VICTOR TAKEUCHI
Inter-Club Council President

Campus Clubs Represented In FJC Council

The deadline for any club on the Fresno Junior College campus to apply for a charter has been set at Mar. 18 by the Inter-Club Council, stated Vic Takeuchi, the vice-president.

Inter-Club Council is a group of representatives from each club on the campus.

Every club is expected to send a representative to all the Inter-Club Council meetings. The meetings are held every 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month at 12:40 PM in the council room of the student center. Visitors are welcome.

Clubs Are Listed

The following clubs are represented in the Inter-Club Council.

Alpha Gamma Sigma is a scholastic achievement club. The Caduceus Club is for students with medical interests. The California Student Teachers Association is primarily for students with an interest in teaching.

The Fine Arts Club is for students who like classical music. The Freshman Class Club is a social club for all interested freshmen. The International Club, consisting primarily of foreign students, is interested in foreign cultures.

Campus Christian Fellowship is a religious, social group for all Christian faiths. The Latin-American Club, now inactive, is interested in Latin-American culture. The Newman Club is a Catholic, social group.

Others Are Named

Phi Beta Lambda is a group interested in business. Phi Theta Kappa is a scholastic achievements club. The Rally club is mainly interested in promoting school spirit.

Red Key, now inactive, is a service club. The Sophomore Class Club is a social group for all interested sophomores. The Talent Club coordinates and participates in school talent assemblies.

The Technical And Industrial Arts Club, located on the O St. Campus, is primarily interested in technical and industrial education. The World Affairs Club is a discussion group.

"Any student may attend any of the regularly scheduled meetings of all the clubs, except perhaps the scholarship achievement groups for lack of sufficient grades," stated Mrs. Kay Seagraves, dean of women.

175 Students Qualify For Honor Lists

The office of admissions and records announced 110 students qualified for Alpha Gamma Sigma and 65 students qualified for Phi Theta Kappa on their fall semester grades.

These lists are Fresno Junior College's unofficial honor roll for each semester.

Alpha Zeta chapter of Alpha Gamma Sigma was installed at FJC in 1948. It is the local chapter of the honor scholastic society of California junior colleges.

FJC Chapter Secured

A chapter for Phi Theta Kappa honor society was secured for FJC in December of 1951 and is a national junior college society.

Both societies require an average of a B for the semester in order for a student to be eligible for membership.

Requirements for membership in Alpha Gamma Sigma are that the student carry 12 units or more with no grade lower than a C on his entire record and have earned 42 grade points or more and have a grade point ratio of 3.0 for the semester.

The requirements for membership in Phi Theta Kappa are that the student have at least 15 units and a B average.

Invitations Will Be Sent

Officers of the two honorary societies will send invitations of membership to the eligible students.

Those students who qualified for membership in Alpha Gamma Sigma include:

AWS President

Dougherty, Cyr Return From AWS Conference

The northern regional conference of junior college Associated Women Students was held Saturday at the City College of San Francisco. The AWS from City College and Santa Rosa Junior College were the co-hostesses of the event.

Mrs. Sara Dougherty, sponsor of the Fresno Junior College AWS, and Susan Cyr, its president, represented FJC, the only central California junior college in attendance.

"The organizational meeting was held on the advice of the intercollegiate Associated Women Students," said Terrie Galvin of the IAWS of San Jose State College. She explained that the AWS organizations from many California junior colleges had asked the IAWS for help in solving problems.

"However," Miss Galvin continued, "we of the IAWS feel that the four-year colleges have a completely different type of problem to cope with. We decided that we would volunteer to help the junior colleges form an organization of their own."

Besides two general assemblies, three planning workshops were held. Groups discussed the administration, organization, and the purposes of the proposed regional association. A third workshop discussed the role of the college women in the world.

No actual decisions concerning the formation of this group were made.

FJC Choir Will Present Program

The largest Fresno Junior College Choir ever assembled is giving its first performance at the Scottish Rite Temple on Saturday at 8 PM.

