FJC Enrollment Reaches 3,432

NEW BUILDINGS — Here is an architect's drawing of the new shop buildings to be constructed on the University Avenue campus.

Five New Buildings To Be Built On Main Campus

The sum of $1,650,000 is available to the Fresno Junior College for five new buildings and equipment which will unify FJC into one campus.

President Stuart M. White said that the money came from the last bond issue voters approved in the Fresno City Unified School District. Two square blocks of land have already been purchased east of the present campus.

The five new buildings will house FJC's technical and industrial division. Robert P. Hansler, the division's dean, said the new buildings will make possible an expansion of the two year transfer program for industrial arts majors preparing to be teachers and also the engineering program. New programs to meet growing industrial needs will be added.

Shops In Units

Each new shop will contain a separate unit. Unit 1 will house machine, welding, and body and fender shops plus two drafting rooms. Unit 2 will contain electronics, including radio and television, electricity, and auto mechanics.

Unit 3 will have general woodshop, mill cabinet, carpentry, and another drafting room. Unit 4 will be for graphic arts, which includes printing, photography and the silk screen process. It will also contain air conditioning, plumbing, sheet metal and general metal.

Unit 5 will house aircraft, which will allow students to work toward an aircraft and engine license, and diesel and heavy duty mechanics. This unit will also house painting, decorating, roofing and the masonry trades.

Fall Completion Expected

Hansler hopes that the date for completion will be next fall. When completed, the division, which hitherto has been spread across five sites, will be situated on 103,000 Square feet. Units 1 through 4 will be parallel to University Ave., and Unit 5 will parallel San Pabo Ave.

The new programs to be set up will be aircraft, diesel, heavy duty mechanics, graphic arts, general metal, and air conditioning.

The buildings, designed by architect Walter Wagner, will be built of pre-fabricated concrete.

Plans Submitted

Hansler said that following the Fresno City Board of Education's approval, the plans were submitted to the state division of architecture for approval. As yet no word has been received.

If the plans are approved by the division, the board will invite bids for construction, and from there work will begin.

Dr. Kurt Singer, Ex-Intelligence Officer, Relates Wartime Espionage Activities

By IRENE BRIETIGAM

"Spies and Traitors" was the topic of Dr. Kurt Singer, a lecturer, writer, and former intelligence officer, who spoke before the student body of Fresno Junior College Monday, in an assembly in the FJC auditorium.

Among the famous spies mentioned by Dr. Singer were Mata Hari, "High-Pockets," Herbert Philbrick, the Rosenbergs, Alger Hiss, and Judy Copeland.

"The equipment used by modern spies," stated Dr. Singer, "consists of a microdot, a tiny film, about the size of a period on a typeable short-wave broadcasting set," written paper; x-rays, and a port. He warned against broadcasting from the same point twice in succession.

Americans Overdo Gadgets

"The United States has the best educational system in the world today. It is true that Russia has spent more on education, but her people are taught theories. They accept and never ask questions. The American people have been brought up to make their own decisions by questioning and observing the answers."

Dr. Singer was born of Czech stock in Vienna in 1911 and has lived in eight different countries. As a newspaperman and foreign correspondent, he joined the underground in Europe. The Nazis and Communists issued a warrant for high treason against him.

Reports Utilized

His reports on atomic espionage have been utilized by the United States Atomic Energy Commission.

Dr. Singer outlined a story of international intrigue, which he has studied so thoroughly by direct contact with the underground forces in most of the countries of the world and as an observer at the United Nations sessions.

He has had personal contact with world figures such as the Kings of Denmark, Norway, and Sweden, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, United Nations Secretary Dag Hamarskjold, and Presidents Eisenhower, Truman, and Roosevelt.

Murphy Succeeds Beach As Business Group Head

Bill Murphy was installed as president of the Phi Beta Lambda last Thursday night in a candlelight ceremony performed by Raymond Beach, outgoing president, in the committee room of the student center building.

