Caldera, Summers, Fragus To Hold Top Fall Positions

Al Grace, a business administration major at Fresno Junior College, was elected fall semester student body president in an election held last Monday and Tuesday. Grace defeated Phil Bertelsen, also a business administration major, who was his only opponent, 241 to 205. There were nine write-in candidates.

Grace is a graduate of Central High School, Fresno, and is a navy veteran.

Augie Caldera, a graduate of Sanger High School, and a general education major, was the lone candidate for student body vice-president. He received 396 votes. There were 21 write-in candidates.

The closest contest was for secretary, won by Shirlene Summers over Sharon Cummings. She won by five votes, 220 to 225. There were seven write-in candidates.

Barbara Fragus was elected treasurer, receiving 414 votes.

Those winning posts as representative-at-large were Arvid Allen, Richard Armstrong, Sally Camacho, George Lasher, Jesse Jones, Kenneth Pipes, James Repape, Harold Sinner, and Victor Tacheuchi.

The newly elected officers will be installed in an assembly tomorrow at 9:30 AM in the University Ave. auditorium.

Awards Will Be Presented At Assembly

The student council of Fresno Junior College voted to give scholarship keys to 18 students. The scholarship keys will be presented to the students at the installation assembly tomorrow at 9:30 AM in the auditorium of the University Ave. campus.

Ruben Barrios, the student body president, said the new awards will go to sophomores who have a cumulative grade point average of 3.3 or more and have 45 or more units of college work.

The students who have been selected for the awards, with their averages and major fields of study, are: Ben Eichman, 3.4, accounting; Jouta DeWitt, 3.3, secretarial; Allan Estes, 3.3, business administration; Edith Forath, 3.3, secretarial; Everett Henke, 3.4, engineering; Rodney Hill, 3.5, music; Haruo Kizuka, 3.4, social science; Marion McIntyre, 3.5, general; George Ohanian, 3.3, general business; Harumi Okamura, 3.6, secretarial; Toshio Oku, 3.3, general; Jessie Ortiz, 3.4, machine shop; Janis Ross, medical secretary; Helen Stuart, 3.6, vocational nursing; Charlotte Sybolt, 3.6, home economics; Helen Turney, 3.6, vocational nursing; Donald R. Williams, 3.5, geology; and Thomas E. Williams, 3.8, engineering.

Graduation Exercises Set For June 6

Fresno Junior College will hold its ninth annual commencement exercises in the school auditorium on June 6 at 8 PM.

The Rev. Robert A. Lundy, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, will give the invocation and benediction.

C. Lowell Spencer, the music instructor, will direct both the FJC Band in the National Anthem and the FJC Men's in "Where E'er You Walk" by Handel.

Sonya Miller will sing "With a Heart That's Free," by Alfred Robyn.

The two student speakers will be Allan Estes, who will speak on "The Need of Individuality," and Jo Ann Wilson, who will speak on "What Is the Junior College?"

President White will introduce the main speaker, Dr. Irwin O. Adicott, the executive dean of Fresno State College, who will speak on "Containers and Conveyers."

The Very Reverend James M. Mallock, D.D., Dean Emeritus of St. James Cathedral and a member of the Board of Education, will congratulate the graduating students.

CSTA Arranges Potluck Dinner

The Fresno Junior College chapter of the California Student Teachers Association is planning to have a potluck dinner.

The potluck will be at 6 PM Saturday, June 1, at the home of Mary Bagdasarian, 5309 East White Ave. She is the chairman of the affair.

Warren Schmidt, Shirley Huber Are AMS, AWS Prexies

The Fresno Junior College Associated Men Students, and Associated Women Students elected their officers for the fall semester Monday and Tuesday.

Warren Schmidt, an education major, was elected AMS president. Other officers elected are Jim Richmond, vice president; Augie Caldera, secretary; Jessie Jones, treasurer; Ken Pipes, program chairman.

The write-in votes for the AMS officers are 12, president; eight, vice president; three, secretary; five, treasurer;

Shirley Huber, a secretary major, was elected AWS president. Other officers elected are Sumiye Taniguchi, secretary; Sonya Miller, treasurer; Dulcie Spellman, historian.

Frankie White, current AWS president, said the AWS will have a revote for the vice presidency next Tuesday from 8 AM to 3 PM in McLane Hall, between Clara Randolph, Janice Arakelian and Donna Dell.

The presidents of both the AMS and the AWS will be installed at the installation tomorrow morning in the school auditorium.

