

Ramburger Roundup Draws Largest Crowd In History

Hootenanny Draws Praise

By BARBARA EHRENBURGH

Approximately 1800 Fresno City College students attended the Ramburger Round-up held last Friday night to enjoy food, entertainment and the company of old and new friends.

"It was the largest, best Round-up the school has ever had," stated General Chairman Mitchell Bower. "The student council only hopes that the rest of the year will go as well."

Later Arrivers

Many stragglers came at 6 PM to buy tickets for the Round up, and the student council, who had ordered food for a little more than 1100, hurriedly borrowed some from the coffee shop. Of the ramburgers, potato salad, ice cream and pop served during the night, the ice cream was the first to go, according to Bower.

Entertainment began with a number by the pep band. The band was then joined by the new pep girls, who performed a routine. The majorettes displayed their twirling talents and the yell leaders led the crowd in Ram yells.

Inman Perkins, who gave a spirited pep talk, stated, "I'm going to make sure I'm at every game. If each of you will do at least as much as I'm going to do, then we'll have fine spirit."

Folk Singers

The highlight of the evening was a "hootenanny," featuring the Heritage Singers, a folk group from FCC. The clapping hands and stamping feet of the audience accompanied them. Later chairs and tables were folded up and put away and the street dance began. Music was provided by the Renegades.

"I'd like to thank the people who attended for putting the tables and chairs away," said Bower. "Without their help, the student council would have had a big job. Those students helped make the Ramburger Round-up the success that it was. We hope that everyone got to know each other better."

Rooter Buses Will Travel To Reedley

Rally Commissioner Bill Mazzeo announced today that buses will be provided for student transportation to the FCC-Reedley Junior College football game tomorrow evening.

Mazzeo said that students may reserve a seat by paying a one dollar deposit, which will be refunded when the student boards the bus.

Sign-ups should be made no later than Friday noon at the desk set up in the foyer of the student center, concluded Mazzeo.

Accident, Health Student Insurance Deadline Nears

Students' Accident and Sickness Medical Expense Plan Insurance is available to all FCC students in the health center or the counseling center, announced Archie Bradshaw, dean of students.

This insurance is offered to the college student at a fee of $25.00 for one full year, $19.00 for the college year, and $9.50 for the first semester. Under this policy the student is covered on and off campus, day and night. The all-inclusiveness of this plan includes all of the necessary medical benefits, especially to the student who must assume the responsibility of insurance for his own health.

The policy will provide up to $1,000 for medical expenses within one year of the date of an accident. Other benefits of this plan include $18.50 per day for hospital room and board up to 30 days, surgical treatment, medical attention and ambulance service.

The deadline for obtaining this insurance policy is 30 days after the first day of school, or Oct. 15, 1963.

Carty Urges Students To Visit Library, Explains Use

The Fresno City College Library, according to head librarian Jackson Carty, is the "Result of ten years of hard work and careful planning to facilitate college course work and to make easily available the materials containing the ideas and human experiences of our culture."

The library, which is located on University Avenue, south of the administration building, is open from 8 AM to 5 PM, Monday through Friday, and from 6:30 PM to 9:20 PM on Monday through Thursday. Each student planning to use these facilities should register at the Circulation Desk so that he might check out books, Carty said.

Books Cataloged

The card catalog, containing information concerning all of the books on hand and their location is found to the right of the circulation desk. Carty pointed out that books are listed by author and by the Dewey Decimal system.

The general book collection is found through the door behind the circulation desk.

"In this area the student will find books of history, arts, recreation, literature and fiction on the first floor, and books of philosophy, religion, general works and the sciences on the second floor."

The reserve room, Carty said, contains books placed on reserve by instructors for certain courses. These books are available on request from the reserve desk. They may be checked out for 2 hour intervals during the day, and they may be checked out after 4 PM (3 PM on Friday), and are due back by 9 AM on the following day.

Reference Books

Reference books such as encyclopedias, atlases, almanacs, unbound and bound periodicals, dictionaries and newspapers are found in the reference room and they are for student use in the library only.

Pamphlet and vocational files, college catalogs and listening machines, tape recorders and record players may also be found in the library.