The other officers installed were Carolyn Steffen, first vice president; Linda Hastings, second vice president; Vera May Joseph, secretary; Connie Paden, treasurer; Richard McMann, reporter; Nola Myers, historian, and Wilma Weston, sponsor.

Enrollment Rises 25%, Holstein Predicts 3,500 Total Spring Attendance

By EDNA SMITH

For the first time in the history of the Fresno Junior College, the enrollment for the spring semester is higher than that of the fall semester.

George C. Holstein, dean of admissions and records, predicted the enrollment for this semester would reach 3,500 students.

With two more weeks of registration still open, the enrollment is 3,432, including 1,842 day students and 1,590 evening students.

Nearly every high school and community in the central San Joaquin Valley is represented in the current total, which includes 40 high school boys who spend half of their school day in the junior college shop classes.

The present enrollment is a new record and is more than 25 per cent above the 2,782 registration of a year ago.

Night students include 743 in academic courses, 844 in trade extension, pre-employment and apprentice classes in the technical and industrial division and 32 in special classes FJC operated for the Air Force. There are 745 day and night students attending under various veterans laws.

Late registration for day classes will end Feb. 28 from 8-11 AM in the admissions office on the University Ave. campus.

Registration in night classes will be accepted in the same office until Thursdays from 7-9 PM. Night students in the technical industrial division may enroll in Bungalow 3 on the O St. campus.

Jaycee Student Leaders Attend Youth Meeting

Joseph W. King, student council adviser, who attended the fifth Governor's Conference on Youth Participation in Community Affairs in Sacramento this month, termed his trip as "a real experience."

He was accompanied by Shirley Huber, Barbara Fragus, Al Grace, and Kenneth Pipes, student body officers. This conference marks the first large scale attempt to work out the problems of modern day youth.

The conference studied and discussed nine topics: the family, motor age; delinquency prevention, community affairs, all around youth fitness, and activities and accomplishments of non-delinquent youths.

At the close of the two-day session, the highlights of the conference were summarized by Roy Sorenson, San Francisco director of the YMCA.

A pamphlet concerning the conference's happenings will be published in the future.

Grace was the FJC fall semester student body president, and Pipes is the newly elected spring semester president. Miss Fragus and Miss Huber were members of the student council last semester.

Pipes Appoints Commissioners To Student Council

Kenneth Pipes, Fresno Junior College student body president, announced early this week that five commissioners have been appointed and approved by the student council.

They include Shirley Huber, Joe Gibson, Kathy Sharum, Carolyn Steffen, and Al Grace.

Miss Huber, a sophomore and a secretarial major, will hold the post of welfare commissioner.

Gibson, Ram football veteran and former Sanger High athletic star and student body president, will serve as commissioner of athletics. Gibson is a sophomore physical education major.

The commissioner of assemblies is Kathy Sharum, a freshman and secretarial major; she is a graduate of Clovis High School.

Carolyn Steffen, commissioner of social affairs, is an accounting major from Kerman and a member of the freshman class.

Al Grace, fall semester student body president, will serve as parliamentarian. Grace was narrowly defeated in a bid for re-election by Pipes for the student body president's post.

Pipes stated that the remaining commissioners and student council positions would be filled as soon as approval of the nominees is received from the governing board.

A Clovis High School graduate, Pipes was selected spring semester student body president on Jan. 13. Vic Takeuchi is the student body vice president.

"I wish every woman with a student body card knew she is automatically a member of AWS and would attend the meetings once a month," Miss Cyr remarked.

Miss Cyr's tentative plans for AWS include meetings of the executive committee before the regular AWS meeting to set up the agenda, a drive for members' attendance, revision of the constitution, the annual spring formal, and the traditional entertainment of past presidents.

The officers working with her in AWS are Margaret Christensen, vice president; Nancy Powers, secretary; Carolyn Steffen, treasurer; Courtney Newman, historian; Billie Jean Trout, commissioner of social affairs; Karen McDougald, commissioner of membership; Irene Brietigam, commissioner of publications; and Virginia Mode, commissioner of publicity.