Annetta Scott, John Mock Retire At Semester's End

Miss Annetta Scott, biology instructor at Fresno Junior College, will be one of two FJC faculty members who will wind up their teaching careers at the end of the spring semester.

Retiring after 37 years as an English and biology instructor in various schools of the Fresno City Schools System, Miss Scott, a graduate of Fresno State College, leaves FJC after having taught in the junior college for a period of two years. Prior to coming to FJC, she taught at Edison High School for 18 years, and at Roosevelt High School for four. Earlier in her career, she taught at Fresno Technical High School and Longfellow Junior High School.

When asked if she had any outstanding moments in her long

John M. Mock, chairman of the general education division, will retire at the end of this semester after eight years at Fresno Junior College.

His teaching career started in Cheney, Washington, where he taught the seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth grades in a two room school.

He served as superintendent of schools in Carter, Montana, for two years and in Manchester, Idaho, for three years.

He joined the Fresno City School System in 1927 when he took a teaching position in Fresno High School. In 1928 he became director of the pre-legal department at Fresno High. He then served as

Editors Express Gratitude For Assistance During Year

During the last year there has been a lot of work in putting out the Rampage, and, too, a lot of fun in the work. But work or fun, there is always a certain amount of pride in seeing the finished product roll out.

The Rampage has never been a one man, or even a two man job, nor was it this year. Rather it was and will always be the accumulation of a lot of hard work by a lot of people.

True, we as editors like to feel that we have had a certain amount to do with it; however, behind us are a great many people who have worked just as hard or even a little harder.

There is the staff itself. There would be no paper without the work of the students on the staff. Another individual so important in the scheme of running the paper is the advisor. Our advisor stays behind the scenes mostly, but he is always there when needed.

When telling of the workings of a newspaper, there is one man who can not be left out—the printer. The Rampage is fortunate in having as printers Ernie Benck and Bob Jones.

To the students and faculty members of Fresno Junior College we want to express our appreciation for the help that they as individuals and as a group have given us.

We have tried to serve the school in the manner in which our predecessors have. We hope that we have been successful in this undertaking.

There is an obligation in being editor, an obligation to the school, its students, its faculty members and to the integrity of the Rampage.

Next year a man who served as a reporter this year will take the reins of the editorship. We wish him the best of luck and know that he will fulfill his obligation to the school.

We have tried to bring a variety of news to the students, stories that would appeal to the readers, stories that would be informative to the readers; in short, we have tried to put out a paper that would carry an assortment of news.

We have told what we have tried to do, and we have named the people so important in doing it, and here again we would like to express our appreciation and thanks to the aforementioned people.

teaching career, Miss Scott said, "Well, I've taught for so long that I can't remember any experience or moment that would be outstanding." She said that one of her former pupils is Mrs. Geraldine Wheeler, at present a member of the Board of Education of the Fresno City Schools. "I often see some of my ex-pupils. They're all around Fresno."

Having taught at FJC, the Canadian born biology teacher finds that junior college students are very friendly and want to learn. "Of course, there are always a few who are in college to have a good time, but the majority really want to learn. That's when I enjoy teaching," Miss Scott said.

Miss Scott plans to visit Canada later this summer. She said, "I haven't made any actual plans as to what I will do or where I will go, but I want to visit Canada this summer and visit Europe next spring." She will make Europe a part of a planned world tour.

She is an avid outdoorswoman and enjoys mountain climbing, packing, and camping. One of her most memorable experiences is the climbing of 14,495-foot Mount Whitney in Sequoia National Park. She also owns a cabin at Camp Sierra in Big Creek.

Miss Scott is a member of the Sierra Club, Delta Kappa Gamma, National Educational Association, and California Teachers Association.

Briggs, Summers To Take Over Top Rampage Jobs

Mike Hartman, editor of the Fresno Junior College Rampage, and Phil Smith, adviser, have appointed the editor and staff for next semester.

Eddie Briggs, a freshman journalism major, was appointed to the position of editor. A graduate of Clovis High School, Briggs served in Japan in the Armed Forces Radio Service. At present he edits and publishes a wrestling magazine, the "Wrestling World Results-News."

Shirlene Summers will assist Briggs in the capacity of assistant editor. Paula James was appointed to the position of managing editor and Tom Gonzales, news editor. The feature editor will be Barbara Bekerian and the sports editor, Augie Caldera.

Members of the business staff who will be returning to their former positions are Alice Alvarez, business manager, and Karlo Demoorjian, advertising manager.

