Pipes also announced the formation of a charters committee to check and approve the charters and constitutions of all student clubs on the campus.

Students Neglect Campus

In a recent issue of the Rampage, an article was written on how fortunate we are to have such nice grounds.

Apparently the students of this school do not appreciate it. If you will look around, you will notice at times that it is extremely cluttered due to cigarette packages and candy wrappers.

It not only reflects on the school, making it look cheap and shabby, but it is very hard on the gardeners. They have other things to do besides picking up after a bunch of thoughtless, supposedly adult people.

If you smoke, you probably do not throw your empty cigarette packages on your own lawn so why, if the school means anything to you at all, should you discard your packages on the lawns? After eating candy, it is not really too much to ask to dispose of the wrapper in a garbage can.

Take pride in your school. It belongs to you. You should feel part of it and if you do, please try and act the part by keeping it clean.

A Meaning Of Spring

This is the final edition before the Easter vacation. It is only a matter of days before mid-semester exams. The days are slipping by and it is becoming more difficult to keep track of them.

After the Easter vacation no more than 10 weeks will remain.

With the warm, sultry days soon to arrive, the campus will assume a cool greenness that will offer a more attractive call than a dull, heavy classroom.

Spring will have arrived.

Spring means different things to each of us.

To the student it is a time when he would give anything to be anywhere but in the classroom.

To the teacher it is a time when he would give anything to be anywhere but in the classroom.

Spring means different things to each of us.

To the baseball fan, spring heralds the season of pin-striped backs and crackerjack.

To the different kinds of fishermen, it is a time for a striped bass or a suntanned lass.

Spring means different things to each of us.

To some, it is a time to remember old places and familiar faces.

To golfers, it brings bad falls and lost balls.

Spring means different things to each of us.

Spring brings a lot of things everywhere and to everyone.

A particularly notable item is brought to FJC.

At springtime, mid-semester exams come to FJC. It might seem that all of the niceties of spring would be destroyed by this questionable occurrence.

This is far from the case at FJC however; at FJC the students are not afflicted with spring fever. They disregard the frivolity of spring with sobriety as they delve fervently into their mid-semester exams.

Spring means different things to each of us.

FJC Freshman Class Elects McCaleb As President For Spring Semester

Ted McCaleb, business administration major, has been elected to the presidency of the Freshman Class for the spring semester.

McCaleb calls Madera home. He graduated from the Madera High School in 1957. While there, he was president and vice president of the Ski Club, sergeant of arms of the Madera unit of the National Forensic League, and held membership in numerous other clubs. He also took an active part in the senior play.

In commenting on the lack of attendance at the freshman class meetings, McCaleb believes it is due in part to the question of who is a freshman and to the varying in age groups composing the student body at Fresno Junior College.

The responsibility for the graduation reception is the freshman class this year. McCaleb hopes to set a precedent which will eventually become a tradition for future freshman classes. The spring class officers and the board of directors have been appointed chairman heads of the reception committees. "Volunteer help is being solicited," said McCaleb.

The sponsorship of a dance was vetoed at a recent class meeting because of the proximity to and the amount of work connected with the reception.

A social function, such as a dance or a barbecue for entering freshmen is urged by McCaleb for a project for future presidents and class advisors.

Witt's Students Learn The Basic Structures Of Art

Have you ever wondered what goes on in the big art room of the Fresno Junior College?

You will be surprised to find that the students do much more than what people commonly think of art, that being, applying paint to white paper.

Walter Witt, the instructor, offers many different types of classes in this field.

Art Structures Studied

If you walk in the big room in the morning, you will see students studying about the structure of art. Art structure, the basic course, is a study of lighting, a knowledge which is vital to all kinds of art. Values, colors, and line textures are a composition of fundamentals necessary to any other art field.

This course is not a prerequisite to other art courses, because of the limited amount of time that the students have.

Silk screen is a duplication of the problems and materials used in the silk screen course offered at the well-known Arts and Crafts School in Oakland. The display in the library is a silk screen product.

Art History Important

History and appreciation of the subject is a survey of world history of art, emphasizing only those periods of personalities who have a bearing on the art of the 20th century or modern art.

After studying the history of art, a student will be able to visit any gallery in the country and feel perfectly at ease. He will be familiar with most of the works because he will understand the general idea behind the painting and will have a good background of the painter himself.

Commercial art is a survey in two terms of the basic principles of art in commercial advertising, starting with fundamental layouts, including book jackets. These are all realistic, such as an advertisement of Seven-Up, newspaper layouts and picture design.