Cagers Beat Taft, 65-43

The Fresno Junior College Rams defeated the Taft Cougars for the second time this season, 65-43, in a Central California Junior College Athletic Association game in Taft Friday night.

The victory gave the Rams a 6-4 record in CCJCAA play.

Forward Johnny Hampton and guard Polly Carver continued to pace the team with 21 and 15 points, respectively. Forward Larry Gambrill chipped in with 15 points.

In the early minutes of play the score see-sawed back and forth but the Rams pulled ahead to take a 23-13 lead at halftime.

During the second half Taft trimmed the margin to 42-34 but Fresno pulled out of reach and was never threatened throughout the rest of the game.

Fresno outscored Taft from the floor as well as the foul line. Fresno scored 24 field goals to Taft's 19 and they hit for 17 out of 26 free throws.

Taft scored 19 field goals and five out of 12 free throws.

Frank Johnson, who has replaced Nat Haskin at center, scored six points and held his opponent to six points.

Fresno will be home tomorrow night for another game with Hancock.

Spotlighting
the Sports

By BILL SEWALL
Sports Editor

Now that the second round of CCJCAA action is well underway five of the seven teams have been eliminated as far as winning the league is concerned. However, COS and Hancock are battling down to the wire.

As of Sunday, they were tied with nine wins and one loss apiece. Saturday night the Bulldogs will tangle with the Giants in Santa Maria. It has been a long time since the Bulldogs were beaten on their own court.

Tomorrow night the Rams could figure prominently in the outcome of the battle for first as they host the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs smeared the Rams earlier this year on their home court.

Pulled Upset
The 'Dogs will be heavily favored when they invade Fresno, but on the other hand they were heavily favored last year, too.

Some excellent coaching on the part of Joe Kelly and some fine teamwork on the part of the whole FJC team proved too much for Hancock in that game.

Track
Track Coach Erwin Ginsburg has long since issued the call for track members. Last year Fresno had one of the weakest teams it has ever fielded. It wasn't because they didn't have good team men; they simply didn't have enough men.

Lack of runners made the track season a long one. It takes no great skill to be a runner. It certainly takes practice, however, and that practice can be arranged to suit your schedule.

Several FJC Football Players Are Presented Trophies

An awards dinner was held for the winners of the Central California Junior College Athletic Association championship, the Fresno Junior College Rams, in the school cafeteria.

Vestee Jackson, fullback, who led the team in ground gaining and scoring, was chosen most valuable player by his teammates. Jackson was one of the few players absent from the affair but will be presented with a trophy at a later date.

Bill Herron, All American from Sanger, who also starred in the East-West All American JC game, was picked as the most outstanding lineman and was awarded a trophy for that purpose.

Fred Raco received an award as being the most improved lineman, and Kenny Pipes received one for being the most improved back. Alex Kobzoff, halfback from Chowchilla, was chosen the most outstanding back and received the Dr. H. M. Ginsburg trophy.

Paul Starr, athletic director, awarded each player their championship jacket for winning the CCJCAA league.

Starr also pointed out the school's ten-year football record of 63 wins, 23 losses, and four ties and their CCJCAA record of 33 wins, five losses, and two ties.

Head Coach Hans Wiedenhoefer praised the cooperation and fine assistance of his aides, Dick Handley and Clare Slaughter.

Wiedenhoefer said, "Personnel wise, this was the strongest squad in the history of the school; it was the best schooled in fundamentals and it was a team which could hold up well against anyone we met; and, at no time this year did I feel it was overpowered."

Golfers Will Begin Practice Sessions

Golf Coach Hans Wiedenhoefer has issued a formal call to all prospective golfers who may be interested in gaining a berth on this spring's JC golf team.

The first match will be played Feb. 28 in Stockton. Jim McCrory, last year's number one man, heads the list of returning men to the squad. Other returning veterans include Don Baker, Don Simerly, and Ron Winter.

Among the promising newcomers are James Trent and Haig Surabian of Fresno High. Wiedenhoefer urges anyone interested in competitive golf to contact him immediately in the men's gym.