Carty and his assistants, Louise Cahn, R. John Wolfenden, Paula Reed and Cecile Kahn, urged students to contact them if they need help in finding materials in the library.

A tentative budget was proposed at a special meeting presided over by Larry Krum, ASB treasurer. The budget was then sent to the student council for approval.

PROGRESS STRIKES ANOTHER BLOW

"I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree."

The tranquil beauty of a solitary tree inspired Joyce Kilmer to pen these immortal lines many years ago. Last week that same tree fell victim to the inevitable axe of mankind, as most trees do, sooner or later, when they stand in the way of our "progress."

Last week another tree was felled, although without ceremony, and, apparently, without regret.

True, no poet ever penned any immortal lines under this tree, and it certainly was no prize botanical specimen, nor could it be called the answer to every photographer's dream. For this tree lived and died on the campuses of Fresno State and Fresno City Colleges.

It stood, as best it could, in front of the Student Center, and its cool shade provided a haven for several generations of weary students.

How many meals were gulped beneath its heavy branches? How many students crammed for final exams there? (And how many suicides were contemplated there in fear of them?) How many families are together now because "he" met "her" beneath the swaying form of the old evergreen?

These, of course, are questions which will never be answered, for who keeps statistics on such things? The only facts and figures involved are those of the designers of the new cafeteria, and they have decreed that there will be no room in the modern new structure for an ugly old piece of firewood!

Of course, no one denies the need for a new cafeteria, nor questions the intentions of its designers, but to those whose standard of values goes beyond the ritual of the all-night party and "sounds of surf," the sight of a chain saw grinding the life out of this misplaced monarch is taken as a bitter pill.

But no tears will be shed over the tragedy, for who cares about the ugly old thing anyway? Obviously only those who write over-sentimental editorials about half-dead trees and have the gall to criticize "surf" music!

May the latter experience the unpleasant fate of the former, and may they both rest in peace!

All the contestants prepared a yell or routine for presentation before the judges.

The requirements were that the contestants must be enrolled in 10 or more academic units and must maintain a "C" average.

All cheerleaders and pep girls were judged on such things as skill, talent, poise and spirit.

The new cheerleaders and pep girls got into action for the first time Saturday night at the first home football game against the Los Angeles City College.

Pep Squad Travels

This week, the pep squad will travel to the Reedley Junior College, the site of the next Ram football game.

Rooters buses will be available for those students who lack transportation. One dollar will reserve a seat for those who plan to attend. The money will be refunded at the game.

The voice of the intellect is a soft one, but it does not rest until it has gained a hearing. This is one of the few points in which one may be optimistic about the future of mankind.

Campus Glances

Rams Night Out By DAVID PACHECO, Feature Editor

It's back to the books again for FCC students with a successful Ramburger roundup past history. The Ramburger roundup was a huge success. Approximately 2,000 attended at one time or another . . . everyone had a big blast as they twisted to the sounds of the Renegades and were catered to by the faculty. One of the few times you will see instructors burn—even if it's Ramburgers! Everyone who had a hand in it deserves praise. Seldom is so much enthusiasm seen on our campus. Keep up the good work.

Saturday night's football game was another sign that FCC school spirit is on the rebound. School spirit has been tabbed as poor in recent years, but not so this year. Attendance at the game was terrific! A very enthusiastic crowd made the first home football game a howling success. Our underdog Rams, responding to rooters cheers, played on even terms with the highly rated Los Angeles City College Cubs for three quarters. With a few breaks the score might have been different. Slaughter's eleven will seek vengeance this week against the Reedley Tigers. Plan to be there.

Remarks overheard on that other campus across town . . . "Are you going to a junior col-sand-box or advanced bead-craft." That college has got to go!

Do not despair, fellow students, with diminishing grades and advancing years (veterans, disregard) a new way to keep khaki off your back has been invented. Thanks to the President you have a brand new way to beat the dreaded draft. In one word, matrimony. For two dollars, a gold band, and a few seemingly harmless words, you can avert two years of Fun-In-The-Foxhole and gain a playmate for a lifetime of bliss. So, gentlemen, don't look upon a little brunette as merely a starry-eyed date. Look upon her as the next best thing to a 4-F classification! Now that you know the facts, make your choice. College is your only salvation you must either study, or start holding hands.