"The choir, consisting of 55 members, has four appearances planned this semester," stated C. Lowell Spencer, the FJC choir director.

The program at the Scottish Rite Temple will include solos by Sonya Miller, Janice Ivey, Yvonne Streets, and a pantomime by Judy Cady.

"Due to the fact that many of the choir members have had previous voice experience," said Spencer, "We expect to develop an excellent singing group in a comparatively short time."

Fresno Groups Request Nursing School Program Be Established For FJC

Fresno Junior College has been asked by the Fresno County Medical Society and the Fresno County and City Chamber of Commerce, to establish a 27 month nursing school program for registered nurses. The proposal was put before the Fresno City Board of Education at a meeting held Feb. 27.

According to Stuart M. White, president of FJC, this program could not start until the fall of 1959.

The county hospital plans to abolish its nursing school on Sept. 1, and the Bakersfield College is the nearest nurse training school. Fresno State is beginning a four-year nursing program in September. Dale F. Orr of the education committee announced that the programs would not conflict with each other.

Dr. W. E. Young of the medical society, stated that Fresno's population contains a very large percentage of the very old and the very young. The county hospital produces about one-fifth of the nurses needed in this area. Hospitals, in general, need more nurses, because of the "team" techniques used today.

The board voted to "recognize the need" for such a program and ordered a fact finding report as soon as possible.

Dr. Clarence Shedd Proves Interesting Assembly Speaker

By Irene Brietigam

"Education Adequate for Times Like These" was the topic of Dr. Clarence P. Shedd, a professor at the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, who spoke before the Fresno Junior College student body at an assembly Feb. 26 in the FJC auditorium.

Dr. Shedd, described by Time Magazine as "America's No. 1 Man in Religion in Higher Education," stressed that a young person should become an active part of their community and learn to be a good citizen, have motivation, and have religious faith, in order to succeed in the world today.

He quoted such people as Uno Moto, a Spanish philosopher; Prime Minister Nehru of India; Madame Pandit, Nehru's sister; and American poets, Robert Frost and Edna St. Vincent Millay. He stated that in a recent survey made by Time and Newsweek, it was proven that the youths of today are "more mature than their grandfathers and more cautious than their fathers."

Student Interest Needed

"If you are going to be adequate for leadership in the world ahead," he declared, "your main job as students is to get excited about assignments not because they are assignments, but because they are yours. The excitement of a living intellectual curiosity is your real preparation for life no matter what field you are preparing for."

After 32 years of distinguished service, Dr. Shedd retired from the Yale faculty. He has specialized in

Dr. H.A. Spindt To Speak At Graduation

Dr. Herman A. Spindt, director of admissions and relations, with schools of the University of California, will be the commencement speaker at the Fresno Junior College graduation exercises, June 12.

Spindt's chosen topic will be, "The Talents of American Citizenship."

He started his career as a teacher of social science in the Kern County high school and junior college district in Bakersfield and has been the Director of Admissions at the University of California, Berkeley since 1946.

The admissions director was president of Teachers School Principals, 1941-33 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Dr. Spindt will speak before more than 225 sophomores which will constitute the largest graduating class in FJC history.

Stuart M. White, president of FJC stated, "We are very fortunate in having Herman Spindt. He is recognized for his outstanding leadership in education in our state and for the tremendous good he has done for the junior colleges in California."

Last Friday was the deadline for eligible students to apply for their AA Degrees for June graduation.

Bradshaw, Kelly Attend Orientation In Los Banos

Dean of Students Archie Bradshaw and Robert M. Kelly, the dean of the extended day program, are attending a college orientation program in the Los Banos High School today.

This is the first such meeting in Los Banos in which FJC has participated. Counselors for nine other colleges attended the session.

Good Season For Rams

Now that Hancock and COS have taken an equal share of the CCJCA basketball championship, the Rams are next in line to claim the laurels due them.