Outside Work Done

The commercial art classes are doing the catalog for next year, folk dance posters for the folk dance festival, posters for the bond issue for city schools and public schools posters.

Drawing and painting is a course made up of all mediums of water color and charcoal. Still life is avoided because it is so advanced. Emphasis is placed on realism such as landscape painting. It is difficult, however, to do anything original.

All phases of drawing from basic principles to more advanced coloring and the drawing of the human figure make up freehand drawing.

Course Order Unnecessary

There is no specific or required order to these courses, but it is beneficial to start with the combination of art structure and the history of art to give the novice a good basic background before attempting to go into a more advanced course such as commercial art.

Art is one of the few courses that offers so much in one field. It gives the student a chance to demonstrate his creative ability, appreciate the fine arts of the world, and it offers a great degree of culture.

Club Seeking New Members

Juhan Kurrik, vice-president of the International Club, will speak on the "Problems of German Reunification" at the next club meeting, Apr. 8, at 12:40 PM, in B-7.

"Visitors and prospective members are welcomed," stated Abas Khorshidpour, president of the organization. "This semester many American students realized how much they have missed and have become members of the club. International Club still hopes that more Americans will join in the future."

The purposes of this organization is to promote good understanding among its many members, who come from many different cultures and backgrounds, and to help foreign students receive the start they need in order to succeed in the United States.

Every other Friday, members of the club have a party at the house of one of its members. These informal parties help them to understand the different cultures.

Ted C. Wills Gives Talk To Economics Class On Business

"The Lifetime of the Labor Movement" was the title of the talk presented to Harrison Hall's economic's class Tuesday by Ted C. Wills, Fresno City Councilman and representative of The Creamery Workers Union.

His main points included a contrast of working conditions 25 years ago and today: the assertion that the Biblical prophet, Moses, was the instigator of labor problem reform including an alleviation of arduous working hours, and an increase of food to sustain the working class.

He also discussed negotiations of contracts and their problems, and the laborers reward of two to three weeks vacation, all holidays observed, and an increase of wages.

Wills, a strong supporter of public education, stated that in the day of IBM machines, where the only laborers needed are two men in lieu of ninety workers who once were needed in the factory.

The ability to think, and to think intellectually will be more detrimental in this future of automation rather than how skillfully you can manipulate a typewriter or take dictation. He concluded by saying education is the principle medium and an important one for people who wish to get jobs in this approaching era of modernization.

"No one is obligated to bring any food," stated Bob Yecny, the social chairman. He said an admission of 50 cents will be charged to pay for the film.

Sticklers!

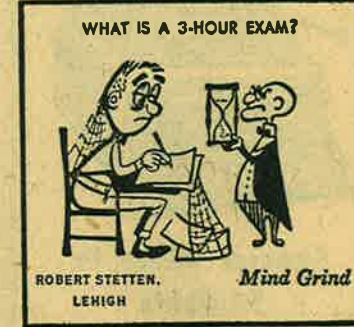

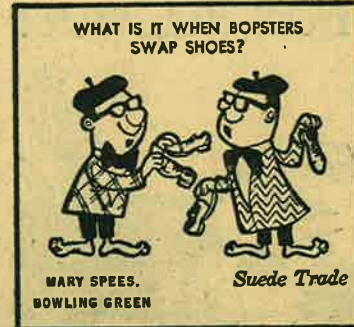

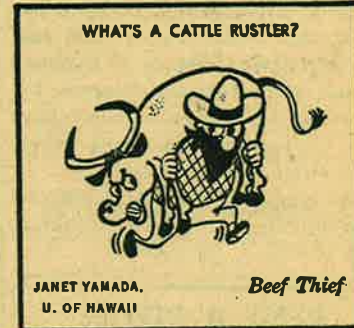

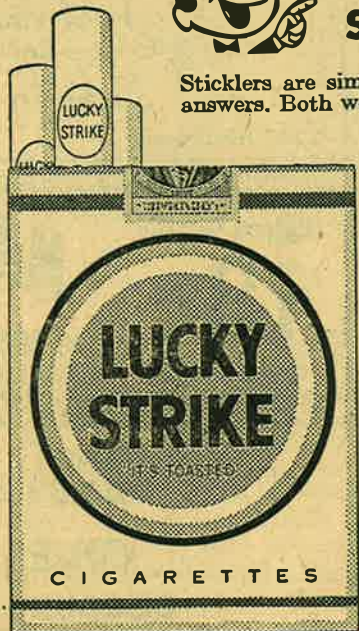

WHAT IS A MAN WHO BLOWS SMOKE RINGS?
(SEE PARAGRAPH BELOW)