CONFIDENTIAL . . . According to an exclusive medical survey, the average American college man's dream girl is a 5'6", well-stacked, blond, sterile, deaf and dumb, affectionate girl with at least $100,000 in the bank.

CWAZY AWARD OF THE WEEK . . . Goes to baseball's N.Y. Mets, for refusing to bring professionalism to a game that is ideally meant to be lots of fun.

Oops, ran out of space, again.

Job Placement Office Offers Part-Time Jobs

Among the many divisions of Fresno City College is the job placement division, located at Technical and Industrial Building 100 on campus.

This division, primarily under the supervision of Dorothy Ediger, celebrated its first anniversary Aug. 27.

Last year it placed an average of 108 students monthly on part-time or full-time jobs and this year has begun even better with a constant increase for job openings and students applying for these openings.

The hours that this division is available are 9-12 AM and 1-5 PM daily five days a week. It will also be open from 6-7:30 PM every Monday and Tuesday evening starting Sept. 30 for anyone interested but particularly for those attending night classes.

The jobs most commonly available are ones for such persons as: electronics trainees, draftsmen, bus boys, bell boys, office workers, ushers, caddies, waitresses, service station attendants, and resort workers.

Mrs. Ediger and Mr. Wriley expressed their great appreciation to the employers who have been so co-operative in helping to make this a success and great tribute to the students at Fresno City College.

Students Discuss Ban on Travel To Red Island

San Francisco State

Five SF State students who went to Cuba despite the State Department's ban on travel to that country described their experiences and announced hopes of making another trip in a panel discussion last week.

They told an audience of about 300 supporters, opponents and curious that their decision to visit the island was "based on a moral decision by individuals."

Feeling that the State Department's ban is immoral, the students decided to commit an "act of defiance."

Diablo Valley College, Concord

Two students who were on the forbidden trip to Cuba also spoke on this campus. John Milton and Thomas Davis, both of San Francisco, were brought to DVC by the Forum for the Exploration of Social and Political Affairs.

San Diego City College

Sixty-five students roughed it up Palomar Mountain last month to participate in SDCC's fourth annual Leadership Conference at Camp Palomar.

The conference, hailed as one of the best in the school's history, was opened with a keynote speech by Dr. Robert Humbert, SDCC instructor.

College of Marin, Kentfield

Three of four College of Marin class representatives were elected last week.

The undecided position is sophomore women's representative as none of the three candidates for the position received a majority vote.

A public relations committee, headed by a former editor of the college newspaper, The Tower Times, to promote activities of the College of Marin through publicity. The committee includes a forum, a news bureau and a research committee.

University of the Pacific, Stockton

James H. Merideth, Army veteran and the first Negro graduate of the University of Mississippi, spoke at Pacific's conservatory recently.

Merideth was in Stockton at the request of the Emmanuel Baptist Church and was invited to speak at UOP. The conservatory was packed by students interested in his speech.

Enrollment Tops 6000 For New All Time High

Student enrollment at FCC this semester rose to over the 6000 mark to set a new all-time record.

Dean of Admissions George C. Holstein said that the new figure of 6,019 (day and night classes combined) represents an increase of nearly 400 over last semester.

When broken down into day and evening divisions, Holstein noted that the 3,551 day students and 2,468 night students indicates that the margin of difference between the two figures is slowly diminishing, a trend probably due to the increasing popularity of night classes among working people.

Holstein said that the projected enrollment figure for 1970 is nearly 10,000, including nearly 6000 full-time students.

In order to cope with the "population explosion" due largely to the onslaught of "war babies," FCC is currently involved in a long range program of expansion and improvement.

Included in the plans is the tentative formation of the joint junior college district, which would remove FCC from the jurisdiction of the Fresno City Schools. It would thereafter be affiliated with Reedley Junior College.

Already under construction on the FCC campus is a new cafeteria, and money has been set aside by the student council for the remodeling and re-furnishing of the Student Union building.

Coach Finds Formula For Tigers

McCall Wrecks FCC Rams 7-3, Reedley Bombs San Jose Jags

By DON FOSTER
Sports Editor

What does it take to win football games? Fresno City College head coach Clare Slaughter thinks he has come up with the solution.