Beginning the season slowly and with a limited amount of potential, Coach Joe Kelly's team gradually found itself and it was a smooth, well co-ordinated team during the latter part of the season.

On several occasions during the season the team played well enough to even surpass its superior rivals. The superior coaching by Kelly was evident more and more as the season progressed. The most outstanding display of combined coaching and playing ability was shown in the late season defeat of Hancock by the Rams.

The Rams won 14 games and lost 16. It should be mentioned that the Rams lost many of their games by slim margins, and by the merit of their capable playing and coaching they could not be labeled mediocre.

If a team does not bring home a championship, it is easy for its fans to either forget or condemn it. It would be well if the students of FJC would realize and appreciate the gruelling hours of practice put in during the past season by Kelly and his players.

Campus Has Been Beautified

Much change has taken place on the grounds of the Fresno Junior College during the past two and one-half years.

The students and faculty are fortunate to have such competent gardeners. Ralph Trosi, head gardner, said that trees will not be removed as was previously planned nor will any new trees be planted at the present time.

This spring a great deal of pruning, weeding and general cleaning will take place. New shrubs will be planted but, the landscaping project will have to be kept to a minimum until building projects such as the new shops are completed.

To the right of the Student Center Building is a flower bed containing a few scattered flowers, which will be removed and in their place 60 rose bushes will be planted with various Fresno Junior College clubs having their name tags on them.

Two and one-half years ago the Fresno Junior College grounds resembled a desert. Now we have one of the finest campuses in California.

Technical And Industrial Student Built House Sold

The three bedroom home built by the Fresno Junior College technical and industrial classes on the O St. campus was recently sold and construction has been started on another.

Merle L. Sons, carpentry instructor, said "The new house will have three bedrooms, and we hope to finish it by the end of this semester so that it can be sold next fall.

Three houses were also sold by FJC from the area east of the campus where the new technical and industrial buildings are to be built.

The carpentry class structure was purchased by Andy Seimandi of 3071 South Cestnut Ave. for $3,310.

Tony Telesco of 2426 Tulare St. bought a house at 1905 San Pablo Ave. for $3,050. John and Ralph Hovannisian of Tulare purchased a house at 1903 San Pablo Ave. for $700 and another one at 1805 San Pablo Ave. for $1,150.

STUDENTS' POETRY WILL BE PUBLISHED

Poetry written by Fresno Junior College students is being sought by the Pacific Coast Poetry Association for the publication of an anthology scheduled for this summer.

D. Lyman Cox, executive secretary of the association, stated that contributions must be the original work of the student, who will also retain the literary rights to the material. There will be no compensation for publishing; entries not accepted for publication cannot be acknowledged.

Entries are submitted to Cox, Box 302, Berkeley, and should include the entrant's name, address and school. All entries must be postmarked on or before midnight, Mar. 31.

Dr. Follansbee Will Talk About Prehistoric Fauna

"Prehistoric Fauna from the Caves of Central Texas," will be the topic of Dr. Lewis A. Follansbee, Fresno Junior College science instructor, at a meeting tonight at 8 PM in M-200 of the Fresno Natural History Society.

Charles King Joins Junior College Staff

Charles G. King has joined the FJC faculty as an instructor in the technical and industrial division.

King will teach morning classes in basic and advanced electricity and two night classes in industrial electronics and engineering drawing.

He attended the Riverside Polytechnic High School and the Riverside Junior College. He holds a Class A credential to teach industrial education and related subjects and supervisory training.

Other Experience

The new FJC instructor worked for Lockheed Aircraft Corporation before World War II and during the war was a chief radio officer for the United States Maritime Service and also taught UMS personnel in the Hoffman Island Radio School in New York.

He has also worked for several radio stations as an engineer, holds a first class radio telephone license, and has taught night classes in electricity, radar and aircraft electronics for the Inglewood High School.

Prior to coming to FJC King worked for North American Aviation Corporation in Fresno, Long Beach, Downey and Los Angeles.

