ASB Hopefuls Vie In Election Tomorrow

Tomorrow voters will go to the polls to vote for their new student body officers.

Only one office out of 16 will be contested, that of associated student president. All other names will appear singly on the ballot.

Write-In

A three way race for president should add some color to an otherwise dull springtime campaign. Harold Eric (Rick) Comstock and Raymond Bay, Jr. will vie for the top office, with Frederick W. Wrightson, III holding a "Henry Cabot Lodge" type of write in campaign.

The rest of the office seekers, are Jerralynn (Suzi) Holloman, running for vice president; JoAnn Tuck, secretary; Myra Aten, treasurer; Barbara Ehrenburg, Associated Women Students president, and David Turner, Associated Men Students president. Margo Darnell is a write in candidate for AWS president.

Running for the ten posts of representative-at-large are Ronald Primavera, Joseph Golden, Dixie Sinkovits, Marihelen Thomas, Edith Hughes, Maurice Joy and Jeanne Banta. Write in campaigners are Ted Smith and James Shipman.

cil will be installed and awards will be presented to the retiring members.

"More responsibility should lie with the students," says Comstock, presidential hopeful. He feels that the student body controls should be shifted from the hands of the administration to those of the students.

Comstock, presently a representative-at-large on the student council, is also a member of the AMS and Freshman Class commissioner of publicity and public relations.

Ray Bay, Jr. is the second candidate. His motto is "To make millions safe and happy." He is presently the freshman class president and represents his class at the student council.

Pictures of the candidates will again appear on the ballots, according to Marihelen Thomas, commissioner of elections. The new ballots were initiated in the last student body election to promote spirit and participation.

"With pictures on the ballots the students can associate the name with the face," said Miss Thomas. "We are hoping for a big turnout tomorrow."

Three Polls

The polls will be open from 9 AM to 3 PM, with voting booths located in the student center, the main foyer of the administration building and in front of the library.

Results of the election will be announced in the student bulletin on Monday. The results will also be posted on the door of the student president's office.

Tuesday evening the new council will join the old council at the Del Webb Townhouse for the annual student council banquet. At that time, the new coun-

FIVE COLLEGES CONVENE FOR P-TO-P CONCLAVE

Representatives from five junior colleges will converge upon the campus Saturday when Fresno City College's chapter of People-to-People hosts an all-day international relations conference.

Foreign students and People-to-People members from colleges of Area Five of the California Junior College Student Government Association will be those attending the conference.

The day will be divided into periods starting with the morning general assembly at which Archie Bradshaw, dean of instruction, will present the welcoming address and Tony Babb, regional director of PTP, will tell of the purposes of the conference. After the assembly a series of workshops will be held so that students can discuss various topics and problems in an informal atmosphere.

A recreation period including swimming and sports will precede a noon barbecue. Following lunch there will be more workshops and finally another general assembly during which the day's activities and discussions will be recapped.

The workshops and chairmen for the parley are public relations, Jerralynn (Suzi) Holloman; orientation to the campus, Samsudin Habib; activities of PTP on campus, Rodrigo (Rudy) Dar; ambassadors, Carol Cloves; and hosting foreign students, Kathleen Murphy.

Frederick W. Wrightson III, chairman of the FCC PTP organization, is general chairman for the conference. Assisting him is Miss Holloman. Jan Kahn will serve as the recreation chairman and lifeguard.

Student Invited To Meet, Talk To Au. H₂O, Jr.

Charles J. Wilkins, chairman of the Fresno County Youth for Goldwater campaign, has invited Fresno City College students to meet Barry M. Goldwater, Jr. at the new Youth for Goldwater headquarters this Saturday at 11 AM.

Goldwater, Jr. will be in Fresno for the GOP's picnic at Kearney Park. Prior to the picnic, he will speak at Ashlan Park shopping center.

The youth headquarters is located at 1407 N. Van Ness Ave.

Journalists Host High School Scribes At Saturday Confab

Student journalists from three valley high schools gathered at Fresno City College last Saturday afternoon to get a closer look at college journalism.