"All you need is a quarterback like (LACC's Spencer) Washington and a halfback like (Don) McCall (also, LACC). Then you don't have to worry about winning. McCall won the game (Saturday's) by himself."

Slaughter wasn't saying the words as an apology for his team's 7-3 loss at the hands of visiting Los Angeles City College — but maybe more as a Christmas gift idea for FCC.

What lost the game: "They scored more points than we did," said Slaughter honestly, possibly meaning that both teams played on an even basis except for LACC's four extra points.

last weekend at SJCC. The northern city Jags didn't quite make the Rams visit so pleasant. The goats became goats after their 28-6 humiliation.

But as it might turn out, FCC may not be in as bad shape as it might appear after the Tiger-Jaguar decision, due to the fact that RJC pass and run end sweeps mostly from their Pro T formation.

The Rams are strong in the defensive secondary and defensive end spots.

Ron Cox and Frank Kerby, both standouts defensively, stole two tosses Saturday from the long throwing and accurate arm of Cub signal caller Washington.

Both defenders, plus additional protectors, will have to stop Tiger end John Williams, who snatched three scoring passes against San Jose.

The ground attack for FCC has been carried by fullback John Bronson, halfbacks Ken Long, Fresno City College weight averages are 197 and 179 pounds for the line and backfield respectively. Reedley Junior College averages 186 in the line and 184 in the backfield. The offensive units as a whole weigh—FCC 188 per man; RJC 185 per man.

Blehm—Big Mistake

Although coach Slaughter was satisfied with his team's showing, there was one glaring mistake made by rookie quarterback Roger Blehm, who is depicted for future stardom by his coaches.

Blehm, a grid star at Kerman High, heaved a high floating pass right into the arms of LACC safetyman Jim Copeland at the most inopportune time — FCC leading 3-0 with only 5:15 left in the game and on a first down.

The interception led to McCall's 41 yard six-pointer.

Just moments before the pass, the Rams had gambled on a fourth and one situation sending Ounjian five yards up the middle, picking up the first down and allowing the locals to keep possession of the pigskin.

During the time LACC had the ball, 9.7 dashman McCall clicked away 109 yards on the ground and caught the only complete pass out of nine tosses for 16 yards.

In 104 Degree Heat

Thinclads Topple Foe In Reedley Tri-Meet

Coach Erwin Ginsburg and his Fresno City College Harriers trotted off with the first cross country meet of the season by defeating the College of the Sequoias of Visalia junior varsity and Reedley College in Reedley Friday.

The meet was not a valley conference meet, but Fresno came out on top in the triangular meet. Because of the 104 degree heat, the course was shortened from 3 miles to 2½ miles. Out of the top ten finishers, Fresno took second, third, fourth, fifth and seventh places.

Reedley Takes First

Jim Kaprielian, former Sanger star and now running for Reedley took first place honors with an excellent time of 13 minutes, 19 seconds.

Second place went to Larry Stocks of Fresno with a time of 14 minutes and 13 seconds.

Other finishers were Pete Fekete, third, 14:25; Bob Van Ingen, fourth, 14:27; and Ron Smith, fifth, 14:29.

Coleman Best Finisher

The best finisher of the C.O.S. team was Norm Coleman, who was ninth at a time of 15:15.

On October 4, the Fresno Harriers will travel to Modesto for the conference preliminary get-together trial run.

Coach Ginsburg will be looking for another strong showing from his Rams.

The Yard Stick

Total Yards King Bronson Gains 43

John Bronson, replacing dropped fullback Odis Murdock, gained 37 of the team's 43 yards in the second half of Saturday's Ram-Cub contest to pace the Ram running offense in FCC's 7-3 loss to Los Angeles City College.

VERIFICATION

It should be known, according to coach Clare Slaughter, that every Monday at 2 PM Fresno City College junior varsity scrimmages the Fresno City College frosh-JVs.

"Two FSC mothers called the FCC gym Monday and asked where the Rams were going to play the FSC Bullpups," reported Slaughter to the Rampage, asking the facts to be publicized for those who think like the two FSC women.

The truth is that Don "Kloppy" Kloppenburg, head line coach, puts all the yearlings that didn't get to play the previous contest against Bullpup and FSC JV head knockers, not the Ram first string versus the FSC frosh.