The photographers, Dewayne Pendergrass and Art Woodfin, will also be returning to their positions.

The appointees will be presented at the annual Rampage Banquet tonight at the Towne and Country Lodge.

NEWS 'n VIEWS

By BARBARA BEKERIAN

Time is getting nearer to the end of school, and studying for final exams and writing term papers is causing a pandemonium among students. Staying up all night with a carton of cigarettes and a gallon of coffee is nothing new in the way of cramming. After these sleepless nights and groggy days during finals week, it's a great feeling to know that finally it's all over.

The first three days of this week were pretty exciting due to the voting of student officials and the results of the voting. Needless frustrations could have been saved by the office seekers had there been a Vote-O-Matic machine. The votes could have been tallied and the results of the ballots known in a matter of minutes on the Vote-O-Matic. This is a device, among others, that the modern colleges of today should include.

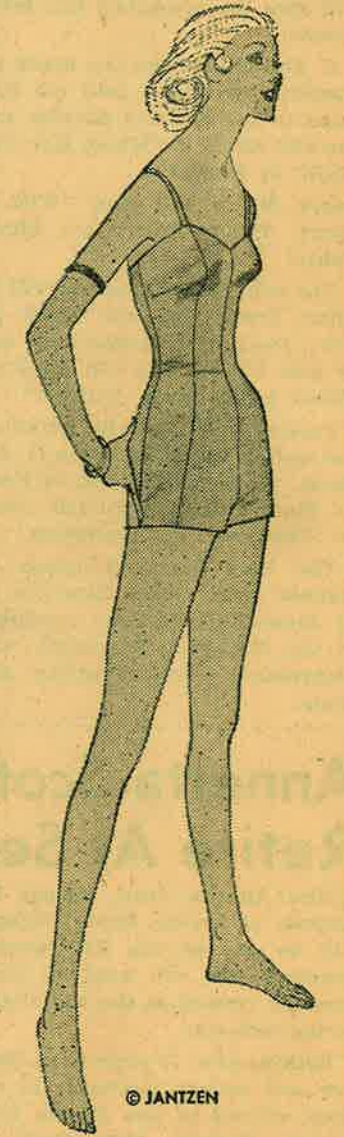

This is the last issue of the Rampage for this semester. Also this is the last paper to be published in the old Rampage office. In the fall semester, the newly redecorated Rampage office will be upstairs in the student union.

Polio Clinic, Ram Week Rate As Year's Top School Events

By BETTY TORIGIAN

During the past two semesters many news events of the school's activities have been recorded in the Rampage, but since space is limited only the ten stories that had the most news coverage can be put down.

1. The event that received the most news coverage was the polio clinic that was held April 25, and as a result 1,338 students and their families received the Salk vaccine. The doctors and nurses all volunteered their services.

Ram Week

2. Ram Week received the second most space. This was perhaps the biggest event of the fall semester. It is an annual affair and was sponsored by the Fresno Junior Chamber of Commerce. The week of festivities was climaxed by the crowning of a Queen, Naomi Morales, at halftime of the annual football game. A dance was also held.

3. The two formal dances of the year each received equal coverage. The Christmas formal, Tinsel Time, was sponsored by Associated Men Students and Associated Women Students. The king and queen for the affair were Ken Pipes and Yolanda Marquez. Jack Riley's orchestra furnished the music.

Spring Formal

4. Spring Mist was the theme for the spring formal. It was sponsored by the Newman Club. Lou Monte's orchestra provided the music for the affair. The Royalty of that affair were Pat Pryce and Adolph Mendoza.

5. Several conferences were held during the past two semesters. These were attended by both students and faculty members. Among those conferences attended by the faculty were: Public Health; Central California Junior College Association; Workshop on the professional preparation of recreation personnel; Workshop of Central California JC Association, Bakersfield. Students attended several conferences. They were COS regional conference; a student government conference in Sacramento; student body at Sierra Sky Ranch; CJCSGA regional conference at Coalinga; World Affairs Conference; and Student Government conference at Los Angeles.

6. Interclub Council talent show. Each club on campus can enter an act or group in the competition. The Intervarsity Christian Fellowship organization won the trophy this year.

7. Twirp Week. This was celebrated this spring by having a slave auction, a beard growing contest, and a Sadie Hawkins dance.

8. March of Dimes. The students of FJC helped the March of Dimes drive this year by selling peanuts downtown; they sponsored a popcorn ball and an inter-high school basketball game. Mary Lanotte was named Miss Teen Against Polio.

