Enrollment Is Highest Ever

Fresno City College celebrates its 50th anniversary this year.

It was established in 1910, and began with an enrollment of 28 students and a faculty of three. Today the figures include 2,937 day students and 2,241 night students, and the faculty numbers 112, both full-time and part time instructors.

First Junior College

After public junior colleges were authorized in 1907 by the state legislature, Fresno was the first community to establish a post high school institution. Fresno City College began its history in the old Fresno High School building at 1430 O St. This, the old campus, has had a long and colorful history. It was also the first home of the Fresno Normal School, the forerunner of the Fresno State College, in 1911.

In 1921 state legislation made it permissive for a school district maintaining a junior college to contract with a teachers' college for the maintenance of the junior college courses of instruction. As a result, the Fresno City College was combined with the Fresno Normal School, forerunner of Fresno State College.

After a survey predicting that Fresno County would sustain a junior college potential of 2,000 students by 1960, Fresno City College was refounded as a separate school from Fresno State College in the fall of 1943 at the site of its birth.

O St. campus was the home of the Fresno High School from 1895 to 1921, was the Fresno Technical High School from 1921 to 1950, and was headquarters for the Fresno Adult School and the E. R. Snyder Continuation High School.

Last fall with the opening of the new shop building on our campus, the O St. campus was evacuated.

Earthquake Damages Rooms

In the fall of 1952, the campus began losing its ability to house the Fresno City College. The earthquake in the San Joaquin Valley damaged two of the three wings of the main building, and these wings were condemned by the board. Classes were suspended for a week, and then reopened in other sites.

Fourteen portable bungalows were constructed on the campus and shop buildings for junior college students were completed behind the Edison High School.

Gets New Campus

After purchasing the present campus from the state the general education division moved from the O St. campus to the University St. campus. As Fresno State moved out to their new campus on Shaw Ave., the administrative offices and the business division moved onto the new site.

Fresno City College made its switch from the O St. campus complete last year when its newly constructed shop buildings were ready for use.

Hansen Speaks To Group At First Assembly

"We urge students to support —" was the key sentence used in Tuesday's Welcoming Assembly. FCC's first student body activity of the year.

John S. Hansen, vice-president of FCC, welcomed returning and new students on behalf of Stuart M. White, the president, and the college administrators and faculty. He urged a devotion to excellence in all school functions, academic as well as extra-curricular.

Hansen remarked that this year's enrollment far exceeds expectations and noted that the quality of the students has increased as well as the number.

Student Body President Don Walker welcomed the students on behalf of the student council and urged that FCC students support their council and the various clubs and organizations on campus. Walker stressed the importance of social activity in college life.

Linda Carol Miller, student vice-president, welcomed the new

Students May Design Floats

Vice-President John S. Hansen said following the theme of the "Gay Nineties" Fresno City College students are invited to submit float designs for the Fresno Diamond Jubilee Parade on October 29.

Deadline for submitting designs for the parade entry has been set for next Tuesday. Styles should be submitted to Curtis D. Draper or William McLelland, art instructors in Rooms A230 or A226.

Hansen said emphasis on the idea rather than the art is being stressed.

Homecoming Activities Start Next Thursday

September 29 marks the opening three days of homecoming events.

The opening homecoming event is an assembly in the college auditorium, Sept. 29 at 11 AM. Barbara Franklin is the chairman of the assembly.

Alumni and retired faculty members are being honored at a free luncheon in the student center committee room Sept. 29 at 12:15 PM. Linda Carol Miller and Brenda Daum, co-chairmen, have lined up Mayor Arthur Seland as guest speaker. Reservations may be made by calling Miss Doris Deakins, the dean of women.

Ramburger Roundup

Ramburger Roundup, Sept. 30 at 6 PM in front of the student center is a get acquainted barbecue open to all students. Charles Overs, homecoming chairman said free tickets are available in the student center foyer by showing student body cards. One ticket per student body card or students wishing to bring non-school guests must pay 50 cents.

Sports dress will be the attire for the Homecoming dance following the Roundup at 8 PM.

Cameron Harding and his orchestra will provide the music.

Student body voting for queen will be Sept 29 from 8 PM to 4 AM. "Tomorrow is the deadline for clubs to nominate queen candidates," announced Robert Roe, queen selection chairman.

Queen Candidates

Queen candidates will be introduced at the Sept. 29 assembly and crowned at 10 PM at the dance.