The group participated in publications, workshops and competed in feature, sports and editorial writing contests.

Workshops were headed by editors of the three FCC publications, the newspaper, magazine and yearbook.

Participating high schools were

Chowchilla Union, Sanger Union and Laton Joint Union.

Recruiting Program

The prime purpose of the conference, according to Charles Wright, editor-in-chief of the FCC Rampage and coordinator of the program, was to attempt to recruit high school students interested in journalism.

"The students were shown reasons for continuing journalism in college," Wright said, "which will improve the quality of college publications by recruiting more experienced staffs."

Registration for the students began at 1 PM in the newspaper office. Visitors then gathered in the student lounge for an official opening session.

Awards

Awards to winners of the three writing contests climaxed the program.

Tim Welch, FCC journalism advisor and Rampage advisor, was in charge of the session.

COUNCIL RESPONSIBLE FOR APATHY AT FCC

Why does the council hold the students responsible for the apathy shown at Fresno City College? The primary responsibility of those elected to Associated Student Body offices is to create school spirit and interest in campus activities.

It is not up to the students to bring enthusiasm and spirit to student council so the student government members can carry out their jobs.

Having watched council with an eagle eye for the best part of this semester, we have witnessed some very apathetic council meetings. Some of their meetings were so very uninteresting that we had to strain to stay awake. The student council here at FCC seems to be more concerned with setting up a budget than with creating school spirit. We realize a budget is needed but we also realize that spirit is needed just as badly. Are council members therefore justified in laying the blame at the feet of the students?

Tomorrow there will be an election here at FCC. The main reason for the election is to choose the very best possible people for ASB offices. How can we have the best when better than half of the people are running unopposed. We sincerely hope the students running for office are doing so not because they feel the school needs them to fill an unopposed position, but because they want to serve their school and help FCC obtain a new spirit. One they evidently have gone without for quite sometime.

Teens Fight Mental Illness

By JEANNE BANTA
Rampage Staff Writer

Can you spare one hour out of 8,766? That's all it takes per year to be a TAMI (Teens Against Mental Illness).

The fund drive, which requires only one hour per person and a 50 cent donation from each home, will be held Monday evening, May 25, from about 5:30 to 6:30 PM. It is sponsored by the board of directors of the Mental Health Association in Fresno.

The late President John F. Kennedy was very interested in improving facilities for caring for and curing the mentally ill because a member of his family was affected by this disease. His message to Congress is being used to interest the people in this fund drive.

The fund drive is being conducted all over the country and there has been a tremendous response. The money collected in Fresno will go to providing adequate facilities for which there is a desperate need. At the Valley Children's Hospital, the guidance center is two months behind because of lack of proper facilities.

The local chapter of the Mental Health Association is set up to disseminate information and offer aid. It is a group of public-spirited, well-known citizens whose only source of funds is provided by this drive.

The fire departments will be acting as supervisory captains.

Artists, Scribes Honor Potpourri

The advisors and staff of Fresno City College's literary magazine, "Potpourri," will be honored at a meeting Sunday, May 24 of the California Writers and Artists of the San Joaquin Valley at 2:30 PM at the Fresno Arts Center, 3033 East Yale Avenue. The public is invited.

Robert Shaver, "Potpourri" writing advisor, will participate in a panel discussion on the "little magazine" chairmaned by Thomas Liggett of Bakersfield, the editor and publisher of "California Crossroads." They will be joined by Joseph A. King of Visalia, the advisor to "Tangent" of the College of Sequoias; Brother Arnold, F. S. C., the advisor to "The Ink-horn," San Joaquin Memorial High School and Jim Merzon, the editor of "Backwash," Fresno State College.

Reflection In The Glass

By DENNIS JACOBY
Rampage Columnist

I WOULD SURE like to know where the paper and mimeograph machine used by the two people running for that highly esteemed office of ASB president came from. The paper was probably picked up in the student council office and the machine was probably the one that sits behind the door in the same office. As long as these people use equipment and supplies furnished by the school they won't have to worry about going over the fifteen dollar limit. Every poster they have put up to date has been run off on the mimeograph machine . . . I really love originality, don't you?