In his work for the corporation, King taught time study, blueprint reading, management development, human relations, clerical courses, letter writing, automatic controls, and he has also been a flight inspector and a radar and computer expert.

Student Body Comprised Of Mixed Groups

FJC students who were born or have lived in foreign countries total 111 from 38 different countries, including 47 on student visas.

The 44 students from the Middle East include eight from Lebanon, five from Jordan, 18 from Iran, two from Kuwait, six from Turkey and Syria, four from Iraq, and one from Egypt.

Of the 29 students from Europe there is one from Belgium, Norway, Estonia, Scotland, Ireland, Austria, and Sweden, eight from Denmark, Holland, England and Greece, three from France and three from Yugoslavia, and eight from Italy and Germany.

25 students from the Far East and the Pacific Islands have their homes in Indonesia, Samoa, Pakistan, and Thailand. Two come from Korea, eight from Japan and the Philippines, five from China, and six from India.

Other students are from Jamaica, Peru, Cuba, Mexico, and Venezuela, and eight come from Canada.

Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and Guam also have students at FJC.

Rampage Staff Members Attend Journalism Meeting

The largest journalism conference in California of four-year colleges, universities, and junior colleges was held at the Hacienda Motel and Fresno State College last weekend.

Those attending from Fresno Junior College were Alice Alvarez, business manager of The Rampage; Gary Becker, managing editor; Irene Brietigam, assistant copy editor; Karen McDougald, copy editor; Pat Rafferty, assistant editor; Myrna Roberts, reporter; and Bill Sewall, sports editor.

The conference was sponsored by Alpha Phi Gamma, an honorary journalism fraternity for colleges; Beta Phi Gamma, an honorary journalism fraternity for junior colleges; the California Intercollegiate Press Association; and the California Journalism Association for Junior Colleges.

Noted Speakers Attend

The speakers at the luncheon and dinners were Max Roby, a Columbia Broadcasting System newscaster and analyst; Richard N. Bibler, creator of the "Little Man on the Campus" cartoons which appear in many college newspapers; and Robert Eunson, the San Francisco Associated Press bureau chief.

John (Sky) Dunlap of Santa Ana Junior College was elected president of the California Journalism Association of Junior Colleges, succeeding Ervin Harlacher of Monterey Peninsula College.

The first place award winners in junior college writing contests during the conference were Esther Gatfield of East Los Angeles, news writing; Ron Miller of Monterey Peninsula, editorials; Vic Holchak of East Los Angeles, sports writing; Charlene Shueller of El Camino, feature writing; Bob Sweet of Los Angeles Valley, news photography; and Ross Anderson of Oakland, sports photography. Bill Sewall of FJC won third prize in the sports writing contest.

A committee of six California journalism instructors was set up during the conference to standardize the journalism programs in California's institutions of higher learning in order to ease student transfer from junior colleges to four year colleges.

Students Commended For Observing Lounge Rules

The students of FJC frequenting the student lounge are commended by Joseph King, student council adviser, for the way they have cooperated in maintaining a clean and comfortable lounge.

For the information of the new students, the student lounge is located upstairs in the student center.

The lounge is open from 10:30 AM to 4:30 PM. However, King said there are a few rules to keep in mind: no drinking, no eating, and no card playing.

King said there is no foundation to the rumor that the social hall will be used as the new lounge in the near future. At the present time, he said the lounge is adequate for the needs of the students.

Hansler And Lackey At Statewide Conference

Robert P. Hansler, dean of technical and industrial education, and Curtis E. Lackey, co-ordinator of apprentice training at Fresno Junior College are attending an industrial education meeting in Long Beach, Mar. 11-15.

They will represent FJC in the Twentieth Annual State Conference on Industrial Education, Mar. 11 to 14.

the place and problems of religion to the publicly supported higher education, such as, state teachers colleges, urban universities, and junior colleges.

