pierson Dickson, British representative of the United Nations.

The FJC Student Council is sending as delegates to the conference John Kizer, Robert McIntyre, Jacob Unger, and John Haugan. Dr. Rolf W. Ordal will go as sponsor.

The student council is paying for the accommodations while the delegates are at the conference but the delegates will pay for their own transportation.

The sessions will be open to the general public for only a registration fee.

AWARDEES—Winners of the Bank of America's two annual business awards are Dotti Rubald and Al Aycock.

—Woodfin Photo

Dotti Rubald, Al Aycock Receive $100 Bank Award

Two Fresno Junior College students have won $100 each under a new Bank of America Junior College Business Awards program, recently announced Stuart M White, president of the junior college.

Miss Ethel McCormack, FJC business division chairman, announced a faculty committee has selected Felix Alfred Aycock, Jr., of Clovis and Dorothy Elizabeth Rubald, 1445 Arthur Avenue.

Aycock was chosen as the division's number one student in business administration, while Miss Rubald was rated first in the secretarial category.

Members of the committee which judged the students on scholarship, personality, and either extra-curricular activities or outside employment, or both, were Miss McCormack, FJC President Stuart M. White, Dean of Student Personnel Archie Bradshaw, and two counselors, Gervase Eckenrood and Mrs. Dorothy Bliss.

The program was launched by Bank of America to stimulate students in preparing for business and secretarial courses.

Upwards of 30 Northern California junior colleges and approximately the same number in Southern California are participating in the program. It is in addition to the bank's Achievement Awards project under which nearly $45,000 in cash is presented annually to the top students from 550 high schools in the state.

Cash awards will be given June 4 at a bank-sponsored banquet in the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco.

Rampage Receives Excellent Rating

The San Joaquin Valley Scholastic Press Association has notified the Fresno Junior College Rampage that it received an excellent rating for the fall semester in the critical rating service conducted annually by the association.

A certificate of excellence will be awarded to the Rampage May 4 at the annual spring press conference on the Shaw Avenue Campus of Fresno State College.

Fresno Rams Win Bakersfield Tourney

Pitching Highlites Ram Win

Jim Richmond pitched the rambling Rams to their fourth straight win Tuesday as he limited the Taft Cougars to four hits in eight innings in the locals' 13 to 3 thumping of the week nine men from Taft.

The Rams continued to hit the ball well with Stan Busch leading the attack with four hits in six trips to the plate, including a double. Clyde Reed, Larry Keller, Don Ferguson, and Dennis Bond had two hits each.

Two hits, two bases on balls and a pair of Cougar errors produced four Ram tallies in the opening inning.

The Rams added three more runs to their total in the second frame as Reed, Keller, Busch, Cloyce Keeney, and Ferguson collected successive safeties.

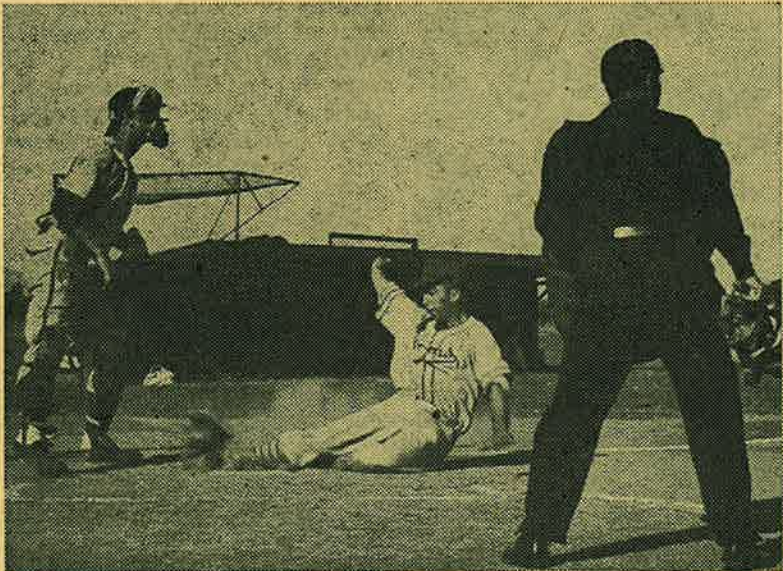

A single by Busch, a double by Bond, and four walks gave the locals three more runs in the fourth frame.

The Rams didn't score again until the eighth when Ferguson singled, Phil Bertelsen walked, Reed singled, and Keller hit a sacrifice fly to center. The outburst produced the final three tallies of the contest.

Coach Slaughter's nine will journey to Santa Maria tomorrow and Saturday for a week end double header. The Rams will play the Hancock team a pair of league games on Friday and then will meet the Santa Barbara Junior College nine in a single contest on Saturday.

Golfers Take Two Over Holiday, Beat Reedley And Taft

Fresno Junior College's golf team participated in two matches over the Easter holidays and won them both.

On April 11 they entertained the Reedley golfers at the Muni course in Fresno. It did not prove to be a very close match, however, as Fresno walked off with a 36-0 victory.