Hancock Will Pose Last Great Threat

The Fresno Junior College Rams will be host to the Allan Hancock College Bulldogs in the Yosemite Junior High School gym tomorrow at 8 P.M. Saturday, the FJC hoopsters will travel to Porterville for their last Central California Junior College Association conference game.

Hancock's biggest threat is guard Paul Howard and 6 foot 6 inch center Larkin Bryant. Coach Joe Kelly said, "Paul Howard is the finest player this conference has seen in many years." Also starting for Hancock will be guard Ed Rife and forwards Jim Whelihan and Jack Katrik.

Coach Joe Kelly's strategy for Friday night is to practice ball control, the FJC Rams have been instructed not to shoot unless they are within 15 feet of the bucket.

The Fresno starters will be Johnny Hampton and Larry Gambrill, forwards; Frank Johnson, center, and Polly Carver and George Sarantos, guards.

Wrestlers Slate Matches

The busy Fresno Junior College wrestling team will swing into action this week with a pair of important matches set for this afternoon and next Thursday.

The grunt and groaners will host a strong Modesto JC team today and will journey to San Jose for a meeting with the Northern matmen next week.

The local team has been very active during the past few weeks, having El Camino, Cal Poly JV's, COS, Los Angeles City College, Modesto JC, and having participated in the Cal Poly invitational tournament. The Rams placed third in the tourney.

Coach Hans Wiedenhoefer said he is pleased with the work of his entire squad, especially Al Cunningham.

The newest additions to the squad are Ernie Gomas from Madera, Bill Moore, a transfer from Illinois, Art Parra, just out of the service, and Don Wamhof, of Fresno High.

Fresno JC Defeats Porterville, Taft; Drop Games To Hancock And COS

Since the finals of the fall semester the Fresno Junior College Rams have played seven games, winning four and losing three.

The first game they played was with the strong Allan Hancock Bulldogs. Hancock proved to be too formidable a foe and dumped the Rams, 76-49. John Hampton led all FJC scorers in that game with 17 points. All American guard, Paul Howard, led Hancock with 17 points also.

Down Porterville
Next, the Rams played host to Porterville and easily beat them, 77-59. Polly Carver with 24 points was high for Fresno while Bob Hill took high game scoring honors with 26.

Forward Larry Gambrill had one of his better nights in the scoring column with 19 points. Fresno led 44-24 at half and maintained the lead throughout the game.

In their next game, the Rams edged the Coalinga Falcons for the second time this year, 83-78. Fresno led 43-41 at the half, but the lead see-sawed throughout the game.

Although outscored from the floor Fresno built up an impressive free throw total that made up for the deficit. Carver with 27 and Hampton with 24 lead the locals.

Fresno dropped their third conference game to a talented College of Sequoias five, 83-69. COS led at the half 44-31 and continued to increase their margin throughout the game.

This was the first game in which Fresno did not have the services of their top rebounder, Nat Haskins. Haskins was dropped from the squad for scholastic reasons. Hampton and Carver with 27 and 20, respectively, led the Fresno attack.

Upset By Tigers
Next the Reedley Tigers proved they are an extremely tough team on their home court as they dumped the Rams 62-53. Reedley outscored Fresno from the field as well as the foul line.

Hampton and Carver scored only 12 points between them as compared to 48 in their previous game with Reedley this year. Gambrill and George Sarantos each had 15 to lead the team.

Fresno next toppled the Taft Cougars, 65-43, in the Yosemite Junior High School Gym.

Drop Cal Poly
In their last outing, the Rams hosted the Cal Poly Jayvees and beat them in the second half, 60-51. Leading 33-32 at the intermission, they gradually pulled away in the second half to secure the win. Hampton with 22 and Gambrill with 17 led the Rams while Marlin Ashby with 14 led all Cal Poly scorers.

Tennis Team Is Short Handed

"We can still use more players," stated Miss Margaret Tylor, Fresno Junior College tennis coach.