9. Nomination Assemblies. Ella Mae Morse, night club and recording star was scheduled to perform during the latter part of the fall nomination assembly.

Accreditation Teams

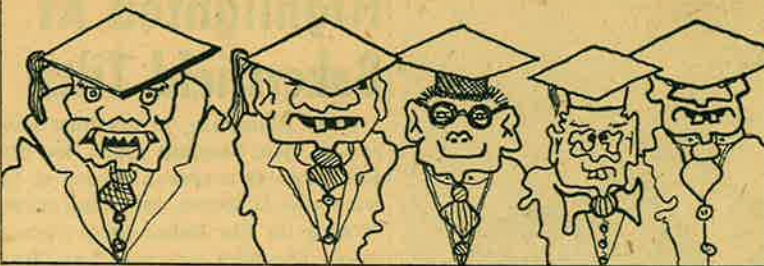

10. Accreditation teams. Fresno Junior College was visited this spring by an accreditation team. FJC has been an accredited school and the team will recommend that the school either keep or withdraw its accreditation.

vice-principal and principal from 1933 to 1945.

Mock was principal of Washington Junior High School from 1945 until he came to FJC in 1949.

Born in Meadowview, Virginia, Mock moved to Washington when he was eight years old and attended a small one-room rural school. After graduation from high school in Cheney, Washington, he attended Cheney Normal School and graduated in 1916.

He received an AB degree in 1923 and a MA degree in 1926 from Washington State College in Pullman, Washington. In 1923 he became a member of Phi Delta Kappa, a national educational fraternity.

A veteran of World War I, Mock is married and has one son and two grandchildren.

His future plans include golf, bridge and fishing. He also plans to catch up on his reading and relaxing.

President Stuart M. White announced that no successor to Mock as general education chairman has been selected yet.

YOU'VE PROBABLY HEARD of torch songs (music to cry by), Air Force songs (music to fly by), and Aloha songs (music to bye-bye). The Lucky Strike song is music to buy by: it's a pretty ditty that's devoted strictly to Luckies. Naturally, that makes it a Cheerful Earful! It reminds you that Luckies are tops and that better taste is the pleasin' reason. Luckies' taste comes from fine tobacco—mild, good-tasting tobacco that's TOASTED to taste even better. So, as the jingle says, "Light up a Lucky, it's light-up time!" Ram Runners Break Marks

The Rambling Rams track team finished very well considering the number of entrants it had for each event.

Coach Erwin Ginsberg has been conducting clinics in the surrounding Fresno area schools, building up interest in track. Ginsberg believes next year FJC will have the runners to round out the cinder team. Frank Eller, Dave Wimmer, and Fred Raco will be the returning lettermen.

Wimmer and Young set school records in the pole vault and high hurdles, respectively. Wimmer jumped 13 ft. 5 3/4 inches, and Young ran the 120 high hurdles in 15 seconds flat.

Letter winners for this year's team are Raco, Eller, Ray Baker, Young, and Wimmer. Eller led the team in scoring with 67 points, while Young was runner-up with 62.

As I See It . . .

By JOHN HAUGAN

This being the last issue and all that, it would be proper to express a note of thanks to all concerned with the sports page of the Rampage.

Augie Caldera and Bill Sewall backboned this semester's sports reporting, and Marvin Lutz kept the "stats" rolling in each Monday.

Thanks to Mike Hartman for his assistance and suggestions.

Thanks to all the coaches on the Fresno Junior College coaching staff for their cooperation on stories.

Also at this time I have the privilege of naming my successor as sports editor and leave him all the headaches and worries about making the deadline. The new vice president of the FJC student body, Augie Caldera, will head the sports staff next fall.

And last, but not least, thank God, this is the last issue!

Ram Nine Season Highlighted At Bakersfield Tilts

Clare Slaughter, in his final season as head baseball coach, led his Ram nine to a season record of 15 wins and 11 losses, including three straight in the Bakersfield tournament. The Ram nine won 7 and lost 5 in league play.

Coalinga JC's Falcons were welcomed to Fresno for the opening CCJCAA conference game of the season. The Rams played one of their finest games and sent the defending champion Falcons home on the short end of a 5 to 1 count.

COS banged Ram hurlers Jerry Burcher and Larry Keller at will and sent the Slaughter men home with a 17 to 6 defeat.

Fresno came back after the COS trouncing to pin a 7 to 3 defeat on the Taft Cougars.