On April 16 they traveled to Taft's Buena Vista Golf Course and outscored Taft 29 to 7. Jim McCrory shot the best golf of the day, but lost to Taft's Larry Rivers 5-1. His score for the match was 78.

FJC 46, Reedley 0
Jim McCrory and Ron Smith, Fresno 6-0; Haddon Dollar and Mel Satterberg, Fresno 6-0; Ernie Hindman and Norman Davis, Fresno 6-0; Don Simerly and Larry Noble, Fresno 6-0; Paul Ledbetter and Dennis Gobby, Fresno 6-0; Don Baker and Lester Jorgensen, Fresno 6-0.

FJC 29, Taft 7
Jim McCrory and Larry Rivers, Taft 5-1; Haddon Dollar and Jim Dougherty, Fresno 6-0; Don Simerly and Dick White, Fresno 6-0; Ernie Hindman and Rollie Gilliam, Fresno 4-2. Don Baker and Paul Ledbetter both beat their man by a default.

Reedley, COS Thinclads Thump Rams

The Fresno Junior College track team participated in two meets over the Easter holidays.

The first meet was with Reedley Junior College and the Fresno State College Frosh squads. Reedley won the match as they accumulated 64 points. The FSC Frosh placed second with 49 and FJC finished last with 30. Dick Valentine and Eddie Young nailed down first place wins for Fresno. Young also added two second places finishes to the Ram total.

The Kern Relays was held in Bakersfield between the Bakersfield Renegades, College of the Sequoias, Reedley JC, Fresno JC and Coalinga Junior College. The teams finished in the above order. As the meet progressed, only Bakersfield and COS were vying for a first place finish. Bakersfield scored 85½ points; COS, 75½, Reedley, 26; FJC, 17; and Coalinga, 6.

Tigers, Gades, Giants, Fall Before Fresno JC

Coach Clare Slaughter's Ram baseball nine enjoyed its finest week of play over the Easter holiday week as it trounced the College of the Sequoias Giants by a "neat" 14 to 6 score in the championship finals of the fourth annual Bakersfield Tournament last Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

The Rams battered five Giant hurlers for 14 safeties and showed fine hustle and spirit besides turning in some of the finest fielding plays of the season during the three game affair.

Fresno dumped Reedley in its opener, 9 to 4 and then came back to edge the host Bakersfield College Renegades 8 to 7 in the semi-finals.

Reedley Falls
Reedley College fell before the Rams in the first game as Don Ferguson, Larry Keller, Cloyce Keeney, and Ray Lujan paced the Rams to the 9 to 4 triumph. Reedley defeated the Rams in regular season play, so the win evened the score for Slaughter's crew.

Lefty Jim Richmond went all the way on the mound for the winners and fashioned a neat six hitter. Jerry Arthur was the losing Tiger hurler as the Rams combed his southpaw slants for 11 hits.

Host Loses
The Rams spotted the Renegade nine to a three run lead and then roared back to oust the host team 8-7 in the second round pairings. Fresno trailed through most of the nine innings but tied the score at seven all in the eighth frame and pushed across the clincher in the ninth inning.

Stan Busch and Augie Caldera had three hits each while Dennis Bond and "Zeke" Zimmerman collected two apiece.

Larry Keller went the full nine innings on the mound for the win. The win over Bakersfield, who had beaten the Rams twice earlier in the season, gave Slaughter's crew the chance to meet the COS team in the championship bracket.

Sweet Revenge
The Rams gained sweet revenge on the Giants because the Visalians beat them by 17-6 and 5-0 scores in regular season tilts. Giant pitchers Doepker, Hansen, Zearley, Guy and Morilla paraded to the hill in a vain effort to halt the rampaging Rams. The quintet of hurlers was bombarded for 14 safeties, including three by Clyde Reed, Stan Busch and Cloyce Keeney, and two by Caldera to pace the 14-6 victory.

COS took an early lead but the Rams were not to be denied and hammered away at the Giants' two run lead. But by the seventh frame the Rams held a comfortable 10 to 6 lead. The locals, showing their finest hitting of the season, kept banging away and the game ended with the Rams repeating as champions of the tourney.

The Ram stickers improved their extra base hit averages with seven triples and three doubles in the three game outing.

Slaughter was well pleased with his charges and saw a definite improvement in team morale and all around hustle and fight.

As I See It . . .

By JOHN HAUGAN

The Fresno Junior College baseball team finally lived up to their name of "Rambling" Rams as they completely dominated the fourth annual Bakersfield College Baseball Tourney.

The Rams, aided and abetted with a little prodding by Coach Clare Slaughter, shook off their all apparent sluggishness to blast the three teams faced.

The Reedley Tigers, in the Central California Junior College Athletic Association race, was victim number one, 9 to 4. Host Bakersfield College was a good host and dropped an 8 to 7 decision to the rejuvenated Rams. The Rams regained their self respect for two previous defeats to drop the College of Sequoias, 14 to 6.

In the three contests played, the Rams rapped out 37 hits and scored 31 runs and made a "grand" total of 11 errors.