THE PREMIERE of "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World" will be sponsored by the Newman Clubs of FCC and FSC, Saturday night, May 30, at Warner's Cinema Theatre. The proceeds derived by the FCC Newman Club will go towards defraying the expense of some of the appliances for our new cafeteria. The tickets may be purchased from any active member of the Newman Club, the Academy Guild Library (Fresno at McKinley) the Newman Centre on Barstow (can't miss it, a really beautiful building), or in the student president's office at FSC. The stars of this highly publicized flick are Spencer Tracy, Milton Berle, Sid Caesar, Buddy Hackett, Ethel Merman, Phil Silvers, Mickey Rooney and Terry Thomas (hope I didn't miss anyone). Tickets are only $3 so why not buy ten or twelve of them and help pay for some new appliances.

YELLOW PAGES: The other day while thumbing through our used, abused, worn and torn phone book I decided to do a little counting . . . and guess what? There are exactly 91 taverns, 109 liquor stores, 92 cocktail lounges, and 16 night clubs listed in the yellow pages of Mr. Bell's directory. Add them all up and you arrive at the grand total of 308. So I then decided to count the churches and much to my dismay I decided that Fresno might not be the ideal place to raise the youngsters; there are only 178 churches listed in this years' edition of the telephone book. Now, I realize that this decision may be contested by a few, but gosh darn, the whole idea of liquor establishments outnumbering churches really makes a person shudder . . . but I'm still not saying it is bad. It sure makes one stop and think, doesn't it?

BIG HAPS: There will be some very big happenings next Tuesday evening when the student council has their annual awards banquet. Although they are required to wear their beautiful blazers I will go out on a limb and predict a very big turnout (attendance is mandatory). The highlight of the evening will probably be seeing who gets council's treasured Outstanding Leadership Award. I have two bits that says this year's winner will be a female. I hope they hand out Robert's Rules of Order books to those members who will be returning next year, and maybe a few for those who are newly elected officers would be nice also. They certainly need them and I am sure they will be put to good use. . . .

OUR OUTSTANDING sports editor received an invitation to attend the Annual Spring Sports Awards Banquet next Monday evening. The invitation was addressed to Bill Hord who was the sports editor of the Rampage in 1962-63. Now come on guys, we all know that the sports editor of this rag is George Kuempel, so come to the party, troops. The invitation was dated May 14, 1974 . . . I guess they are not even sure of the date.

FILLERSVILLE: Jan Kahn received his registration card from the local draft board, he has been classified IIS. Only one catch to this student deferment, it expires next month . . . good luck, Jan. I hear wedding bells in the distance. It looks as if Jeanne Vincent and C. S. Bain just might make the big leap in the near future (I sure hope I don't get sued for the last little tidbit). The journalism conference here at FCC last Saturday was termed as a big success by all of those in attendance (and there were darn few in attendance).

JACKIE REIGNS OVER FORMAL

Ken Kilday and Lynda Regehr dance at the spring formal.

By JOHN REYNOLDS

Rampage Staff Writer

More than 1,000 students were present at the Fresno City College Spring Formal last Friday night in the Hacienda's Las Vegas Room.

"They had something to offer the students, for a change!" said Eric (Rick) Comstock, representative-at-large and ASB presidential candidate. This remark was made in reference to the number of students who attended the affair.

Jackie Clark, reigning AMS Queen, received her second official title within three weeks — she is now the 1964 Spring Formal Queen.

The dance, sponsored jointly by AMS and AWS, featured the famous Latin-American music of Perez Prado and his orchestra. Mambos were the featured style of the evening.

According to an observing student, "All those who attended packed the two circular dance floors, and danced everything from the mambo to waltzes, including the stumbling two-step to the pathetic polka."

There was intermission entertainment featuring the BobTom-Lee Trio singing folk songs and spiritual numbers. "I thought that they were by far the outstanding musical highlight of the evening," reflected Dennis Jacoby, Rampage Columnist and News Editor.