Homecoming finale will be the game against the Visalia Giants from College of the Sequoias on Oct. 1 at 8 PM at Ratcliffe Stadium.

The queen and her two runners-up will reign at the game.

Queen Candidates Will Have Pictures Taken

Queen candidates should be on the student center steps tomorrow at 3PM for newspaper, television, and yearbook pictures.

Nation Observes Fire Prevention Week

Fire Prevention Week will be observed throughout the nation from Oct. 9-15 this year.

The purpose of Fire Prevention Week is to make the public aware of the need for greater fire prevention and safety. Last year fire caused 11,300 deaths and property loss exceeding $1 billion.

Preparedness is the key to preventing and escaping a fire.

Every family should work out their own escape plan. Each plan will vary with the arrangements of individual homes.

Never go away and leave children alone. Employ only trustworthy people to sit with your children. Have a suitable arrangements with sitters in case of an emergency.

Vigilance in fire prevention is urged by national board. Matches and smoking cause 24.2% of all fires.

Civic groups, fire departments, schools, churches, commercial establishments, and industrial concerns have helped to cut down fire tolls, by conducting home and business inspections.

It is up to everyone, no matter what occupation, to help prevent the needless tragedy of fire.

Fresno's Community Theater Opens With 'Pajama Game'

On Sept. 30-Oct. 1, and Oct. 7 and 8 the Fresno Community Theater will present "The Pajama Game" to open the 1960-61 season. After a thousand performances on Broadway the show was forced to close because of advance booking for "Li'l Abner."

The play originated from a Book of the Month Club selection, "7½ Cents" by Richard Bissell. This is the story of a pajama factory's union battle for a 7½ cent per hour raise. Included in the plot is superintendent Sorokin's courtship of Babe Williams, head of the union's Grievance Committee.

Heading the cast are Lindy Cope, a FSC freshman, as Babe Williams, Jack Hall as Sid Sorokin, Lee Burger as Gladys, and Martin Ryerson as Hines.

Such songs as "Hey There!", "Hernando's Hideaway," and "Steam Heat" were first introduced in this musical comedy.

"A New Town Is A Blue Town," "There Once Was A Man," and "I Am Not At All In Love" are also included in the show. The music director, Paul Vermel, is also director of the Fresno Philharmonic Orchestra.

The director, Miss Frances Quinn, is familiar to the television viewers of the Fran Quinn Show of a few years ago. Miss Quinn has worked in radio as well as TV and is a member of the California Association of Press Women and of the National Federation of Press Women. Miss Quinn is also the vice-president in charge of production for the Fresno Community Theater.

Other members of the production are: Mrs. Denise Sommers, choreographer; Roy Hergenroeder, set designer; Michael Loring, assistant stage director; Jay Stewart, assistant dance director; and Mrs. Paul Vermel, assistant musical director.

Meux Is Appointed To Board Of Education

William C. Meux, a Fresno lawyer and president of the Fresno County Bar Association, has been appointed to serve the remainder of the term of the late Dean Emeritus James M. Malloch on the Fresno City Board of Education.

Meux will replace Paul G. Wasmiller, who has filled Dean Malloch's position on the board since last February.

Wasmiller recently was appointed to serve on the Fresno City Council.

Meux attended Fresno High School, the University of California and the Hastings College of Law. He is a former president of the Fresno County Taxpayers Association and was on the Fresno City Planning Board.

Other board members include Lewis S. Eaton, president; Mrs. Margaret R. Robinson, George W. Turner, Mrs. Geraldine R. Wheeler.

The board meets the second and fourth Thursday of each month in the FCC library.

Ram Orders Begin Monday

Arthur H. Margosian, sponsor of the Ram, said sales for the yearbook will be taken in the Student Center starting Monday, and resuming on Wednesday. Final day for subscribing will be November 11.

The fee for the annual will be $1 now and $1 upon receiving the book.

Margosian points out that this is a $7 book selling at the price of $2. This cut in price is made possible by college allotted funds to the book.

Margosian said only 500 more copies are left for student subscription to the Fresno City College Ram Annual.

A line is a common sight on any registration day. These students are waiting to be x-rayed.

Classrooms At FCC Get New Alterations

You step into the classroom; it looks new. The room has been repainted, the tack boards are as good as new, and the lighting has been improved.

The new atmosphere gives you the feeling of studying and making this school year the best, so far.