Reedley's Tigers hosted the Rams and Fresno "handed" them a 6 to 4 win.

Porterville's Pirates were the next team to fall before the Rams as Kellar bested Montie Bedford in a fine pitchers' duel, 3-1.

Lefty Jim Gregory handcuffed the Ram batters and the Coalinga Falcons won, 4-3, in Coalinga.

The Giants from COS, well on their way toward gaining the league crown, came to Fresno and handed the Rams a 5-0 whitewashing.

The annual Bakersfield tournament was next on the Rams' schedule and Slaughter's team vowed to win it. Reedley's Tigers fell before the locals in the first round by a 9-4 margin. Bakersfield, the host team, was the next victim as Keller pitched an 8-7 victory. The win over the Renegades gave the Rams the right to meet COS for the championship. The Giants were no match for the onrushing Rams and Fresno pummelled them 14-6.

The Rams continued their winning ways with a 13-3 trouncing of Taft's Cougars.

Allan Hancock's Bulldogs hosted the locals and the teams split a twin bill, Fresno winning the wild opener, 19-8, and Hancock winning the finale, 2-1.

Burcher came back to edge Reedley's Ted Collins in a fine duel, 3-2.

The Rambling Rams ended the season in sensational form by walloping the Porterville Pirates 15-1 in the final game of the season.

Minor Sports Hope For Better Year

By BILL SEWALL

Fresno Junior College's tennis team enjoyed a fair season as they won four matches and dropped four.

Cathy Podsakoff stood out as the individual player as she lost only one match throughout the season. Bob McIntyre and Louise Taylor played well in the mixed doubles as they lost only one match.

Letter winners for the team are Nancy Armstrong, Jerry Dowell, Bob McIntyre, Ann Mowrey, Cathy Podsakoff, Zeke Sanderson, Louise Taylor, and Ernest Clark.

FJC tried wrestling for the first time this past season.

Anchoring this year's squad were Lee Baker and Art Seagraves, both champs in their respective classes in high school.

Wiedenhofer has fine hopes next season for Mike Fishback and Joe Gibson, two strong boys who proved they have the strength needed to be a good wrestler.

Wiedenhofer's golf team ran up an excellent record in conference play, winning five matches and losing one.

Jim McCrory paced the team through the course of the season.

Guinn, White Pace Fresno Ram Eleven

By AUGIE CALDERA

Coach Hans Wiedenhofer and assistants Clare Slaughter, Dick Handley and Joe Kelly, took their Ram gridders to Los Angeles for the opening of the 1956 football campaign September 21. The green Ram squad dropped a 20 to 6 contest to the powerful East Los Angeles College Huskies.

Kenny Guinn and J. C. White starred in the Rams' home debut of 1956, a 14 to 0 trouncing of Stockton College. Guinn scored all 14 points and White raced 47 yards to set up a scoring run by Guinn as the Ram line, led by John Aldredge, proved too tough for the Northerners to crack.

The Rams opened Central California Junior College Association league play by dropping a 19 to 7 verdict to the defending champion Taft Cougars. Fresno dominated most of the play but Taft capitalized on its scoring chances.

A much heralded quarterback and a new coach failed to halt the Ram gridders as they trounced the Reedley Tigers 21 to 0 in Reedley.

The Rams climaxed the annual Ram week in Ratcliffe Stadium by powering past the College of the Sequoia Giants, 37 to 19.

The old Statue of Liberty play, worked to perfection by quarterback Mike Flaherty and halfbacks Quinn and Kobzoff, gave the Rams the Rams a well deserved 20 to 12 victory over the stubborn Porterville JC Pirates in Ratcliffe Stadium.

Fresno's Rambling Rams traveled to Coalinga for a date with the CCJCAA Champion Falcons and came home with a 13 to 13 tie. The Rams dominated the game and did a good job of containing Willy Wood, All-American Junior College quarterback, White and Kobzoff led the Ram offensive with plenty of help from Quinn and Dick Valentine.

Two flashy scatbacks, Hal Sellers and Ross Matranga, paced the Pasadena City College Lancers to a 16 to 14 win over our Rams in the final home game of the season.

The Rams ended the 1956 football season by trouncing a highly touted Polytechnic Institute of Mexico 27 to 0 in Mexico City. The win gave the Rams a 5-3-1 record for the season, highlighted by the 14 to 0 whitewashing of the Potato Bowl bound Stockton JC Mustangs and the 13 to 13 deadlock with Coalinga.