SPRING QUEEN — A new school tradition was set Friday at the annual Spring Formal with the crowning of a spring queen. Jackie Clark, shown above, was the recipient of the new title. Miss Clark was elected AMS queen last month and was sponsored for the spring crown by that organization. (Miki Photo)

Job Seekers Have Business Industry Day

The first in an annual series, Business and Industry Occupations Day was well attended last Tuesday, May 12.

According to Dorothy Ediger, coordinator of the program, approximately 150 interviews were conducted. 124 students attended, 80 of whom received one or more interviews on that day. The balance of the students are being taken care of individually through the placement center.

The students who attended Business Occupations Day were primarily from the technical divisions. Most of these students will graduate this semester.

"The results of Business and Industry Occupations Day will not be completely known until after June 12," said Mrs. Ediger. This is because most of the jobs being applied for are permanent positions, and will not be filled until after the semester is completed.

According to Mrs. Ediger, one direct result of this operation that has evidenced itself already is that many employers are calling the placement office to request applicants for other jobs. The type of worker most called for now is men in the field of sales and technical fields.

One of the reasons this event will be repeated is that many employers have called to request that it be held again in the Spring, and in the Fall as well.

"One of the main advantages of this method of interviewing is that it gives the student a chance to talk to the employer at school, in familiar surroundings," said Mrs. Ediger. "This keeps the student from being quite as nervous as he might be otherwise."

Mr. Kop then came back to team up with Dale McGowan to win their first three contests in straight sets then they had to go the full route to win the doubles crown as they crushed the team of Bacon 4-6, 6-4, 6-3 to capture the coveted doubles crown.

Foothill's Owis scored a total of eight points as compared to 7 for El Camino, 5 for CCSF and 4 for San Diego City with the rest of the field trailing.

RAMS SLAY TAFT NINE; FACE NORCAL PLAYOFFS

By DON MENCARINI
Rampage Sports Writer

Led by pitcher Tom Seaver and second baseman Don Reinero, the Fresno City College Rams wiped up Taft College last Monday afternoon, 9-0, to qualify for the Northern California baseball playoffs at Santa Rosa.

Tomorrow the Rams will play San Jose City College for the right to meet the winner of the Vallejo-Santa Rosa game. The final game will be played on Saturday to determine the winner of the Northern California tournament. The Northern California winner will meet the Southern champ in the south, May 29th and 30th, for the state championship.

Like everyone expected, the game started off by being a pitching duel between Tom Seaver of Fresno, and Butch Boyett of Taft. Fresno, limited to one run and only three hits over the first five innings by the Taft ace, exploded for six runs in the sixth off the Cougar lefthander to salt away the victory for the breezing Seaver.

Saever Fans Ten

Seaver struck out 10 batters in the seven innings he pitched and gave up five hits. Seaver, the winningest hurler in VC action with a 7-2 mark, had little trouble with the CCJCA champs.

Reinero was the number two punch for the Rams against Taft. The lead-off hitter hit three singles, stole three bases, drove in one run and scored a run. Number 22 was also all over the field making some spectacular plays.

Fresno scored what proved to be the winning run in the third inning. Power hitting Seaver led off with a fly ball triple to right field. Boyett came back to get Don Reinero on a grounder to first and then when George Monreal hit a fly to right field, Seaver tagged up and scored on a good throw by the right fielder.

Pitching Duel

From there, Seaver and Boyett duelled on even terms until the big Ram sixth inning. After Jim Teter grounded out, Bob Schanze sliced a single to right and moved up on a passed ball. After Brendon Ounjian popped out, Seaver worked Boyett for a walk.

Home Run

With Miller on third, Ross Moschitto hit a 370 foot home run over the left center field wall making the score 7-0, at the end of six innings.

Fresno scored their final runs of the day when sure fielding third baseman Jim Teter opened the inning with a single to right, (Teter has done a terrific job this year with the bat and in the hot corner position) and Schanze ripped a double over the third base bag. Sacrifice flies by Ounjian and Seaver scored Teter and Schanze for the eighth and ninth runs of the day.

