

Debaters To Take Part In Tourney

The newly formed class of argumentation and debate, Speech 25, will leave Fresno Feb. 20 to take part in the fifth annual Junior College speech tournament, to be held at the Stockton College, Feb. 20 and 21.

The class, new to FCC, is composed of students who belonged to the Forensics Club last semester and this will be their first appearance as representatives of FCC.

Franz A. Weinschenk, instructor of speech, stated that the team will be competing against college teams that have been in competition before and this tournament is just a stepping stone.

The team will enter divisions in debate, oratory, expository, interpretive reading and impromptu speaking events.

First Assembly Of Spring Semester Held Yesterday

The first assembly of the spring semester was held in the Fresno City College auditorium at 12 PM yesterday. The new revisions for the constitution of the associated students of Fresno CC was the order of business.

The revisions passed in a vote held at the Sky Ranch during the student council meeting Feb. 6.

Other assemblies planned during the spring semester include an Easter program by the choir at 11 AM, March 19, General Motors Science Assembly at 10 AM in the auditorium on April 6, a light musical by C. Lowell Spencer's music department, Clyde Sumpter's drama department on April 22, and the fall semester student body elections assembly on May 1.

Honor Groups Complete Book Drive Friday

The collection of paperback books and jigsaw puzzles for the patients of the Modesto State Hospital ends tomorrow.

A two weeks drive sponsored by the Alpha Gamma Sigma, the state honor society, and Phi Theta Kappa, the national honor society, has been successful in collecting others' castoffs for therapy equipment for the hospital commented Mabelle Bell, the chairman of the drive.

"Therapy of this type is needed by the hospital," Mrs. Bell explained, "Books of this sort may be placed in the closed wards where patients do not have access to the library.

"In case the books are destroyed, the replacement cost is nominal."

Spring Conference Is Held At Sierra Sky Ranch

The second student council in the history of Fresno City College came into existence as a functioning organization at the Sky Ranch conference held at the Sierra Sky Ranch in Oakhurst, Feb. 5 and 6.

The conference consisted of members of the fall council and the newly sustained spring council. Joseph King, advisor to the council, and Miss Doris Deakins, dean of women, were also present.

During the morning hours Cunningham read and discussed the FCC student body constitution and then Douglas Eudaly, the new student body president, gave a report on the proposed amendments to the constitution.

Richard Dillon, student body vice president and president of the Inter Club Council, read the ICC constitution and its new revisions. Miss Deakins explained the bulletin and facilities at FCC and Carolyn Steffen, treasurer, gave her report.

A film was then shown by King on Parliamentary Procedure.

The afternoon session included an explanation of the California Junior College Student Government Association by King.

Stuart M. White, president of FCC; Archie Bradshaw, the dean of students, and John S. Hansen, the administrative dean, arrived in the afternoon to answer questions put to them by the student council.

Among the questions asked were the current parking problem, the bookstore hours; the apparent disinterest in the AA degree graduation ceremonies.

After the evening meal, the installation of the spring officers was held. Members of the old student council received honorary student body cards for their service to the school and the council.

HONORARY SOCIETIES CAMPAIGN — Alpha Gamma Sigma and Phi Theta Kappa, the two Fresno City College honorary societies are seeking donations in the form of books and jig saw puzzles to give to the Modesto State Hospital. Howard Regier, left, drops his book in the box. Mabelle Bell, chairman of the drive, and William Tuck, president of Phi Theta Kappa, gaze into the box.

3,800 Day And Night Students Are Enrolled At FCC This Semester

Almost every high school and community in the San Joaquin Valley is represented in the spring semester enrollment of Fresno City College.

Registration was closed last Friday for the day and night students with an enrollment of 3800 students.

George C. Holstein, the dean of admission and records said this is a new record over the spring semester of last year of six per cent. The fall semester also set a new record of 4098 students.

President Stuart M. White numbered the current total as 2124 day students and 1656 night students. There were 436 students that registered last during the first week of instruction.

Robert P. Hansler, dean of the technical and industrial division, said there are 70 high school boys attending the FCC shop classes half of their school day.

The high schools that contribute most of the junior college's students include Madera, Chowchilla, Sierra Union, Clovis, Sanger, Selma, Fowler, Central Union, Washington Union, Dos Palos, Trancquility, Kingsburg, Fresno, Roosevelt, Edison and Bullard.