Rooms 124, 127, 224 are lecture rooms which have been altered for the better. Also repaired is the remedial reading classroom, 136.

Rooms 230 and 222 have been completely remodeled. The lockers, offices, and rooms of 150 and 152 used for ceramics have been repaired to make the art classes more enticing to students.

From the northeast corner, we can hear the band playing, as the music department is located there. Rooms 133, 135, 137, 139, and 142 have been acoustically treated. These rooms are used for large groups: a capella choir and band; storage room; a practice room, respectively.

Special features have been added to certain rooms. The changes on the rooms have been in its third summer and two or three classes more are expected to elapse before it will be completed. The health center has been completely remodeled.

After all fixtures have been completed, the art and music class will hold its open house.

Future plans for the school will include lighting fixtures in McLane Hall. A complete remodeling job will be done on the administration rooms and all rooms so far not remodeled.

School district employees are doing the work gradually improving the grounds and buildings around the FCC campus.

Carty Is Vice-President Of Library Association

Jackson C. Carty, head librarian, was recently elected vice-president and president-elect of the Yosemite District of California Library Association.

He serves from July 1, 1960 to June 30, 1961, when he takes the office of president.

This district organization includes public, special and school librarians from Bakersfield to Modesto.

Library Staff Offers New Facilities

Hours and special services of the library have been announced by Jackson C. Carty, head librarian.

Carty and his staff have readily prepared for the increased number in enrollment.

Daily hours Monday through Friday are 8 AM to 5 PM. Monday through Thursday the library is open from 6:30 to 9:20 PM.

New books and bound magazines have been added to the book selection. "With 1,142 new books added, the total number of books and bound magazines is 11,142," stated Carty. "I anticipate adding 1,300 more this year."

Length Of Loan

General books can be charged out for two weeks by students showing their Student Body card at the circulation desk. Two more weeks are added for renewal. Books can't be renewed by telephone.

"Back issues of magazines can't be charged out overnight; however, current magazines may be charged out overnight," said Carty.

Books housed in the reserve book room may be checked out overnight from 4 PM and due 9 AM.

Carty announced that short hand records have been added to the listening stations located in the reserve book room. There are also music appreciation records.

There is a wide selection of vocational and occupational files in the main reading room. Booklets on Civil Service examinations are also available.

"If students wish to study in groups of three or more, the conference room is available. Use of this room may be made by contacting Mrs. Marjory Cann, reference librarian," Carty stated.

A tape recorder may be used to practice speeches, etc.

Assisting Carty in the library are Mrs. Lois Scarboro, reserve room librarian; Mrs. Vernelle Pate, audio visual clerk; Miss Darlene Horch, chief clerk; Mrs. Cann, and five students.

The student workers are Dewey Belli, Bruce Dill, Elizabeth Russell, and Jim Silva. Charles Bolinger is the language laboratory assistant.

FCC Adds 11 To Faculty

John S. Hansen, vice president said that 11 new faculty members have been added to the FCC teaching staff.