He spoke to the faculty at a meeting last Tuesday, Feb. 25, in the reserve book room. He told them methods that junior colleges might use in helping students acquire adequate moral and spiritual values. "The junior college has an obligation to help students understand their values and to learn of all the forces shaping our culture and Western Democracy."

Dr. Shedd's most recent assignment was collaborating with the California Junior College Association on plans for the Conference on Moral and Spiritual Values in the Junior Colleges of California which was held earlier this month at the University of California campus at Davis.

FJC Enrollment At Record High

There are 853 more students enrolled this spring semester than there were a year ago. George C. Holstein, dean of admissions and records, reports that this is the largest enrollment in the history of Fresno Junior College.

The enrollment of 3,646 includes 1,946 day students and 1,700 night students.

The day classes have 44 high school students spending a part of their school day in junior college shops.

The night students include 785 in academic classes, 883 in trade extension, pre-employment, and apprentice classes in the technical and industrial division, and 32 in special classes for those in the Air Force.

Attending under provisions of the veterans' subsistence legislation are 768 students and 11 students who live or were born in foreign countries.

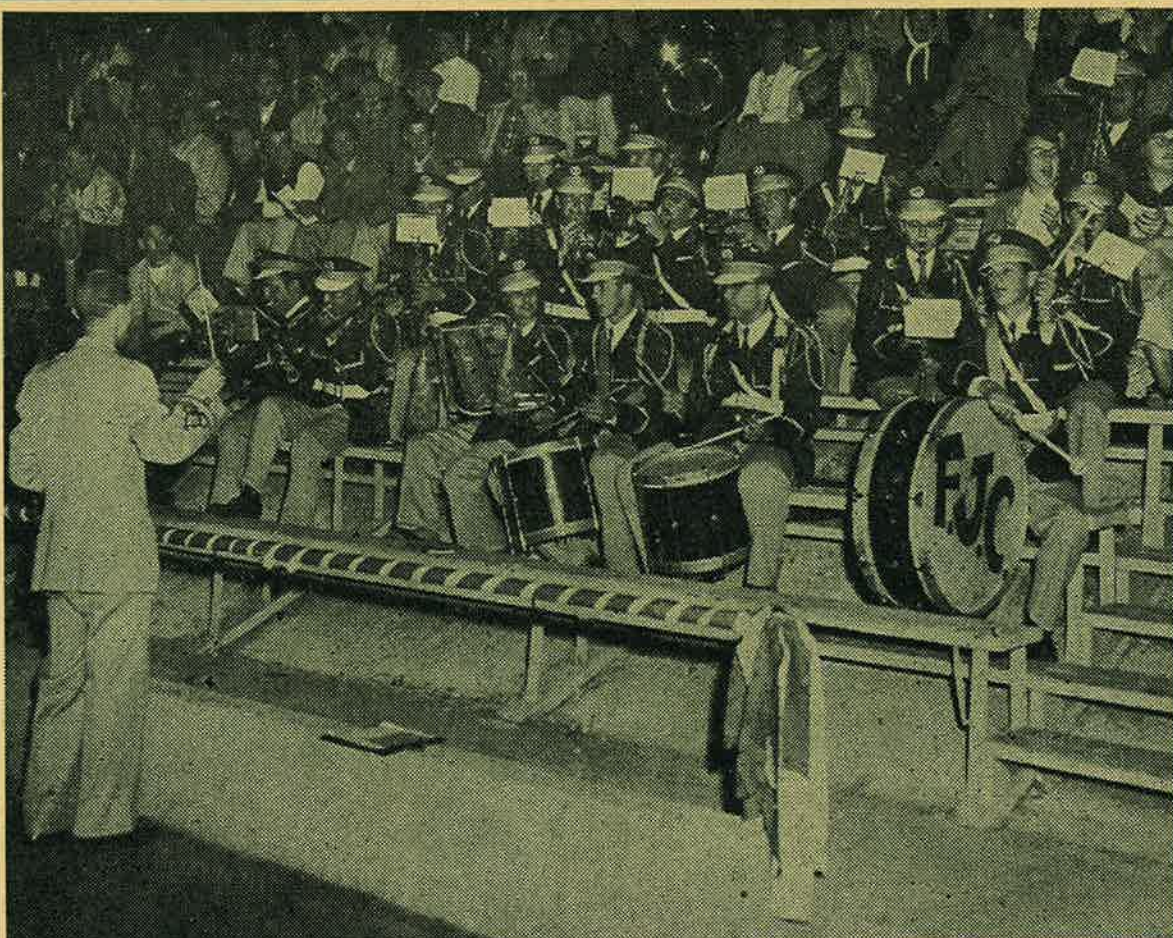

Stuart White To Attend Educational Conferences

Fresno Junior College President Stuart M. White is attending two conferences in Michigan this week.