Commissioners Are Appointed

Douglas Eudaly, the Fresno City College student body president, announced that ten commissioners have been appointed and approved by the student council.

They include John Bezayiff, Eric Radanovich, Mabelle Bell, Irene Brietigam, Allen Kennedy, Carol Jacobson, Les Lusk, Jack Whitting, Gerald Fore and Sandy Torbit.

Bezayiff, a sophomore industrial drafting major, will serve as the commissioner of publicity.

The commissioner of elections is Eric Radanovich, freshman general education major.

Mrs. Mabelle Bell, secretary of Alpha Gamma Sigma, an FCC honorary society, and majoring in social welfare, will serve as commissioner of welfare.

Irene Brietigam, commissioner of publications is majoring in journalism. She is a sophomore and serves on the Rampage.

The commissioner of oral arts is Allen Kennedy. Kennedy served as band president and is a sophomore liberal arts major.

Carol Jacobson, a freshman and music education major, is serving as commissioner of assemblies. She is a graduate of Bullard High School.

Les Lusk, sophomore physical education and music major, will hold the post of commissioner of athletics.

Serving as commissioner of rally is Jack Whitting, freshman and majoring in liberal arts. Whitting is a graduate of Fresno High.

Commissioner of scholarships and sophomore education major is Gerald Fore.

Miss Torbit, in charge of social affairs, was secretary of AWS and is majoring in secretary training. She is a graduate of Central Union High School.

AWS To Sponsor Spaghetti Dinner Tonight At 6 PM

The second meeting of the Associated Women Students was held last Monday to elect their new officers and plan the calendar for the spring semester.

Sharon Sue Martin was elected as president during the student body elections held last month. Those elected last Monday were Dee Neece Kandarian, vice president; Sandra Reno, secretary; Sylvia Kirby, treasurer, Angie Casares will serve in the position of publicity chairman; Shirley White, social commissioner, and Barbara Warrington, advisor chairman.

The AWS is sponsoring a spaghetti dinner tonight in the committee room at 6 PM.

"Sign ups for the meal may be made in the dean of women's office in Ad-128 at 12 PM today," announced Sue Martin, AWS president. "This meeting is for the installation of the new officers."

Coming events of the AWS will be a tea for the faculty, held March 4 from 3 to 5 PM. A tea and fashion show for the mothers and daughters is planned for April 10. The AWS and AMS are cosponsoring the spring formal on May 23.

AA Pictures Are Now Being Taken

Pictures of associate of arts degree graduates are being taken for the Rambler, the Fresno City College yearbook, until March 5 in SC-211.

"Students should wear school clothes," stated Peter Christian, yearbook advisor, "and remember to bring their post card." The post card was mailed last week. Pictures will not be taken after the deadline.

"If a graduate," Christian said, "has his own picture and wishes to have it in the yearbook, the print must be two inches wide and two inches deep.

The picture schedule is 12 to 1 PM daily and 2 to 4 PM on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

ORGANIZATIONS WILL HOLD NOON DANCES

The Fresno City College Veterans' Club and the Rally Committee will sponsor a noon dance next Wednesday, Feb. 25, in the student center social hall.

"Two or three yells will follow the dance. The rally committee is trying to create an interest in all school sports during the spring semester," stated Jack Whitting, commissioner of rallies.

Books In The Cafeteria Cause Space Problems

The problem of books in the cafeteria is becoming serious at Fresno City College. This problem has arisen or is rising in almost every college in the United States.

Unfortunately, books have the nasty habit of taking up room. And often times they take up the room that could be used by some person.

A casual passerby, glancing into the FCC cafeteria, might think that it is a free-for-all disorganized library rather than a place to eat.

It is only common courtesy to provide as much space for another person as possible. May we make a few suggestions on how to help provide that room?

First: Lockers in McLane Hall and the Administration building are placed there for the use of students. They make a good and safe place for books during the noon rush hour. Getting the lockers is on a first-come first-serve basis, so if you've been served, please make use of them.

Second: The cafeteria provides many shelves for the specific purpose of holding books while people are eating. They are not just dust collectors, so let's put them to use.