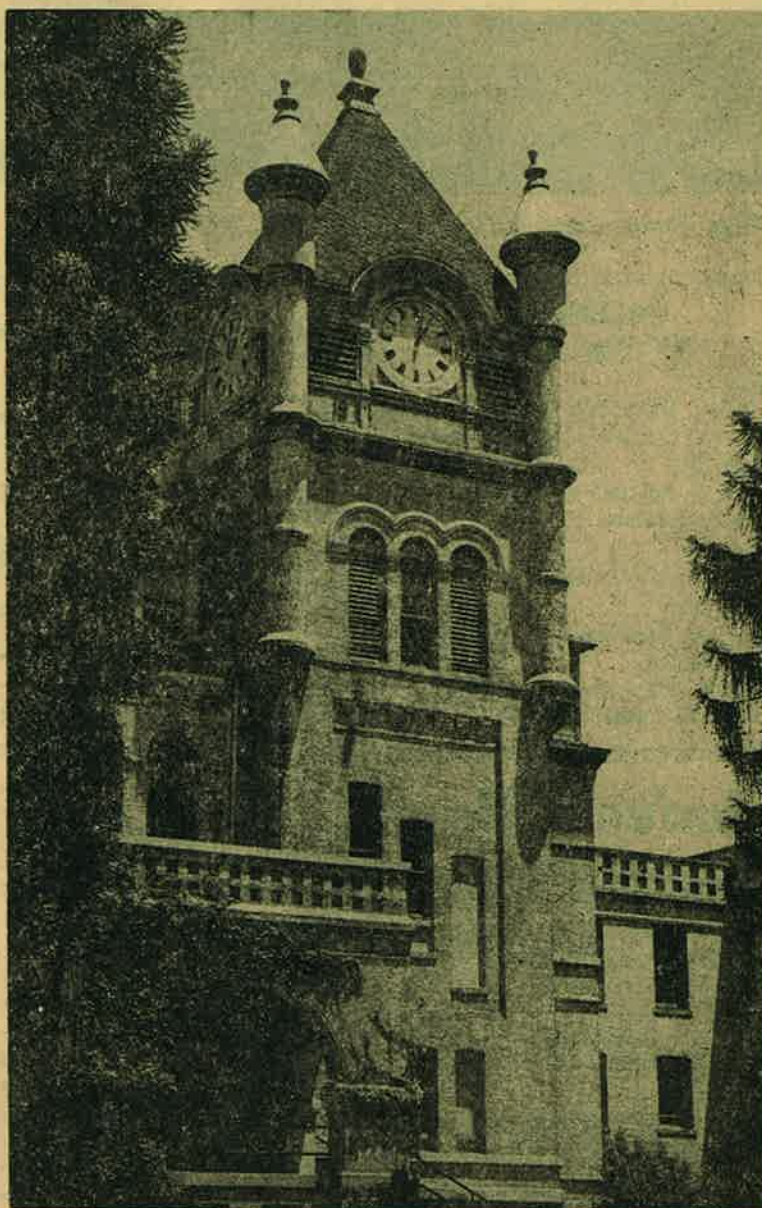

They include Mrs. Eloise F. Hansen and Miss Mary Miller, in the business division, Ellis Carraso and Morgan E. Shelley, health and physical education, Curtis D. Draper and William D. McLelland, art, Mrs. Barbara Faber and Mrs. Flo Brenninger, English, and Dan W. Ozier, English and speech.

Other new faculty members are Mrs. Durlene W. Nall, home economics teacher, and Mrs. Lois Scarboro, assistant librarian.

The president's reception, for the new faculty members and their wives, was held Sept. 11 in the Student Center patio with the Faculty Club as host.

Two of the faculty that have been replaced are Walter E. Witt who is studying art in Paris, and Noel D. Frodsham who is on a Fulbright Teaching Fellowship in Denmark.

Another faculty member, Curtis Lackey, is on leave of absence for the second year to assist with vocational trading program in Thailand.

Rampage Must Have Campus Clubs' News

By JULIE RASMUSSEN

Do you feel that your club isn't getting enough publicity? You can help by seeing that the organization elects a publicity chairman to correct the situation.

This representative should attend every meeting and bring the important news to the Rampage office, SC-211. A basket is on the counter for the deposit of this news, stated Julie Rasmussen, club news editor.

The deadline for all club news is Monday at noon.

Alpha Gamma Sigma

Alpha Gamma Sigma will hold its first scheduled meeting in the committee room of the student center tomorrow at noon.

All students who were members last semester, and who plan to join this year, are encouraged to attend as there is some important and pressing business to get started on.

The meeting will cover a Homecoming queen candidate, selection of a queen campaign committee and a committee for the initiation ceremonies tentatively set for Wednesday evening, Sept. 28.

Milt Barnes, president, recently met with Linda Miller, vice-president; Becky Reed, secretary; Ruthy Kauffman, treasurer; Charles Overs, scholarships chairman; and Mr. Dan Ozier, adviser. They planned ample work for all participating students — especially in society.

If you have any questions concerning membership, qualifications, or the tangible benefits available in belonging to Alpha Gamma Sigma, Ozier or the officers will answer them.

Phi Beta Lambda

Sept. 15, 1960 was the first meeting of PBL. At this meeting the members of the club selected Charlotte Falsetti as Homecoming queen candidate.

Another meeting is scheduled for today in A-111 at noon. All members and prospective members are urged to attend.

Inter-Club Council

Inter-Club Council meets today at noon in B-5. All club representatives are expected to attend. Anyone interested in this organization please feel free to come.

REMINDER

Clubs planning to sponsor queen candidates are reminded that the names of all candidates must be in Miss Doris Deakins, the dean of women's office, A-128, no later than tomorrow. Campaign and election rules may be secured in either A-128 or in the student council office, S-229.