The first meeting Monday and Tuesday was a pre-convention conference on technical education in Flint.

The national convention of the American Association of Junior Colleges will be held in Grand Rapids today to Saturday.

RAM BAND — This picture of the Fresno Junior College Band was taken at a football game last fall. The band has participated in assemblies, football games, basketball games, and parades. Marvin Belford, FJC band director, is looking for additional members. Players of flutes, clarinets, French horns, or trombones are especially asked to join the band. It is too late to join the band on a credit basis, but valuable experience can be gained by joining up on an audit basis.

Former Editor Is Stationed On Okinawa

FT. BUCKNER, OKINAWA—Private Second Class Michael J. Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Hartman of 813 North Hughes Ave., Fresno, arrived recently at Fort Buckner, Okinawa for duty in Headquarters, US Army, Ryuku Island and IX Corps.

Assigned to the Office of Information as a public information specialist, Pvt. Hartman entered the army on June 20, and completed his basic training on Aug. 31 at Fort Ord.

Before coming to Okinawa, Hartman attended the US Army Intelligence School in Fort Holabird, Md.

He graduated from Fresno High School in 1955 and from Fresno Junior College in 1957, with an associate of arts degree in journalism. While he was attending FJC, he was editor of the college newspaper, The Rampage.

Hartman plans to study for his master's degree in journalism when he gets out of the army, and he said he is glad to be assigned to the office of information, because it gives him a good practical experience in his chosen field.