SMOKE RINGS come in all shapes and sizes. Like 4-sided smoke rings for squares. Sturdy smoke rings for windy days. Even invisible smoke rings for people who aren't ostentatious. As any competent smoke ringer (Vapor Shaper in Sticklers!) will tell you, the best way to start one is to light up a Lucky. It's best mostly because a Lucky tastes best. A Lucky gives you naturally light, wonderfully good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. Why settle for less? You'll say a light smoke's the right smoke for you!

DON'T JUST STAND THERE...
STICKLE! MAKE $25

Sticklers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (No drawings, please!) We'll shell out $25 for all we use—and for hundreds that never see print. So send stacks of 'em with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, New York.

Baseball Team Is Slated To Open Season Saturday

Weather permitting, the Fresno Junior College Ram nine will open the Central California Junior College Athletic Association baseball season with a doubleheader against the Taft College Cougars on the Romain field Saturday.

Both games are scheduled for nine innings, with the opener set for 11 AM and the nightcap at 3 PM.

Fresno's doubleheader with Coalinga Saturday was rained out and will be played in Coalinga Apr. 29.

Has Definite Starters

Definite Ram starters will be Jerry Brimstead at first base, Augie Caldera at second base, Stan Busch at third, Jack Goodwin at shortstop, and Mike Noakes in center field.

Phil Bertlesen or Tom Fields will do the catching. Joe Gibson or Don Oberg will play right field and Les Lusk, Lupe Ramirez, or Jim Richmond will hold down left field.

Rams To Play In Tourney

The Rams will play Modesto and Pasadena in Bakersfield Apr. 2. This is a tournament, but there will be no champion selected.

Wiedenhoefer To Serve In Clinic

Fresno Junior College football coach, Hans Wiedenhoefer, will take part in a football clinic to be held at Fresno State College Apr. 12, that will feature such mentors as Red Sanders, head coach at UCLA, and his assistant line coach, Sam Boghosian.

FSC head coach, Clark Van Galder, organized the clinic five years ago. It has since then proved successful.