Bookstore, Coffee Shop Reveal Hours

Mrs. Jewel Herbert, bookstore manager, announced that the bookstore will be open, for your convenience, Monday through Friday from 8 AM to 4 PM and evenings from 6:45 to 8:45 PM Monday through Thursday.

The bookstore opened Aug. 18, in order to handle the tremendous number of students. It will not close between semesters this year.

Serving students is a staff of eight; four of whom are students working part time or temporarily: Carol Shaw, Esther Martinez, Walter Davis, and Tom Weltz.

Mrs. Nina Stradel, cafeteria manager, announced that the coffee shop will be open Monday through Friday from 7:30 AM to 3:35 PM and evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 PM.

The cafeteria will serve a noon meal Monday through Friday from 11 AM to 1:15 PM. It will also be open evenings from 5:30 PM to 7 PM.

CARS MUST SHOW PERMITS

Paul Starr, dean of men, announced that all students driving cars to school must display their parking permits on the lower right hand corner of their windshield by Monday.

The Fresno City Police Department will issue a citation to any car parked in an unauthorized area. Cars parked within five blocks of the college campus will be affected by the new parking registration rule.

"The issuing of parking permits, enables the police to notify a student when his car has been impounded for blocking a campus or residential driveway, Starr stated.

Parking areas where student cars will be prohibited are as follows: all school and residential driveways; parking areas behind student center; behind the library; and behind the college garden on Poplar Ave. The two parking lots adjacent to the college on Weldon Ave. and shop parking lots are also restricted to students. All restricted parking lots are reserved for college personnel.

Seven hundred fifty student parking stalls are available for the 2,200 students who have already registered their cars. Students are warned that parking in prohibited areas will cost them two dollars.

Blocking a driveway will cost the offender twelve dollars. This fine includes towing the car to a local garage and storing it for a day.

Starr urges all students to cooperate with the new parking rules. Residents near the college have been complaining about their driveways being blocked by student cars.

Club Will Help Foreign Students

Friends of International Students, a new organization in the Fresno area, is just what the name implies. This organization is composed of 40 Fresno families who are acting as hosts to foreign students who are new in the Fresno area this fall.

These families show the students around Fresno and acquaint them with our city. They help the students find lodging and try to make them feel at home. They also invite the students into their homes and have them over for holidays and other occasions.

The organization is working through William Reynolds of Fresno City College. Reynolds is the club sponsor for the city college international club.

The city college students who have already been contacted by their hosts so far are Mahud Ahmed, from the Sudan; Sukhjit Singh Pungab, from India; and Omar Hassan Mneymneh from Lebanon.

Other students who will be contacted are Khadijah Navab Sattour Semitsu, Marie Delores Aquirre, Goodarz Mazani, D. J. Sharvanny, Faridon Farrokhi, Bit Leunz Seto, Jack Chunz, Wallace Quan, Pak-Tim Tsui, John Otsuki, Othman Rashid, Tad Fufang, Edward Kalfayan, and Tim Cawkill.

Low Cost Insurance Available To Students

Archie Bradshaw, dean of students, announced that a medical insurance plan is now available to all the students of Fresno City College.

The policy, which will cost each student $7.50 a semester, will be in effect at all times during the policy term, protecting the student 24 hours a day,

Clare Slaughter, football coach, hailed this year's Ram football team as being an excellent group, and full of spirit. The Rams were victorious in their first season game against Fullerton Junior College and will play Stockton College this weekend. Slaughter expressed the hope that the student body would give the team their support.

Rally Commissioner Bill Geise introduced this year's cheerleaders, majorettes, and pep girls. He also voiced a desire for student support of athletic events.

Members of the student council were introduced during the assembly. They are as follows: president, Walker; vice-president, Miss Miller; secretary, Nancy Tamura; treasurer, Bob Roe.

Representatives Barbara Blaney, Cherrie Sharp, Jon Johnson, Brenda Daum, Joe Nascimento, Donna Pursell, Charles Overs, Carol Russel, Kathleen Kauffman, and Rebecca Reed.

Commissioners; Barbara Franklin, assemblies; Joe Lee, athletics; Judy Potter, elections; Alan Hayes, oral arts; Gary Oberti, publications; Bill Glese, rallies; Milton Barnes, scholarships; Sherry Smith, social affairs; Arlynne Jacobs, parliamentarian; Rae Dean Pyatt, welfare, and Linda Smith, publicity.