We realize, though, that those who read and study in the cafeteria have good reason to: it's a place on the campus where they can read, talk, smoke and drink coffee all at once. But common courtesy should supersede all convenience.

Editor Welcomes New And Returning Students

The staff of the Fresno City College newspaper, the Rampage, extends a warm welcome to all new and returning students.

This is the 11th year of publication for the Rampage. It is the policy of this paper to present news, features, and opinions with truth, accuracy, good taste, and impartiality.

Keeping its readers informed of what is going on in the school is the main purpose of the Rampage. This newspaper also serves to aid Fresno City College's public relations program by keeping other schools and individuals outside the college informed of what the students and faculty are doing.

All letters to the editor will be welcomed and considered for publication. All letters must be signed and all names will be published. The suggestion boxes on the campus can be used for this purpose, or the letters can be sent to the Rampage office.

Anthropology Now Offered To Interested

A new course called Anthropology 2, cultural anthropology, is now being offered at Fresno City College. This course is primarily for sociology or nursing majors or anyone who is planning to take anthropology in their upper division work.

"Anthropology is being taught by Noel Frodsham at noon on Monday, Wednesday and Friday in M-216.

Frodsham stated that the expected outcomes of the course are that the student will be able to understand and appreciate man, the animal; man, the social creature; and man, the thinking being. The student will understand organized society, its character, needs and ecological techniques of adjustment to and use of the natural environment. The student will develop a knowledge and appreciation for culture and societies other than his own. The student will understand the cultural growth and development of man in pre historic times.

"The student will develop and appreciate the ideals, attitudes and behavior patterns which are essential in understanding cultural phenomena," Frodsham said.

"The students will understand the diffusion and function of cultural evolution. The student will appreciate acculturation and the pragmatic aspects of applied anthropology. The student will retain a faith in himself and in the future, despite change, social pressure and the climate of public opinion."

Cunningham Gets Legion Award

Albert Cunningham, a former student body president, was given a $25 scholarship from Post 509, American Legion Auxillary.

Mrs. Ann Fowler, the education chairman, presented Cunningham with the award at the auxillary's last meeting.

Five Competed

Archie Bradshaw, the dean of students, announced that Cunningham was one of five FCC students competing for the scholarship.

"Cunningham was selected because of his fine duties for the school last semester," he concluded.

Graduate of Kansas

Cunningham is from Hays, Kansas. He graduated from Salina High School, Kansas, where he was active in school events. Cunningham spent three years in the marines. His father also was a marine during the first world War.

Cunningham is a member of the Veterans Club, the state coordinator of the Central California Junior College Students Government Association and a wrestler for wrestling team. He is interested in a medical career.

Economics Class Hosts Speaker

The history of the early day lumber industry and the city of Fresno was discussed and illustrated at a class meeting of the Economics 2 Tuesday at 10 A.M.

Dr. Marion Grosse, the head of the applied arts division and chairman of the industrial arts department of Fresno State College presented a brief lecture on the development of the lumbering industry in the central California area. Dr. Grosse showed slides of the use of oxen to the day of the donkey engine.

POLICE SCHOOL STARTS — The second annual California Institute of Peace Officers training program started Feb. 9 and will last until Feb. 20. The institute will take place at the military annex of the college at Weldon Ave. and Poplar St. Members of the class include, left to right, M. C. Hill, a California highway patrolman from Fresno; John F. Miller, police department, Modesto; Charles R. Rothert, police department, Los Angeles; Charles F. Burr, police department, Visalia; Jack McClure, police department, Dinuba; C. L. Elles, a California highway patrolman from Visalia; and Paul Gulas, police department, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Police Officers Begin Training Program Here At Fresno CC

Feb. 9, 52 police officers from California and Nevada started classes at the Military Annex, located at Weldon and Poplar Avenue, Fresno.

This is the second annual California Technical Institute of Peace Officers Training of the Central Valley. This institute is being conducted by the Fresno City College.

John P. Pepper, state supervisor, stated, "officers attending will be from cities in California and Nevada. The officers are from Fresno, Modesto, Los Angeles, Visalia, Dinuba, Clovis, and Turlock. The Police Departments, California Highway Patrol, Kings and Stanislaus County Sheriff Departments, California State Department of Vehicles and Forestry, California Bureau of Livestock, and the Las Vegas Police Department of Nevada are participating in this training school.