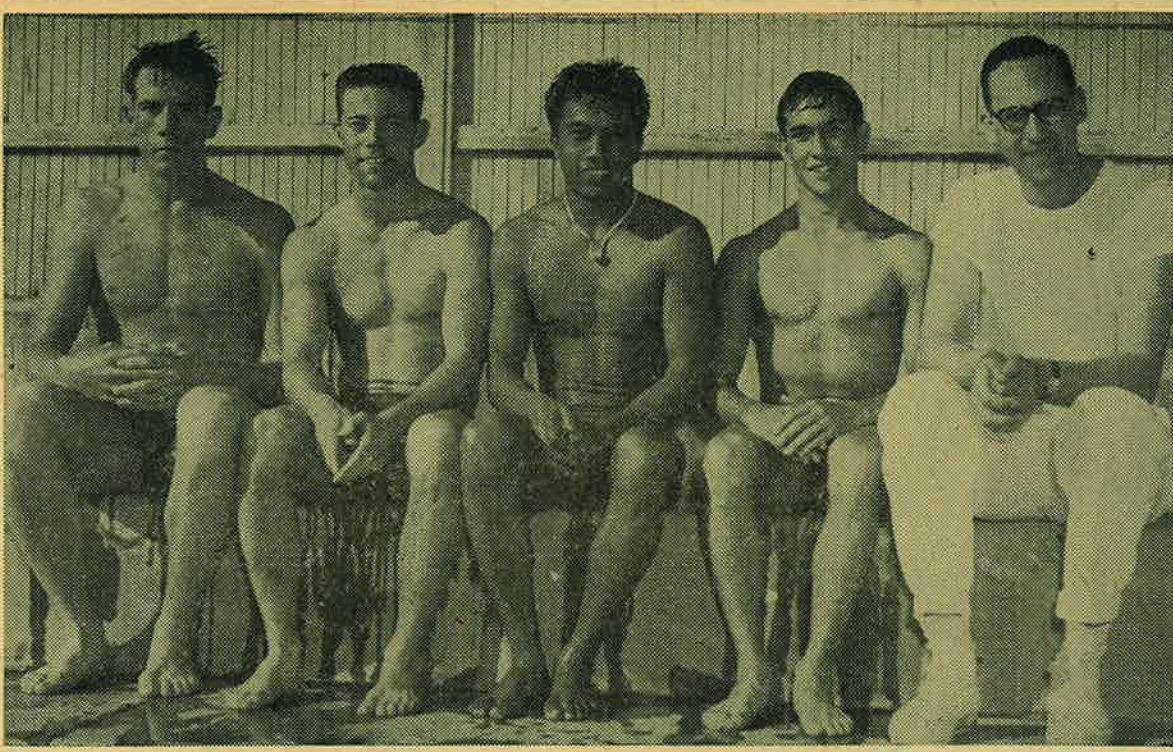

FSC training instructor, Burger Johnson, will also give some tips on training hints.

Swimming Team To Participate In Second Meet

Coach Paul Pastor's swimming team will journey to Visalia tomorrow to compete against the College of the Sequoias Giants. This will be their second league meet of the season.

The Rams finished second in points to the Giants in a triangular meet at Bakersfield College last week, but Coach Pastor said that we may have a chance of finishing ahead of the Giants tomorrow because we have been working hard on a backstroke that will enable us to enter more events.

The meet will start at 4 PM and is to be held in the COS swimming pool.

Cindermen Are Scheduled To Participate In Two Meets During The Holidays

By GARY BECKER

The Fresno Junior College Ram cindermen will participate in two meets over the Easter vacation.

Fresno will take part in the Bakersfield Invitational Apr. 1 and the Easter Relays in Santa Barbara, Apr. 5.

Coach Erwin Ginsburg's entries in the Bakersfield meet are as follows: Joel Cegielski, Ernie Prewitt, Spencer Johnson, and Jim Wright in the 100 and 220. Bob Bolton, Dave Dixon, and Jesse McFerren in the 440; Paul Richardson, Buss Helm, Russ Foote, Russ Harper, Jack Kaitangian, and Lewis Smith in the half mile. Richardson and Ron Buckalew in the mile; Bill Tuck and Art Moss in the two mile; and Jon Anderson and Alymer Dansby in the hurdles.

Entered in the field events are Frank Eller, in the shot put and discus; Sylvester Pointer, in the broad jump and high jump; Voyce Hendrix, in the high jump and pole vault; Johnson and Don Robertson in the broad jump; and Ray Baker in the pole vault.

Will Enter Four Teams

The Rams will enter four relay teams in the Santa Barbara meet. Cegielski, Prewitt, Johnson, and Wright will make up the 880 relay team. The quartet of Dixon, Bolton, Prewitt, and McFerren will compete in the mile relay.

Richardson, Helm, McFerren, and Foote, Harper, or Smith will participate in the two mile relay, and Bolton, McFerren, Helm, and Richardson will make up the distance medley quartet.

Last year's track team was short of strength in running events, and strong in events like the shot put and the pole vault. They now have enough runners to make a well rounded squad.

Spotlighting the Sports

By BILL SEWALL Sports Editor

In the high schools here in Fresno and the surrounding areas, football is the sport that draws the most fans. In the northeastern part of the United States, football is not the biggest sport.

In that section of the country, basketball is the one and only big sport.

In my high school, which had a total of 75 students enrolled in it, there is not a football team. This is because of the expenses of fielding a team and because of the short fall season. Before the football season would be over, chances are the field would have a foot of snow on it, thus making it fairly hard to play a game.

Much Backing

In these small schools, however, as much loyalty, if not more, is given the local cage team as is given a championship football team here in California.

As much as 85 per cent of a school's enrollment usually attends the home game to back their team up. In addition to this, a large percentage of the town population also goes to the games.

If a coach has a winning season, he is as much of a hero as coach Jim McCafferty is on the Xavier campus now. On the other hand, if his team does not do so well, he can expect all kinds of criticism from the local townspeople. I suppose that this works the same with any team and any coach. If the team wins, the coach is a genius, but if he loses, he does not know what he is doing.

From 12 to 20 boys will turn out for basketball season. When the season begins, generally 10 or 12 of these players are left.

No Track Team

There is no track team in these small schools. However, in the middle of the winter an event called a "Winter Carnival" is held. Each school will participate in only one of these each year. Generally six or seven teams compete against each other in these meets.

Events include different skiing events, snowshoe events, and relay events. Ribbons are presented to individuals placing in these contests.

Each school fields a baseball team in the spring. Not too much emphasis is placed on the baseball team. Each team will play about 10 games a season.