Cheerleaders Chris Trotter, Posie Ranson, Gwen Davies, Patty Lawry, Don Jadoon, Marvin Nunes, Floyd McMann, and Inman Perkins.

Pep Girls Dezi Woods, Sue Williams, Joice Anthenian, Ange Hernandez, Claudia Burenly, Betty Ann Jones, Dorothy Strimiska, and Ann Imhoff.

Rampage Has New Members

The Fresno City College newspaper, the Rampage, will begin its 13th year of publication today. The Rampage offices are located on the second floor of the student center building.

Gary Cooke, news editor last spring, and Mary Gulke, feature editor last spring, were appointed co-editors by Phil D. Smith, journalism instructor and advisor for the Rampage.

John Frey, Carol Ann Shaw, and Thomas Carothers will fill the positions as business managers, Richard Cavanaugh as advertising manager and Robert Evans as circulation manager and librarian.

The secretarial staff includes Carol Sorensen, Norma Shakargian, Geraldine Garcia, and Evelyn Evans.

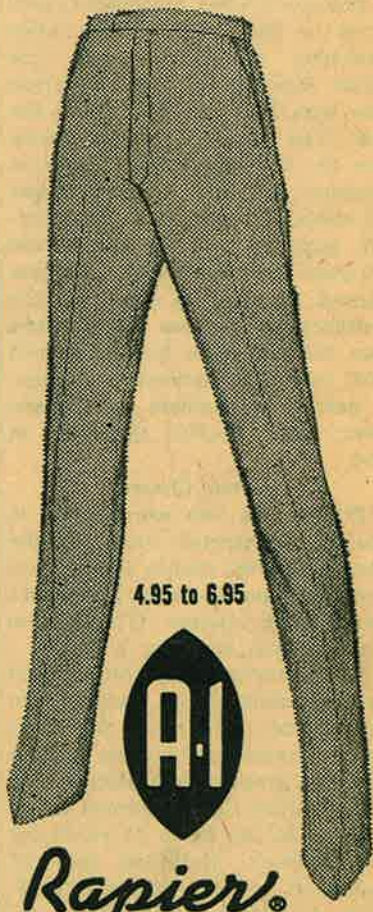

Mike Spolini, Dixie Cole, and Richard Wardlaw are the photographers.

Rampage reporters are Tom Barfield, Claudia Fullerton, Ruth Hikiji, Ira Krinberg, Morgan May, Norma Remy, Mrs. Phelps, Miss Shaw, Betty Wolfe, Jimenez, Joy Walter, Roberta Silva, Barry Nelson, Barbara Cardoza, William Kandarian, John Noble and Barnett.

FCC Rams Win, Open Against Stockton

Throws Two TD Passes

Hornets Dumped By Caldera's Shots

The 1960 football season was opened with a big bang, as the Fresno City College fighting eleven stung the Fullerton Junior College Hornets with a 15-0 defeat on the home grounds of the Hornets Saturday, Sept. 17.

Following the opening kickoff by the Rams, Fullerton got a look at the power of the Ram defense and was unable to penetrate the strong forward wall of the Fresno team. FCC took possession of the ball on downs and appeared to be having trouble keeping their men from jumping off-sides. In the first four plays, FCC received two five yard penalties and was unable to make up for the losses, so Fullerton again got the ball.

Knocke Moves

Bill Knocke, speedy Ram half-back, took the Fullerton punt and ran it back thirty yards. From this point on, Fullerton was completely outclassed. The Rams out-ran, out-passed and out-foxed Fullerton to the final gun.

FCC, in a series of fourteen plays with the fine hard charging of halfback Lamont Whittle and fullback George Ward, moved the ball to the Fullerton six yard line, where eagle eyed quarterback Chuck Caldera completed a pass to Knocke in the end zone for the first Ram touchdown. Mike Martin put his toe to the ball for the conversion. FCC lead at the end of the first quarter, 7 to 0.

Rams Threaten

FCC threatened again late in the second quarter after a long drive with Caldera and Dan Stockton tossing completion after completion to ends Mike Christopher and Joe Williams, but the Rams never got further than the Fullerton fourteen yard line.

The only Fullerton threat in the entire game came in the second quarter when Fullerton halfback Leo Ott received a punt from Fresno's Tom Ahajanian and returned it forty-four yards. Ott was the spark plug of the Fullerton team both offensively and defensively.