To provide special training in techniques, aspects of law enforcement, development of new techniques, advance training not otherwise provided, and to learn cooperation between law enforcement agencies is the purpose of the school.

Administrators Will Contact 3,000 Seniors

The administrators of the Fresno City College will meet with approximately 3,000 seniors in 16 Central San Joaquin Valley high schools during February and March in regard to their plans for attending college next year.

Archie Bradshaw, the dean of students, and Robert M. Kelly, the evening division dean, will visit high schools outside the Fresno area. These include Selma, Feb. 20; Chowchilla, Feb. 24; Dos Palos, Feb. 24; Kerman, Feb. 26; and Sierra Union of Auberry, Mar. 3. Fowler was visited last Monday and Kingsburg last Wednesday.

John S. Hansen, the administrative dean, and the division deans will visit high schools in the Fresno area, including Bulard, tomorrow; San Joaquin Memorial, Feb. 24; Madera, Feb. 26; Clovis, Mar. 3; Central Union, Mar. 4; Washington, Mar. 5; and Fresno, Mar. 11. They visited Roosevelt on Feb. 10 and Edison last Monday.

White Bradshaw, Kelly, and several FCC students visited Sanger Union High on Jan. 14. Bradshaw said additional visits may be scheduled to other high schools.

Movie Notes

'Old Man' Is A Movie Must For All

There are some things a man must do, some of these things are accomplished, some left half done, and others are put aside for another time which is forever coming, but never quite arriving.

Of these undone things some can be important. It could mean a great deal if it turned out that one of these things was to see the movie, "The Old Man and the Sea."

For the most part Hollywood isn't Hollywood in this movie. The movie isn't a caricature of the original tale. There are no romances, no fist fights, no gun shooting. There is only an old man, and the sea, and a great fish.

There are the old man's dreams of lions in Africa and dreams of coastal ranges. When the struggle between the old man and the fish is the hardest, there is a tired old man who would like to have his "Hail Marys," and "Our Fathers," considered said.

When the sharks get to the old man's fish, he tells his friend, the fish, that he is sorry he went out so far, that he is unlucky.

"I wish there were some place I could buy some luck," the old man said.

The old man recognizes, though, that he is lucky he does not have to fight the moon, the stars, or the sun. He is lucky that he must do battle with only his brother, the great fish.

It isn't until the old man arrives home with the skeleton of his great fish that he feels the depth of his tiredness. As he lies on his cot, mattress with old newspapers, the palm of his hands up, he begins to dream of the lions, the sea, the absence of his wife, and his great fish which gave him such a noble battle.

Monday Is Deadline For Club News

The deadline for all club news is Mondays at 2 PM. A basket has been placed on the counter in the Rampage office to hold all club publications.

T AND I

Candidates for office were nominated and plans for a snow party were made Feb. 13 at the meeting of the Technical and Industrial organization.

Potential candidates for the presidency are Roger Dupsyk, Alan Graves, Larry Mathes, John Smart and Joe Billalba; Dan Opperman and Mike Spolini, vice president nominees; Evelyn Lovelace, secretary-treasurer, and Richard Haberman, Percy Brown, Gil Bray, Harley Reed and Nish Chillinguirian, candidates for the post of member of the executive board.

Feb. 21 is the day the members will take an all day trek into the snow country around Fish Camp. A car pool will form in front of the University Avenue campus at 8 AM.

At the next meeting of the organization election of officers will be held.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The first meeting of the International Club for the spring semester was held Tuesday noon in B-8.

"Any student," said William Reynolds, sponsor of the club, "who is interested in promoting international relationship is invited to the meetings."

PHI THETA KAPPA

James P. Collins, dean of the general education division of Fresno City College, will speak at the Feb. 23 meeting of Phi Theta Kappa, the national honorary society. Collins' topic will be "The Characteristics of American Education As Found in the Junior Colleges."

"All students attending the noon meeting," said Bill Tuck, president of the society, "should have a card filled out with all specific information concerning their interests and covering their major field."

SOPHOMORES

Feb. 27 is the deadline for sophomore students to apply for their associate in arts degree.

"Sophomores must have their application in the admissions office," said George Holstein, the dean of admission, "between the hours of 8 AM and 5 PM, including the noon hour."