The Rams reeled off two double plays behind Seaver to kill any Taft hopes for rallies.

Rams Set Meet Records

Five FCC Cinder Stars Qualify For State Meet

By DAVID R. PACHECO
Rampage Sports Writer

Five Fresno City College spikers emerged from the cold wind-blown rain at the Northern California Junior College Track and Field Championships at Santa Rosa last Saturday afternoon to qualify for the California State Championships this Saturday in Modesto, starting at 1 PM.

Sophomore Houston Williamson, double winner in the long jump and triple jump at the NorCal meet, will lead FCC's five man cinder contingent competing for honors in six events at the Cal State Meet.

Coach Edwin Ginsburg's qualifiers include Williamson, speedy 120 high hurdler Al Williams, hot and cold pole vaulter Dan Stone, ace high jumper Tyrone Powell, and sophomore 330 intermediate hurdles ace Fred (Tex) Teixeira.

Coach Ginsburg, a veteran of 35 years of track coaching, led his Ram cindersmen to a fourth place finish at the NorCal Championships. Oakland City College's powerful track squad, dethroning defending champion College of the Sequoias, trotted off with the team title with 78 points, followed by COS, 64½ College of San Mateo, 63, and Fresno City College, 44.

Fresno's Spikers, edging the powerful T-Birds in total firsts three to two, made a strong showing at the NorCal meet by taking three first places, in the long jump, triple jump, and the pole vault.

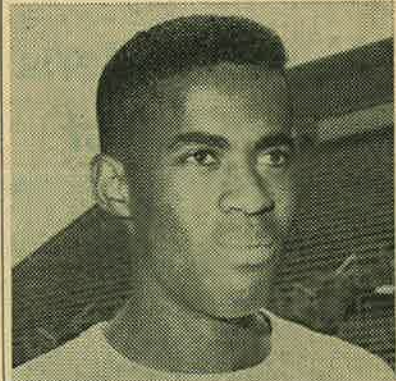

FCC's thinclads appeared to have the "jump" over other Northern California track and field squads in the rain splattered gold fish bowl stadium at Santa Rosa. Fresno dominated all the jumping events, winning all of them, except the high jump which Tyrone Powell tied at the winning height, but lost on fewer misses.

The top four finishers in each event at the NorCal Championships, combined with the first four finishers at the Southern California Track and Field Championships, qualified for the state JC meet. The state meet, offering the top JC talent in the state, will crown the state's best track squad and individual performers in each event. A new state champ is anticipated, since the defending champion Long Beach City College, is not considered a major track power. Oakland CC, winner of the NorCal meet, and Santa Ana, winner of the Southern Cal meet, are the co-favorites. Other contenders for the title include COS, San Mateo, and Los Angeles Valley. Fresno, Pierce, and Reedley JC are seen as darkhorse title aspirants.

Fresno's versatile performer, Williamson, made sure he would make his second straight trip to the state meet his best by winning the long jump with a jump of 23 feet, 8½ inches, to outduel pre-meet favorite Gary Ard of Modesto's Pirates, who bounced 24-9½ to win the West Coast Relays.

FCC's speedy high hurdler Al Williams, owner of one of the seven meet records posted with a 14.5 clocking in the trials, placed third to San Mateo's Al Rockwell who flashed over the 42 inch barriers in 14.6 time. Oakland T-Bird Abe Johnson placed second at 14.6, followed by Williams, also 14.6.

Dan Stone, first Ram to vault 14 feet, vaulted 14½' to break his own school record enroute to winning first place. Stone, challenged by San Mateo's Pat Bedford, who cleared the same height, was declared the winner by the referee's decision. Bedford was unable to meet Stone in a vaultoff for first spot as he was injured attempting to clear 14-6.

Ram intermediate hurdler Teixeira earned his second trip to the state meet by placing fourth in a fleet field, clocking 39.1. T-Bird Johnson, set a meet record time of 38.4, followed by COS's Dave White, 38.8, and Rockwell, 38.9.