Fresno Drops. Last Game Of Season, Has Losing Record

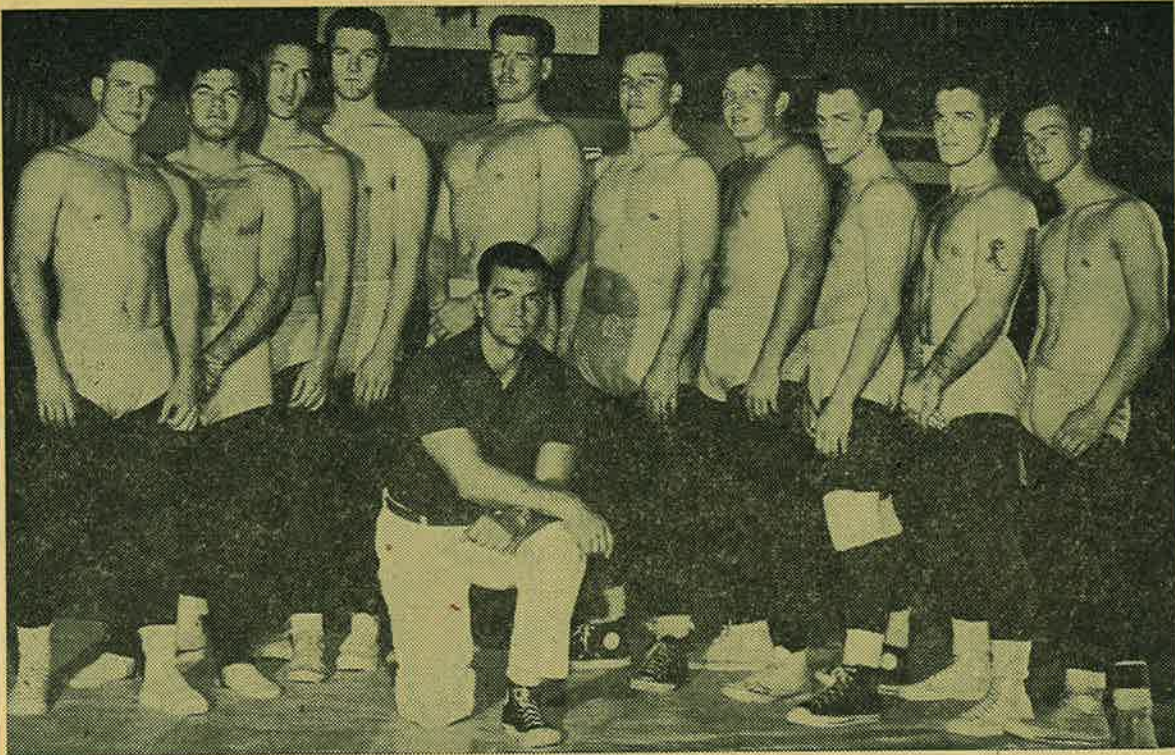

The Stanford Junior Varsity Braves were victorious over the Fresno Junior College Rams last Saturday night, by a score of 48 to 63, in a non-league game.

Stanford took an early lead and at halftime the score was 30 to 48. With 4 minutes to go in the game the Rams were trailing by only 2 points, then Stanford went into a stall and the FJC Rams could not get ahead. Coach Joe Kelly said, "We just couldn't cope with their height."

Polly Carver was the Ram's high scorer with 16 points. Gambrill and Johnson followed with 11 points apiece. Jim Weersing and Phil Roche were the high scorers for Stanford with 24 and 16 points, respectively.

Coach Joe Kelly's Rams went into the game with a 14 won, 15 lost record. Kelly's final 14-16 record is the first time he has finished below the .500 mark since he came to FJC to coach.

Wrestlers Will Conclude 1958 Season By Vying For Valley Championship

The wrestling team will conclude their season this weekend when they travel to Los Angeles to participate in the Southern California Junior College Championships that will be held at El Camino Junior College.

This is only the second year that junior colleges have had competitive wrestling teams. FJC wrestling coach, Hans Wiedenhoefer, as well as other coaches in Southern California, is working to expand wrestling facilities.

Baseball Team Will Meet Bakersfield

The Fresno Junior College baseball team will meet the Bakersfield Renegades Saturday afternoon in a non-league game at Romaine playground.

Either Phil Bertelsen or Tom Fields will catch. On first will be Jerry Grimstead, on second Augie Caldera, third, Vern Newman or Joe Diaz, and at shortstop will be Jack Goodwin. Stan Busch, Mike Noakes, and Don Oberg are the probable outfielders.

Women Have Several PE Classes To Choose From

This year there is a large variety of physical education for women.

There are beginning and intermediate badminton, folk and square dancing, beginning and intermediate social dance, beginning and intermediate tennis, beginning and intermediate golf and competitive tennis. All these are co-educational classes.

Modern dancing, swimming, and volleyball are not necessarily co-educational classes but are also given to women.

Clare Slaughter, Miss Margaret Tylor, Mrs. Sara Dougherty, Malcolm Bourdet, Hans Wiedenhoefer and Paul Starr are the instructors for the physical education classes.

Hancock Upset Is Highlight Of Rams Basketball Season

By GARY BECKER

Despite the fact that the FJC Rams finished below the .500 mark this year, there were some highlights of the season and some moments of glory for individual players.

Probably the best moment the team had was the night they hosted the Allan Hancock Bulldogs and upset them on Polly Carver's two foul shots at the close of the game.