CCF

Larry McDandel was selected to fill the position of president of the Campus Christian Fellowship for the spring term. Assisting him will be Dan Adams, vice president; Barbara Hochderffer, secretary; Bob Demeter, treasurer, and Marge Neufeld, Interclub Council representative.

FINE ARTS

An election of officers was the order of business taken up at the Wednesday meeting of the Fine Arts club in Ad-141.

WRA

The members of the Womens Recreational Association met in the Fresno City College gym Monday for the purpose of planning the spring semester social events.

The meetings are open to all Fresno City College coeds, who are interested in either the fields of dance or sport activities. Mrs. Sara Dougherty, sponsor of the club, said that all are invited to the noon meetings.

Social Dance Classes Held

Mrs. Sara Dougherty, physical education instructor, has approached the teaching of dancing in a new way in her four social dance classes as well as teaching them social graces.

Listed below are five helpful aids to her classes:

"A gentleman should always precede the lady when the couple makes its way out on the dance floor."

"A gentleman does not stand on the sidelines or cut in when there is a lady not dancing."

"It is not acceptable to sing while dancing or to show off in any way."

"It is not acceptable to dance open or fast patterns when on a crowded dance floor. (In other words, don't show off.)"

"When cutting in, a gentleman touches the left shoulder of the partner of the lady with whom he wishes to dance. If he is not acquainted with the couple, he introduces himself to the gentleman, who in turn introduces him to the lady."

Students Are To Visit Santa Barbara Campus

High School and junior college students throughout the southern part of the state will visit the Santa Barbara campus of the University of California on March 7.

For this annual College Day event, the entire campus will be open to all interested students and their parents, who are invited to inspect the facilities of the 408-acre seashore site. The visitors will have an opportunity to talk with professors and college officials, have lunch in the new Dining Commons and attend a short welcome assembly.

American Students Meet In City After Many Months In Scandinavia

Sixty American students of the Scandinavian Seminars for cultural studies met recently in Tranberg, Norway to report results of their first five months in Denmark, Norway and Sweden.

Under the program which is offered by Scandinavian Seminars, a student will live with two families for a month each and then they will spend six months at a "folkhjokle."

There are short courses for language instruction, lectures and discussions where the student can become familiar with the art, history and the current affairs of the Scandinavians. The students will have an opportunity to get acquainted with the national personalities.

For program details write to Scandinavian Seminar, 127A East 73 St., New York 21, N.Y. Those eligible must be a junior, college graduate or anyone in professional work seeking such special experience. Closing date for the 1959-60 program is Apr. 1. Early applications will have priority.

Course Is Still Open To Students

Seven students have signed up for the Air Force Reserve training course, Industrial Education 35.

Harmon W. Allen, an instructor on the O St. campus and major in the Air Force Reserve, reminds all Air Force reservists and Air Force Veterans the course is still open for late registration.

Allen said the two unit course pays an equivalent of a day's pay in military grade for two hours. In addition, the student may qualify for subsistence benefits under the GI bill and Cal-Vet program.

The class with Allen as the instructor meets on Tuesday from 7 to 9 PM in Ad-158.

Personnel from the Fresno Air Reserve Center were in the foyer of the Student Center last Tuesday to answer questions and sign up all interested reservists and veterans.

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 135-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a vim-packed V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.

FCC Spring Sports Off To Early Start

Swimming

The Fresno City College swimming team, after initiating its season on a losing note, will meet Sacramento Junior College tomorrow at 4 PM in the Fresno High School pool.

The Ram swimmers lost their opening meet to Monterey Peninsula College at Fort Ord, Friday, February 13, by a 57-28 margin.

Chuck Polly won the only first place for FCC with a 56.5 clocking in the 100 yard freestyle.

Track

With the opening meet only two week away, Fresno City College track and field coach Erwin Ginsburg has asked anyone interested in the cinder sport to contact him in AD-113 or Ratcliffe Stadium as soon as possible.

This year's Ram track squad especially needs weightmen, pole vaulters, hurdlers and distance runners.

Tennis

The Fresno City College will play host to the San Luis Obispo Junior College, March 12, in their first league match.

Margaret Tylor, FCC tennis coach, stated that the schools that have slated matches against Fresno are Reedley, Porterville, Coalinga, College of the Sequoias and San Luis Obispo.