Fumbles Surprise

Fresno's second touchdown came early in the third quarter. After marching ninety-five yards, the Rams fumbled on the Fullerton five with Fullerton recovering the ball. The situation looked grave, but on the first play Fullerton fumbled and after a hard fought scramble, Fresno tackle, Don Ratliff, came up with the ball on the six yard line of Fullerton. Caldera flipped the ball to hard running halfback Levi Owens who charged into the end zone for the second FCC tally. The conversion attempt, a pass from Caldera to Christopher, failed, leaving the score at 13-0.

Hornet Chased

FCC scored two more points in the fourth quarter when Christopher, aided by guards Ralph York and Joe Capone, chased Fullerton's quarterback, Dalton O'Neal, into his own end zone for a safety.

FCC showed fine running and passing abilities by earning ten first downs rushing and four first downs passing as to three rushing and four passing for Fullerton. The Rams gained on the ground a net yardage of 169 as to 20 yards for the Hornets. Fullerton had 56 yards net passing to Fresno's 68. FCC completed eight of 17 attempted passes and the Hornets completed 10 for 21.

Rams Look For Revenge

TOUGH STOCKTON COLLEGE MUSTANGS TANGLE WITH RAMS IN HOME OPENER

The high riding Fresno City College Ram football team will open its 1960 home season against the tough Stockton College Mustangs at the McLane Stadium Saturday night at 8:00.

The big power house from the Big Eight Conference will be looking for their first win of the season after dropping their opener to the San Francisco JV's 6-0. They will also be gunning for their second consecutive win over the Rams. The Mustangs dumped the Rams 34-18 in a lopsided affair in Stockton last year. The Rams, on the other hand, will be after their second straight win, in as many starts.

The 1960 edition of the Ram football team is broken down and looks like this:

Promising Backfield

At quarterback there is the veteran Dan Stockton and freshman Chuck Caldera, the passing whiz from Sanger High. Both men will alternate at the key spot throughout the season. Caldera was regarded as one of the finest high school quarterbacks to come out of the valley.

At fullback there is a three way battle between Bob Brown, George Ward, and Glen Schmidt. Brown, who is six feet, and weighs 195, started with the first unit against Fullerton and saw a lot of action. Ward and Schmidt are pressing for the starting role, and could crack it open. All three are power type runners.

Depth In Backs

The halfback position is loaded with speed. Explosive runners like veterans Lamont Whittle and Clark Bridgeman are back from last year's team. However, the big punch has been coming from Levi

Owens and Bill Knocke. Knocke, who has plenty of speed, reached the 400 meter finals in the Olympic trials.

The end position appears to be the weakest spot on the Ram team at the present. Veteran Joe Williams and chunky Dewey Belli appear to be the best the Rams have. Letterman Mike Christopher and Steve Hopper could crack into the starting line-up.

Huge Line

Cliff Beagle, 6-6, 240; and Clarence Jarrett, 5-7, 215, add a lot of strength at the tackles. Bob Overstreet, Darnell Ratliff, and Francis Ragghianti, a trio of 200 pounders, add plenty of depth and size in the interior line.

All-Conference guard Eddie Gomes and Ron Cernokos are currently Slaughter's starters at this position. Other guards are Ralph York and Nick Waller.

Carl Gatto, Woody Gregory, and Bob Voorhees are all fighting it out for center. Voorhees, who weighs 215, started against Fullerton last week-end. Gatto and Gregory are lettermen from last year's squad.

The punting will be done by Tom Ahajanian.

FCC HAVE THREE NEW COACHES

Ellis Carrasco, Morgan E. Shelley, and Dan W. Ozier have joined the Fresno City College coaching staff, taking the places of Dick Handely, Paul Pastor, and Ray McCarthy.

Carrasco, who was head football coach at Roosevelt High School last year, will assist head football Coach Clare Slaughter, in handling the backfield chores. Carrasco has coached football at San Joaquin Memorial, Edison, Hanford, and at Roosevelt high schools. He has a record of 45-14-2 as head football coach at all the high schools.

Shelley will resume the coaching work in swimming and water polo vacated by Pastor. Aside from his coaching duties he conducts classes in first aid, health education, and introduction to physical education for PE majors.

Shelley worked with the department of Health and Physical Education in the city schools system before coming to FCC. He received his BS and MA degrees from the University of Oregon where he also took part in football and basketball.

Ozier replaced McCarthy as tennis coach, and will conduct classes in English and speech. Ozier left the Department of Health and Services to take this position.