Everybody knew the Rams didn't stand much chance of winning in that game and some thought they didn't stand any chance at all.

Johnson Starred

Also, in that game Frank Johnson played his best game of the year in scoring 14 points and holding his 6 foot 6 inch opponent to nine. For Carver, it was a moment of personal triumph as he evened the score for missing the one and one foul shot against the Citrus Junior College Owls, giving them an 82-80 victory.

Johnny Hampton had several games in which he stood out as an individual star. He scored a total of 599 points in the season and finished with a 19.9 average.

In the Sam Barry Tournament, Hampton won the scoring title with 81 points in four games.

On different occasions he hit for 30 or more points. Against the Barstow Marines he had his first hot night with 31 points. Against Citrus he scored 32, and in his best night he scored 37 against Coalinga.

Carver Is Hot

Carver also has had some good nights. Against Reedley he scored 29 points. In the Sam Barry Tournament, he hit for 23 points against Santa Monica and 21 against Los Angeles Harbor College.

The team finished in third place behind COS and Hancock. Their high for a game was 99, scored against Coalinga early in the season.

George Sarantos played a fine game against Hancock. Several times throughout the season he scored in double figures. Gambrill had a total of 286 points for the season to give him a 9.5 average in 30 games. In some games Gambrill's rebounding also figured very prominently.

Lost Haskins

The team was dealt a lethal blow when they lost the services of their tall man, Nat Haskins during mid season. Haskins at the time was leading the team in rebounds. While he was on the team he contributed a total of 71 points.

Spotlighting the Sports

By BILL SEWALL
Sports Editor

The College of Sequoias has finally emerged as the team to represent the Central California Junior College Athletic Association in the state finals to be held in Bakersfield this weekend.

COS and Hancock met for the fourth time this year Friday night. COS walked off with a 65-60 verdict in that clash.

The first time they met this year was in the Modesto tournament. That game was close for three quarters, then Hancock began a full court press that caught the Giants by surprise. COS dropped that one, 81-70.

COS Pulls Through

In their next game COS pulled one right out of the fire with a last second field goal by Dale Kuykendall. COS was one point behind and won all of them. Each man victory for them. The next game, like the one preceding it, was a CJCJCAA game. Going into the game COS was one game ahead of Hancock. A last second 25 foot jump shot by Hancock guard, Paul Howard, swished through just as the buzzer sounded to give the Bulldogs a 63-61 decision.

As a result the CJCJCAA ended in a tie for first place. In a playoff game to determine who went to the state championships, COS defeated Hancock 65-60. For COS it was Ray McCarty all the way in the second overtime as he scored seven points to cinch the victory. Hancock couldn't stand up against such an offensive attack and went to pieces.

Wrestling

Wrestling coach Hans Wiedenhoefer was very pleased with the work of his team as they wrestled against San Jose in a practice series of matches last week. He took six men with him on the trip. They wrestled a total of 12 matches and won all of them. Each man going on the trip wrestled twice.

Those that went were Al Cunningham, Jack McIver, Jerry Kirkhart, Bill Moore, Don Wamhof, and Art Seagraves.

Golfers Drop Match To Stockton Junior College

The Stockton and Fresno Junior College golf game held last Saturday was the first game this season.

Stockton won 13½ to 1½. The golf game was a practice game which here will be more of.

Hans Wiedenhoefer stated that the team is not quite ready, but will be by the time the golf season really gets started.

Do you like to travel?

If you are single, a high school graduate and between 19½ and 26, there's a splendid opportunity waiting for you. Along with its current expansion, American Airlines needs many more attractive Stewardesses. You must be 5'2" to 5'8" in height, 130 lbs. or less in proportion to height with 20/50 eyesight or better without corrective lenses. Those accepted have FREE TRAINING, excellent salaries, liberal expense accounts, and the privilege of free travel. "Even though you may not reach the minimum age requirement, if you are interested in this as a career, please feel free to discuss this with us."