There are twelve people out for the tennis team this year. They are Rebecca Arnbrister, Barbara Campbell, Judith Daily, Steve Heshmaty, Domenico Marchini, Jenice Potere, Wayne Chapman, Amy Yamaguchi, David Hall, George Sarantos, Reuben Bilbo and Margaret Davis. Sarantos, who is still out for basketball, is the only returning member of the team.

Golf

Anyone interested in trying out for the Fresno City College golf team should contact Hans Wiedenhoefer.

Practice has already started.

Ram Baseballers Open '59 Season

By MONTE HORNER

Seven lettermen, four transfer students and a large crop of freshmen candidates greeted Coach Len Bourdet, as practice began for the Fresno City College Ram baseball squad two weeks ago.

Bourdet said, "Things look encouraging but it is too soon to tell how the squad will shape up, as we have not had any games." He also stated, "There is plenty of competition for every position."

Seven Lettermen Return

The returning lettermen are Les Lusk, Don Anderson and Darrell Woofter, pitchers; infielders Jack Goodwin and Joe Diaz and returning outfielders Lupe Ramirez plus Kalem Barsarian, a letterman two seasons ago.

The transfer players are the Hanioan twins, Larry, a catcher, Terry, a pitcher, and infielder Pete Lango from Fresno State. Short-stop-pitcher Jim Maloney, transferred from the University of California to give the Ram squad a brighter look.

Bourdet also received some pitching strength when Dale Rudolph and Thad Tillotson turned out for the team. Rudolph was the mainstay on the Edison High Tigers last year and Tillotson was the ace for the Merced High Bears.

Busy Schedule Ahead

The Rams have a busy schedule this week as three practice games are on the schedule. A single contest with the Fresno State Frosh and a doubleheader against San Jose City College on Sat., Feb. 21, in San Jose.

Rams Drop Two Games

By LARRY ADAMS

The Fresno City College Rams furnished a good warm-up for the Coalinga JC Falcons last Friday night although coming out on the short end of an 87-69 score. Saturday night the Falcons went on to defeat the previously unbeaten Allan Hancock Bulldogs, 85-79. Fresno, in Saturday night's action, fell behind in the waning minutes to drop a 63-59 decision to the College of Sequoias Giants.

Coalinga, again led by Charlie North, had little trouble in halting the Rams' bid for their fifth league win. North had help from teammates John Morgan and Sylvester Blye, all who stand over six feet three inches.

For the Rams it was again George Sarantos who found the range and kept the Rams a threat. Charles Lowe, playmaking guard, found his scoring marks and brought the Rams close to the lead late in the second half, by making the score 57-54.

Although the Rams were caught short on height and rebounding strength they managed to keep the Falcons down most of the time by the outside shooting of Sarantos and Lowe.

In Visalia Saturday night it was almost a reverse of the previous night's effort with the Rams leading most of the way. The Rams enjoyed a lead of from three to nine points most of the game but in the closing minutes COS pulled away.

Foot Notes

By RUSS FOOTE
SPORTS EDITOR

This is the kind of story that every sports writer likes to write.

This is the kind of a story that really feels good. This is the happy ending of the story of Gabe. But most of all this is a tribute to you, the sports fans that made this happy ending possible.

Four weeks ago in this column the pathetic plight of a fallen but still proud figure in the world of sports was presented to you, the sports fans. And how did you respond? With a passing glance, a moment of remorse and then indifference? With a shrug of the shoulders? Or with a match or a pair of scissors, as you usually respond to this column.

No, you rolled up your sleeves and went to work. You bought candy and soft drinks and blintz burgers from Gabe's Popcorn Stand next to the White (Now playing, It, From Beyond Space—bring mother.) You paid to park in his parking lot by the White (All night show, free blood transfusions and donuts after 1 PM.) After you saw the way that Gabe parked cars, some of you even paid him not to park your car in his lot by the White (No, the patrons are not covered by group insurance.)

How does all this affect old Gabe? Well, he knows you, the sports fans are responsible. And as he stands with a fistful of fives in one hand and a Rootaboga bar melting in the other, he says simply, "Gee thanks."

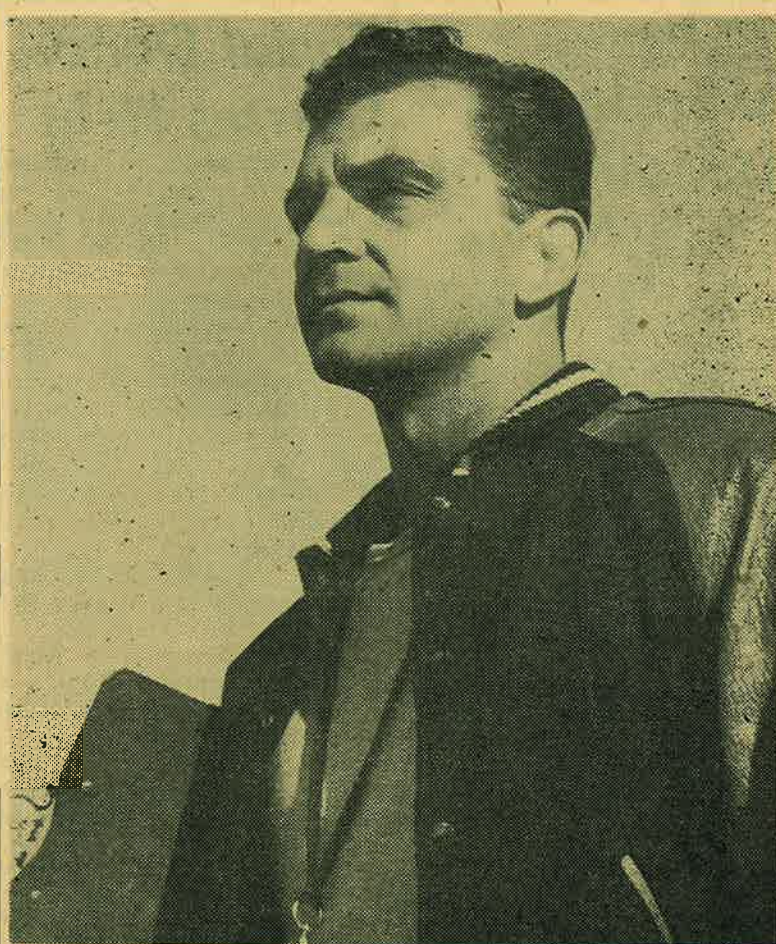

Yes, thanks—from Gabe who is at the top again; The White (The men's rest room is upstairs and to your right—good luck.); and me, because I am getting fifty per cent of all that Gabe makes.

Wrestlers Host Tourney

The Fresno City College wrestlers, winners of eight of their first nine matches, will take on the Reedley Junior College Tigers today at 3:30 PM in the men's gymnasium and next Thursday will host the first annual Central California Junior College Athletic Association league meet.

The Rams have been strengthened by the addition of Frank Rodriguez and Larry Nehring, two former Northern California high school champs.

Rodriguez won the 103 pound Northern California championship in his sophomore year at Madera High and repeated in the 112 pound division in his junior year. Rodriguez will wrestle in the 123 pound division for FCC.

HANS WIEDENHOEFER — Ram football coach is seeking the head grid job at Fresno State College.

Wiedenhoefer Applies For FSC Post

Hans Wiedenhoefer, head football coach at Fresno City College for the past eight years, has applied for the head coaching job at Fresno State College at the request of Hal Beatty, director of athletics at FSC.

Wiedenhoefer, former San Jose State grid star, has coached the Rams to six league championships in eight seasons. During this time, his teams have lost only three league games.

The post was vacated when Clark Van Galder resigned to take an assistant coaching job with the University of Wisconsin.

Rams Host Tigers Next

By DOUGIE KNIGHT

The Fresno City College basketball team, no longer in contention for the Central California Junior College Athletic Association crown, will be host to Reedley on the Yosemite Junior High floor Friday night at 8 PM and will journey to Taft to tangle with cellar-dwelling Cougars Saturday.

The Rams will be favored in both games despite two consecutive losses to Coalinga and COS. In first half play, Fresno was sparked by sharp-shooting Lee Stark in downing Reedley 80-63 and Taft 66-59. Taft has not won a conference game this season, but gave the FCC hoopsters a battle in their first encounter, staying within striking distance most of the contest. Reedley has won only two of eight games.
